Walsh Warns Trade Pact Breeds Rebellion

THE WEATHER

Cloudy and warmer today, with probable rain late this afternoon or tonight; Wednesday cloudy and warmer, with probable rain; lowest temperature tonight in middle 30's; moderate fresh easterly winds.

Sun rises, 5:57; sun sets, 5:50.
High tides, 10:25 a. m.; 10:49 p. m.

8 A. M. TEMPERATURES

BOSTON	29	New York	34
Washington	38	Los Angeles	50
Chicago	32	San Francisco	52

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER
The only Boston evening newspaper with direct news services—from Associated Press and International News Service

VOL. XXXIV—No. 301
Copyright, 1938, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co. Entered as second-class matter at Boston Postoffice.
TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1938
PRICE 3 CENTS

7★ SPORTS STOCKS CLOSING PRICES

AUSTRIA JEWS LOSE VOTE; HITLER HINTS MARCH EAST

Warns U. S. Arm To Save S. America

By ROBERT HUMPHREYS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 15—Picturing the South American nations as the "greatest temptation to Europe's marching dictatorships," Representative James Wadsworth (R.) of New York today told the House the United States must arm to protect its Monroe Doctrine.

Denouncing what he termed "this philosophy of force," the New Yorker warned the House that "eventually expansion of these dictatorships will reach the Western Hemisphere just as sure as we are sitting here."

DICTATORSHIP MARCHING

He strongly urged that the House approve the pending billion-dollar naval expansion bill, asserting:

"The cost of defense is infinitely less than the cost of failure and defeat."

"Dictatorships are on the march," Wadsworth declared. "Their greatest temptation is the countries of South America.

"Eventually expansion by these dictatorships will reach the western hemisphere and when it

Continued on Page 5, Column 1

—HUMANIZE WAR—

Relief in 1933-37 Cost 19 Billion

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—The cost of relief in the United States for 1933-1937, inclusive, was $19,303,000,000, the Senate Unemployment Committee heard today.

Stuart A. Rice, chairman of the Central Statistical Board, told the committee the Federal government had spent $14,219,000,000 of this amount. State and local governments expended the remainder.

The committee also heard from Director Robert Fechner, a recommendation for making the Civilian Conservation Corps a permanent establishment. The present CCC authorization will expire July 1, 1940.

Fechner testified that, while he believed unemployment would be relieved soon, the country would face the problem of providing jobs for young men for several years.

—STOP SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS—

Balances and Receipts

WASHINGTON, March 15

Treasury Balance	$3,071,505,895
U. S. Customs Receipts	$10,818,557

LOST SOMETHING?

AT 1:15 P. M.

each day all lost and found ads, advertised in the columns of the Boston American and the Sunday Advertiser are broadcast, without charge. For details, call Miss James at Liberty 4000.

Station WCOP

Ghost Towns Over N. E.:

'Rebellion Looms In Pacts'---Walsh

Senator, R. I. Head, Mayors in Fight At Washington

By JAMES F. McENANEY
Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 15—"Rebellion!"

That's what will happen if the proposed British trade pact is adopted, United States Senator David I. Walsh declared here today.

Walsh warned the committee for reciprocity information that the proposed pact will result in the wrecking of New England's industries, the pauperizing of its cities, and layoffs and wage cuts for hundreds of thousands of its wage-earners.

"It is better to take these protests from New England under consideration now," the senator warned the committee, "then to have rebellion afterwards."

President Roosevelt, Senator Walsh declared, will be held personally responsible for the harm done if the British treaty is adopted.

"The President has to bear the consequences of any error made in this," Senator Walsh told the committee. "Congress won't be blamed, but he will. Any mistake made by this committee not only will harm Massachusetts and New England, but other sections of the country likewise.

"This committee should be doubly careful not to transfer to the President, who relies on it for information, the cyclonic effect of any errors."

Great Britain, now so eagerly seeking to have American tariff barriers lowered so that she can

Continued on Page 2, Column 1

Gov. Hurley to Leave For Capital, Says Situation Grave

Governor Hurley today announced he is leaving for Washington tonight "to aid in solving the most critical problem that has confronted Massachusetts industry in a generation"—the proposed trade pact with Great Britain.

The trade pact, under discussion at a Washington hearing, "will ruin our textile industry if signed," the governor declared.

At the same time former Representative Alexander F. Sullivan of East Boston filed a resolve with the House of Representatives calling upon President Roosevelt to remove Secretary of State Cordell Hull from office "because of his failure to protect American business and industry."

TERMS MATTER CRITICAL

Governor Hurley declared:

"The matter is critical. I feel confident, with the aid of U. S. Senators Walsh and Lodge and the members of Congress, the administration will act to prevent these pacts and thus save our industry and thousands of jobs for our citizens."

The pacts, as proposed by Secretary of State Hull, would lower tariffs on textile products.

In filing his resolve, the former East Boston representative said:

"According to Secretary of State Hull, it is more important to keep workers of Great Britain and other European countries employed than to return our people to gainful employment.

"Our people must arouse themselves to the great danger which confronts them and to assure themselves of a decent wage, free from the curse of cheap European labor."

18 1-2 Hole Bids Asked by City

Wright Club to Sell Beer, Wine, Food

There will be a 19th hole—well, anyway, an 18½ hole—at the George Wright public golf course in Hyde Park.

This was revealed today when park department officials said bids are soon to be asked for the restaurant concession there.

The successful bidder will be allowed to serve beer and wines—but no liquors—similar to the concession at Franklin Park.

It is expected the course will be opened April 190, with the restaurant available soon afterward.

N. Y. Solon Asks Wall St. Probe

ALBANY, N. Y., March 15 (AP)—Legislative investigation of the New York Stock Exchange to study "apparent startling acts of fraud and corruption" was proposed today in New York's Legislature.

Democratic Senator Thomas F. Burchill, New York city, introduced a resolution calling for an inquiry as the result of the recent failure of Richard Whitney & Co. Whitney pleaded guilty yesterday to grand larceny in the theft of $105,000.

The resolution, which asked a $25,000 appropriation, was referred to the Senate finance committee.

Tropical Park Race Results

EARLY CHARTS AND RACE RESULTS ON PAGE 18

SECOND RACE—Purse $800; claiming; three-year-old maidens. Six furlongs.

1—Cave Hill
2—Country Lass
3—Brogan
4—Lignum Vitae
5—Seyralphasm
6—Blue Flame
7—Head Mistress
8—Maetake
9—Swift Spot
10—Jane K.
11—Don Cossack
12—Pumpgun

Scratched—Pine Frills, Puddle s, Twilight Tryst, Taxi, Mister Jocko, Town Car.

First Second Third

WomanDies In Leap Off Bridge

An unidentified woman leaped from West Boston bridge into the Charles river today — and was strangled to death with a looped sash cord which she had pulled tight around her neck.

Passing motorists witnessed her plunge, and one of them, George O. Marcoux, 36, James street, Malden, was lowered from the bridge with a rope, and succeeded in reaching the woman's body.

It was not until the body had been drawn back up onto the bridge that it was realized that she was dead, not by drowning, but by reason of the sash-cord pulled tight about her throat.

CORD SLIP-PROOF

The sash-cord was ingeniously arranged so that it could be pulled tight and, once having been tightened, could not slip or loosen.

A deformed nose, the result of an old injury in which part of the nasal bone was removed, is the only outstanding feature of the dead woman that might enable relatives and friends to bring about her identification. It was found at the Northern Mortuary.

WORE NO JEWELRY

There were no distinguishing marks on her clothing, she wore no jewelry and there was nothing in her pockets except a Boston Elevated transfer issued at the South Station.

The woman was apparently between 45 and 48 years old, of dark complexion with gray hair. She wore a black coat and black dress, and a black hat was found on the bridge.

Hyman Koch, Blue Hill avenue, told of seeing the woman leap from the bridge.

"She was walking across the bridge from the direction of Cambridge," Koch related. "She was walking on the 'wrong' side—that is, against the Cambridge-bound traffic.

"About the center of the bridge, she hesitated a moment, then turned, climbed the railing and jumped over."

—HUMANIZE WAR—

Prayer Fails Dole Recipient, Jailed

CONCORD, N. H., March 15 (AP)—Elwin C. Cilley, 27, today was sentenced to 30 days in jail for refusing to work out his city relief check. While his case was being considered, Cilley sat in court and prayed audibly.

He was arrested on orders of city officials who said he refused to work yesterday when the first group of relief recipients went out. He has four children.

—HUMANIZE WAR—

Tobin Will Work On 1938 Budget

Mayor Tobin today announced that he will cancel all appointments starting tomorrow to devote himself exclusively to work on the 1938 budget.

The mayor said that he hoped to be able to send the completed budget to the City Council early in April.

—STOP SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS—

Donovan, Glass Man, Dies

TOLEDO, O., March 15 (AP)—William F. Donovan, 75, early glass manufacturer here, died today after an illness of a year. He was born in Cambridge, Mass., and was associated with the Libbey Glass interests in the east.

Death Wins

Heroism in Vain on Bridge

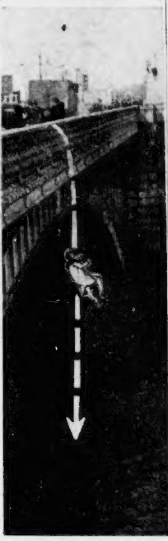

Diagram indicates the spot from which a woman leaped from the West Boston Bridge into the Charles river to her death today. She was dead when her body was recovered.

George Ollie Marcoux of Malden, who made a heroic attempt to save the woman's life. Leaping from his auto he obtained a rope from a passing truck, slid down the rope and recovered the body.

Fuehrer in Plane Flight Back Home

ITALIAN ARMY IN BIG SPAIN WAR DRIVE

BULLETINS

PARIS, March 15 (AP)—The newspaper Le Temps, which is close to the French Foreign Office, said tonight that "rumors of negotiations between the Republican (Spanish government) authorities at Barcelona and Nationalist (insurgent) authorities reached Paris early this afternoon."

Le Temps added, "Thus far we have been unable to get confirmation of these rumors."

HENDAYE, France, at the Spanish Frontier, March 15 (AP)—Spanish Insurgent forces today captured the Village of Raimundo, cutting the main inland highway from Valencia to Barcelona.

By CHARLES P. NUTTER

MADRID, March 15 (AP)—Ancient Spain is being devastated, a government communique said today, by a 20th century Italian army.

Describing the Spanish insurgent march eastward toward the Mediterranean, the government itself told of artillery and motorized columns and bombing planes sweeping through the ancient land that once was part of the Roman empire.

Italian troops and German and Italian planes took part in the insurgent capture yesterday of Alcupiz in eastern Spain, 45 miles from the Mediterranean, the government declared today.

While the troops struck directly against the city, the government related, the planes spread death and confusion over a dozen coastal towns.

Almost hourly the planes swung along the 250-mile main Barcelona to Valencia highway. No car along the heavily congested road within

Continued on Page 4, Column 4

—HUMANIZE WAR—

U. S. Nurses Hurt By Spain Bombs

LONDON, March 15 (INS)—The London Daily Express in a Barcelona dispatch today said a field hospital behind the lines of Loyalist American and British volunteer troops on Spain's Aragon front was bombed and machine-gunned by two German Heinkel planes flying for the Insurgents.

The report stated three American nurses assisting at an operation in a tent were wounded and that Dr. Barski, an American physician operating the field hospital, was almost buried by debris thrown up by one of the bombs.

—HUMANIZE WAR—

Europe Crisis at a Glance

VIENNA—Adolf Hitler formally announces absorption of Austria into the German Reich in a speech to his 7,000,000 new citizens. Hints new "march east." Nazis take over rule. Jews are barred from voting.

H. R. Knickerbocker tells how foreign newspaper correspondents were held prisoners and threatened by Nazi guards until just before Hitler had started speech. See Page 4.

PARIS—French premier shaken with war fear and by reports of massing of German arms and planes in Spain near French border, calls army, navy and air chiefs to map defense.

MADRID—Italian 20th century motorized army, aided by German war planes, cuts Spain in twain in surge to the sea. Drive puts German forces near French southern border.

BULLETINS

PARIS, March 15 (INS)—Rumors of a grave split in the Spanish Loyalist administration, possibly involving secession of Catalonia from the Valencia government, sent Premier Leon Blum into a series of urgent conferences here today.

Blum first received Spanish Ambassador Ossario Y Gallardo and then M. Souritz, the Russian envoy. He then called in Foreign Minister Joseph Paul-Boncour for a general review of internal Spanish strife and the entire European situation.

The Spanish ambassador reiterated his pleas for intervention, arguing that the Germans were giving powerful assistance to the Nationalists; and asked that all strategic points on the French-Spanish frontier be reinforced.

MUNICH, Germany, March 15 (AP)—Adolf Hitler arrived here by special airplane tonight, returning from his triumphal four-day visit to Austria, which he absorbed into the German nation.

Complete text of Hitler's speech hinting at further expansion of the Reich—Page 4.

VIENNA, March 15 (AP)—Germany took over the complete Austrian government today just after Fuehrer Hitler from Vienna's historic Heroes' Square appealed to 7,000,000 new subjects of Nazi Germany to meet their new responsibilities.

Simultaneously it was announced Jews henceforth would not be allowed to vote.

Henceforth the franchise is given persons who have reached the age of 20 and who are Austrian citizens or who "despite disfranchisement are not forbidden to vote."

This means restoration of voting rights to those Nazis deprived of citizenship during the Schuschnigg regime. Jews are excepted. They cannot vote.

Voting lists now are being combed to determine who shall enjoy the franchise.

Hitler, speaking from a rostrum in Heroes' square, told his new Austrian subjects in seven curt sentences to meet their responsibilities as they have in the past.

He promised them hard work for economic betterment.

He told them Austria would be a fortress of National Socialism.

The Fuehrer, entering the square by the Burg

Continued on Page 4, Column 1

N. E. Group Sees Ghost Towns Result of Hull Trade Treaty

Throng at Washington Hearing Cheers Lawrence Mayor's Blast

Continued from First Page

sell her products here, put a high tariff barrier up to protect her own manufactureus and wage-earners immediately after the war, Senator Walsh said, and still has a "Buy British" campaign going that still makes it almost impossible for us to sell to them."

HURLEY SPOKESMAN HEARD

William J. Moore, spokesman for Governor Hurley of Massachuetts, told the committee the people of Massachusetts are "fearful" of results if the proposed pact is adopted.

James T. Moriarty, Massachusetts commissioner of labor and industry, declared both workers and employers have "the jitters."

Edwin F. Connelly, representing the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, warned:

"This proposed treaty would deal a blow to employment opportunities in Massachusetts fro mwhich it would take a long time to recover."

R. I. GOVERNOR SPEAKS

The jobs of 135,000 textile workers in Massachusetts are menaced, Connelly declared.

Three mayors of Massachusetts industrial towns, and the Governor of Rhode Island, likewise were among the speakers who protested to the committee that the results of the proposed treaty would be disastrous.

"My city will be a 'has been' if this treaty is O. K.'d," Mayor Walter A. Griffin of Lawrence told the committee.

Sixty Lawrence civic, industrial and labor leaders sat in Mayor Griffin's delegation, solidly backing his plea that the proposed pact be killed.

TROUBLE ENOUGH NOW

"God knows we have trouble enough now without inviting more," Mayor Griffin declared, while the more than 500 persons jamming the Department of Commerce auditorium, where the hearings are being held, applauded and cheered.

WARNING BY GRIFFIN

"We have 28,000 workers in our city. At present there are 12,000 on part-time, the rest on welfare rolls," Mayor Griffin said.

"Gentlemen, we cannot stand this much longer and this proposed treaty with the United Kingdom, especially from the woolen standpoint, will mean ruination to us.

"Why do they want to sacrifice one industry to aid another? It means only borrowing from Peter to pay Paul.

"Lawrence is one of the pioneer textile centers of the nation or I might add even further, the world.

"If we were forced to meet competition it would mean that our community would have to be converted into the types of centers they have in Russia. Men and women would be forced to work for almost nothing.

"I ask you members of this committee, why do they want to ruin Lawrence and what is the industry that will be bolstered through this treaty?

"It is unfair, unjust."

At this point the Lawrence group stood up and cheered. Chairman Francis Grady was forced to rap for order.

"The city of Lawrence has stood behind the president in two elections by a ratio of 5 to 1. All we ask now is for him to stand behind us and save our industries."

Other mayors who told the committee that the proposed pact threatens to make "ghost towns" of their once-prosperous industrial communities were Mayor Anthony J. Stonia of Chicopee, and Mayor Alfred Wollacott of Fitchburg.

Widespread shutdowns, layoffs and wage cuts will follow if the proposed British pact is adopted, Governor Robert E. Quinn of Rhode Island warned the committee.

"We already are being displaced in South America by foreign exports of low-wage textiles," Governor Quinn pointed out.

SEN. GREEN SEES R. I. RUIN

"Within the United States itself, Southern low-wage competition already is a serious problem confronting New England industries. Now New England industry cannot survive further low-wage competition of imports from the United Kingdom and other countries."

Other speakers today were Senator Francis T. Maloney of Connecticut; Representative Charles W. Tobey, New Hampshire; Representative Arthur D. Healey, Massachusetts, and representatives of the Maine State Department of Labor and Industries.

Senator Green, of Rhode Island, told the committee that "one out of every two workers in Rhode Island is employed in the textile industry." The proposed British pact, he declared threatens "ruin" to the entire state.

Another speaker was Representative Hamilton Fish of New York. Heading a New York delegation, Fish told the committee:

"The wage earners and farmers of my district simply do not propose to commit economic suicide for the benefit of Secretary of State Hull or President Roosevelt."

The last ditch fight to stave off an agreement unfair to New England was spurred at a dinner given last night in the Mayflower Hotel on behalf of Governor Hurley of Massachusetts.

—STOP SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS—

DAMON RUNYON, famed sports reporter and writer, tells you of "The Brighter Side," his daily column, in the Boston American.

International News Photograph Service

Congressman Lawrence J. Connery of Lynn was in the heat of the British-United States trade pact hearing in Washington when this picture was made. He said "New England is being sold down the river to aid other industries." He also rapped the stipulations of the Czech shoe pact.

Springs of Rubber New Auto Invention

ANN ARBOR, Mich., March 15 (AP)—Automobile springs made of rubber instead of steel were described here today before the automotive-peysics symposium of the American Institute of Physics.

The springs were developed in the B. F. Goodrich Co., laboratories. W. F. Bussee, director of the laboratories, said tests had proved their practical use.

Million in Hidden Gas Profit Charged

A charge that $1,100,000 in "hidden profits" was made annually by the Eastern Gas & Fuel Associates through a contract with its subsidiary, the Boston Consolidated Gas Co., was made today before the State Public Utilities Commission.

Lewis Weinstein, assistant city corporation counsel, made the charge in seeking to have the Eastern Gas & Fuel Associates joined with the Boston company. The city is fighting a proposed rate increase by the latter company.

Senate to Push Tax Bill as Business Aid

Harrison Asks Speed, Hearing Is Set For Friday

WASHINGTON, March 15 (INS)—Driving for a tax bill "to restore business confidence," the Senate finance committee today set next Friday for beginning of public hearings on the House-passed revenue bill.

More than 50 spokesmen for business interests have requested an opportunity to be heard on the bill, but Chairman Pat Harrison of Mississippi served notice:

"We are going to expedite the hearing as much as possible. We are going to ask all witnesses to submit written statements which we can read after the hearings close. I want to have a bill passed as soon as possible to help restore confidence of business."

Most of the business men desirous of being heard on the bill want to discuss the corporate undistributed profits tax and the levy on capital gains as carried in the House bill, Harrison said in reiterating that he is for outright repeal of the profits tax and readjustment of the capital gains impost.

With a majority of the finance committee now declared in favor of complete repeal of the corporate undistributed profits tax, senators said their immediate problem was to provide a substitute plan that would give revenue for the government.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

U. S. Fleet Sails In War Game

SAN PEDRO, Cal., March 15 (AP)—Warships of the United States fleet slipped out to sea under cover of darkness early today for their annual test of naval power in the Pacific.

For the first time, the departure was under sealed orders. Admiral C. C. Bloch, commander-in-chief, imposed silence on all units.

A force of 105 warships and several hundred planes will participate in the six weeks' maneuvers.

General Johnson Says:

'CLICK' IS MISSING

New Deal's Policies Err

By HUGH S. JOHNSON

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15—What is a liberal? I addressed this question once before and fumbled it. I put too much emphasis on the human frailty that is apt to say: "A liberal is one who believes as I believe."

If you asked Senator Norris or Robert Jackson or the President himself what a liberal is you would get what all three have said, in varying moods, that a liberal is one who wants to do good to the underprivileged—to distribute our wealth more widely, to give the lower income classes more money in relation to the higher income classes.

The cure, say they, for democracy is more democracy. Democracy means freedom—of speech, opinion and action, a voice for every man in the affairs of government and, in general, that there shall be no divinely annointed political prince, but that only the people rule.

Hugh S. Johnson

But are we tending toward any of these reslits? Are not we and the world heading toward precisely the reverse of these results?

In the first place—"the more abundant life." We are in the ninth year of the depression and the sixth year of the New Deal. In 1929 national income was probably approaching 90 billions—some estimates are 80 billions.

At its present rate it can scarcely be more than 50 billions, and at no time under these so-called liberal policies did it every get much above ¾ of the 1929 rate. It certainly is a far cry to the more abundant life.

Something isn't clicking and since we have been working for five years under a clear-cut set of policies based on a well-defined social and economic philosophy, how can we avoid the conclusion that it is that philosophy that isn't clicking.

As Mr. John J. Flynn has recently pointed out, it is the constant investment of new money in the machinery of production that makes business and employment.

The cold, hard fact is that such investment is practically adjourned. New capital issues on the Stock Exchange are little more than 15 per cent of their 1929 rate and the same timidity and reluctance can be seen everywhere. It is only necessary to ask why to be told that the attitude of government toward money and business is too threatening and uncertain.

There is a lag between 30 and 40 billion dollars to be made up in national income or business activity. Of course, no amount of possible government spending can make that up. Nothing can make it up except a restored feeling that money and business have nothing to fear from government.

That vast lag in business income and turnover is the reason for ten million jobless people and hardship and suffering almost beyond telling. If, as I believe, it results from federal philosophy and policy, it is pretty hard to call them liberal.

The Communist Revolution was supposed to be a popular revolution and so are the regimes in Germany and Italy, but who would have the gall to call these governments liberal or democratic? You can no more call them that than you can call democratic and liberal the new Farm Bill which empowers Mr. Wallace to tell every farmer how much of his own crop he can plant, sell or store.

There is nothing liberal or democratic about all these tendencies here and elsewhere. They are all bigoted, dogmatic and dictatorial. They are all dampers on production, business and employment. They bring happiness to few. They do not create or distribute wealth. They both create and distribute poverty. If it be said that their tendency is toward equality, it seems to be principally an equality of misery.

I think your real liberal was Thomas Jefferson, who believed in no more governmental regulation than is necessary to keep men from injuring each other.

(Copyright, 1938, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or part forbidden. All rights reserved.)

(Editor's Note: Contributors who sign their articles are allowed to express their thoughts freely in the Boston Evening American so that Boston Evening American readers may have the advantage of various views on important topics. The views of these contributors, however, are not necessarily endorsed by the Boston Evening American. They are printed on their face value and must be considered on their face value.)

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, March 15—Newsman Harold J. T. Horan recently asked Vice-President Garner if he would allow himself to be impersonated in a radio broadcast.

Garner's answer reveals the credo of the tough-skinned politician.

"Young man," he said, "I've been in political life for forty years, and I've never objected to anything that was written about me or said about me. I've never protested, never sued for libel or slander.

"Now, I won't give you permission to use my name, but if you do use it, you'll probably get away with it."

SELLING "THE RIVER"—There is an interesting "anti-monopoly" story behind the deal made with Paramount Pictures for distribution of "The River."

This picture, successor to "The Plow That Broke the Plains," is being distributed all over the country through regular commercial channels, just like a Hollywood product.

"The Plow" was handled more modestly. Tugwell was proud of the picture for it put across his Resettlement propaganda better than a ream of speeches. But he found Hollywood cool. The big cinema boys resented government competition.

When "The River" was filmed, Tugwell's successors in the Farm Security Administration wanted to make sure it would go places. They arranged a meeting with officials of Paramount to discuss distribution. From Washington there came not only representatives of Farm Security, but one more gentleman, whose presence meant pressure.

This was a representative of the anti-trust division of the Justice Department. He took no part in the discussions, made no threat against Paramount, but tacitly made it apparent that it would be well for Paramount to perform a New Deal favor and avoid anti-trust investigation.

Paramount signed on the dotted line.

CAGEY ANSWER—Mrs. Roosevelt is noted for her candor, but on the highly controversial issue of socialized medicine she is cagey.

Asker by Mrs. Reverdy J. Miller, Charlotte, N. C., Democratic leader, if she thought that "the State and Federal Government should assume greater responsibility for the care of the sick," Mrs. Roosevelt warily replied:

"I think that the Federal Government should assume increasing responsibility for research and laboratory work, out it seems to me there are ways which can be devised which will enable our population living in poor areas to pay for their own needs from a medical standpoint. We may need to pay a little more in taxes for state and federal hospitals in order to bring about better training of our doctors and nurses.

"No American is anxious to look upon medical care as a charity and I feel sure that every effort will be made to bring within the reach of every group of people the necessary medical attention through the co-operation of doctors and the public."

MAIL BAG—B. L. C., Vincennes, Ind.—Argentina's corn crop this year will be only half the size of its 1937 crop, giving them less than 100,000,000 bushels for export. Not only will no Argentine corn come to U. S. this year, but U. S. corn will go to European markets recently supplied by Argentina . . . N. L. S., Baltimore—The company building the experimental pre-fabricated steel house at Greenbelt is the Tennessee Coal, Iron, and Railway Company, a subsidiary of U. S. Steel . . . C. W. S., Spokane, Wash.—Only recently has Panama begun to manufacture Panama hats. Most of them are made in Ecuador . . . B. L., Washington—Sweden is second to U. S. in the number of telephones in proportion to population . . . B. O., Suffolk, Va.—Representative Clifton A. Woodrum's term of service in the House has lasted through 15 years. Woodrum was an old friend of the late Speaker Nick Longworth and of the former Speaker Jack Garner.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Gypsy Rose Lee Injured on Set

HOLLYWOOD, March 15 (AP)—Ambition cost Louise (Gypsy Rose Lee) Hovick a bruised left leg.

Miss Hovick, the former strip-tease queen, admits she has always wanted to be an acrobatic comedienne.

She got her chance in a wild free-for-all fight in the movie, "Battle of Broadway." An enthusiastic trick fall and somersault resulted in the injury.

10-Man Congress Group for TVA Probe Asked

Sen. Bridges in Fore of Determined Move For Investigation

WASHINGTON, March 15 (INS)—Apparently seeking to block an administration-sponsored investigation of TVA, a Democratic-Republican coalition introduced today in the Senate and House a joint resolution calling for a 10-man congressional committee probe of the gigantic power and reclamation project.

The identical resolutions were framed at a secret meeting of the coalition. It was called by Senators King (D.) of Utah and Bridges (R.) of New Hampshire.

It was apparent that so-called anti-administration members of Congress are determined upon an investigation regardless of President Roosevelt's conferences with the three quarrelling directors of TVA.

Representative Snell, New York, House minority leader, also attended the conference.

The new resolution followed an unsuccessful attempt by King, Bridges and Senator George Norris (I. R.) of Nebraska to agree on resolutions calling for a Senate committee investigation.

Meanwhile, Senate and House administration leaders sought to block specific action on the resolutions until the President confers Friday with the directors of TVA, Chairman Arthur E. Morgan, Harcourt A. Morgan and David I. Lilienthal.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

McNutt Claims O. K. for Plan

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Paul V. McNutt, high commissioner to the Philippines, said after a White House conference today there had been a "very favorable" reaction to his proposal for a "realistic re-examination" of the question of Philippine independence.

He indicated President Roosevelt's approval of the proposal, made in a radio speech last night, and cited President Manuel Quezon's comment in Manila agreeing to the suggestion. Quezon has been a firm advocate of immediate independence. The Tydings-McDuffie act provides for complete political freedom in 1946.

McNutt said he favored further study of the independence question "and if the Filipinos want it, an indefinite extension of American sovereignty."

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Whitinsville Hunt For Trio Given Up

WHITINSVILLE, March 15 (AP)—Search for three automobile thieves who abandoned a car and fled into woodland after police fired on them, was abandoned today after eight hours' fruitless search.

Chief J. Albert Cullen had directed the efforts of seven local officers, several state troopers and two Worcester detectives in the hunt for the young men.

SHOE STOCK

Gilchrist's CASH AND CARRY BARGAIN BASEMENT

WEDNESDAY! Suburban Boston Shoe Shop only 18 months old sacrifices amazing NEW and DESIRABLE stock to Gilchrist's Basement!

Less than ½ PRICE

Men's, Women's and Children's

$3301 Stock to go for only $1597

Dolly Preston
ALL TRIANGLE BRAND SHOES LEATHER
WALTON
THE CLINTON SHOE THEY SUPPORT THE ARCH
JPS

485 Pairs Women's Shoes

Many regularly $3.00. All first quality!

- SPORTS SHOES, mostly Goodyear welt, all leather soles. Brown and black. Many styles for growing girls.
- FASHION SHOES, gabardine, calf, kid, few patent.
- ALL SIZES in one style or another. Be early.

$1.49 pair

$1 to $2 Women's Shoes, mostly broken sizes. pair 39c

69c to $1 Women's Slippers in felts, imitation leathers. pair 29c

$3 to $6 Arch Shoes
Mostly Goodyear Welts, Dr. Clinton, Nu-Way, Dr. Gibbs, other famous makes. $2.39 pair

Men's Shoes
Even Triangle, Fortune, King-Quality Brands
Regularly $3.50 to $6.00 $2.49 pair
All first quality. Goodyear welts, leather soles. Black or brown. All sizes in lot.

Children's Shoes
Dr. Chase, J. P. S. Triangle, Walton brands. Regularly $2 to $2.39
All first quality. Many Goodyear welts. Also boys' styles. Many whites as well as black, brown. $1.39 pair

- Children's $1.39 Leather Sole Shoes ....pair 79c
- Boys' $3 to $3.50 Goodyear Welt Shoes ......pair $1.79
- Infants' $1.19 Dr. Chase, other Shoes ....pair 39c
- Boys' 89c Tennis Shoes, heavy sole...........pair 39c
- Boys' $1.00 Leather Sole Slippers ....pair 49c

USE CASH-A-GRAMS IN GILCHRIST'S BARGAIN BASEMENT. MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

Gilchrist's

Your Servant Ma'am

$1.25 weekly

Maytag Washers

Only a few pennies a day while you're paying for me, then I'm your slave for life. Your clothes will last longer and so will you. No back breaking toil over hot tubs, no scrubbing and rubbing. Phone Liberty 9700 for free home demonstration.

Gilchrist's is Boston Department Store Headquarters for famous Maytag Washing Machines, $69.50 to $129.50 . . Fourth Floor

YOUR DOCTOR KNOWS YOUR MIRROR SHOWS

HURRY! "Bubble" OUT Those BLACKHEADS

If blackheads and similar complexion flaws remain stubbornly, "bubble" them out by using DIOXOGEN CREAM, the two-way oxygen cleanser.

First, it softens the hard fatty excretions that hold the blackheads so fast.

Second, it "bubbles out" the underlying grit and dirt so they can be easily and quickly wiped away.

The naked eye can't see this bubbling—but your doctor knows why it is so effective. And your mirror shows how wonderfully the skin responds to its invigorating cleansing action.

For a skin that is clearer, smoother, and noticeably fairer! — Use DIOXOGEN CREAM tonight! Approved by Good Housekeeping.

DIOXOGEN CREAM
CLEANS, CORRECTS, CLARIFIES THE COMPLEXION

50c and $1

Try this beauty aid at once! Notice how your skin responds to this effective treatment.

Toiletries, Street Floor

Mail, Phone Orders, Call HUBbard 9400 Till 10 P. M.

Gilchrist's

Wife Aids Mate Charged With Murder

Goes to See Husband In Maine, Says She'll Help Him

BELFAST, Me., March 15—"I married him. I'll do all I can to help him."

With these words, a loyal wife—with a broken heart—today went to the side of her husband, charged with murdering his sweetheart in a jealous rage.

The wife said she knew of her husband's friendship with the slain woman but had kept it a secret for three years while "my heart was broken.

Her dramatic story was unfolded to County Attorney Hilliard Buzzle after she had visited her husband in his jail cell where he was being watched constantly by guards.

Except for his wife, the husband William K. Bowman, 38, had no visitors.

RECENTLY WIDOWED

Facing arraignment on a murder charge, Bowman is accused of firing six shots into the body of 29-year-old Mrs. Abbie Robbins Thayer when the young woman, recently widowed, steadfastly refused to continue their alleged love affair.

Sheriff Hirman O. Burgess said Bowman apparently thought Mrs. Thayer, mother of a 13-year-old girl, had been "going around" with another man.

Mrs. Mary Bowman talked to the county prosecuto, even as authorities continued their investigation into the shooting and planned to question her husband further.

The tragic story of Mrs. Bowman, according to County Attorney Buzzle, was substantially as follows:

"I knew of this affair between my husband and that girl. It has been going on for three years. I attempted to break it up once, but was not successful.

FAREWELL REMARK

"Yesterday morning he told me he was going to see the girl. I asked him to wait. I knew his mood was not good. I felt something might happen. I told him to wait. But he wouldn't.

"I'm going up and talk some sense into Abbie,' v his farewell remark. That was the last time I saw him until I saw him in jail today.

"I kept this affair from everybody I knew for three years. But I married him and I'm going to do all I can to help him."

Authorities here said the fatal shooting was perhaps the most dramatic killing that has occurred in this state in years.

Mrs. Thayer was shot to death almost in sight of her own mother, Mrs. Arthur Robbins.

ARRESTED 60 MILES AWAY

Police charged that Bowman fired three shots at the girl as she fled and then walked over to her prostrate form and fired the other shots into the back of her head.

Immediately after the shooting, police charged, Bowman fled from the house. He was arrested three hours later, 60 miles from the Thayer house, in Randolph.

Sheriff Burgess said he pieced together what had happened from Mrs. Thayer's mother. The latter in near collapse, was quoted by the sheriff as saying:

"They argued for more than an hour. Then he said, 'I got some pictures I would like you to see.'

"He left the house for a minute and went out to get the pictures. When he came into the house I heard him say, 'Here are the pictures. I told you I would show them to you.'

"Then there was a loud noise. It was the gun going off.

"The whole thing was terrible. My daughter called: 'Ma! Ma!' She began to run.

"The shots began making that awful noise and I rushed into the kitchen. My daughter ran towards the door and then she dropped.

"BEGGED HIM TO STOP"

"I begged him to stop shooting. He didn't say anything. When she fell he went over toward her and while she was down on the floor he fired shots into her body.

"He put the gun in his pocket and then ran out the door."

Mrs. Thayer was married when she was 15. Her husband, who died several months ago, was 65.

Authorities said Mrs. Thayer and Bowman met three years ago while both were employed in Bangor.

MRS. ABBIE THAYER

Hollywood Parades to Tax Taker

◆ ◆ ◆

Uncle Sam Gets Share of Big Salaries

LUISE RAINER

SONJA HENIE

BETTE DAVIS

CAROLE LOMBARD

They're All in Income Tax March

Carole Lombard Taxed On $460,000 Year's Pay

By MILTON HARKER

(Copyright, 1938)

HOLLYWOOD, March 15 (INS)—Today is the saddest day of the year in Hollywood.

It's the day on which hundreds of men and women, young and old, whose names are household words the world over, sign on the dotted line, pay a 25-cent notary fee and then write out checks running up to six figures.

It's all for Uncle Sam, who knows little and cares less about glamour. The giant motion picture industry and all its big names are paying their income taxes.

Unless all information is wrong, Carole Lombard will pay the largest tax of any individual—on a $460,000 income for 1937. Last year Gary Cooper was tops and the year before that, Mae West.

BIG CONTRIBUTORS

Cooper again will be among the big contributors to the federal coffers.

Mae's share probably won't be so large as it was last year, and well below the year before—she made only one picture. That, of course, is not her only source of income. She is one of the shrewdest business women of all the stars.

Others whose tax payments to the government would equal the whole salary of many a big business executive are Greta Garbo, Clark Gable, Robert Taylor, Claudette Colbert, Charles Boyer and Bing Crosby.

Also Bob Burns, Jeanette McDonald, Sonja Heine, Loretta Young, Bette Davis, Paul Muni, Joan Crawford, William Powell, Myrna Loy, Robert Montgomery, Norma Shearer, Spencer Tracy, Luise Rainer and a few more.

EXECUTIVES PAY

Huges taxes are paid, too, by the big executives like the Warners, Darryl Zanuck, Louis B. Mayer, Nicholas M. Schenck, Joe Schenck, David O. Selznick, Hal Roach, Adolph Zukor, Hal Wallis and Edward H. Mannix.

And there are the big producers, and producer-directors, like Cecil B. De Mille, Mervyn Leroy and Ernst Lubitsch, who pay plenty.

The screen corporations themselves, however, probably will shell out less this year than last, due to the big drop in box office returns which came with the recession.

Take a like group of people in any industry in the world and you'll find no such tax payment as is being made in glittering filmdom today.

This town's luminaries not only furnish a major share of the world's entertainment, but each spring give their government enough money to float a few new battleships.

Clarence Darrow Rites Held

CHICAGO, March 15 (AP)—Friends and admirers of Clarence Darrow gathered at Bond Chapel on the University of Chicago campus today to pay final respects to the eminent criminal lawyer.

Hundreds of persons filed past the bier of the 80-year-old agnostic who died of heart disease Sunday.

Funeral services included a brief, non-religious eulogy by Federal Judge William H. Holly, close friend of the famous advocate.

Judge Holly and Darrow had agreed that one should speak at the other's funeral.

Three years ago Darrow declared it had taken him 50 years to be convinced there was "nothing after death."

His body will be cremated, at his request.

—STOP SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS—

'Twin' Joins New Penguin

No Cameras for Baby Brother (or Sister)

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Malcolm, the Zoo's brand new baby penguin, had a brother (or sister) today.

Malcolm pecked his way out of his shell Saturday to the noise of grinding cameras, flash bulbs and a radio broadcast, and had 21,000 visitors Sunday.

The new arrival just pecked through his shell this morning and stepped out, without any dramatics.

The two fuzzy Antarctic birds are believed by their keepers to be the first penguins born in the United States.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Woman 'Dead on Arrival' Haymarket's Last Case

At midnight tonight the key will be turned in the lock of the Haymarket Relief Hospital, for the first time in 37 years.

At noon today the last patient, Michael Vicchari, 17, victim of a stab wound in the abdomen, put his hat on and smiled goodby to the nurses in the strangely empty corridors.

The final case to be admitted, however, had already gone the way of many tragedies that had their climax at the hospital when an unidentified woman was taken to the morgue.

LEAPS INTO RIVER

"Dead on arrival" was the record, as it had been in so many cases. Dead of a sash-cord knotted around her throat as she leaped into the Charles river from the West Boston bridge this morning.

By noon the hospital staff was sending other cases to the City Hospital, and will report there themselves tomorrow morning.

Dr. James Sacchetti, resident surgeon, will take up duties as night executive at the City Hospital. Dr. Frederick Haddon will go to the outpatient department.

NEW DUTIES SET

Miss Agatha McKenna, superintendent of nurses, and Miss Mary Foley, head nurse, will be assigned to new duties, as will all the other 32 employes.

The Haymarket Relief Hospital, opened in 1901, has treated approximately 30,000 patients a year since it opened. It has been the scene of daily drama, with the clang of the ambulance bell its symbol, as it ministered to cases from bullet-riddled gangsters to children with cut fingers.

Suicide, violent death, the mangled victims of accidents, even murder, was part of the day's experience. Tragedy, trivial injuries and occasional comic relief characterized its history.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

20-Ounce Baby Girl Has Chance to Live

MERIDIAN, Miss., March 15 (AP)—Meridian today claimed one of the smallest babies ever born. The baby, Jerry Ann Cheatham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Cheatham, weighed one pound and four ounces at birth.

The child was placed in an incubator at the Riley Hospital, where physicians said she was gaining strength and had an even chance to live.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Purim Observance

Synagogues and temples throughout Greater Boston will begin observance of Purim tomorrow night. The celebration will last through the following night.

Crimson Makes DeVoto Appeal

A demand that Harvard officials bring back to the faculty Bernard DeVoto, recently resigned editor of the Saturday Review of Literature, was made today by Harvard undergraduates in a move unprecedented in the history of the college.

The Harvard Crimson, undergraduate daily, urged in an editorial that DeVoto, who taught English at the university until two years ago, be brought back because of his "tremendous personal influence as a teacher."

Meanwhile, it was learned, petitions demanding his return are being drawn up by students and will be submitted to President James B. Conant.

—STOP SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS—

Gulf Tanker Afire, 3 Boats Rush Aid

NEW ORLEANS, March 15 (AP)—The U. S. coast guard at Mobile, Ala., said today it had sent three boats to aid the tanker, Andrew Jackson, which had radioed "fire in boiler room, under control but need assistance."

The vessel gave its position as 150 miles east of Galveston, Tex., in the Gulf of Mexico.

The coast guard had no information on the number of crew mem-

Monkey Flees With Rat Trap

Enjoys Freedom on East Boston Dock

Victim of some unidentified person's misguided attempt to catch them, the smaller of the two monkeys which have been enjoying freedom for months at the East Boston Cunard docks was running around today with a large rat trap dangling from her paw.

The monkey, lady member of the pair which escaped from a ship last summer, was caught in the trap some time last night, but she made away with the trap, three-foot chain and all.

There were reports that the Animal Rescue League might attempt to shoot the monkey, for fear of gangrene setting in the paw, but the simian appeared to be in no pain and was almost as lively as ever despite the burden of her load.

Longshoremen who have been feeding the monkeys all winter were hunting today for the person who set the trap.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

ELSIE ROBINSON, writes from the woman's viewpoint, discusses every day affairs and problems, regularly in the Boston American.

Probe of State Hospital Death Wins Backing

Dr. Norton Ready For Investigation On Mrs. Ashton

Any investigation into the death of Mrs. Edith M. Ashton, 71-year-old mother of a Boston cafe entertainer, will be welcomed at Boston State Hospital, it was declared today by Dr. Harold Norton, superintendent.

Dr. Norton said, however, that so far he has not been informed of any investigation order by Dr. Clifton T. Perkins, acting commissioner of the State Department of Mental Diseases, as reported.

Mrs. Ashton, mother of Harry Ashton, master of ceremonies in a downtown cafe, died at the hospital last Thursday and Ashton charged that she had been beaten to death at the institution, because multiple bruises were found on her body.

The autopsy report by Dr. Cornelius O'Leary, associate medical examiner, states, however, that she died from heart trouble and hardening of the arteries.

There were a few bruises on the body, according to Dr. O'Leary, but they were superficial.

According to Dr. Norton, the elderly woman was a difficult mental patient at the hospital, had to be held and spoon-fed, would not remain in bed and fell on one occasion while walking in the ward.

"I have no reason to believe that she was ill-treated in any way," Dr. Norton said today. "However, I will welcome an investigation if Dr. O'Leary thinks it necessary. I am satisfied that she was not abused."

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

50 G-Men Hunt Kidnaped Boy

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., March 15 (INS)—Search for 12-year-old Peter Levine—dead or alive—was intensified today when the heaviest concentration of G-men since the Mattson kidnaping in 1936 was flung into the widening hunt.

Fifty Federal agents, augmented by as many police from this and nearby communities, were pressed into the search for the boy who disappeared 19 days ago. Efforts of Peter's father, Murray Levine, to contact his apparent abductors and pay a ransom demand of $30,000, proved fruitless and the G-men took over the case.

Divided into groups of 10, each comprising five local officers and five Federal agents, the searchers split up the territory into sections and spread fanwise throughout the city. Vacant houses were entered and closets pried open by several of the groups while others plodded through ravines and thickets of nearby woodland.

Tomorrow, unless the search has been rewarded, two hundred Boy Scouts and members of veterans organizations will be pressed into the hunt.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Fall River Wife Held in Killing

FALL RIVER, March 15—Mrs. Alma Bedard, 25, of Rodman street, was found "probably guilty" and held without bail for the grand jury in district court today on a charge of murdering her husband, Wilfred, 30, in an argument over 25 cents.

The young woman created a stir in the courtroom during the testimony of Medical Examiner Thomas E. Boylan after the latter declared that her husband died "almost instantly" from a stab wound.

"He did not!" Mrs. Bedard shouted.

The medical examiner also testified that the knuckles of the victim's right hand were bruised and that there were strands of hair clutched in his fingers.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Starved Baby Seen by Jury

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 15 (AP)—Little Alice Mary Harris' spindly, emaciated legs were bared today before a jury trying her 73-year-old grandfather on charges of cruelty to an infant.

Squirming and crying in the arms of a probation officer, the child was carried into court after a bitter argument between commonwealth and defense attorneys over her appearance at the trial.

As soon as the jury completed its inspection the child was returned to Fayette County home and Milo R. Stevens, pathologist at Torrance State Hospital, began his testimony on the mentality tests he gave Alice Mary's unmarried mother, Martha Harris.

Stevens testified that he gave the mother an intelligence test for an eight-year-old child and her answers "indicated a very low mentality."

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Dog Bars Firemen From Blazing Home

BALTIMORE, March 15 (AP)—Firemen, donning gas masks to enter a smoke-filled house were barred today by a chow dog, until Edwin Hisky, Sr., owner, carried his two-year-old son from the house and then collared the dog. The blaze was confined to the cellar.

Bethrothed to Riches

International News Photograph Service

Before Guy Stillman, Mrs. Fowler McMormick's son left Chicago for school in Troy, N. Y., he gave 17-year-old Nancy Holbrook of Barrington, Ill., a handsome diamond. Her parents have announced the engagement. Friends say wedding bells will ring in June.

Harvard Man Held in Attack

Woman Pushed Out of Window at "Party"

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP)—Peyton Murray, 27, socially prominent, was arrested early today after a 40-year-old beauty parlor owner accused him, police said, of pushing her through the fourth floor bedroom window of his apartment during a drinking party.

He was held on a charge of felonious assault, but denied the charge.

The woman, Mrs. John Cuccia, was in a serious condition at City Hospital with three fractured ribs, scalp lacerations and possible fracture of the skull and internal injuries. She was clad only in a slip when found. A wire mesh over a skylight helped break her fall.

Murray, an advertising salesman, said he had met Mrs. Cuccia and another woman in a midtown restaurant and invited them to his apartment.

Murray is listed in the Social Register as the son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Murray of Yonkers and a graduate of Harvard, 1931.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Trolley Buses To Run in Subway

Trackless-trolley buses will operate in Harvard square subway on April 2 to mark the first time underground terminals have been used for buses.

The trackless-trolley line will operate from the subway on the Huron avenue, Cambridge, line, replacing gasoline buses. Elevated officials disclosed only one remaining drawback to inauguration of the service, removal of a limb of a historic tree on Waterhouse street. Permission must be obtained to remove the trolley line obstruction.

Waltham School Walks Asked

Protesting suspension of free transportation for school children, Waltham residents demanded today that the city provide adequate protection for pupils in outlying sections.

More than 300 persons insisted in a petition that Mayor Arthur A. Hansen and the City Council either restore transportation or build sidewalks to safeguard the children from motor traffic.

City Council last night criticized the school board's action in ceasing bus operation to save $5000 a year. However, the council cannot rescind the school committee's action, although it may decide to order construction of new sidewalks.

Residents of the Hardy Pond road district were particularly emphatic in their protests, pointing out that their children were forced to venture near several State insane institutions on their way to school.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Vatican Sifts U. S. Miracles

Beatification Begins For Mother Cabrini

VATICAN CITY, March 15 (AP)—Vatican theologians are examining the authenticity of two miracles reported to have occurred in the United States during the present generation.

The Congregation of Rites, beginning beatification proceedings of Mother Frances Severio Cabrini, today studied two cures attributed to her intercession.

These were the cases of Sister Delpina Grazoli of Seattle, who said she recovered from a fatal illness after seeing the vision of Mother Cabrini, and Peter Smith, a New York schoolboy, who regained his sight.

Mother Cabrini was an Italian nun who labored and died in America, leaving many institutions devoted to charity.

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

Sale! Union Hardware Co.

Roller Skates

- Full nickel plated skate mirror finish
- Flexible sole plates
- Full rubber cushioned
- Double ball-bearing wheels
- Extends to fit sizes 11½
- to 7½ shoes

$1.59

Regularly $1.95 pair

Styles for boys and girls

Other Union Hardware skates from $1.19 to $2.50

New keyless roller skates, $3.95

SECOND FLOOR—ANNEX

Order by mail or call HUBbard 2700 until 10 P. M.

HITLER PROCLAIMS 'FOREVER A FREE GERMANY'

VIENNA, March 15 (AP)—The text of Fuehrer Hitler's address in Heroes' square today follows:

German men and women, within a period of a few days a revolutionary transformation has taken place within the German racial community, a transformation which we no doubt see today in all its magnitude, the significance of which, however, only later generations will be able to measure.

A lot has been said in the last few years by executive authorities of a now abolished regime about a special mission which in their opinion the country must fulfill.

The leader of the monarchists accurately described this view. According to him, it was the function of this so-called independence of the Austrian country—an independence forced upon it by peace—the peace that was forced by the foreign powers—to prevent formation of a great German Reich and thus barricade the path of the German people into the future.

I proclaim herewith for this land its new mission—a strict command for all Germans: the most thoroughly German outpost of the German people shall from henceforth be the newest bulwark of the German nation and therefore of the German Reich.

Through centuries in troubled times of the past, storms of the East have broken on the border of the old eastern outpost (Ostmark).

In centuries to come, for all time, there shall be an iron guarantee for the security and freedom of the German Reich, and therewith a guarantee for the happiness and peace of our great people.

And I know the old eastern outpost of the German Reich will fulfill this new mission with the same certainty as it carried out and mastered the old.

I speak in the name of millions of inhabitants of this wonderful German land, in the name of the Styrians, of the Viennese, of the upper Austrians, of the Carinthians, of the Tyrolians—above all, however, in the name of the city of Vienna.

I proclaim to the other 68,000,000 German compatriots who are listening now: This land is German. It has fulfilled its mission. No one will be permitted to swindle it. Our task, however, will be through work and industry and firm co-operation to solve the great social, cultural and economic problems, above all, however, to build up this land into a mighty fortress of nationalist conviction.

But I cannot conclude this appeal to you without remembering those men who, in such difficult and stormy days, assisted us, with God's help, to achieve victory.

First and foremost I thank the new Reich governor, Seysz-Inquart. I thank countless party members and innumerable and nameless idealists who in the bitter struggling lasting years worked to accomplish reunification of the German people.

Years of suffering have strengthened me in my conviction of the worth of the German-Austrian people within our great racial community.

The wonderful manner and discipline wherewith this tremendous event was accomplished is also evidence of the spiritual power of this people.

In this hour I report to the German people the greatest achievement of my life. As leader and chancellor of the great German nation and of the Reich I declare to history the entrance of my native land into the German Reich.

To Germany and its newest national unit, to the National Socialist party, to the armed forces, hail victory!

Hitler Hints New 'Drive To East'

Proclaims United Germany, Bars Vote to Jews; Scores Arrested

Continued from First Page

(castle) gate, never opened except for conquerors and the most important state occasions, made two significant references that hundreds of thousands of widely cheering persons who are now Germans—not Austrians—applauded almost unceasingly.

One was his reference to Arthur Seysz-Inquart, who succeeded Kurt Schuschnigg as chancellor, as the "Governor of Austria."

He thus reduced Austria to the status of another Gau, or section, of the German fatherland.

His other reference was a warning that German strength increases with the amount of opposition brought against it.

Addressing an almost hysterical mass of humanity as "German men and women," the Fuehrer asserted:

"In the last few days have occurred events which cannot be evaluated yet—an unification of the German nation.

"MARCH TO THE EAST"

"I know this new portion of the German Reich will meet its responsibility as the old nation has.'

Waves of shouting interrupted his address. The surge of excitement swelled from the massed square to the blocks beyond, as all Vienna went wild to greet the Austrian-born leader who had returned as the ruler of both Austria and Germany.

At the conclusion of a surprisingly short speech, Hitler walked down the stairs of the Heroes' Monument, from which he greeted war veterans, some of whom were brought to the base of the story-high memorial in wheelchairs.

Afterwards he drove away in his automobile with Seysz-Inquart at his side.

Some observers thought significant Hitler's passage recalling Austria as a historic "outpost" and "newest bulwark" of the German people in which he said:

"Through centuries in troubled times of the past, storms of the East have broken on the border of the old eastern outpost (Ostmark)."

It was wondered if this were another reference to "Drang nach Osten"—march to the East.

SHADOW OVER CZECHS

While Hitler spoke, European maps were displayed showing Germany and Austria as one nation in dark red. Czechoslovakia was shown with a broken line. Crowds looking at the maps in store windows cheered his unofficial prediction involving the German-Austrian neighbor of Czechoslovakia.

Completeness of the union of the two German-speaking countries was emphasized when Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister, took over Austrian foreign affairs.

Wilhelm Wolf, foreign minister in the Austrian cabinet of Seysz-Inquart, greeted Ribbentrop with:

"As the last Austrian minister of foreign affairs I salute you. I put the functions of my office in your hands. Austria has only one fatherland and that is Germany."

Ribbentrop immediately assumed office. As a first step the Austrian treasury was absorbed into the German treasury.

The forestry office became a continuation of Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering's department.

The Interior Ministry, War Department and other parts of the Austrian government were all turned over to German officials.

As far as was known no officer resigned rather than break his oath of loyalty to former Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg's regime.

Seysz-Inquart introduced Hitler to the madly excited throngs thus:

"I formally report the legal completion of Austrian-German anschluss (union). Austria has come home. We greet the leader of a new eternal Germany. My leader, wherever the way leads, we follow!"

SAYS GERMANS ARE TOPS

Hitler then addressed himself thus:

"Sixty-eight million Germans, I assure you this country is Germany, and nobody can be better than Germany.

"It will be our immediate duty to work hard to solve economic problems and make this land a fortress of National Socialism.

"I cannot start this task without thinking of and acclaiming Nationalist Socialist members of the Austrian government.

"I thank the Austrian governor, Seycz-Inquart, and the Even while German troops were many idealists who labored with him. It shows the strength of Germans increased the more presure is put on them.

"These years of suffering have shown me the worth of the Austrian people. In this hour as Fuehrer and chancellor I can report to the German nation:

"I report to German history the incorporation of my native land as part of Germany."

Hitler chose as his forum today the Heldenplatz, or Heroes' square—the very essence of old Hapsburg conquests and a point from which one can see monuments and buildings representing the past Hapsburg glories.

The Fuehrer's column of autos left his hotel at 11:04 a. m., driving slowly four blocks to the square.

Every one of the thousands lining the streets shouted "Sieg Heil!" (Hail Victory) continuously.

It was typical Hitler weather—almost cloudless with the temperature mild.

Street cars, buses, all traffic except for a few taxis and official automobiles and military vehicles, was stopped an hour before the ceremonies started.

Rows upon rows of new Hitler Youths, resplendent in white shirts and black cravats, stood bareheaded with heads up, beaming at the rostrum.

They paraded previously through the downtown city, seemingly with snappier step and better drilling than just a week ago, when most of them were Chancellor Schuschnigg's Loyalists, called Jungvolk.

THEY WAIT ALL NIGHT

There was color aplenty—black, brown, green, olive, tan, of military uniforms; green, gray, brown, red, blue and purple in the costumes of the peasants, thousands of whom were brought free to Vienna for their first visit to the capital to see the triumph of Hitlerism.

Many of the thousands in the Heldenplatz vicinity had been there since nightfall yesterday, holding vantage points.

They had with them that favorite of Viennese life—brown bread and sausage sandwiches.

Bombing planes whirred overhead as the sun crept over the city.

Soon thereafter — hours before Hitler was to speak—crowds began fighting for standing space along the broad Burg ring as near as possible to the wider Heroes' square.

Many brought their own chairs, food and drink, ready to remain the whole day to hear the address by their native son, who came back the Nazi ruler of the joined Nazi Austria and Germany.

Some, without food, maneuvered for the 25,000 plates of soup and meat prepared by the army for all who got in line after the parades.

Units of the German army in Vienna, the old Austrian army, groups of the army police and all Nazi organizations with delegations from provinces were lined up for the parade.

One thousand Prussian policemen were imported to handle street crowds.

Police announced the arrest of 10 Jews at Linz for actions "harmful to the nation."

Some Jews, who contributed to the ousted Chancellor Schuschnigg's Fatherland Front activities, were being pursued. The list of contributors was seized at Fatherland Front headquarters to facilitate a check.

How many Jews and political enemies of the Nazis had been arrested and otherwise disposed of was impossible to estimate.

Royal Pomp Note As Seysz-Inquart Greets Hitler

VIENNA, March 15 (AP)—The text of Austrian Governor Arthur Seysz-Inquart's greeting to Fuehrer (Leader) Hitler today:

"My Fuehrer!

"As the last chief organ of the Federal State of Austria, I report to the Fuehrer and Reichs-Chancellor the completion of the legal decision which is in accordance with the will of the German people and its Fuehrer.

"To the German people and to the whole world, I announce Adolf Hitler has arrived as Fuehrer and Reichs-Chancellor at this hour in the Hofburg of the old Reich capital, protector of the crown of the kingdom about which centuries of German history have been revolved, and for which uncounted millions of the best Germans have bled and died.

"What was the ultimate consolation in heated struggles of recent years and in the bitterest hours has been completed today: Ostmark (old German name for Austria) has returned to the homeland.

"The Reich is again resurrected. The right of the German people is created. My Fuehrer, the strength of all generations of the German people is concentrated now under your will and you, my Fuehrer, created this work for all generations of the German future.

"Today all Germans salute the Fuehrer as achiever. Today the Fuehrer salutes a new eternal Germany.

"My Fuehrer, we give only one kind of thanks—the thanks of complete love, unconditional faithfulness. Wherever the way leads, we follow. Heil! My Fuehrer!"

Pope Promises Battle Against World Menace

VATICANCITY, March 15 (INS)—In a thinly-veiled attack on aggression, Pope Pius today pledged the Catholic church to a never-ending fight to halt the "forces which menace every nation and all peoples."

The Pontiff's remarks were made to Bernard de Lescaille, new Belgian ambassador to the Holy See, when the latter presented his credentials here.

In presenting himself to the Pontiff, the new envoy said:

"Belgium confirms her unalterable relations with the Vatican as a free independent state which one day risked her very existence to halt an invader."

De Lascaille assured the Pope Belgium is ready to risk her life again "to maintain the high moral standards which constitute humanity's greatest heritage."

"I am full of joy," the Pope said in reply, "over all you have said on behalf of your king and your people.

"We assure Belgium that we will continue to fight against that power which in the past abused by force and menaced the very life of your country and which now seeks to penetrate everywhere, menacing everyone."

The Holy See, Pope Pius concluded, will never cease its struggles to combat these efforts.

WAREHOUSE PIANO SALE
NOTHING TO PAY UNTIL MAY
No Money Down—30 Days' Trial
SMALL USED PIANO $35
Terms 50c a Week
FREE DELIVERY IN GREATER BOSTON
Sale Being Held at Private Piano
FIREPROOF WAREHOUSE
603 Newbury St., Boston
Open Tue. & Wed. 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.
Hear Don Van Wart WNAC Daily

Read the
Real Estate
Ads In Today's American

Nazis Force Jews To Scrub Off Sidewalks

VIENNA, March 15 (AP)—While hundreds of thousands of Viennese watched united Austrian and German armed forces on parade today, several dozen Jews, men and women, scrubbed sidewalks in the Ghetto under storm troopers' orders.

The troopers ordered them to scour off "Heil Austria!" and other slogans which had been painted in red during the final days of the Schuschnigg regime. Other Jews were compelled to clean Schuschnigg posters from lamp posts.

Prepared for War, Reply of Britain

By WILLIAM HILLMAN

Copyright, 1938, By International News Service.

LONDON, March 15—Great Britain today confronted Adolf Hitler with the prospect of a speedily-enlarged British arms program and an entire nation girded for war, ready to meet might with might.

This was the picture presented by Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain before an excited House of Commons in a speech forecasting a Britain in arms with its industries and people coordinated in the task of war preparedness.

In Chamberlain's momentous pronouncement many read a clear hint that conscription may be instituted in England for the first time since the World War, although government circles denied it.

The prime minister coupled his declaration of British preparedness—which may increase the present $7,500,000,000 cost of rearmament to $10,000,000,000—with the "severest condemnation" of Hitler's Austrian conquest.

Immediately after Chamberlain's speech, Home Minister Sir Samuel Hoare broadcast a dramatic radio appeal for at least 1,000,000 civilian volunteers in Britain's air raid protection services to "prepare against the most dangerous form of modern warfare."

That Britain urged Hitler to withdraw German troops from Austria was the disclosure made in Commons by Sir Frederick Butle , undersecretary of state for foreign affairs. He said the Reich government gave assurances German soldiers would o withdrawn as soon as normal conditions are restored in Austria, adding:

"We sincerely hope that the assurances received will be carried out."

This drew derisive laughter from the opposition benches and the laughter was renewed when Butler announced that in reply to "strong and solemn" British representations in behalf of mercy for Austria's Jews, Catholics and Socialists, Germany assured that "every effort will be used to ensure a sense of moderation."

Butler said that Chamberlain's reference to "extended national effort" in rearmament did not mean an intention to introduce military conscription, but that the extension and acceleration of the air force program would impel the government to ask employers and employes in the arms factories to cooperate for the common patriotic good.

British Secret Warning To Germany Is Hinted

LONDON, March 15 (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain was determined today to match the armed might of Adolf Hitler before publicly pledging Britain to support Czechoslovakia against German aggression.

There were indications that Britain privately had told Germany she might be compelled to act if Chancellor Hitler sought to bring the German minority in Czechoslovakia into the German nation, as without opposition he absorbed Austria.

Publicly, however, Chamberlain refrained yesterday in his address to Commons from any guarantee of aid to Czechoslovakia.

Nevertheless, the British ambassador, Sir Neville Henderson, told Field Marshal Goering in Berlin, diplomatic informants said, that Britain considered "binding" his ffriendly assurances to Czechoslovakia on Saturday. Goering is acting chancellor in Hitler's absence in Austria.

A similar communication went to Jan Masaryk, the Czech minister to London.

Thus, it was felt here, Britain had given an implied warning to Germany of a determination to uphold the remaining boundaries of Central Europe.

Exactly what form of action Britain would undertake in the event of a German push into Czechoslovakia was not apparent today.

The French government has asked for a definite promise of British armed support, and France herself has renewed pledges to fight for Czechoslovakia.

Since Germans held that the union of all Germans under Hitler was not completed with annexation of Austria the Nazi nation apparently was convinced the 3,500,000 Germans in Czechoslovakia easily could be Nazified.

There were reports Herr Goering was attempting to make a deal with the Czech government whereby Germany peacefully would become protector of the Czech Germans and guard all Czechslovakia from "Bolshevism."

Italian Drive on in Spain

German Air Bombers Blast Way for Push To End Civil War

Continued from First Page

the past three days escaped attack, and motorists frequently jumped into ditches until danger had passed.

Civilians found one refuge in Tarragana, outside Barcelona, in ancient Roman caves which still form a part of the picturesque port's architecture.

Motor Column in Sweep to Win War

HENDAYE, France, At the Spanish Frontier, March 15 (AP)—An Insurgent motorized column, like the Italian cavalcade that rode into Addis Ababa to complete conquest of Ethiopia, rumbled near to Catalonia today in a drive to win the Spanish civil war.

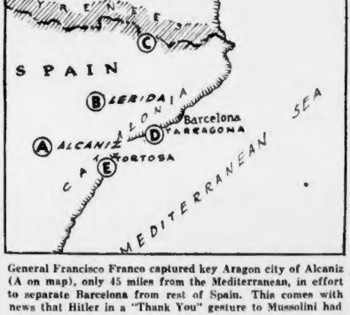
Insurgents said the advance guard, after passing Alcaniz yesterday, was within cannon shot of Torraecilla, where the main highway branches northeast of Tarragona and Barcelona and to the southeast to Castellon de La Piana and Valencia.

The front line position is less than 37 miles in a straight line from Tortosa, between Tarragona and Castellon, after a six-day advance of about 56 miles.

Tortosa lies at the head of the Ebro river estuary about midway between Valencia and Barcelona.

Cavalry, deployed through the conquered territory to round up stragglers of the retreating government army, were reported to have taken more than 3000 prisoners.

The Insurgents said six government divisions had been destroyed.



General Francisco Franco captured key Aragon city of Alcaniz (A on map), only 45 miles from the Mediterranean, in effort to separate Barcelona from rest of Spain. This comes with news that Hitler in a "Thank You" gesture to Mussolini had sent to Franco powerful airplanes of the German air force. It is said Franco is using these planes with those now on hand in his great offensive on Lerida (B) toward the Pyrenees, which may end the Spanish war. With German planes in Spain, this would mean that France must now have large forces of German planes on her southern line (C). The latest drive finds civilians finding refuge in ancient Roman caves at Tarragona (D). The German planes bombed Tartosa (E) and protected the the infantry's advance toward Barcelona.

Holds Mussolini Action Avoided Europe War

By FRANK GERVASI

International News Service Staff Correspondent. Copyright, 1938

ROME, March 15—Premier Mussolini permitted Chancellor Hitler to march into Austria unchallenged in order to save the peace of Europe.

So declared an unimpeachable Italian source who is in a position to speak for the Fascist government today in giving International News Service a straight-from-the-shoulder clarification of Italy's policy in the current international drama.

"Opposition to Hitler would have meant war," this source explained. "That is why the Italian government rejected the French government's bid for joint military action against Germany."

This informant explained that Premier Mussolini was prepared to sacrifice prestige, pride, "anything except human life," to avoid such a war.

CUSHION VANISHES

"Let's not delude ourselves," he added. "The Germans already were at Brenner Pass. Under conditions of modern war, with the speed of motorized transport and the high speed of bombing planes, the value of Austria as a cushion had vanished.

"We have a natural frontier of rugged mountains and we have great military strength.

"In this strength and in the promise of Hitler never to violate the Italian frontier we have great faith."

And it is now clear, the informant declared, that the German government is fully aware Italy will never give up territory south of the border in the Italian Tyrol.

"It is hopeless," he said, "for Hitler to look longingly at this former Austrian territory in his plans for unification of the Germanic peoples."

CHANCELLOR BLAMED

Italy's official view is that former Austrian Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg got what he deserved for attempting to call a plebiscite on Austrian independence without consulting Rome and Berlin. Had he done so, Mussolini might have been able to dissuade him from carrying out that plan.

But now, it was stated, Italy can only echo approval of what has happened. Furthermore, it is believed here that the Austrian problem, sooner or later, would have been solved the way Hitler has solved it in any event.

Officially Italy is declared to have collaborated along the lines of the Rome-Berlin axis "for maintenance of peace."

Press Corps Held At Nazi Gunpoint

Released For Hitler's Vienna Fete After Sentry's Threat to Kill

By H. R. KNICKERBOCKER

International News Service Staff Correspondent

(Copyright, 1938)

VIENNA, March 15—With the entire foreign press corps held prisoner at gun-point until just before he spoke, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler today formally proclaimed the eternal union of Austria and Germany in a speech to countless thousands in the Heroes' square.

Fifty-five correspondents, representing the press of the world, were held for half an hour at the Bundes Kanzlei headquarters of the Austrian government and released just in time to join the tightly-packed, hysterical throng gathered beneath an ocean of flags to hear the Fuehrer.

After Hitler's speech there followed a demonstration of the armed might by which Nazi Germany took this ancient stronghold of civilization and culture under its wing.

Four hundred German bombing planes sweeping low over the center of Vienna taught the Austrians another lesson of Germany's strength as the Fuehrer reviewed his troops.

AUSTRIAN ARMY IN SHOW

It was at 2 p. m. that he made his second appearance in the Heroes' square before the monument of Austria's unknown soldier.

The roar of the airplane engines drowned out the shouts of the crowd as German and Austrian troops goose-stepped before their commander-in-chief.

For the first time since Hitler's arrival, contingents of the Austrian army—50 army trucks, infantry and light and heavy motorized field artillery, participated.

Immediately behind the Austrians came 60 German armored cars and 100 motorized machine-gun units. Most impressive of all was the newest German 'wonder gun" of 10-centimetre calibre, followed by five 15-foot eight-inch siege guns.

Then came an anti-tank detachment of three-inch guns of the type used in the Spanish war, together with anti-aircraft, machine gun and armored car units capable of 45 miles an hour.

HOLD GROUP HALF-HOUR

Hitler's speech at the Heroes monument was delivered at 11 a. m. (5 a. m. E. S. T.), three hours ahead of the original schedule.

On Hitler's return to his hotel, he was accompanied for the first time by Lieutenant-Colonel Franz von Papen, his former ambassador to Vienna.

Von Papen wore his striped and gold-braided German army helmet which distinguished him when he was German military attache in Washington during the war.

Armed German S. S. storm troops and black-uniformed Hitler guards surrounded the Bundes Kanzlei headquarters of the Austrian government just before the demonstration in the Heroes square began.

These troops held prisoner for more than half an hour severrl hundred Austrian military and civilian officials and the foreign journalists.

No official explanation of the detention was given.

After receiving a police card I went downstairs, where four years ago ex-Chancellor Englebert Dollfuss was murdered and where I once before was imprisoned while viewing the scene of his death.

With us on the stairway descended ten high officers of the Austrian army, including two generals.

THREATENS TO SHOOT

We were stopped at the door by a sentry in the black steel helmet and long, black overcoat, black boots and black shirt of Hitler's elite guards. He was carrying a typical short-barreled carbine.

One of the Austrian officers softly inquired:

"Can we get out?"

"Stand back!" shouted the sentry, who was a private.

This prompted one of the generals to speak.

"Do you see my rank? Do you see who I am?" he asked.

The sentry replied:

"I only know I have orders to shoot anybody who tries to get out that door. I tell you I have orders to shoot—and I will shoot!"

He shook the muzzle of his rifle in our faces.

FALL BACK IN SILENCE

The strangely assorted crowd of journalists and Austrian officers fell back silently, some stumbling but all obeying the representative of the unmistakable master of Austria.

As we went upstairs I noticed the Austrian officers glancing at their own swastika arm bands and looking meaningly at each other.

This incident illustrates what a curious combination of willingness, unwillingness, enthusiasm and coercion there is in the reunification of the Germans.

As we were finally released from the Bundes Kanzlei we were able to read an authorized statement that the chief of the German secret police and Nazi storm troops, Heinrich Himmler, had not only been the first Reich German to arrive in Vienna after Schuschnigg's capitulation, but had been able in 24 hours to put 16,000 of his policemen and S. S. troops into Austria.

ESTABLISHED SECURITY

According to this official account, this army of police was distributed to every keypoint in the country and "established perfect security immediately."

Once free from the black uniformed representative of this security we reached a demonstration of indubitable Austrian enthusiasm for reunification.

Four hundred yards from the Bundes Kanzlei we encountered the periphery of a crowd numbering at least half a million jamming the vast space in front of the Heroes' monument, to hear the Fuehrer for the first time formally address the inhabitants of the old Austrian capital.

From the vantage point of a window in the place of our imprisonment we saw how colossal was the multitude gathered to greet the new leader.

The assemblage stretched a quarter-mile, three blocks deep. The people were standing like passengers during the rush hour on the New York subway.

IMPRESSIVE RITE

As a member of the crowd we could observe the faces, drawn and shouting, "Zeig Heil!" This and other Nazi slogans thundered incessantly until the Fuehrer called for silence.

There followed 45 minutes of that impressive Nazi ceremonial that combines the theatrical effects of the greatest Hollywood director and the power and glory of the Roman Caesars.

Hitler returned to his hotel through streets lined with hundreds of thousands, pressed to the breaking point against lines of German police.

He drove ahead, standing erect in an open car, his right arm outstretched, his head up, a proud smile on his usually grave face.

On each side came the familiar cars of his bodyguard, four long, black automobiles with two S. S. men on each runningboard.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

British Seaman Killed in Spain

BARCELONA, March 15 (AP)—A British seaman was killed and four others wounded today when the British steamer Stanwell was bombed and set afire at the Spanish port of Tarragona.

A Danish nonintervention observer also was wounded.

The Stanwell is a 5747-ton vessel registered from London.

The bombing occurred shortly before dawn. Half an hour before an Insurgent hydroplane was brought down and its five occupants burned to death. Officials said they all were Germans.

Tarragona was bombed four times during the early morning. The Stanwell was still burning hours after it was hit and was believed to be a total loss.

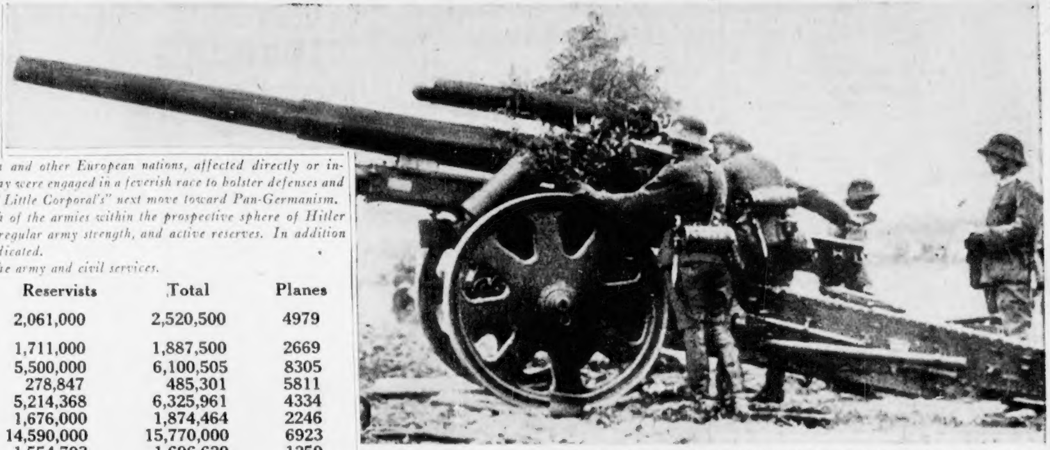
—END WAR BARBARITIES—

Tobin Girls Better

Mayor Tobin's two little daughters, Helen Louise and Carol Ann, confined in bed with grippe, were reported "much better" today. Mrs. Tobin is recovering from a similar illness.

Read the
RENTAL ADS
In Today's American

Europe 'On the March' Fears Nazi Mystery Guns



The new German "mystery gun" which has Europe's world powers on the qui vive. It is said to be more powerful than the French 75's of World War fame. Here we see a gun crew putting the camouflaged big field piece through its paces in maneuvers. The might of German long range guns is still remembered with a shudder, for during the World War Paris was bombarded at intervals from a distance of 50 miles away by the biggest field piece ever known before to the world. What German arms experts will bring forth for the next war has caused major powers to frantically speed up preparations.

Europe in Arms Race, With Pan-Germanism

Great Britain, France, Czechoslavakia, Roumania and other European nations, affected directly or indirectly by Hitler's bloodless conquest of Austria, today were engaged in a feverish race to bolster defenses and build up their armies in anticipation of the modern "Little Corporal's" next move toward Pan-Germanism.

The following table indicates the relative strength of the armies within the prospective sphere of Hitler influence as well as other nations. The table indicates regular army strength, and active reserves. In addition the number of airplanes available in each country is indicated.

The figures include planes of all types in both the army and civil services.

Nation	Regulars	Reservists	Total	Planes
Austria Germany	459,500	2,061,000	2,520,500	4979
Czech	176,500	1,711,000	1,887,500	2669
France	600,505	5,500,000	6,100,505	8305
Britain	206,454	278,847	485,301	5811
Italy	1,111,593	5,214,368	6,325,961	4334
Roumania	198,464	1,676,000	1,874,464	2246
Russia	1,185,000	14,590,000	15,770,000	6923
Jugoslavia	141,836	1,554,793	1,696,629	1250
U. S.	137,960	300,104	438,064	12,366
Hungary	35,044	600,000	635,044

Here is a contingent of Hungarian police troops being trained in the use of the rifle, still the army's best weapon. But whether these arms will be turned at Hitler or again back at France, as in the World War, is an open question. Although the Hungarian government is at present opposed to Hitler, there are thousands of Nazis in that country.

A French machine gun company at maneuvers at Franche Comte in Eastern France, not far from the Maginot line. Horses are being used to convey the machine guns over the marshy terrain. While the Maginot line is considered the greatest defense works ever erected by man, many militarists contend the French have not kept pace in motorized armament.

No. 1 Jew Baiter Plans Big Purge

VIENNA, March 15 (INS)—Julius Streicher, No. 1 Nazi Jew-baiter, arrived today to take charge of the Semitic problem connected with unification of the German Reich and the "Province" of Austria.

His arrival added to the fear of Jews, who have been in near panic ever since Hitler began his bloodless conquest of Austria. It was believed he would launch an immediate anti-Semitic campaign similar to the one which has made his name a dreaded household word in Germany.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Jap Planes, High Bomb Canton Port

HONG KONG, March 15 (INS)—Flying so high they were almost invisible, Japanese planes today bombed the huge southern Chinese port of Canton in one of the most severe attacks the city has yet suffered. Casualties were reported heavy.

The bombers concentrated on the crowded airport, where freight trains were unloading supplies from Hong Kong, and on the Canton Military School.

Dodd Sees Hitler Plot on Czechs

NEW YORK, March 15 (INS)—William E. Dodd, former U. S. ambassador to Germany, looked today for a Hitler invasion of Czechoslovakia—"but not soon."

"He will wait for another convenient moment as he has in Austria," Dodd, a strong critic of the Hitler policies, told a Town Hall Forum.

Dodd scoffed at the suggestion that the Austrian people wanted German rule.

"Two-thirds of them are still holding on to their idea of independence but now, since they can't open their mouths, you wont hear anything about it," he asserted.

He admitted that Hitler's Austrian victory had created "the most solid front in the world."

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Austrian Finance Leader Found Dead

VIENNA, March 15 (AP)—Gottfirend Kunwald, Austrian financier, "unofficial finance minister" and counselor to the late Ignaz Seipel, one of several post-war chancellors, was found dead today in his Innsbruck home. Death was attributed to an overdose of a sleeping medicine.

Warns U. S. Must Arm To Save South America

Continued from First Page

reaches the western hemisphere it reaches us.

"This bill is the grim recognition of that eventuality."

Wadsworth's speech, opening the second day of debate on the huge naval bill, drew prolonged cheers.

VISIONS NAVAL BATTLE

"America may live to see the day when it will have to fight the first naval battle against an aggressor off the coast of Brazil," he said.

"We alone must protect this hemisphere and the navy we have today is not sufficient nor is the one authorized.

"I cannot help but draw the conclusion that force is threatening ruin to the world. It is incumbent upon us to save this country from this philosophy of force."

Discussing America's entrance into the World War, Wadsworth asserted:

"We won the war, but at Versailles we lost the peace."

He blamed the "injustices" of the Versailles treaty for the rise of dictatorships in Europe.

BILL SURE TO PASS

Wadsworth's assertions came as House opponents of naval expansion, convinced the bill cannot be defeated, directed their fire at the measure's controversial declaration of policy.

One of the opposition leaders, Representative Luckey (D.) of Nebraska, charged the expansion bill is "really the beginning" of a five-billion-dollar program.

Luckey called the naval bill the most momentous issue before the nation. The decision to be made, he said, is whether America will follow the path of peace or the path that leads to war.

Representative Randolph (D.) of West Virginia flayed the program as "starting America on a trip to war."

He denounced battleships and those he termed "amateur strategists who demand floating palaces which, in reality, are floating targets for planes."

insistent demands for a speech by massed thousands in the streets of Vienna shortly after Hitler arrived in the old Austrian capital, yesterday, brought the German leader to the balcony of the Hotel Imperial. As the camera clicked on Hitler (arrow) he was making an impromptu speech, in which he gave hints of new conquests. This picture was radioed from London to New York and sent by Soundphoto by International News Photograph Service to Boston.

Hull to Reveal Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Secretary of State Hull worked today on an important speech on foreign policy which he will make Thursday before a National Press Club luncheon.

The address, coming at a time of European unrest, will be broadcast nationally (NBC red network) and carried by short wave throughout the world.

Hull is expected to re-state American principles of conduct toward foreign nations.

The Columbia Broadcasting System said it had invited the undersecretary of state, Sumner Welles, to repeat the address for domestic listeners Thursday night.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

State WPA Head 'Better' at Home

Colonel John J. McDonough, State Works Progress Administration administrator, today was reported as "much better" at his home in South street, Roslindale, to which he was forced to retire yesterday by illness.

18 Reds Believed Slain in Secret

MOSCOW, March 15 (AP)—Guns of the secret police blazing away in execution corridors were believed today to have snuffed out lives of 18 victim's of Russia's latest purge trial.

The details of such executions always are a mystery but if Soviet practice was followed they were carried out soon after rejection of appeals for mercy.

The Supreme Soviet sealed their fate by denying clemency to 17 of the convicted. The name of A. P. Rosengoltz was omitted from the list of appeals denied. It was assumed he had not even asked for mercy.

Three other defendants received long prison sentences.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Water Wings Sent Chief After Plunge

KENNETT SQUARE, Pa., March 15 (AP)—Two weeks ago Police Chief George McCloskey fell into an icy stream as he walked across a narrow log. The 220-pound chief received a mysterious package today. It was a pair of water wings

Spanish Marquise Sees Life Behind War Lines

Marquise Nena Belmonte, member of an ancient Spanish noble family and former New York resident, who is writing behind-the-scenes stories in Spain for International News Service, tells today of one of the Nationalist army's greatest captures

By MARQUISE NENA BELMONTE

BEHIND THE TERUEL FRONT, March 15—I have just made a tour of the concentration camps behind the battle lines in which the captured soldiers are confined by the Nationalist army.

But on the way to the prison camps I passed a swaggering group of young soldiers parading down a road, singing at the tops of their voices. I asked my military chauffeur to stop, for I wanted to ascertain the cause of their jubilation.

Several of the young soldiers cavalierly saluted me when I asked one of them for the cause of their jubilation.

"Senorita," he beamed, "we have just made a most important capture. See?"

And he held out to me an American portable Victrola with perhaps a dozen American jazz records.

They had, it seemed, captured an enemy truck loaded with ammunition. The ammunition had been turned over to their supply officer, but the Victrola was their own spoil of war and they were jauntily taking it back to their billets to play it for their comrades.

The enemy prisoners in the Nationalist camps seems to be very well treated. They're well fed.

The roads hereabouts are filled with wagons and carts piled with household goods of peasants returning to their farms as the Nationalists drive the Red forces back. These peasants fled to the safety of the mountains when their farm lands became the no-man's-land between the opposing armies.

Many are due for great disappointment, for shell-fire played havoc with many of the little farm houses. Their once fertile fields, too, are now only frozen beds of thick mud, pock-marked with shell craters.

Blum Calls War Aides To Map French Defense

PARIS, March 15 (AP)—Premier Leon Blum, beset by war fears and internal political-financial tension, called military officials into conference today to expedite production of fighting equipment.

National Defense Minister Edouard Daladier, Navy Minister Cesar Campinchi and Air Minister Guy La Chambre were summoned for a technical discussion with workers' groups as to the best method of strengthening France to meet the danger of war.

The conference was one of many the premier had with French officials and foreign diplomats, including talks with the envoys of Russia, France's ally in the East, and of the hard-pressed Spanish government.

Financial troubles became more acute as the franc slid to 33.55 to the dollar, lowest point since the franc was stabilized by the Poincare government in 1928.

Blum conferred with Bank of France and treasury officials, but authorities said there was no "extraordinary significance" to these talks in spite of the franc's slide.

Later Blum discussed the general situation with Communist Deputies Jacques Duclos and Marcel Gitton; then summoned Minister of Foreign Affairs Joseph Paul-Boncour.

—STOP SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS—

What is the difference between an ordinary blend and one with more Turkish let Fatima tell you
FATIMA
TURKISH BLEND CIGARETTES
Cameron & Cameron Co. RICHMOND, VA.
NO GOLD TIPS
FINEST QUALITY
The ORIGINAL TURKISH BLEND still the best
.. and only 15¢

Copyright 1938, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

A REPORTER AT THE PAPAL COURT

by THOMAS B. MORGAN

Thomas B. Morgan tells of the early life and education of Pope Pius amid the towering Alps in northern Italy.

CHAPTER TEN

But the desire to go to the great metropolis to the south did not fascinate Achille as much as the desire to get to the Alps. Their height and grandeur, full of awe and power, filled him with a child's wish to be higher than anything else, able to touch the sky. And this directed a life's ambition.

In later years he became a great Alpine climber, and the urge to reach higher and higher forever impelled him to greater conquests of the summits.

His first approach came when his uncle, Don Damien Ratti, took him to Asso, a village on the heights which separate the southern arms of the Lake of Como. Here Don Damien was parish priest.

From Asso, the great Lombard panorama could be seen to the south. Nearby, at the bottom of the steep slopes on the right and left, were the blue waters of the lake. To the north rose the precipitous heights of the Alpine ranges.

It would be difficult to find a more beautiful spot. Achille went to visit his uncle as often as he could; it was all joy to him. From the time he set out in a rickety carriage from Desio over the rough and primitive road until his return, his boyish glee reveled in the love and movement of adventure.

THRILLED BY BEAUTY

His young, absorbing mind would contemplate the scene. He was thrilled with the extent of the plain, the beauty in the ruggedness and steepness of the hillside reaching down into what seemed the unfathomable depth of the blue waters.

And when he faced the north, the Alps, standing like giant sentinels challenging the courage of man, frowned upon the earth and dominated it. It was all bigness, length, depth and height, and there was the longing and determination in him to encompass it all.

But a great event occurred on one of his visits to his uncle. The Archbishop of Milan, Monsignor Di Calabiana, was there. Don Damien, with pride in his heart, presented young Achille to the archbishop.

It was a signal honor to be in the same house with such a high churchman. When Achille, who was eight, got over his first timidity and shyness, he talked very freely with the great man.

He showed to the great joy of his uncle and to the satisfaction of the Archbishop that he was a boy with a valuable combination of traits. He impressed the most reverend head of the archdiocese with his seriousness on the one hand and with his vivacity on the other.

BISHOP NOTED QUALITIES

When his visit ended the archbishop called him, and in the presence of Don Damien pinched his childish cheek, remarking:

"Achille, you are a young old man."

While in Desio I found Battista Cittario, who knew Achille at this age. Cittario was seventy-seven when I first saw him in 1923, and 12 years older than Ratti. When I returned to Desio in 1937, Cittario was still living and was in perfect health at the age of 92.

He stood up and welcomed me in his humble dwelling with the agility of a man of 50 and invited me to lunch which he was then about to eat.

It consisted of carrots, potatoes and cabbage, and gracing the table was a quart of wine. This, he told me, continued to be one of his great indulgences.

"And you know," he recalled, "that when Achille Ratti was last in Desio, he offered me a cup of coffee, which I took.

"Then he remembered something and said, 'But, Battista, I remember thee as a great lover of wine. Thou must have a glass of wine.' I took that, too. He was Cardinal Ratti then, Archbishop of Milan, but he still called me by 'thee' and 'thou,' just as he did when he was a little boy.

ACHILLE RUGGED BOY

"I lived right across the street from him. Our windows faced one another and were only four yards apart because the street was narrow. I remember the day he was born because I was 12 then. My aunt was his nurse and so that made my cousin a 'brother' of Achille. He got to be a strong boy. I tell you he was in every boyish prank.

"He climbed trees and was always chased from the orchards because sometimes he damaged the fruit. He did not wear glasses until he went away to school. He always liked to jump. Always climbing, always jumping. In a fight with my cousin, he got a bloody nose.

"He could run, too, and was the most sure-footed of all he boys. He was good in everything. He often went to church with his mother, for she was a very devout woman.

"His father sent him to Don Giuseppe Volontieri, a priest, who taught his own little school here for 43 years. Nearly everybody remembered him, and when Achille became a priest he came back to Desio to deliver the funeral address over Don Giuseppe.

Young Ratti was with him until he was eight years old and then he was taken by his uncle to Asso.

"Well, it was only a short time after the boy left home to go to Asso that their house burned down. Only the walls were left standing.

HOME REBUILT

"All their belongings went up in smoke, and a big part of the mill went, too. They were able to repair the house and what you see now is what they rebuilt after the fire. The ceiling, the floors and windows are all changed.

"Achille came off the best of all his family. His oldest brother was the stationmaster at the village of Bogeno and only lived until he was 53. His second brother was a silk worker in Lyons and died when he was 51.

"Fermo, the third brother, lived to see Achille made Pope. He stayed at home and helped his father manage the silk mill. The father lived until Achille was made priest. He, too, died young. His mother lived to see him archbishop of Milan. She was 80 when she died.

"Achille has become a great man especially when you think he was just one of us village boys. Desio is proud of its Pope Ratti."

And Desio is very proud of its "Pope Ratti." A huge monument in bronze showing him in his coronation robes and tiara on the pontifical throne, his hand upraised in blessing, occupies the village square.

There are schools, hospitals, welfare institutions, playgrounds and orphanages named after him. Naturally, the street on which he was born is called "Via Pius XI."

SELDOM CALLED "PIUS"

But no one in Desio ever calls him "Pius XI." I noticed that his fellow villagers really feel that they possess him more intimately than the people of the rest of the world. He is "Pius XI" to all the world but to an inhabitant of Desio he is either "Pope Ratti," "Don Achille Ratti," "Achille Ratti" or "Cardinal Ratti."

To call him Pope or Pontiff would make him an ordinary Pope. In the village, Achille Ratti is, above all, their illustrious citizen.

When he left to enter the public schol at Asso he lived with Don Damien. There a career was to begin, rare in scholastic achievement.

From all the records which were available, I discovered that Achille Ratti had a perfect grade through all his school years. There is no record that he ever had a day's sickness. When he finished his two years at Asso the principal gave him the following certificate:

PROVINCE OF COMO
Elementary Boys' School

This certifies that Achille Ratti, son of Francesco, born in Desio, has regularly attended the third elementary class in the year 1866-1867 and, having secured 30 points out of a possible 30 points in his examinations, is hereby proclaimed ready for promotion according to Article 49 of the regulation approved by Royal Decree Sept. 15, 1860.

Asso, Aug. 14, 1867.

(Signed) EUGENIO PRINA,
Principal
C. PRATO,
Inspector.

The principal on August 31, 1867, issued his report card. It showed his marks in all subjects as follows:

Catechism	10	Geography	10
History	10	Writing	10
Moral Instruction		Arithmetic	10
	10	Geometry	10
Italian	10	Conduct	10

This finished the boy's term at the Asso school and now Don Damien, after consulting Francesco and Teresa Ratti and talking things over with Achille, had decided to send him to the minor seminary school of the Archdiocese of Milan.

This was located in the district just a few miles from both Asso and Desio. It was the seminary of St. Peter the Martyr, in the village of Seveso. Don Damien wrote the rector:

"I have a nephew, Achille Ratti, aged 10, whom I would like to start on his ecclesiastical career. Not knowing whether nor when in these exceptional moments the examinations for admission in seminaries may be held, I earnestly desire to ask you to be good enough to inform me whether it is possible to accept the application of my nephew."

I went to the seminary to discover whether there was a reply to this letter but the only record shows that Achille Ratti entered the seminary in November of that same year.

The rector, Don Luigi Pagani, told me that at St Peter's seminary there were no records of the school work of Achille Ratti. It was plain, however, that the discipline in the seminary was very strict, even though the boys were only from 10 to 14 years of age.

PLAYED IN CASSOCKS

Nevertheless I saw them playing in the courtyard in their cassocks and they played with a vigor commensurate with their ages, shouting and jumping, perfectly oblivious to any dignity the cassock might impose. In the same seminary Achille Ratti also shouted and jumped as much as any of the other boys.

It was here on the opening day of school in 1867 that he first put on the ecclesiastical robes of a seminary student.

Here he first donned the cassock, and though at this early age no vows were to be taken, the direction which his life was to take was becoming more clearly defined and he was closer than ever before to making the final decision.

And he knew how to wear the cassock. On that same day another boy, who was later to become Cardinal-Archbishop of Palermo entered.

Young Alessandro Lualdi, the stranger, had great difficulty in getting into the priestly apparel. Achille came to his assistance. Lualdi never forgot this and recalled it more vividly than ever when Achille was elected Pope.

TROUBLE WITH COLLAR

"I knew him as a boy, when I first entered the seminary school of Milan," he reminisced. "My father accompanied me. I was still dressed as a layman. Father came upstairs with me to the large dormitory to help me put on the cassock of a priest for the first time.

"To my own satisfaction and the wonder of my father, who was helping in my transformation, everything was going very well. But when it came to the collar, the trouble began, because I did not know how to put it on.

"At the end of the dormitory was another scholar, busy arranging his modest wardrobe. He understood the difficulty and came to our help. That boy who put on my collar for the very first time was Achille Ratti."

It was at this period, too, that the fortunes of the devout family again turned for the best. Francesco Ratti, after years of success as a manager, became proprietor by securing a part interest in the Galli mills at Fertusella, which also were in the neighborhood of Desio.

Besides, he took the position of general manager and thus finally reached the top of social and financial prominence in the region.

LIKED SKETCHING

Those who remember Achille Ratti in the seminary school say that he had a great bent for drawing and would study all the sacred paintings and try to copy them. Whenever his parents asked what kind of present he would like for any given occasion, he generally said he wanted brushes, paints, crayons and drawing paper.

He would voluntarily sketch and copy things in his spare time, so that under the rigid discipline of this religious school it became his great recreation.

The boys there had no organized sports as the institutions in Italy and other countries now have. A group of 20 or 30 of them would be taken once or twice a week for a walk, which was thought sufficient to keep them in ordinarily good physical condition.

The boys may have been allowed occasionally to climb a tree but not without serious misgivings on the part of the teachers, who also maintained that tree-climbing was not in keeping with the dignity of the cassock.

But, from the fact that Achille Ratti made Alpine climbing a serious sport of his life, we can conclude in justice that he had both the inclination and physical equipment of a great athlete. What he has said and done since have encouraged sport and physical education throughout the Catholic world.

TOLD OF OWN PLAY

"Study, be pure and devout," he said to a group of students he addressed as Pontiff. "Preserve and develop all the vigor of your physical forces. Mens sana in corpore sano. Be gay, amuse yourselves and play at the right time. You will never play as much as I played when I was your age."

From the seminary school of St. Peter's, young Ratti went to the major seminary at Monza. Here he spent three years and here he began to show that great mental versatility which was to be his predominant asset as he stepped higher in his career.

Hard work in all the studies, met with eagerness and coupled with his quick mental responses, enabled him to develop that agility of mind so necessary in a great preacher and teacher of men.

The perfect mark in scholarship followed him all through his courses in Monza. He entered in 1871 and was graduated in 1874.

The records of the seminary show that in ten courses he obtained the highest grade possible, during the entire three years. The 1871-1872 registers show him:

Preliminary Vows	10
Christian Doctrine	10
Italian	10
Latin	10
Greek	10
History	10
Mathematics	10
Natural History	10

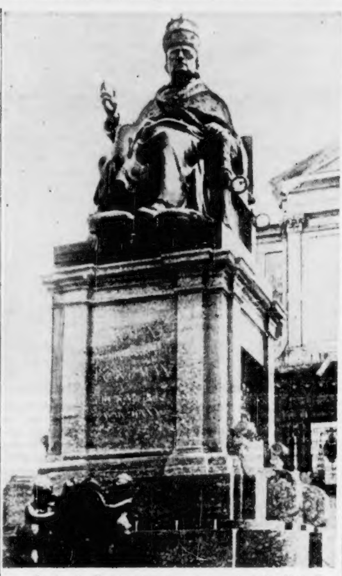
The scholastic years of 1872-1873 and 1873-1874 show identically the same marks.

He continued to spend his vacations with his uncle at Asso. Here was true relaxation from the rigid regulations of seminary life. Everything was so different. It was a growing boy's vacation—trees, birds, hills and the lake.

He roamed the wooded slopes, scaled the summit of the nearby mountains to view the plain, and descended to the blue waters of the lake. The boys of his uncle's parish church gave him youthful company and there were trips and the outdoors the summer long.

(Copyright, 1938, by Thomas B. Morgan; distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Tomorrow, Thomas B. Morgan tells of Achille Ratti's decision to become a priest and mentions the violent anti-clerical scenes which the Pope-to-be witnessed.



Desio, the Pope's birthplace, is proud of the Holy Father. This huge monument in bronze has been erected on the village square. It shows the Pontiff in his coronation robes and tiara on the papal throne, his hand upraised in blessing.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Safety Parley Planned Here

Delegates from 200 Massachusetts cities and towns, and from 30 elsewhere in New England, have been invited to attend the 17th annual Massachusetts Safety Conference in the Hotel Statler, next Monday and Tuesday.

General John H. Sherburne is president of the Conference and Edward Dana, president of the Boston Elevated Railway, is chairman of the conference committee.

The Conference, which is serious in its purpose, will unbend on Monday night for a "Smile Party" in the hotel ballroom. Already 1000 reservations have been made for this.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Wed 65 Years, Pair Die in Two Days

PORTLAND, Ore. (INS) — Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes, who lived together happily during 65 years of marriage, were separated only for a day by death.

Mrs. Rhodes died while her husband was receiving treatment for an illness at the same hospital. He died the following day, without learning of his wife's death.

Movie Contest Open Until March 23

$10,000 Prize Total To Go to Residents Of New England

Contestants in the Boston Evening American's "Name the Movie Stars" game, which ended last Saturday, still have until midnight March 22, to submit their completed entries. The 576 prizes, totaling $10,000, will be awarded to bona fide New England residents who can unscramble the mixed-up letters in the 49 pictures printed in the Boston Evening American.

Be sure to include a letter with your name and address with your entry. This letter must also include not more than 50 words on who is your favorite movie actor. You may write on ANY player you wish. You need not confine yourself to the names used in the "Name the Movie Stars" game. These letters will be considered only in the event of ties in naming the players.

NO ENTRIES RETURNED

Entries will be judged by a committee chosen by the Boston American. All entrants agree that the judges' decisions must be final. No entries can be returned. All solutions must be sent in by first class mail. Be sure to include sufficient postage on your entry, so that there will be no delay in delivery.

Prizes will be paid to persons sending in the nearest completed set of solutions unscrambled names. Neither elaboration nor handwriting will be considered in making the awards. In the event of a tie between or among the two or more contestants for any of the prizes, the prize or prizes next in order will be combined in a lump sum and then evenly distributed among those tying.

FIRST IS $2500

First prize is $2500 in cash. Other cash awards include: $1250, second prize; $1000, third prize; $500, fourth; $200, fifth and $100 sixth. Remaining money prizes are: 10 prizes of $50 each; 20 prizes of $25 each; 150 prizes of $10; and 390 prizes at $5 each.

It's not too late to share in $10,000 in cash prizes! "Name The Movie Stars"—the game with big prizes! Nothing to pay, no play-off series, and no library research!

Watch this paper daily for contest details!

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Walsh to Force 'Dictator' Test

WASHINGTON, March 15 (INS) —President Roosevelt's government reorganization proposal was scheduled for its first major test in the Senate today when a vote will be taken on an amendment to prohibit elimination of the civil service commission.

Senator Barkley, majority floor leader, obtained unanimous consent for the vote after bitter debate over various aspects of the measure.

The vote will be on an amendment offered by Senator Walsh (D), Massachusetts, that would exclude the civil service commission from the presidential axe.

The measure, as reported to the Senate, abolishes the commission and sets up a one-man civil service administrator with an advisory board.

"There are plenty of things wrong with our present civil service system," declared Senator McKellar (D), Tenn., "but I would rather have it than a 15-year dictatorship as proposed by this bill."

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

European Judges For Flower Show

An international flavor will be given the 67th annual New England Spring Flower Show at Mechanics Hall with the addition of judges from Great Britain, France and Germany officials of the event announced today.

The show opens Thursday and continues until March 23. Among the judges, according to Chairman William Ellery of the prize award committee, will be Mrs. Constance Spry of London, outstanding floral arrangement expert, and consultant to the British Royal family.

BUDGETED loans made on a business basis to help people meet pressing financial needs is one of the functions of the Loan Companies advertising daily in the "Money to Loan" columns of the Boston American and Sunday Advertiser.

Turn to the Classified

Patriotic Groups Hit 'Dictator Bill'

V. F. W. and D. A. R. Urge State Solons Defeat 'Reorganization' Plan

Bay State patriotic societies today urged Senators David I. Walsh and Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., and all Massachusetts congressmen to oppose passage of President Roosevelt's Reorganization Bill now under debate in the Senate.

Patrick S. O'Donnell, State Commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, has communicated with the state's congressional representatives asking their support in the drive being made by the veterans to defeat the bill as an "unconstitutional and dictatorial" measure.

The veterans voiced their opposition to the bill at a meeting recently held at the Parker House by post members and auxiliaries.

"While national headquarters has not as yet taken a definite stand on the general provisions of the bill, I feel there is a possibility that if the measure is passed those in power might authorize the absorption of the Veterans' Administration or the United States Employment Service," said Commander O'Donnell.

"We feel it our duty to urge Massachusetts senators and congressmen to oppose the measure, a move, which, in our opinion, will be for the best interests of the people."

Leaders of other organizations, including the largest in the state, have expressed similar appeals for defeat of the legislation.

The bill, which is supported by a pro-administration bloc, provides that the President be given power to reorganize all but 15 federal bureaus.

It further provides that the present three-man national civil service commission to be replaced with a single administrator, who would be a "virtual dictator."

A third major point provides that the budget director and auditor-general replace the comptroller-general, who, in the past, has blocked a number of unwise financial measures.

Other provisions would add a post of "Secretary of Welfare" to the President's cabinet, and would give him six additional executive assistants.

Another patriotic group opposing the bill are the Daughters of the Revolution.

Miss Grace Gay, of Malden, nominated as the organization's next national president, said:

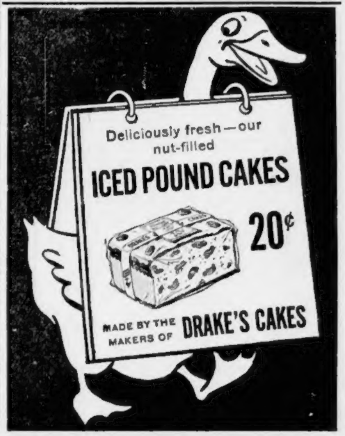
"The Daughters of the Revolution, local and national, are unalterably opposed to this bill."

Democratic and Republican senators and congressmen are opposing the bill along non-political lines.

37,781,710 Get Security Numbers

Washington, March 15 (AP)—The Social Security Board announced today that 37,781,710 men and women had applied for account numbers by February 28.

SHOE REPAIR SPECIAL
LADIES' LEATHER
HEELLIFTS
PAIR ATTACHED! 9¢
WHILE YOU WAIT SERVICE
QUALITY MATERIALS
GUARANTEED WORKMANSHIP
SHOE REPAIR DEPARTMENT—MAIN FLOOR
NEISNER'S 5¢ to $1.00 STORE
349 WASHINGTON ST.
OPPOSITE RAYMOND'S



OVER 400 NAMES
OF STAGE, RADIO AND MOVIE STARS in the National Almanac
And Year Book
ON SALE
AT YOUR NEWSDEALER'S
New England EDITION
NATIONAL ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK 1938
59¢
Get Your Copy TODAY!

WHAT'S WHAT IN AMERICA!
This great Almanac is divided into 30 major divisions—each section is a logical arrangement of material with the result that THIS Almanac can be READ as well as used as a reference book.
960 PAGES PACKED WITH INFORMATION
- Introduction
- Chronology of 1937
- American History
- American Government
- Politics and Political Parties
- Geography—America and the World
- States, Territories, Dependencies and Cities
- Population—United States and the World
- Immigration and Naturalization
- The Federal Court System
- Criminology and Penology
- Public Health
- Education
- The Arts, Culture
- Organizations
- Religion
- Science
- Standard of Living
- Labor
- Agriculture
- Business and Industry
- Money
- Foreign Trade
- Transportation and Communication
- Sports
- Foreign Countries
- Weights and Measures
- Astronomical Calculations
- Boston
- New England

150 Pages Devoted to Information and Statistics Concerning
BOSTON AND ALL THE NEW ENGLAND STATES
Accurate information regarding Agriculture, Banking, Business, School Departments, Public Offices and other important items of the towns, cities, and counties of the New England States in this New England section.

ORDER BY MAIL IF YOU WISH • USE THIS BLANK

GREATER BOSTON DISTRIBUTORS, Inc.
40 WALTHAM STREET,
BOSTON, MASS. Date ....
Enclosed is my (check) (Money Order) for ....
Please send prepaid to the address below .... copies of the NATIONAL ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK FOR 1938 at the rate of 59 cents per copy, postage prepaid.
NAME ....
P. O. ADDRESS ....
TOWN .... STATE ....
(Write Name and Address Clearly)

STOP THIS
WE GROW NEW HAIR!
ACT NOW BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE and dandruff and stop falling hair. EXAMINATION FREE. For years New England's most successful hair growing specialists.
Hours 10 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sat. to 6:30
TRABELSIE-SYSTEM
25 Years Successful Hair Growing Specialists
175 TREMONT ST.,
SUITE 416, EVANS BLDG.

Two Selectmen Defeated in Weymouth

New Moderator in Scituate; Hingham Votes $507,815

Defeat of two selectmen in Weymouth and of Scituate's incumbent moderator in elections yesterday was recorded today as final tabulations in the balloting were made public.

At the same time, reports of towns meetings held in a number of Massachusetts communities, in which financial policies for the coming year were voted, poured in.

At Weymouth, Sandy Roulston, Joseph Creehan and Everett E. Calahan were re-elected to the Board of Selectmen. The two upsets occurred when George E. Lane and Ralph P. Burrell gained seats formerly held by Joseph A. Fern and Marshall Spear.

Defeated by only 26 votes, Fern immediately sought a recount.

SHEA IS VICTOR

All other officers were re-elected. They were George Curtin, town treasurer; Mrs. Ethel Taylor and Dr. Wallace Drake, school committee, and Francis Gunn and John W. Heffernan, assessors.

In Scituate, Dennis H. Shea won out over Moderator William J. Roberts in an upset tally, while Philip S. Bailey defeated Dr. Harry F. Cleverly for the three-year selectmen term in another unlooked-for result. Chairman W. Irving Lincoln of the board of selectmen was elected assessor.

Hingham voters, jamming town hall in the largest town meeting ever held in the community's 300 years of existence, defeated a number of proposed zoning laws and voted appropriations of $507,815 for the coming year. It was an increase of $23,000 over last year.

VOTE POLICE RADIO

More than 1500 persons attended the meeting. They passed all but three of the recommendations made by the planning board and the advisory committee. Moderator Arthur T. Russell, vice-president of the New Haven Railroad, presided.

Stoneham voters passed a measure to provide the town with a new, two-way police radio system and approved appropriations of approximately $433,942 for the coming year. Largest budget items were school $167,660 and relief $110,954.

Wellesley's town meeting will convene again tonight. It acted on only 11 of the 55 articles in the warrant, adopting a substitute school department budget providing for transportation of children in the Sprague school district to the Hardy school.

WRAGG ELECTED

Needham election results revealed that President Samuel Wragg of the State Senate had been elected moderator for the town meeting to be held next Monday.

Defeating a field of eight candidates, Bertha Behnke, who has been assistant to Clarence E. Foss, retired town clerk, was named to succeed him. Ray C. Hall, Julius Haller and William T. Brown were elected to the Board of Selectmen. Mrs. Gertrude W. Queen and Maurice B. Brown were named to the school committee, while Charles E. Stanwood was elected treasurer and Howard A. Flewelling was named assessor.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Woman Driver Gets Jail Term

Malden Wife Pleads Guilty to Hit-Run

A 37-year-old Malden housewife broke down and wept in Suffolk Superior Court today after she was sentenced to two months in the House of Correction on two hit-and run charges.

The woman, Mrs. Helen F. Kaylor of Davis street, Malden, suddenly changed her plea to guilty after a jury had been impaneled and sworn in before Judge George F. James.

Awaiting transfer to the House of Correction, she sobbed:

"I've been suffering terribly the past month."

Judge James also fined her $50 each on charges of operating a car while under the influence of liquor and operating so as to endanger.

Police alleged she was the driver of the car which knocked down a pedestrian and then collided with another automobile, injuring two persons, on Tremont street, downtown, February 3. She was arrested after a short chase, police charged.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Plan Entente Meeting

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 15 (INS)—The Little Entente countries will hold a meeting here next week to consider developments growing out of the Austro-German situation, it was learned today.

LOW COST TRAVEL
IN THE NEW Luxury BUSES
True riding ease for 24 passengers! No [illegible] wheel-house seats ... more knee room ... EVERY MODERN DEVICE to insure the maximum of SAFETY, ALL WEATHER COMFORT and SILENT, ODORLESS operation! If you want to TRAVEL WORRY FREE, TRAVEL N.E.T.
75¢ to PROVIDENCE ONE WAY $1.35 ROUND TRIP
PARK SQ. COACH TERMINAL
196 BOYLSTON STREET TEL. COM. 2100
NEW ENGLAND TRANSPORTATION CO.

Expert Prepares Dishes for Lent

Boston Evening American Photo

Martha Lee, home economist, is shown holding egg ring crab meat salad which was demonstrated at the cooking school in St. Brigid's Church in South Boston yesterday.

Martha Lee Demonstrates Foods to Crowded Hall in South Boston

Dishes with a two-fold purpose, food appropriate for Lent and green for St. Patrick's Day, won applause when prepared by Martha Lee, home economist, at the St. Brigid's Church cooking school in South Boston.

More than 400 persons crowded the auditorium of Nazareth school to attend the demonstration, sponsored by the Women's Sodality of St. Brigid's Church in co-operation with the Boston Evening American-Sunday Advertiser.

As her most important offering in a variety of dishes Miss Lee prepared an oven dinner featuring baked stuffed haddock, baked potatoes and frosted green peas to lend timely color. Chocolate bread pudding with hard sauce was the dessert.

CRABMEAT SALAD

Another Lenten dish which gained special favor was an egg ring crabmeat salad. A dozen hard cooked eggs were riced and added with salt, ketchup and lemon juice to two tablespoons of gelatin dissolved in water. Two cups of mayonnaise were blended in and the mixture chilled in a refrigerator. Crabmeat to which heavy cream, ketchup, salt and lemon juice were added filled the center of the ring. For Saturday night supper Miss Lee suggested baked shoulder, Dutch oven baked beans, green bowl salad, banana loaf cake, cranberry sherbet and tea or coffee.

In making the "tossed" salad Miss Lee offered an innovation in the form of cucumber sliced without having been peeled. The green of the peels provided additional brightness to the colorful salad.

FOR QUICK MEAL

For a quick meal Miss Lee suggested grilled tuna on toast, broiled bananas with eggs, coffe souffle, all-bran fudge squares, and tea or coffee.

In making the fudge squares the home economist added four squares of melted unsweetened chocolate to two beaten eggs. Half a cup of flour, one half cup of all bran and an equal amount of nut meats with a teaspoon of vanilla were stirred into the mixture. This was spread about one third of an inch thick in a greased pan and baked 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

Members of the St. Brigid's Sodality who had charge included Mrs. Michael Dullea, Mrs. Carl Brinkman, Miss Mary Higgins and Mrs. Henry Fuhs. The Rev. Patrick Waters, spiritual director, and Roy Christmas and Frank Fuhs also assisted.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Ex-Bostonian Gets U. S. Vocational Job

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Frank Cushman, chief of the Trade and Industrial Education Service, advanced today to the position of consultant in vocational education in the Department of Interior.

Dr. J. C. Wright, assistant commissioner for vocational education, will take over Cushman's former job for the time being. Cushman at one time held a vocational education position in Boston.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Soviet Pole Group Hailed on Return

MOSCOW, March 15 (AP)—The four Soviet explorers rescued February 19 from a drifting ice floe in the Arctic ocean were acclaimed on their return to Leningrad today aboard the icebreaker Yermak.

Army planes escorted the Yermak in the harbor, welcoming Ivan Papanin and his three companions.

The return was timed to come after the trial of 21 alleged traitors to the Soviet cause.

Youth Sees His Appendix Cut

Watches Operation by Using Mirror

SUNBURY, Pa., March 15 (AP)—A mirror gave Robert Noll, 16, a good view of the operation while a surgeon was removing his appendix.

Noll, a high school senior, insisted he be permitted to watch after he learned a lung condition prevented giving an anaesthetic. A spinal injection was used.

Dr. W. H. Elster of Sunbury held the mirror while Dr. R. W. Johnston of Selinsgrove operated yesterday.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

House Board O.K.'s Food, Drug Measure

WASHINGTON, March 15 (INS)—A revised pure food and drug bill was favorably reported today by the House Interstate Commerce committee. It was decided to press for final enactment in this session of Congress.

The measure, first important revision in 31 years, tightens provisions of the present law and extends its terms to cover cosmetics, and many drugs not covered now, such as fat reducers.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Harvard Club Will Hear Dr. Sprague

Dr. O. M. W. Sprague, former advisor to the United States Treasury Department and the Bank of England and professor at Harvard Business School, will be guest speaker before the Boston Club of Harvard Business School alumni at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night.

He will talk on "The Recovery Problem."

Photogenic Girl Quest Starts; Fame Assured

Possibly a model's career; possibly a movie career—at any rate, fame and a good time.

If you are photogenic—a girl who photographs well and alluringly from any angle.

The hunt for Boston's photogenic feminine face is under way and you are invited to enter this unique contest.

As rewards for the winner there is a free airplane trip to New York and return, by American Air Lines; a professional make-up kit; a half-dozen cabinet photos; a professional film test, and other awards.

Elizabeth Arden's Salon will make up the winner's features for the camera and will award the professional make-up kit.

WINNER ON AIR

The girl selected in this contest will be interviewed over WBZ.

And her film test, to be looked over by movie talent scouts, will be taken at the first Boston independent camera and film exposition, April 21, 22 and 23, in the Hotel Brunswick.

To enter this contest is matter exceedingly simple.

Merely mail in your photograph, with your name and address plainly inscribed on the back, to "Photogenic Contest, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop square, Boston, Mass."

THREE JUDGES

Three photographic authorities will go over every picture to judge the subject's photogenic qualities.

The decision of these judges will be final, and no photographs will be returned.

These are the only conditions in the contest—and your face may be your fortune.

Never before has so much importance been attached to truly photogenic features—faces which, when photographed, appeal to all ages and both sexes.

PHOTOGRAPHS VALUED

Editors know that their stories in magazines and newspapers would not be so widely read without true-to-life photographs of the subjects.

Truly photogenic features are always in demand, by professional photographers, the movies, editors and advertisers. They are willing to pay excellent fees for photographing attractive models.

So, if you believe YOU are photogenic, send in your photo.

Madame Bianco Funeral Rites On Thursday

Voice Teacher Here Was Widow of Noted Artist

Funeral services for Madame Pieretto Bianco, noted voice teacher and widow of the famous artist who died a year ago in Italy, will be held Thursday at 3 p. m. in the Eastman Funeral Home at 896 Beacon street, Boston.

Madame Bianco taught voice in Rome, New York and Boston. The former Mildred Turner of San Francisco, she married Bianco in 1916.

She lived at 410 Stuart street and had studios on Huntington avenue. She is survived by a brother and a sister, Joseph, and Violet Turner of Alameda, Cal.

THOMAS F. KENNEDY

Funeral rites for Thomas F. Kennedy, former South Boston man, who became well known in the hotel trade, will take place tomorrow at 9 a. m. in St. Augustine's Church, South Boston. He died in Bermuda a few days ago and his body was returned here yesterday.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Ruth Kennedy; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kennedy; two brothers, John J. Kennedy of Wollaston and Walter J. Kennedy, and four sisters, Mrs. Joseph Sullivan, Weymouth; Mrs. Lemuel Daigle, Dorchester; Mrs. Alice Wallace and Miss Madge Kennedy.

MRS. A. B. PFENNIG

Rites for Mrs. Avis Bowman Pfennig, formerly of Everett, wife of Richard E. Pfennig, national director for United Air Lines, will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. in the Eastman Funeral Home, 896 Beacon street, Boston. She died in Chicago Sunday.

She was born and attended schools in Everett. She is survived by her husband, a daughter, two, and four sisters.

REV. B. C. COHAUSZ

Funeral services for the Rev. Bernard C. Cohausz, 69, former superior of Holy Trinity Church, Shawmut avenue, South End, will be held tomorrow at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., according to word received from that city today.

Fr. Cohausz died Saturday night at the Novitiate of St. Andrew at Poughkeepsie.

Until his retirement a year ago because of ill health, he served several years as assistant prefect of discipline at Canisius College, Buffalo, N. Y., and became superior of St. Ann's Church in Buffalo eight years ago.

He was at the South End church for five years.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Potter to Greet Finance Men

Adrian E. Potter, secretary of the convention bureau of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce, will give an address of welcome to the members of the Massachusetts Association of Personal Finance Companies at their regular quarterly meeting to be held at Hotel Kimball, Springfield, on Thursday. Earl E. Davidson, supervisor of Loan Agencies in Massachusetts, will also have an important message.

Reports will be rendered by Thomas P. Corcoran of Westfield, president of the association; John R. Deignan of Boston, secretary; Sidney E. Blandford of Boston, treasurer; Martin W. Newman, chairman of public relations; William E. Norton, chairman of membership; E. F. Moore, chairman of publicity, and Charles A. Gates, director of social relations.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Speed Bill Killed

A bill seeking to limit auto speeds on Massachusetts highways to 45 miles in the day time and 40 miles at night stood killed by the House today. The House refused to reconsider its action of last week, when it rejected the measure.

Sees Jewish Art Doomed By European Dictator

Yiddish Producer Praises Hearst Policies

Maurice Schwartz, famous actor-director of the Yiddish Art Theatre Company, was of the opinion today that Jewish culture in Europe was doomed unless democracy came to the rescue.

The dynamic producer, here to present his latest success "Brothers Ashkenazi" at the Majestic, made it a point to warmly endorse the anti-paganism, anti-Communism policy of William Randolph Hearst and to denounce dictatorship in Europe because it is "both dangerous to Christian and Hebrew integrity."

Schwartz said:

"The policies of Hearst newspapers to promote mutual understanding between fundamental beliefs, racial or otherwise, has always been appreciated by me.

"To me, dictatorship in Europe is both dangerous to Christian and Hebrew integrity. Above all it is a threat to art—and the theater is part of it."

Schwartz, director of an experimental company which gave Hollywood its famous Paul Muni, said that Mr. Hearst was "constantly aware" of the necessary combination of democracy and creative work.

He added:

"Democracy must come to the rescue of Europe if art is to exist. The Jew, if given a chance to be a Jew, is a born artist. Tolerance is the mother of free expression, and Mr. Hearst has realized it when he supports a man's right to exercise his own beliefs."

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Hurley May Pick Ronan as Judge

Assistant Attorney General James G. Ronan is slated for appointment as judge of the probate court at Salem, the Boston Evening American learned today.

Out of a number of aspirants, whose names were proposed to Governor Hurley for replacement of the late Judge Edward O'Brien, the first assistant to Attorney-General Paul A. Dever is known to appeal strongest to the chief executive.

Another prominently mentioned for the post is William F. Shanahan, present register of probate, who presided at the recent Swampscott banquet where Governor Hurley lashed out with his famous "trimmers and traitors" charge against Lieutenant-Governor Kelly and State Auditor Buckley.

The name of the new appointee is due to be submitted to the Governor's council at its meeting tomorrow.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

3 R. I. Men Held In Cable Case

NEWPORT, R. I., March 15 (AP)—Two Newport men, John J. Sullivan, 27, and Angelo Hamos, 20, were held in $1000 each today for hearing March 25 after pleading innocent to maliciously cutting a submarine cable used for telephone communication between Newport and the naval torpedo station. In lieu of bail they were remanded to county jail.

Police Inspector Samuel Dugan said the men confessed they hacksawed the 2000-foot cable and sold part of it for junk.

James Griffin, Jr., 17, pleaded innocent to being an accessory and also was held in $1000.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

ELSIE ROBINSON, writes from the woman's viewpoint, discusses every day affairs and problems, regularly in the Boston American.

IF you are happy and peppy and full of fun, men will take you places. But, if you are cross and always tired out, men won't like you. Men don't like "quiet" girls. They want girls who are full of pep.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling thru" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening discomforts from the functional disorders which women endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

For free trial bottle tear out this notice and send with your name and address to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., 409 Cleveland St., Lynn, Mass. Do it NOW before you forget.

Pinkham's Compound, made especially for women from Nature's wholesome herbs and roots, has helped women for over 60 years.

SHOLOM SECUNDA

MAURICE SCHWARTZ

Sold Song for $30, Then Saw It Earn $250,000

This is the story of a man who sold a song for $30, saw it become a hit annd earn a quarter of a million dollars—and yet doesn't feel "bad about it."

He is Sholom Secunda—and the song is "Bei Mir Bist Du Schon."

Secunda, who has been writing songs for 20 years, tried to sell the tune to Hollywood but, he says, "They couldn't see it."

"When I returned to New York," he continued," I was so disgusted that I grabbed $30 for it and said 'good riddance.'

"It may seem strange but I don't feel bad about it at all when I think of all the money it has made the New York music publishers. My name is still associated with the song and I'm sure that the popularity will help me eventually in selling other tunes."

Secunda arrived in Boston to direct the musical score of "Brothers Askenazi" at the Majestic Theater.

WRITING 20 YEARS

He has been writing music for 20 years and wrote the tune of "Bei Mir Bist du Schon" in 1932. He sold the musical score last September.

Born in the East Side of New York, he revealed that 18 years ago the late George Gershwin, famous composer, suggested they get together" and collaborate on songs.

"We were kids together but I refused thinking we couldn't get anywhere," he said. "George went up to Broadway—Tin Pan alley—and became famous. Whenever I met him, up until the time he died last summer, he always 'rubbed' it in."

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Retain Newport's Railroad Service

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 15—A storm of protests today saved Newport from railroad isolation.

The New Haven Railroad announced abandonment of their plan to halt railroad service on the Newport-Boston line. Earlier the road had sought to end service on March 27 to Newport, the nation's swank summer resort and also a leading United States naval base.

Harvard Author's Son Suicide At College

"Holworthy Hall's" Boy, R. S. Porter, Shoots Self

Richard Sears Porter, 19, son of Harold Everett Porter, late author whose pen name was Holworthy Hall, shot himself to death at Black Mountain College, Ashville, N. C., dispatches from there disclosed today.

According to Medical Examiner George F. Baier, Jr., the 19-year-old student, direct descendant of William Dunster, first president of Harvard University, committed suicide in his dormitory room.

His late father was one of Harvard's most noted graudates, and it was the name of his Harvard dormitory, Holworthy Hall, that the father adopted as his pen name.

According to police, Porter was found with a bullet through his forehead. The weapon was found nearby.

Word that young Porter had ended his life came as a shock to prominent Boston society folks with whom he mingled during the summer months.

Efforts to locate his mother or his sister, Mrs. Nathaniel W. Niles, widow of the late Nate Niles, Boston society fancy skater and tennis champion were unavailing today.

According to authorities at Ashville, no motive could be established for young Porter's strange suicide. College authorities told police the boy had appeared depressed for three months, despite his high marks.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Youth Confesses To 9 Auto Thefts

A 17-year-old Charlestown youth today confessed in the police headquarters lineup that he had stolen nine automobiles since early in January in order to "loop" on Charlestown's "Death Curve." Arrested after an extensive investigation, he was taken into municipal court for arraignment. Police said he would be charged with larceny.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYME-

Leaps to Death In Front of Train

NORWALK, Ct., March 15 (INS)—As scores of prospective passengers looked on, James A. Harlow, 35, of Westport, was instantly killed today when he leaped in the path of a New York express train as it was coming to a stop at the terminal here, according to police.

"Where do you save your money these days?"
"In my Mutual Savings Bank ...it's a different kind of bank!"
Do YOU know the difference between Mutual Savings Banks and other banks?

There are no stockholders in Mutual Savings Banks. You become a part owner in your Mutual Savings Bank when you open an account. You are protected by a tremendous surplus—combined reserves of $220,000,000—and you share with other depositors in every dollar of the bank's profit.

Last year Massachusetts depositors were paid over fifty-two million dollars in these dividends.

This type of bank, of the people, for the people, and by the people, was first developed in the United States in Boston in 1816. Today there are 193 in Massachusetts. They share in a record of 121 years of successful operation through prosperity and panics, war and peace.

They are chartered by the State and come under the direct supervision of the Massachusetts Banking Department.

As a resident of this state you may share in the profits of your local Mutual Savings Bank and gain the proven protection it offers your savings. Don't hope that someone else will create security for you or your family — open an account today.

MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS of Massachusetts
SAVE WHERE YOU SEE THIS SEAL
MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS STABILITY OF MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL SAVINGS CENTRAL FUND
Operated for the sole benefit of depositors

TUNE in to stations WBZ and WBZA for announcements twice daily—between 9 and 9.30 a.m. and 6.05 and 6.25 p.m.

Betty Alden on Beacon Hill

Smith Dramatic Club Invades Cambridge Next Week

By BETTY ALDEN

"LADIES FIRST" is a time honored feminine prerogative which the girls of the Smith College Dramatic Club will use to good advantage when they invade Cambridge Monday night . . .

Exactly one week before the curtain rises on the first act of the famous Hasty Pudding show, the Smithites will present the George Kaufman and Katherine Dayton Broadway success, "First Lady," in Brattle Hall under the sponsorship of the Cambridge Smith College Club . . .

NANCY PEABODY

The play, which represents the Smith Dramatic Club's first venture into the Cambridge domain . . . previously dominated by Hasty Pudding, Pi Eta and the Harvard Dramatic Clubs . . . will be followed by a dance . . . Proceeds of the event will be contributed to the Smith College Scholarship fund . . .

Because this expedition into previously unoccupied territory might easily be called a feminine military foray, members of the battalion will be billetted like visiting troops . . .

Mrs. Stephen A. Breed has charge of hospitality and has asked a number of Smith alumnae living in Cambridge to entertain the girls over night . . . Assisting her in plans for hospitality are Mrs. Charles F. Batchelder, Mrs. Newton S. Bacon, Mrs. Kirk Bryan, Mrs. Albert C. Belvins, Mrs. Donald Born, Mrs. Charles Butcher, Mrs. Pinckney Holbrook and Mrs. Stafford Johnson . . .

Mrs. Sidney Fay, wife of Professor Fay of Harvard, a former Smith College professor, and mother of two Smith graduates, will do her bit by housing a couple of girls over night, and still others offering hospitality are Mrs. Thomas Reed Powell, whose daughter Georgianna, is a member of the cast of "First Lady," Mrs. Oliver P. Ricketson, Jr., Mrs. Abbot Payson Usher, Mrs. Frederick W. C. Lieder, Mrs. Harrison Lyman, Mrs. Alfred C. Lane and Mrs. Roy A. Young . . .

President Ada Comstock of Radcliffe, erstwhile dean of Smith, heads a distinguished list of patronesses for the evening . . . among them are Mrs. Zachariah Chafee, Jr., Mrs. Lowell Clapp, Mrs. Augustine Conant, Mrs. Raymond Calkins, Mrs. Paul Dean, Mrs. Robert de Normandie, Mrs. Thomas A. Eliot, Mrs. Henry Randolph Brigham, Mrs. William Ehrlich, Mrs. Osborne Earle, Mrs. Felix Frankfurter, Mrs. John Bayley Fox, Mrs. Hollis T. Gleason, president of the Smith Alumnae Association, and Mrs. Stephen W. Grant . . .

Other patronesses include Dr. Florence Gilman, formerly of the medical staff at Smith, Mrs. William C. Greene, Mrs. Ernest A. Hooton, Mrs. Reginald M. Hull, Mrs. Delbert Jackson, Mrs. Geoffrey Lewis, Mrs. Philip Richardson, Mrs. Alfred Tozzer, Mrs. Henry Shreve, Mrs. George M. Lovejoy, Mrs. Bliss Perry and Mrs. Oliver G. Kellogg . . .

* * *

Vincent Club Show Opens Thursday Night

THE WIDELY HERALDED tour which the Hasty Pudding show makes each year to New York, Washington, Philadelphia and Hot Springs, is nothing compared to the imaginary journey the Vincent Club girls will make in their musical show which opens Thursday evening . . . The whole plot is built around an imaginary bus ride . . . The first scene is a bustling bus terminal from which the coach departs, taking the girls to Coney Island, Harlem, Kansas City, Niagara Falls, Chinatown, and even to Mexico . . .

Like most musical comedy plots, it is more amusing than logical . . . for when the last curtain comes down it leaves the girls in Mexico and when the applause resounds through John Hancock Hall it will take quite a feat of trans-continental bus driving to return from Mexico to Back Bay in time to take a curtain call . . .

The varied and colorful settings form a perfect background for the specialty singers and dancers . . . On the beach at Coney Island a group of supposedly careworn housewives will appear in ill-fitting Gay Nineties bathing suits, and sing a clever and many-versed song written by Susan Storey . . . to the effect that "It's Husbands' Day With the Baby," and they are now having their fling . . .

The syncopated background of Harlem is an appropriate spot for a comedy song by Julie Barbour, who made herself famous with her "Whatdaya Think My Heart Is Made Of—Huh?" last year . . . Other highlights of the show will be a second song written by Sue Storey, which she will sing with Catherine Putnam . . . Nancy Peabody's yodelling and apache dance, and Peggy Parker's Buddha dance in the Chinatown scene . . .

* * *

Italian Art Exhibit Attracts Many

In this day and age of surrealism and other "isms" in modern art, the exhibition of Italian Renaissance Paintings which opened yesterday afternoon at the Castano Galleries in Newbury street, has a definite charm and appeal to conservative art lovers . . .

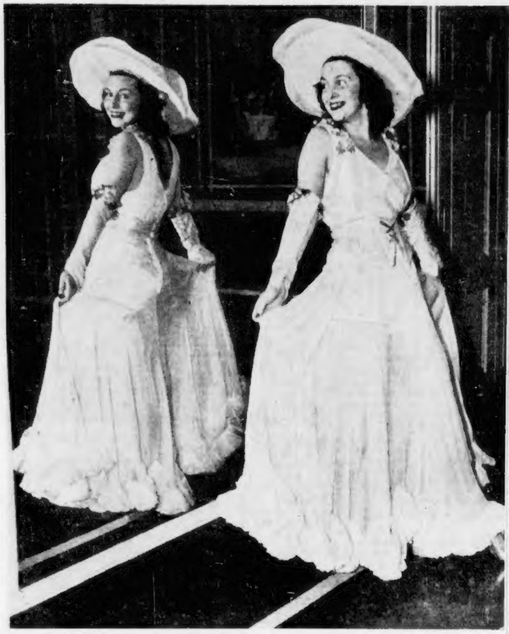
Every painting in the exhibit is a valuable work of art . . . the type seldom seen in exhibitions outside of museums . . . and art lovers who travel far and wide to visit the outstanding museums of the world expressed their appreciation of the old masters' mellow colorings and deft technique . . .

Mr. Walter Kilham, one of the visitors at the opening, is a prominent architect and one of the many connoisseurs of art who found something of interest in each painting . . . while Miss Margaret Fitzhugh Browne, a well known portrait painter, slowly toured the gallery, intently studying each item in the exhibit . . .

While most of the visitors crowded around the paintings, Mrs. William H. Coolidge, Jr., and Mrs. Henry Lee Higginson supervised the serving of tea and refreshments in an ante-room artistically hung with old tapestries . . . Mrs. Coolidge's modish black dress and hat was brightened by the flat crown of red and blue feathers on her beret . . .

Mrs. Ralph Emerson was the early bird . . . being the first to sign her name to the register of guests . . . and other socialites who soon added their names to the list included Mrs. Charles Bruen Perkins of Jamaica Plain, Mrs. Philip R. Allen of Walpole, Miss Christine Woolett of Mt. Vernon street, Mrs. L. Dennis Peterkin, wife of Professor Peterkin of the romance language department at Andover, Mrs. Charles Howard, Joan Jacoby, who wore a fashionable black redingote over a printed black and white silk dress, Reinette Plimpton, Mrs. Anson Howe Smith, and Mrs. Munroe Pevear of Brimmer street . . .

All Dressed Up for New Vincent Club Revue



THIS IS NOT a picture of winsome twins, but Polly Long admiring the graceful lines of her costume in a full length mirror. Polly who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Long, will wear this costume in the annual musical show of the Vincent Club, which opens in John Hancock Hall, Thursday evening.

Boston Evening American Photo

Barnard's Dean Visits Boston In April

Mrs. Paul J. Sachs, a distinguished alumna of Barnard College will entertain Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve of Barnard when the latter makes a visit to Boston April 13 and 14.

Two occasions will mark the first of her visit here—a tea and an evening reception. On Wednesday afternoon, April 13, Mrs. Sachs will entertain with a tea at Shady Hill, her charming Cambridge home, at which Dean Gildersleeve will give a short address.

That evening, Miss Gildersleeve will be the guest of the board of directors and the parents' committee of the Buckingham School in Cambridge. Miss Marian Vaillant, headmistress of the school, will greet the dean upon her arrival.

Miss Henrietta H. Swope, chairman of Barnard College regional committee for New England, is largely responsible for arrangements for the dean's visit.

Activities Of Clubs

THIS EVENING

7:30 p. m.—West Newton Junior Educational Club, at home of Miss Mary Hurley, lecture.

8:00 p. m.—Newtonville Woman's Club, at clubhouse, guest night.

WEDNESDAY

10:00 a. m.—Social Science Club of Newton in Channing Church, lecture.

10:30 a. m.—Mass. State Federation of Women's Clubs, Hotel Brunswick, annual music conference.

11:00 a. m.—Newton Center Woman's Club, at clubhouse, fashion show, followed by luncheon and bridge.

2:00 p. m.—League of Jewish Women's Organizations, Hotel Touraine, meeting; Women's Italian Club, Hotel Kenmore, meeting; Hyde Park Current Events Club, at clubhouse; Reading Woman's Club, in Security Hall, friendship tea and entertainment; Revere Woman's Club, at the Congregational Church, President's day program. Dartmouth Women's Club, Hotel Vendome, meeting and entertainment.

THURSDAY

10:00 a. m.—Fortnightly Club of Winchester, in Locatelli Building, all day sale for the blind.

10:30 a. m.—West Roxbury Woman's Club, in Library Hall, lecture.

2:00 p. m.—Hyde Park Thought Club, at home of Mrs. C. E. Bryant, meeting; Ladies Physiological Institute, Myers hall, lecture; Daughters of Vermont, Hotel Vendome, lecture; Arlington Woman's Club, in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, meeting.

2:30 p. m.—Fortnightly Club of Winchester, in Waterfield Hall, annual hobby show.

5:30 p. m.—Boston Women's City Club, at clubhouse, buffet supper and lecture; Women's Organization of the Boston Association of Retail Druggists, at University Club, gentlemen's night program.

Antiques

April Sale Planned

High pressure salesmanship was the topic of conversation at a committee meeting yesterday morning in the Beacon street home of Mrs. J. A. Lowell Blake.

The meeting was called for members of the social service committee of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital who are sponsoring the Antiques Exposition which opens at the Copley-Plaza on April 4.

Mr. Blake's home, which is a treasure trove of antiques, was an appropriate setting for the serious conclave on ways and means for spreading the news about the large antiques exhibit. The meeting broke up around one o'clock, leaving Mrs. George Denny, chairman of the group, and Mrs. Roger B. Merriman to carry on the discussion over Mrs. Blake's luncheon table.

Enthusiastic workers for this coming event include Mrs. Richard Warren, wife of Dr. Warren, resident surgeon at the Peter Bent Brigham, Mrs. Warren, who is chairman of the ticket committee, offered a number of suggestions for bigger and better sales at yesterday's meetings, and was smartly dressed in black with a large red hat tied under her chin.

Others present were Mrs. Francis Blake, Jr., Mrs. Elliott C. Cutler, Mrs. E. Stanley Emery, Jr., Mrs. Reginald Fitz, Mrs. John Homans, Mrs. Franc D. Ingraham, Mrs. L. H. H. Johnson, Mrs. Roger B. Merriman and Mrs. C. Sidney Burwell, wife of Dean Burwell of the Harvard medical school.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Club to Give Minstrels

Irish folk songs and dances will be revived for the old-fashioned minstrel show the Arboretum Club of Jamaica Plain is presenting tomorrow evening in Fraternity Hall. Mrs. John McNulty is chairman of the event.

The comic roles of end men have been assigned to Mrs. Alexander Cataldo, Mrs. Stella Dolan, Mrs. William Donovan, Mrs. Edward Fleming, Mrs. William Murphy, Mrs. Walter Reilly and Mrs. Francis E. Welch.

A series of specialty acts will be presented by some of the club's more talented members. Among them are Mrs. James Carty, Mrs. William Cody, Mrs. Walter Costello, Mrs. Harry Dougherty, Mrs. William Dundon and Mrs. Edward Farley.

Other club women doing song and dance acts for the entertainment of the audience will be Mrs. Christopher Sheehan, Mary Stanton, Mrs. William Prendible, Mrs. Henry Meisner, Mrs. Charles Nagel, Mrs. G. Frank McDonald, Mrs. Francis Hurley, Mrs. A. A. Graham, Mrs. Francis Hurley and Mrs. Thomas Friel.

NIPPON ROOM the HOTEL VENDOME
Commonwealth Ave off Copley Sq
RARE COCKTAILS
DELICIOUS DINNERS
SUPPER SPECIALS
HORS D'OEUVRES

Alma Clayburgh, Fiance Honored At Reception

Mrs. James Roosevelt, the former Betsey Cushing, was one of the many guests at the large Sunday afternoon reception which Madame Alma Clayburgh of New York gave in her apartment in honor of her daughter, Alma Clayburgh, and the latter's fiance, James Hooper Grew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Grew of Boston, whose wedding is planned for June 14 in St. Bartholomew's Church in New York.

Among the other distinguished guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Grew, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wheeler, John Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Grew, Sr., all of Boston. Also the Grand Duchess Marie, Lawrence Atterbury, Judge and Mrs. Norman S. Dike, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Carleton, Artur Bodansky, the famous conductor of Wagnerian operas of the Metropolitan Opera company, and Mrs. Bodansky.

A special feature of the reception was the unveiling of a new portrait of Miss Clayburgh which has recently been completed by Artur Halmi.

FREE TO NEW ENGLAND HOUSEWIVES
WITH THE NEXT
SUNDAY ADVERTISER

Martha Lee's Spring
COOK BOOK
and
HOMEMAKERS' GUIDE
(In tabloid form)

New recipes, menus and household suggestions. All tried and tested by Martha Lee, New England cooking expert.

Ace of Clubs Folk Hear Lecture on Irish Music

Spring Trend Marks Costumes Worn To Meeting

Ace of Clubs went in for a premature celebration of St. Patrick's Day at its meeting yesterday at the Hotel Somerset when Benedict FitzGerald of Cambridge occupied the spotlight with his combination musicale and lecture on "Thomas Moore, the Bard of Erin."

Alice Hurley of Brookline seized the opportunity to do a bit of advertising for the group's day at the sale to aid the blind. She's annual chairman of the affair and this year has decided on April 6 as the date for the club's co-operation. And quite a smart figure she cut in her silver fox and black ensemble as she pleaded not only for salesgirls but buyers as well.

Mrs. Douglas Wheeler, the former Shirley Fay, who has just returned from a cruise to Nassau, Havana and Rio De Janeiro, came as Dorothy Woodbury's guest. Shirley was her usual attractive self with a chubby coat of monkey fur topping her black wool while Dot offset her navy sheer with touches of mimosa yellow. Grace Dow, her dark costume relieved by pale pink trimmings, completed the party.

Hannah Reardon poured the afternoon's coffee while the task of distributing the tea was detailed to Regina Sweeney, who was being welcomed on all sides after her year abroad.

There was a hint of spring in the outfits worn by Mrs. Joseph A. Barry, Jr., and Margaret Quinn. Both chose costume suits of tweed collared in lynx. The young Mrs. Barry topped hers with a stiff-brimmed sailor while Peg preferred a peaked chapeau of black felt.

Peg is planning Easter in Manhattan to be on hand for the Bees' opening game with the New York Giants.

Pastel antelopes hats were effected by Muriel Billcliffe and Margaret Carol Denning. Muriel's was fashioned of Watteau pink and wire with her soft blue wool. Margaret chose a royal blue one for her black coat trimmed with Persian.

Alice Fitzpatrick looked snug in her plaid wool and mink while Helen Green came in a complete Scotch ensemble.

Amusements

FINE ARTS • TOM'W
Josephine BAKER
Princess Tam Tam
LAVISH MUSICAL FILM TAKEN IN TUNIS, AFRICA • AND PARIS •
11:30-1 P.M. 30¢ 1-5 P.M. 40¢ AFTER 5 P.M. 55¢
Ends Today BEETHOVEN • The RIVER

NEWSREEL THEATRE
HUNTINGTON AVE. OPP. SYMPHONY HALL
NOW PLAYING THRU WED.
4 NEWSREELS 4
MARCH OF TIME
WALT DISNEY'S SILLY SYMPHONY
POPEYE
PICTORIAL
COMEDY—SPORTS—NEWS—TRAVEL

SQUARE MEDFORD & REPERTORY HUNTINGTON AV.
WINCHELL-BERNIE "WAKE UP AND LIVE"
HAN MYS 1000
HUGH HERBERT "THAT MAN'S HERE AGAIN"
FRI—BARB STANWYCK—"PLOUGH AND STARS"

TREMONT
RONALD COLMAN PRISONER OF ZENDA
15¢ TIL 6 P.M.
WALT DISNEY'S CARTOON HOUR
MAR 10—"MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION"

Penny Sale Monday

◆ ◆ ◆

Philomatheia Juniors Busy

With one enthusiastic group preparing weinies and tasty sandwiches for the jitney lunch, another engaged in making leis for the flower mart, a third energetic group busy selling chances on a Bermuda cruise, the Junior Philomatheia penny sale, slated for Monday evening, will undoubtedly make history for the club. Mrs. Byron Tosi of Dorchester is overseer of arrangements.

Boston Evening American Photo

LOIS McCARTHY
Will Sell Leis

Abetting her in this undertaking is sister Mary Elena, whose chief aide is another sister, Angela. Cooking recipes and donation of edibles are interesting Mary Snyder of Chesnut Hill, jitney lunch chairman, who has elected pretty waitresses to help with the food problem. Among them are Patricia McGloan, Katherine Forbes, Betty McKenzie, Agatha Keohane, Mary Murphy, Helen Shea and Agnes Doyle.

More esthetic taste is the set of club girls arranging the floral mart under the direction of capable Frances Rattigan. Gay boutonnieres, lovely corsages and flowers shaped in every conceivable manner will be sold by Ruth Harrington, Marian Connell, Mollie Byrne, Elizabeth Chisolm, Grace Rattigan, Helen Fallon, Rita Donahue and Helen Doherty.

Active girls from Jamacia Plain taking part in the benefit affair include Betty Bolton, Marie Walsh, Dorothy Davis, Louise Connolly, Helen Donovan, Virginia Waldron, Ruth Dakin and Eugenia O'Neill.

Another enthusiastic committee consists of Marguerite Rourke, Louise Howe Angelina Graham, Mary Gaughan, Eleanor Dever, Mary Lynch, Mary Malley, Marion O'Donnell and Terri Mannix.

Amusements Amusements

NOW!! KEITH MEMORIAL
ROARING ROMANCE!
KATHARINE HEPBURN and CARY GRANT in Bringing up Baby
CHARLES RUGGLES
STAGE—"Everybody Swing" with SYLVIA FROOS DIAMOND BROS. OTHER STAR ACTS
STARTS THURS. SCREEN—SHIRLEY TEMPLE "A REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM" STAGE—BILL ROBINSON — IN PERSON

Now—we're at the RKO BOSTON
WALT DISNEY'S FIRST FULL LENGTH FEATURE
SNOW WHITE and the SEVEN DWARFS
WITH AN ALL NEW STAGE SHOW
★SIBYL BOWAN★
FREIDA SULLIVAN
RAY SAX—OTHER STAR ACTS
TODAY—Short Subject Hour 11 A. M., 2:30 and 6 P. M.
ANOTHER SMASH STAGE & SCREEN SHOW STARTS THURS.

Today AT YOUR Neighborhood Theatre

ARLINGTON
REGENT ARL. 2197 MAT. 2-EVE. 7:45 — Kath. Hepburn-Ginger Rogers "STAGE DOOR" Rob't Wilcox-Judith Barrett "ARMORED CAR"

BOSTON
SOUTH STATION — JIMMIE FIDLER'S HOLLYWOOD PARADE — STOCKHOLM — SONGS of ERIN — ALL STAR SHOW — ROB'T BENCHLEY — 3 STOOGES — 2½ HOURS SHORT SUBJECTS • 3 NEWSREELS

BROOKLINE
COOLIDGE CORNER BEA. 3600 CONT. 2-11 — SONJA HENIE-DON AMECHE HAPPY LANDING ALSO—"BIG TOWN GIRL" CLAIRE TREVOR

BROOKLINE VILLAGE
BROOKLINE ★ Cont. 2 to 11 TEL LON 4000 — CLAUDETTE COLBERT - CHAS. BOYER ★TOVARICH★ ALSO—"CARNIVAL QUEEN"

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY HARVARD SQ. KIR. 4580 — NELSON EDDY ★ ELEANOR POWELL "ROSALIE" — THE JONES FAMILY "Borrowing Trouble" — Wednesday Review "My Man Godfrey" "Berkeley Square"
DURRELL 820 MASS. AVENUE MAT. 2—EVE. 7:45 — "HEIDI", Shirley Temple-Jean Hersholt "The Great Garrick"—Brian Aherne

CAMBRIDGE AND JAM. PLAIN
PORTER & MADISON — PAT O'BRIEN "SUBMARINE D-1" "Thoroughbreds Don't Cry" Ladies' Bak-in-Ware Free — "LANCER SPY" D. Del Rio-G. Sanders "BIG TOWN GIRL" Ladies' Bak-in-Ware Free

CHARLESTOWN
THOMPSON SQUARE THEATRE — DICK POWELL Benny Goodman's Orchestra "Hollywood Hotel" Barbara Stanwyck "Breakfast for Two"

DORCHESTER
DORCHESTER GEN. 9100 MAT. 2-EVE. 7 "MONASTERY" ★ "The Duke Comes Back"
HAMILTON GEN. 8790 MAT. 15c—EVES. 25c "STAGE DOOR" Kath. Hepburn-Ginger Rogers "Life Begins With Love"—J. Parker-D. Montgomery
MAGNET GEN. 2208 CONTINUOUS 1 to 11:30 — Ian Hunter-Leo Carrillo in "52ND STREET" William Boyd-Judith Allen in "TEXAS TRAIL"

EVERETT
CAPITOL MAT. 15c EVE. 15c & 25c — FRED ASTAIRE in 'Damsel in Distress' Also "SPY RING"
PARK MAT. 1:30 EVE. 7:30 — Walter Winchell-Ben Bernie "LOVE AND HISSES" Peter Lorre-Jane Regan "Thank You, Mr. Moto"

MALDEN
AUDITORIUM Cont. 1:30 to 11 Mat. 15c Eve. 25c — J. MacDonald-N. Eddy in ROSE MARIE Claire Trevor in 'One Mile from Heaven'
ORPHEUM MALDEN 0212 MAT. 1:45-EVE. 7-11 — Gladys George in "MADAME X" Errol Flynn-Joan Blondell—"PERFECT SPECIMEN"

FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING LISTING IN THIS DIRECTORY CALL MR. PLATT—LIBerty 4000

MALDEN
GRANADA FREE PARKING CONT. 1:45-11 — SONJA HENIE—DON AMECHE "HAPPY LANDING" Louis Stone-M. Rooney-"You're Only Young Once"
MYSTIC FREE PARKING MAT. 1:45 EVE. 7-11 — HELD OVER!! DOROTHY LAMOUR 'HURRICANE' JON HALL Stella Adler-John Payne in "LOVE ON TOAST"
STRAND FREE AWARD MON. EVE. MAL. 0212 Free Parking — Edw. G. Robinson, "LAST GANGSTER" MAE WEST, "Every Day's a Holiday"
MAPLEWOOD MAL. 0212 Mat 1:45-Eve 7-11 — Geo. Brent-Pat O'Brien-Submarine D-1 J. Boles-I. Lupino-Fight for Your Lady

MATTAPAN SQ. AND MEDFORD
MATTAPAN - MEDFORD — Inflated Silverware Les. Howard-Bette Davis "It's Love I'm After" "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" — Dick Powell-B. Goodman "Hollywood Hotel" M. Hopkins-Ray Milland "WISE GIRL"

MEDFORD
FELLSWAY WEEK NITES CONT. 6:45-11 — L. Barrymore-R. Young in "NAVY BLUE & GOLD" Gladys George in "MADAME X"

MELROSE
MELROSE MELROSE 0800 MAT. 1:30—EVE. 7:30 — Claudette Colbert-C. Boyer-TOVARICH JOHN BARRYMORE in "Night Club Scandal"

NORTH STATION
LANCASTER LAF. 4050 FREE DINNERWARE — "WEST OF SHANGHAI"—Boris Karloff "KNIGHT WITHOUT ARMOR"—Marlene Dietrich

REVERE
BOULEVARD AND REVERE — Jon Hall-Dorothy Lamour 'HURRICANE' Gloria Stuart "CHANGE OF HEART"

ROXBURY
HUMBOLDT — ALICE FAYE in "YOU'RE A SWEETHEART" "IDOL OF THE CROWDS"

SOMERVILLE
CAPITOL and BALL SQ.—CENTRAL — MAE WEST "Every Day's a Holiday" JANE WITHERS "45 FATHERS" — Alice Faye-Ken Murray "You're a Sweetheart" Pic. LEAGUE OF FRIGHTENED MEN"
DAVIS SQ. SOM. 2290 MAT. 2—EVE. 8 — PAUL MUNI in "Life of Emile Zola" Wheeler and Woolsey in "ON AGAIN, OFF AGAIN"
TEELE SQ.-SOMERVILLE-BROADWAY — JOHN BOLES "She Married An Artist" "Paradise Isle," with Warren Hull ALL THEATRES—GOLDEN CHINAWARE

SOUTH END
NATIONAL HAN. 2880 LAST TIMES TODAY — Big Star Cast in "52D STREET" ERROL FLYNN in "Perfect Specimen"

WATERTOWN
COOLIDGE MID. 3700 MAT. 1:45—EVE. 7:45 — Astaire-Burns & Allen in "DAMSEL IN DISTRESS" Richard Dix-It Happened in Hollywood
WATERTOWN SQ. MID. 0027 — "Awful Truth"—Irene Dunne-C. Grant "Dangerously Yours"—Cesar Romero-Phyllis Brooks

WINTHROP AND DEDHAM
WINTHROP STATE — Joel McCrea-Frances Dee "WELLS FARGO" "Beg, Borrow or Steal" — COMMUNITY — E. Whitney-J. Downs "Thrill of a Lifetime" "Wine, Women & Horses"

BOSTON after DARK

By GEORGE HOLLAND

MISCELLANY: When the honeymoon is over, Leopold Stokowski will receive a professional fee that compares favorably with the wages of Mrs. Stokowski-to-be (If Miss Garbo hasn't changed her name already) . . . Roy Disney, brother of Walt Disney, is authority for the news that the famous conductor will be given $90,000 for the musical accompaniment of the film-successor to "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

Stage whisper to Senator Burke, whose appeal for stricter censorship included a mention of a Mae West "soul kiss": Miss West maintains that at no time in any picture has she ever been kissed by a leading man. The oversigned, never having seen Miss West on the screen, passes the news along as second-hand information.

Tip to Governor Quinn, and the Rhode Island solons: Frederick H. Prince, the capitalist, has confided to friends that he will sell his famous "Marble Palace" in Newport's Bellevue avenue, and will cease to be a resident of Little Rhody, if a state income tax becomes law. (Perhaps Massachusetts will win back a native citizen) . . . Is Mayor O'Brien of Revere ailing at a hospital? . . .

State Fire Marshal Steve Garrity, fully recovered, will be back at his desk shortly . . . Civil Service Commissioner Thomas H. Green was re-elected unanimously to the presidency of the Bunker Hill Boys Club . . . Dick Stutz and his orchestra, with a style that is brand new and is called "Minor Moods," will open at the Hotel Westminster Blue Room with (for a guess) "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." The premiere happens the 17th at 6:30 p. m.

• • •

'NOTHER BOSTON BOY MAKES GOOD:

When he played at the Copley-Plaza, the virtuosity of good-looking Sonny Kendis was so apparent that it was impossible for even so unlearned a music-lover as your correspondent to miss it . . . Now he's a rage in Manhattan . . . They are calling his practiced digits the "fastest fingers in pianodom" . . . At the swanky Belmont-Plaza's Glass Hat, Sonny is featured at the cocktail shows . . . His repertory is called "Streamlined Strains," and a word coinage is being used—"pianalyses" of famous melodies—to describe his solos . . . His own composition, "Rhapsody in D Minor" is being featured too at the Glass Hat and —for a perfect anti-climax, Composer Kendis has completed what will be the "official song" of the New York World's Fair.

• • •

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY:

Names you will recognize among the Royal Rooters at the Sox-Reds game way down thar in Dixie: Brigadier General Jack Dunn, Former Senator Jim Doyle, Former Police Sergeants John Manning, Joseph Snow and John Clifford . . . Judge Daniel J. Gillen represented the judiciary . . . Former Governor Curley doesn't forget to remind his lovely wife of his affection. When the couple walked to their luncheon table at their first appearance since Florida at the Parker House, a corsage was on the table.

"The Call," the French film which won art prizes, will play Boston in April, with John Dwyer, ex of the "water follies," in charge of public relations . . . They say, incidentally, that the Snyder Brothers' new "Aquatic Follies," coming Thursday to the Arena, has an 8-year-old water wizard in little Norma Dean . . . Born at St. Elizabeth's a son has been presented Police Clerk William Gorman of the Milk Street Station.

Bill Marshall, ex of the Bees, the Red Sox and Cincinnatis, is announcing his candidacy for representative from his native Ward 16 . . . Attorney General Dever will be toastmaster at the Judge Fuchs birthday testimonial (April 24) at the Copley-Plaza.

Within a month of Easter, Miss Edwina Murphy of Charlestown will become the bride of Edward Glavin of the East Cambridge district attorney's office . . . Mayor John M. Lynch of Somerville has received more than 200 letters approving his announcement that he will rid the city payrolls of married women whose husbands are employed also . . . It was because his wife is employed gainfully in the state service by the way, that a member of the Boston law department was axed . . . Meantime, City Observer Richard Whitcomb, whose City Hall coming was dreaded as a suspected head hatchet-man, has been making a friend per contact. Not that a god job isn't being done, with possible ultimate economies.

HAYWARD Chop house
Hayward Place
MODERATE PRICES
FOR FOOD and LIQUOR
DAILY LUNCHEONS-45¢up
DINNERS--65¢up
Featuring Chops Lobsters and Steaks
OPEN UNTIL MIDNIGHT

Roland Young's 'Spring Thaw' Delights

Screen Star Returns To Star in Deft Comedy

THE CAST

Edie	Mary Phillips
Beekman	J. P. Wilson
Willie	Roland Young
Myrtle	Jane Gordon
Dr. Parkinson	Robert Wallsten
Bee	Lillian Emerson
Georges LeBard	Guido Nadzo
Bernice	Natalia Danesi
Mrs. Garsh	Esther Mitchell
Luke Beebe	Maurice Wells

By PEGGY DOYLE

Reunited after too long a separation, Roland Young, Clare Kummer and Arthur Hopkins proved themselves a most compatible threesome last night at the Wilbur Theater, where "Spring Thaw" had its world premiere.

The Max Gordon production starring Mr. Young was written by Miss Kummer and directed by Mr. Hopkins. For those with a theater-going record extending back to 1916 and the Park Square Theater, the names—Young, Kummer, Hopkins—will call to mind "Good Gracious, Annabelle," "a bright and witty farce," to quote the American's drama critic, who neglected to mention Mr. Young's contribution to it.

There shall be no such sin of omission this morning, for Roland Young's every instant on the stage is your good-luck. His droll, subtle comedy sense, his unsurprised acceptance of the most devastating events in his too well-ordered life (particularly, in that totally unexpected, convulsing final-curtain scene), his brilliant delivery of Miss Kummer's brilliant lines are things to make you wish devotedly he'll play hookey from Hollywood for a long, long time.

• • •

Screen Comedian Young's timing, as has been indicated, is something akin to Reichsfuehrer Hitler's. He never used it to better advantage than when he chose to return to the stage simultaneously in company with his mother-in-law and his mother-in-law's discoverer.

Ma-In-Law Kummer has written a deft and delightful comedy in "Spring Thaw," whose chief character, Willie Granger, fits Roland Young like the skin on a peach. She does and ought to know him, Roland, after all these years—he wooed her daughter, Marjorie, since he was 23 and she, 14.

Getting back to Willie. Clever, charming and well-to-do, he lives in a woman-ridden house in New York city. The women in his life are Bee, a pretty, provocative bird-brain who has been dallying with a good-looking, young Frenchman who even fools himself that he is a composer; his sisters, Edie, the elder, managing one, and Myrtle, the younger, interfering one, and Bernice, a discerning, young French maid who appreciates him.

Willie is apparently quite content in the luxuriously appointed home Donald Oenslager has designed for him until the Frenchman decides to shoot himself. Of course, he doesn't shoot himself—he just likes to talk about it. But he does upset the Granger household, all of them hastening to his bedside, in relays, only to find him "too tired to shoot myself."

The pseudo-suicide reveals that not only Bee but her austere sisters-in-law have been cherishing an affection for M. Georges LeBard. Edie even lets herself be persuaded by him to be one less woman in Willie's life, deciding that night to move into her club. Really, that's all there is to it—that's all there ever is to it with the ineffectual Georges.

It is Willie who blandly makes up Bee's stop-and-go mind for her, arguing that one must never pass up the great love of his life and that Georges MAY be her great love. She had better find out, he suggests.

She's willing, but what with missing this train and that boat, it looks as if Willie will forever be playing host to the would-be elopers.

• • •

Even when he, Willie, retreats up to his Canadian lodge, the reluctant lovers soon join him and it is not long before his sisters, escorted by Myrtle's fiance, Dr. Parkinson, have made it a stiff family gathering.

Finally Willie is alone enjoying his solitude, his Beautryest and a good book, when Bee, in a moulting coonskin coat, patters in to share his double-bed, coat and all. As for Georges—but why spoil that final, hysterically funny scene for you! Go see for yourself.

Lillian Emerson, as Willie's Bee, is excellent. Mary Phillips' Edie is another skilful characterization. Guido Nadzo's Georges LeBard, handicapped somewhat by an uncertain accent, handles a difficult role competently. Maurice Wells, in a bit part as the lodge caretaker, couldn't be better. The same may be said for Producer Hopkins' expert direction.

Schwartz Superb in Drama

'Brothers Ashkenazi' Scores in Premiere At Majestic

By ALEXANDER BRIN

Resounding ovations and a capacity crowd greeted the notable Boston premiere of the Maurice Schwartz production of "Brothers Ashkenazi" last night at the Majestic Theater.

The gifted Maurice Schwartz again demonstrated that as a portrayer of character he is without an equal in the Jewish theater world. For stage artistry, for perfection of detail and accuracy of representation, this production is indescribably gripping and is a genuinely impressive contribution to the drama that will live.

The whole series of breath-taking situations throughout the play brings out above all the character and qualities of Mr. Schwartz as a great interpreter of life in action. Nothing is left to the imagination.

The dramatic version of "Brothers Ashkenazi" is based on I. J. Singer's famous novel, dealing with the life story of two Chassidic brothers. Maurice Schwartz and Samuel Goldenburg portray Singer's keen major character studies.

In the acting of these two men are laid bare in most realistic manner two human souls, one driven by greed, selfishness, superstition and lust for power, as well as moments of nobility of character.

• • •

The story concerns itself with life in the Polish Ghetto. The lives of the two brothers are largely concerned with a bitter rivalry of each other, which lasts well nigh unto death. The scene is set in the great European textile center of Lodz in Poland, and is the drama of that city and its varying fortunes through one of the most momentous periods of Polish history. We get an exposition of failures and struggles, suffering, agonies and disappointments.

There is an unforgettable scene which takes place at the railroad station in the little Polish border village. Samuel Goldenburg, as Jacob Bunim Ashkenazi, is bringing back to Poland his brother, Maurice Schwartz as Max, whom he just rescued from prison. These two great manufacturers of Lodz are glorying in their respectability as citizens of their fatherland, but their happiness is short-lived.

The gendarme at the station decides to have a little "fun" with the two brothers. While several soldiers hold Jacob, the commanding officers force Max to shout out, at the top of his voice, defamatory statements about his co-religionists. After this, Max, the great textile tycoon of Poland, is forced to dance for the amusement of the crowd at the station. The commanding officer, then turns on Jacob, demanding a similar performance. Jacob refuses and, upon further provocation, slaps the insolent officer. The officer whips out his revolver and kills Jacob.

• • •

The scenes are filled with pathos and tragedy. The spell-bound audience watched and listened with a profoundly moving interest. The pantomime and acting of the play is so vivid that a knowledge of Yiddish is not essential. Throughout the production there are scenes of moving anguish. The dialogue is strong and firm.

In the supporting cast of 60 men and women, Miss Helen Beverly of Boston, gave a creditable performance. As did Kurt Katch and Luba Kadison. The play is divided into two parts and 17 scenes.

It is noteworthy that the Chassidic Chants were composed by Sholom Secunda, who personally conducts the orchestra. Mr. Secunda has achieved world-wide fame through his popular song, "Bei Mir Bist du Shoen."

She's Gay

Joan Davis is a musical comedienne in "Sally, Irene and Mary," which opens at the Paramount and the Fenway on Thursday.

Amusements

COLUMBIA Theatre WASHINGTON ST. NEAR BROADWAY HUB. 2044 BURLESQUE
LOVE ASTRID—STEVE MILLS—HARRY LEVINE
Beautiful Girls—Cast of 60

NEW GAYETY-15c-25c
BETTE DAVIS—ED G. ROBINSON
"KID GALAHAD"
ALICE FAYE—DICK POWELL
RITZ BROS—MAD CARROLL
"ON THE AVENUE"

UPTOWN Starts 12:40 Hunt.-Mass. Ave. Tel. Ken. 3460
SONJA HENIE
"HAPPY LANDING"
DOLORES DEL RIO "International Settlement"

Amusements

NOW METROPOLITAN HAN. 0713
2 MAJOR FEATURES
Edw. G. Robinson "A SLIGHT CASE OF MURDER" JANE BRYAN Allen JENKINS
JOHN BOLES GLADYS SWARTHOUT JOHN BARRYMORE "ROMANCE IN THE DARK"
25c 'til 1 P. M.
THURS.: "LOVE, HONOR AND BEHAVE," WAYNE MORRIS-PRISCILLA LANE • "DANGEROUS TO KNOW," AKIM TAMIROFF

PARAMOUNT and FENWAY
Geo. Brent-Olivia De Havilland
'GOLD Is Where You Find It'
Filmed in Multiplane Technicolor
also Mauch Twins "Penrod & Twin Brother"
SCOLLAY and MODERN
W. C. FIELDS—MARTHA RAYE
"Big Broadcast of '38"
also James Stewart-Walter Huston
"OF HUMAN HEARTS"
WASH. ST. OLYMPIA
SONJA HENIE "HAPPY LANDING" DON AMECHE
Edw. G. Robinson, "THE LAST GANGSTER"

HUB Wash. St. & Boylston
SYLVIA SIDNEY
"THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"
In Technicolor
BING CROSBY-MARTHA RAYE
"Waikiki Wedding"

BOWDOIN "OUR GANG" FOLLIES LATEST FIRST RUN NEWS
"THE LAST GANGSTER" Edward G. Robinson
"HAPPY LANDING" Sonja Henie-Don Ameche
Wed. "The Buccaneer," "International Settlement"

Amusements

M&P THEATRES Community THEATRES

ALLSTON
CAPITOL | ALLSTON
Fredric March Buccaneer | MICKEY ROONEY Love Is a Headache
Lewis Stone-M. Rooney 'You're Only Young Once' | BORIS KARLOFF "Invisible Menace"

BRIGHTON and NEWTON
EGYPTIAN 1:50—8 MATINEE IT'S 20 Colbert-Boyer "TOVARICH" "Drummond's Revenge" SAT. "HURRICANE" | PARAMOUNT 2—8 Jon Hall-Dorothy Lamour "HURRICANE" JOHN BARRYMORE "Drummond's Revenge"

CAMBRIDGE
CENTRAL SQ. | HARVARD
IT'S 50 TONITE! Sonja Henie-Don Ameche HAPPY LANDING 'You're Only Young Once' | Joel McCrea-Bob Burns "WELLS FARGO" Lombard-MacMurray "True Confession"

DORCHESTER
TAL. 4040 CODMAN and FRANKLIN TAL. 5900
JON HALL "HURRICANE" DOROTHY LAMOUR
Claudette Colbert "TOVARICH" Charles Boyer
FIELDS COR. | MORTON
In Gorgeous Technicolor "NOTHING SACRED" Fredric March
WALTER WINCHELL "LOVE & HISSES" BEN BERNIE

DORCHESTER and MATTAPAN
AMPLE FREE PARKING
COL. 2000 STRAND and ORIENTAL BLU. 1200
SONJA HENIE "HAPPY LANDING" DON AMECHE
Frank Morgan in 'Beg, Borrow or Steal'

HYDE PARK
FAIRMOUNT and HYDE PARK
C. Lombard-F. March "Nothing Sacred" W. Winchell-B. Bernie "Love and Hisses" | Wallace Beery 'THE MIGHTY BARNUM' Harry Carey-John Beal "Border Cafe"

JAMAICA PL'N—EGLESTON SQ.
JAMAICA | EGLESTON
Benny Goodman & Band "Hollywood Hotel" C. Colbert-'Tovarich' Wed. "HURRICANE" | C. Lombard-F. March "Nothing Sacred" W. Winchell-B. Bernie "Love & Hisses"

ROSLINDALE and ROXBURY
RIALTO PAR. 1880 | SHAWMUT GAR. 1270
Fredric March "NOTHING SACRED" In Gorgeous Technicolor
WINCHELL vs. BERNIE in "LOVE AND HISSES"

ROXBURY
FREE PARKING RIVOLI HIG. 0100
SONJA HENIE
"HAPPY LANDING"
Frank Morgan in "BEG, BORROW OR STEAL"
DUDLEY HIG. 0641 | WARREN HIG. 9037
IN TECHNICOLOR NOTHING SACRED 'LOVE IS A HEADACHE' MICKEY ROONEY | JANE WITHERS "45 FATHERS" Wallace Beery 'BILLY THE KID'

ROXBURY CROSSING SOMERVILLE
CRITERION HIG. 5780 | STRAND SOM. 9240
FRED ASTAIRE Damsel in Distress JANE WITHERS "45 FATHERS" | Frances Farmer "EBB TIDE" Gladys George "MADAME X"

WALTHAM
WAL. 3020 CENTRAL | EMBASSY WAL. 3840
MICKEY ROONEY 'You're Only Young Once' Dolores Del Rio "Intern. Settlement" | SONJA HENIE HAPPY LANDING "Bulldog Drummond's Revenge"

FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING LISTING IN THIS DIRECTORY CALL MR. PLATT—LIBerty 4000

Movie Clock

BEACON—"Thunder Trail"; 9:10, 11:58, 2:46, 5:34, 8:22.
BOWDOIN—"Last Gangster"; 9:20, 1:03, 4:46, 8:29.
COLUMBIA—Screen Show; 11:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m.
FENWAY—"Gold Is Where You Find It"; 1:00, 3:55, 6:50, 9:45.
FINE ARTS—"Life of Beethoven"; 2:10, 4:40, 7:20, 9:50.
HOWARD—"The Great O'Malley"; 10:30, 6:40.
HUB—"Trail of the Lonesome Pine"; 11:20, 2:45, 6:10, 9:35.
KEITH MEMORIAL —"Bringing Up Baby"; 10:30, 1:30, 4:20, 7:15, 10:10.
METROPOLITAN—"A Slight Case of Murder"; 10:05, 1:00, 4:00, 6:55, 9:55.
MODERN—"Big Broadcast of 1938"; 11:25, 2:55, 6:25, 9:55.
NEW GAYETY—"Kid Galahad"; continuous 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m.
NEWSREEL—Continuous Show, 12 till midnight.
OLYMPIA—"Happy Landing"; 11:00, 2:30, 6:00, 9:30.
ORPHEUM—"Mannequin"; 9:25, 12:40, 3:50, 7:05, 10:20.
PARAMOUNT—"Gold Is Where You Find It"; 10:10, 1:00, 3:50, 6:40, 9:30.
RKO-BOSTON—"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs"; 12:10, 3:45, 7:20, 9:45.
REPERTORY & SQUARE—"Wake Up and Live"; continuous 12 noon to 11:30 p. m.
SCOLLAY—"Big Broadcast of 1938"; 11:25, 2:55, 6:25, 9:55.
SOUTH STATION — "The Three Stooges"; continuous 9:30 to 11:30 p. m.
STATE—"Mannequin"; 12:40, 3:50, 7:05, 10:20.
TREMONT—"Prisoner of Zenda"; continuous 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.
TREMONT TEMPLE—"Dawn Over Ireland"; 1:00, 3:00, 5:00, 7:00, 9:00.
UPTOWN — "Happy Landing"; 12:40, 3:50, 7:00, 10:10.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Powell Film Due at Boston

Suave William Powell and lovely Annabella, sensational French star, in her first American-made picture, are co-starred in Twentieth Century-Fox's romantic comedy, "The Baroness and the Butler," first-run screen attraction coming to the RKO Boston theater on Thursday. Milt Britton and his band of merry, mad musical maniacs, world famous comedy orchestra, will be the stage attraction.

Comedy stars of the recent Rudy Vallee screen musical, "Sweet Music," and the 1932 "Ziegfeld Follies," Milt Britton and his band of musical maniacs are noted for their glorified hokum, slapstick comedy and nonsensical monkeyshines.

Goldwyn Hopeful Of Buying 'Artists'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

Motion Picture Editor, International News Service

(Copyright, 1938, by International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, March 15—Samuel Goldwyn leaves for London Friday to confer with Alexander Korda on a new deal to buy United Artists. He leaves with Sylvia and Douglas Fairbanks, who are going abroad to remain until late summer.

A meeting of United Artists executives was held yesterday to discuss Sam's London trip, but since Mary Pickford and Charlie Chaplin were not present, no definite action was taken other than routine matters and a brief discussion of the new purchase deal.

Louella O. Parsons

The millions which the British Prudential Insurance Company offered at one time are said to be still available, and since Doug, Mary and Charlie are eager to be relieved of the responsibilities of the film company, the long-discussed sale will now undoubtedly be made. Jock Whitney's plan to buy U. A. has been abandoned, so again David Selznick's releasing future is a matter of speculation. He still has two pictures to make for United Artists but has made no plans beyond these two productions.

• • •

Rosalind Russell is always falling heir to somebody's roles. If it isn't Myrna Loy's, it's Joan Crawford's. Now she's been named "Shopworn Angel," which Miss Crawford rejected, and which was at one time rumored for Virginia Bruce.

But Rosalind never lets the fact she's stepping into someone else's shoes deter her in her work. She goes right ahead, coming through with consistently good performances. She'll have as her co-star in "Shopworn Angel" her very good friend Jimmie Stewart—although they are not seeing as much of each other as they did a few weeks ago.

Julien Duvivier, the much-publicized French director, and the one who gave us Pepi Le Moko, directs. Meanwhile, all hands are searching for a Joan Crawford story in an effort to give her a vehicle that will satisfy her fans.

• • •

A line or two: We hear on all sides that Louis B. Mayer will be upped into the job of chairman of the board of directors of Metro Goldwyn Mayer from his present post of production head . . . If Warners do all the biographies they plan on the screen they won't have time to make any other pictures. Now it's Clarence Darrow, who died only two days ago, whose career they want to glorify.

Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyon, who have been in Europe far too long, are planning to return to Hollywood in June. Bebe has been making a picture for Warner Brothers "The Return of Carol Sawyer" at their English studio.

• • •

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD

SPENCER TRACY celebrates St. Patrick's Day by going home from the hospital; BARBARA STANWYCK, wan and pale after a three-day vigil at the bedside of her son DION, who was a very sick little boy; GARY COOPER, recently operated upon in New York, on the high road to recovery. He returns to Hollywood in a few weeks accompanied by MRS. COOPER, DOLORES DEL RIO and CEDRIC GIBBONS; DORIS KENYON, back in town after months spent on concert tour, will make a serious effort to return to movies. That's all for today. See you tomorrow!

STATE LOEWS ORPHEUM
CRAWFORD TRACY MANNEQUIN
ALAN CURTIS RALPH MORGAN
TWO BIG HITS
"Penitentiary"
Starts FRIDAY Robert TAYLOR in "A YANK at OXFORD" Also "WOMEN in PRISON"

The OLD HOWARD BURLESQUE
3 SHOWS DAILY, 12-2:30-8:30
'Red Hot & Beautiful' Burlesquers
DIANE ROWLAND
Elaine Owens-Jack Diamond
Max Fuhrman-Alma Mallon
60 People—30 Glorified Girls
Midnight Show Fri. 11:20 P.M.
NEXT WEEK—Sons 'Smiles' Sloan-Mary Joyce

'Snow White' Reservations

Special arrangements for taking care of groups desiring to see "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" have been completed by the management of the RKO Boston theater where this epochal attraction is currently playing.

Seats together will be reserved for groups of ten or over anytime and on any day during the remainder of the run at this popular downtown house. Those who contemplate availing themselves of this unusual service may call Hancock 2720 for further information or reservations.

COLONIAL ONE WEEK ONLY Beg. Mon., Mar. 21
MATS. THURSDAY and SATURDAY
THE THEATRE GUILD presents the
ALFRED LUNT AND LYNN FONTANNE
PRODUCTION OF CHEKHOV'S
"THE SEA GULL"
English Version by Stark Young
With Brilliant New York Cast
SEATS NOW
NIGHTS—ORCH., $3.30, Tax Incl., BALC. $2.75, $2.20, $1.65; 2nd BALC. $1.10. MATS.—ORCH. $2.75 BALC. $2.20, $1.65; 2nd BALC. $1.10

SHUBERT—LAST 7 TIMES MAT. TOM'W
JOHN SHUBERT presents
COLE PORTER'S New Musical
Starring CLIFTON WEBB
LUPE VELEZ and LIBBY HOLMAN
YOU NEVER KNOW
with TOBY WING, REX O'MALLEY & others
Eves., $1.10, $3.30, Pop Mat. Wed. 55c-$2.20, Sat. Mat. 55c, $2.75

WILBUR—TONIGHT 8:30 MAT. TOM'W
MAX GORDON Presents Prior to Broadway
ROLAND YOUNG IN PERSON IN "SPRING THAW"
A New Comedy by Clare Kummer
2 WEEK ONLY | Eves. .55-$2.75. Wed. Mat. .55-$1.65 Saturday Matinee .55-$2.20.

TONIGHT 8:30—MAT. TOM'W
MAURICE SCHWARTZ production of BROTHERS ASHKENAZI
By I. J. SINGER (Complete English Synopsis)
MAJESTIC THEATRE—HUB. 6090.

TREMONT TEMPLE TODAY AT 1 P.M.
LAST 2 DAYS! TODAY & TOMORROW
DAWN OVER IRELAND
First ALL-IRISH Sensational Film Masterpiece
Also, MARCH OF TIME on De Valera, Ireland, etc.
40c 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.—55c 5 p.m. to 11 p.m.

A wallop-a-minute...kiss-a-minute romance!
Escapade at Dawn! A college widow is as safe to play around with as a load of dynamite!
This is the picture for which M-G-M sent its cargo of stars all the way to England! And they came back with a rollicking romantic film of American youth at its most exciting!...lovely Maureen O'Sullivan and beautiful Vivien Leigh convince Bob Taylor that there are lots of things about Oxford you can't learn in books!
Robert Taylor
A YANK AT OXFORD
with LIONEL BARRYMORE · MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN · VIVIEN LEIGH
EDMUND GWENN · GRIFFITH JONES · Screen Play by Malcolm Stuart Boylan, Walter Ferris and George Oppenheimer
Directed by JACK CONWAY · Produced by MICHAEL BALCON
Starts FRIDAY
LOEW'S STATE & ORPHEUM
PLUS 2nd BIG HIT!—"WOMEN IN PRISON"—Wyn Cahoon-Scott Colton
Coming! A Howling Laugh Riot! CONSTANCE BENNETT BRIAN AHERNE in 'MERRILY WE LIVE'

BudgetsDelight In Match-Up Pieces

By ANNICE BRINK

THIS IS a suit spring without a trace of doubt, but it also marks the return of the coat to fashion favor. They've never been younger or more chic, and whether you choose one of the delightful pleat-skirt numbers, or a collarless tweed that's straight and slim as a shoe box, you'll wonder how you ever considered a spring without one!

Sports departments are putting forth a specially alluring combination that is attracting smart buugeteers — and that's the harmonized pair of separate sports jacket and skirt.

If you've a flair for race-track effects with all the romp and dash of Seabiscuit, you'll go far with a few dollars. For instance, of the sports pair we show today, the fan-pleated skirt costs under four dollars and the jacket under nine!

As a matter of fact, the budget's interests were uppermost when the representative trio of gay young fashions were chosen. Read these captions and see for yourselves:

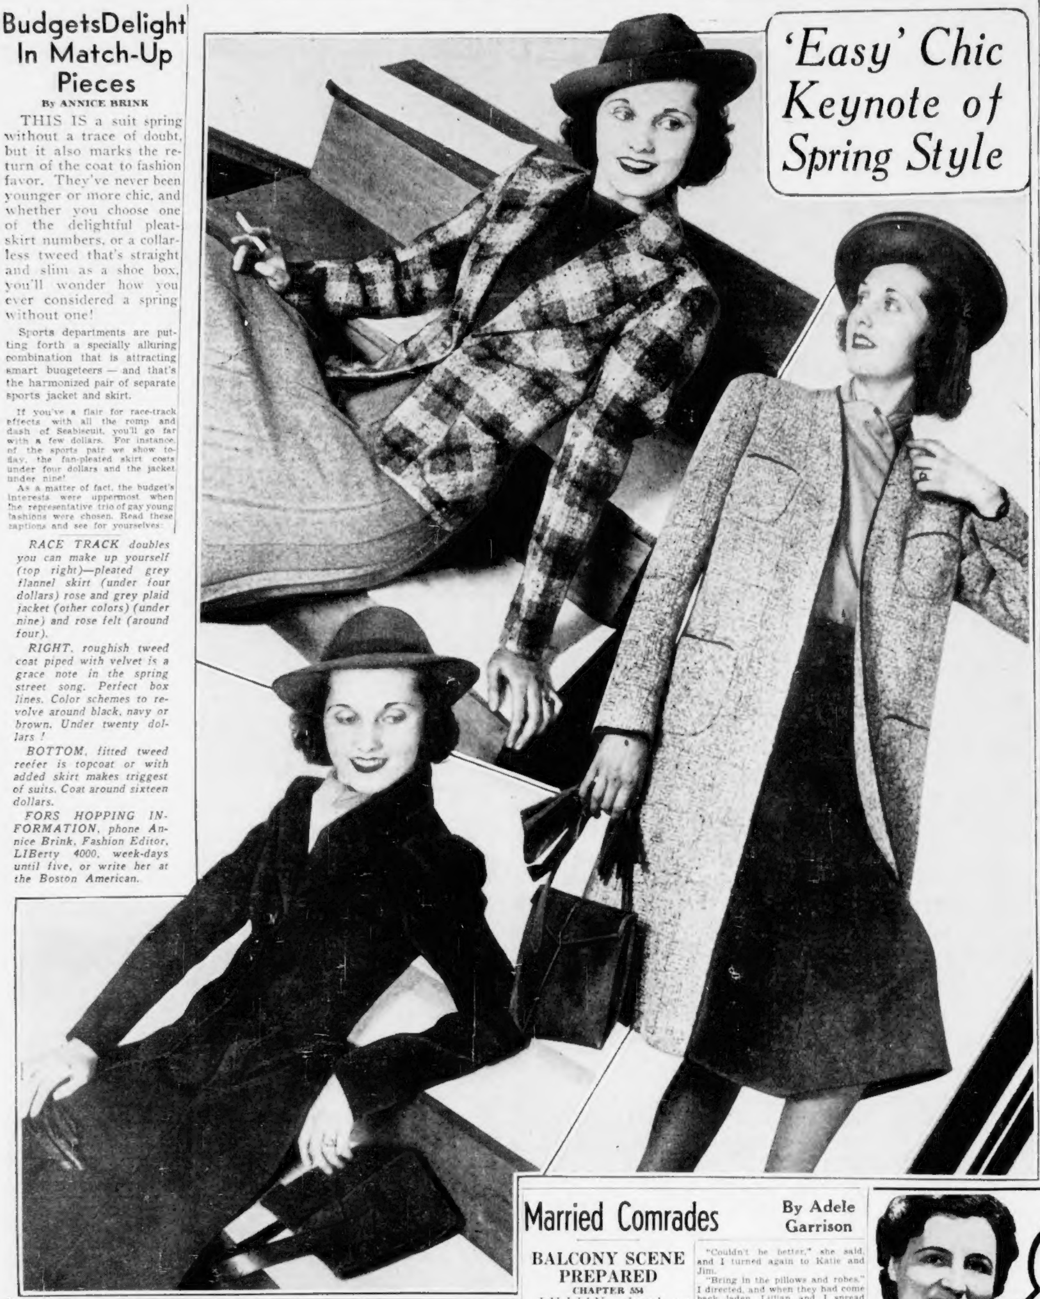
RACE TRACK doubles you can make up yourself (top right)—pleated grey flannel skirt (under four dollars) rose and grey plaid jacket (other colors) (under nine) and rose felt (around four).

RIGHT, roughish tweed coat piped with velvet is a grace note in the spring street song. Perfect box lines. Color schemes to revolve around black, navy or brown. Under twenty dollars!

BOTTOM, fitted tweed reefer is topcoat or with added skirt makes triggest of suits. Coat around sixteen dollars.

FORS HOPPING INFORMATION, phone Annice Brink, Fashion Editor, LIBerty 4000, week-days until five, or write her at the Boston American.

'Easy' Chic Keynote of Spring Style



Listen, World!
A Brave Woman's Story
By ELSIE ROBINSON

The tidal wave was 12 feet high.

In it came, a roaring wall, hell bent for everywhere . . . wiping out fishing fleets, steamers, beach cabins, whole islands, in nothing flat . . .

And there she was, every newspaper instinct in her rarin' to go, with a world scoop on her hands, a pack of jealous news hounds at her heels, a "dead line" to beat—

And a baby expected any moment!

But leave it to Irene Kuhn—born Corbally, with the luck of the Irish and the nerve of the devil himself—to find a way out—and turn it all to advantage.

Tidal waves and first borns charging in together. Life's been like that always for Irene Kuhn—Star Reporter extraordinary from New York, Paris, Hollywood, Hawaii, Shanghai and all way stations.

Not 40 yet, she's seen enough, done enough, and raised enough hilarious Cain for a dozen men.

"ASSIGNED TO ADVENTURE," she's called her life story, just released by Lippincott, but there's an even better title, I think, on the inner jacket—"A young woman . . . whose dish is life."

HER DISH IS LIFE. Never were words more apt. I watched Irene once at a job—that goulish orgy of the Hauptmann kidnaping trial.

She's a brunette, with that quick, glowing warmth of old Erin that's deeper than any pigmant . . . as though you saw the spirit itself moving about its business. And never have I seen it more clearly than in her face that day.

There leaped all the horror of the thing before her . . . and she taking it in as it came. TAKING LIFE AS HER DISH—yet, at the same time, keeping control. Not letting it shake her deep balance or get her down.

That's something women can rarely do, no matter what their temperament or job. A man goes through a thing . . . feels and does whatever he thinks is necessary . . . then, unless he's a Susy, lopes on to the next set-up.

BUT WOMEN CAN'T TAKE LIFE AND LEAVE IT LIKE THAT. THEY KEEP CHEWING IT OVER . . . LOOKING BACK . . . WONDERING, REGRETTING.

But not Irene!

Having chosen life as her dish, she's taking it without whining. And what a dish—heaped high with the most amazing mixture of beauty, horror, danger, hilarious fun, hardship, poverty and loyal comradery!

And always, through it all, the pound-pound-pound of the racing presses matching the thud-thud-thud of her racing blood!

Until that dreadful moment on Michigan avenue when, walking carelessly in the present moment, suddenly skyscrapers, solid earth and swarming streets all vanished . . . and, as a screen unrolling, she saw a place she had never seen before . . . a strip of green, three budding trees, a woman veiled in black . . . a small, square hole . . . a little box.

One glimpse. Then time clicked back. And, wondering, she went her way. Until, weeks hence, she came upon those some three trees again . . . and knew, at last, what waited in that box—

YET, EVEN SO, WENT ON!

Brave Irene Kuhn! Life was, and is, her dish. Nor ever has she flinched from its heaping, even though the flavor often lay like aloes on her lips.

And now we have her story—"ASSIGNED TO ADVENTURE"—a book that every man will like and every woman need. A book I'd like to put in the hands of every young girl in America and say—

"There, youngster—go and live like that. Dare to make life your dish . . . heaped with whatever comes. Dare to gulp it all down . . . then wipe your eyes and steady your knees . . . AND HOLD OUT YOUR HANDS FOR MORE."

Proper Ways of Cooking Spinach

By MARTHA LEE

If more words were written about the proper way to cook spinach and less about the nutritive value of the food, the younger generation wouldn't be "ganged-up" on this mistreated vegetable.

I don't blame Junior for not liking his spinach! Nine out of ten times it has been improperly cooked and washed. And when it comes to the table it is gritty, over-cooked and carelessly seasoned. Spinach should be washed carefully. If you add 2 tablespoons of salt to the water it is washed in, the sand with lose its hold much quicker.

Cook spinach in a large covered pan with only the water that clings to the leaves from washing. After the spinach has cooked a few minutes turn the leaves so that the top leaves will come in contact with the bottom of the pan. This will prevent the bottom leaves from becoming dark and over-cooked before the leaves which have been on top are done. Cook only 6 minutes. Drain it well. Chop the spinach and season to taste with butter, chopped pieces of bacon, chopped onion, salt and pepper or hard-cooked eggs.

Any of the following recipes will give it a chance to retire permanently from the comic strips and the vaudeville stage.

SPINACH RING

3½ cups cooked spinach
1 tablespoon chopped onion
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
½ cup evaporated milk
3 eggs
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Drain the spinach and chop slightly. Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and blend thoroughly; add the milk and cook until the mixture is thick, stirring constantly. Separate the eggs, and add beaten yolks to the white sauce; add the spinach, chopped onion, salt and cook two minutes longer. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into the spinach mixture. Pour into a well greased 8-inch ring mold; set in pan of hot water so that the water comes up half an inch on the side of the mold. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes or until the mixture is set. Turn out on warmed large chop platter. Fill the center of the ring with cutter peas, and around the outside of the ring arrange diced or sliced beets alternately with slices of hard cooked eggs. Serves from 6 to 8.

TRAVIS HOUSE SPINACH

Wash two pounds of spinach thoroughly in three waters. Drain, place in pan without adding any water, and cook five minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from stove. Drain thoroughly. Chop very fine. Add one cup heavy cream, one tablespoon butter, one teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper. Reheat. Serve immediately. Approximate yield: six portions.

COTTAGE CHEESE SPINACH CASSEROLE

2 cups cooked spinach
1 cup creamed cottage cheese
2 eggs slightly beaten
2 tablespoons butter
Salt and pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients, place in well buttered casserole, sprinkle lightly with grated American cheese. Bake 30 minutes at 350 F. Serves 6.

SPINACH PECAN RING

2 cups cooked spinach, chopped
2 eggs, beaten
½ cup bread crumbs
¾ cup pecans
2 tablespoons glycerine
2 tablespoons melted butter
Salt and pepper

Mix spinach, eggs and bread crumbs. Pour glycerine over pecans. Add melted butter and salt and pepper to taste. Mix all together, pour into a greased mold or ring and bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) for 30 minutes or until firm. Serve hot.

Married Comrades

By Adele Garrison

BALCONY SCENE PREPARED

CHAPTER 554

LILLIAN played up perfectly to my carefully staged query as to whether it was warm enough for my supposed father's first appearance outdoors after his illness.

"Silly!" she said with affectionate assurance, clapping me lightly on the shoulder. "I know you've been worried to death over your father, but that doesn't give you any license to go completely off your nut. Warm enough? It's positively balmy. Getting out here will do him a world of good. Let's get going!"

I turned to Katie and motioned to the section of the floor in the middle and to the front of the balcony railing.

"Spread the rug here, Katie," I instructed her, and when she had obeyed, I directed Jim to place the easy chair upon the rug.

"Please sit down in it, Lillian," I begged, still clinging to my role of fussy, anxious daughter, "and see if the sun will strike his eyes."

She grinned at me indulgently.

Lillian Obliges

"If the chief's in his usual form, he's perfectly capable of making us change the chair's position pronto," she said. However, yours to oblige."

She sat down in the chair, looked in the direction of the sun, beckoned to Jim and instructed him to shift it ever so slightly. Then, with another critical glance, she rose abruptly.

"Couldn't be better," she said, and I turned again to Katie and Jim.

"Bring in the pillows and robes," I directed, and when they had come back laden, Lillian and I spread one robe over the chair in such fashion that it could be wrapped around the supposed invalid's feet and legs, and laid the other one upon a bench close by.

Then we placed the pillows on the bench by the side of the robe, without a second's delay. Then I looked at Lillian.

Ready for Him

Katie was gone upon my last word, and came dashing back almost immediately with the hassock in her hand. I took it from her and, stooping, placed it near the chair. Then I straightened and put put my hand upon Lillian's arm.

"We will go and get him," I said. "Katie and Jim, stay here and wait for us. We'll tell you what to do when we come back."

"O K." They just breathed the syllables, and, with my hand on Lillian's arms, feeling, indeed, that I needed actual physical support, I walked into the house.

Lillian closed the balcony door after us and gripped me by the shoulder.

"You've been a brick so far," she said. "Don't you dare to funk it now."

"I'm not going to," I retorted, and then the door of my mother-in-law's room opened and she came out into the hall.

"What's all the commotion about?" she demanded. Lillian explained that we were bringing Allen Drake out on the balcony for a pretended convalescent first appearance after the supposed illness, to allay the skepticism of the watchers upon the hill. Her comment left me limp.

"I suppose I ought to come out there, too," she said. "It will look better for all of us to be fussing over him."

(Continued tomorrow)

NOW I KNOW WHY THE NEW IMPROVED RINSO IS RECOMMENDED BY THE MAKERS OF 33 FAMOUS WASHERS
WHAT'S THE ANSWER? YOU KNOW I HAVE A WASHER, TOO
CUP FOR CUP, THE NEW RINSO GIVES OVER 25% MORE SUDS THAN THE OLD
NO WONDER YOU RAVE ABOUT THE NEW RINSO!
IT WASHES CLOTHES AT LEAST 5 SHADES WHITER THAN ORDINARY SOAPS. IT GETS COLORS BRIGHTER
I'LL HAVE TO ADMIT I NEVER SAW SUCH RICH SUDS IN MY WASHER
THE SUDS LAST NEARLY A THIRD LONGER THAN ORDINARY SUDS — EVEN IN HARD WATER
BE SURE TO USE THE NEW RINSO FOR THE DISHES AND ALL CLEANING. IT GETS RID OF GREASE IN A JIFFY
YOU'LL LIKE THE HANDY NEW OPENING
Rinso

AND for tub washing, you can't beat the New Rinso. Its richer suds loosen all dirt often in as little as 10 minutes. Washes clothes at least 5 shades whiter than ordinary soaps—gets colors bright, gay looking. This safer "no-scrub" method makes clothes last 2 or 3 times longer. It's America's biggest-selling package soap for tub, washer and dishpan.

TUNE IN RINSO'S "BIG SISTER" Monday through Friday, Columbia Network 11:30 A. M. (E. S. T.)

Exercise Your Way to Beauty

By IDA JEAN KAIN

EVEN on St. Patrick's Day you have to get up early in the morning to get ahead of the Irish.

You can imagine the surprise of the Hollywood milkmen who encounter a lovely Irish colleen pedaling her "bike" up and down Beverly Hills at 6 a. m.

They probably think she is pixilated, but it is just a good old Irish custom, and one widely endorsed for its beauty value. How well this rise-early-to-bike custom pays is illustrated by the good looks of Anne Jamison, an energetic daughter of Erin who is winning laurels as a radio and concert singer in this country.

Miss Jamison, you will agree, is a vigorous believer in exercise and she does not coast along on her bicycling. Her superb posture, graceful walk and perfect figure are the rewards of a rigorous discipline imposed by her army officer father. She was brought up on the idea that military adds two inches to every soldier's height by pulling up all the slack in his posture and, like any soldier, she was taught to stand and walk tall.

One of her routines was the [illegible] weight-shifting drill which [illegible] and precision of movement. Here's the way you do it:

With head up, back straight, let the hands fall limply to the sides. Then, standing on one leg with knee straight, circle the other leg from front to back. Shift the weight to the other leg and repeat the routine. This exercise is practiced for long periods to acquire a rhythmic movement and perfect balance. [illegible] that exercise will give [illegible] hips and lovely thighs.

A posture exercise recommended by Miss Jamison is the following: Lie face downward on the floor with arms stretched out at the sides and the head stiff. Rock back and forth, using the abdomen as a pivot and keeping the chest [illegible]. Now, clasp the hands behind the back and raise the shoulders and the legs backward as high as possible. Bend the legs only at the hips and be sure to keep the knees straight. Relax and repeat. The exercise is splendid for posture, but should not be practiced by anyone having a tendency to swayback.

Miss Jamison's [illegible] routine is helpful in counteracting [illegible] swayback. Begin with a sitting position, legs thrust straight in front with knees straight and arms in front of the body shoulder level. Holding the elbows straight, move the arms backward as the head and trunk bend forward. Keep the head and back in line, bending only at the waist.

Maybe it isn't luck that the colleens are also pretty. With this sort of exercise program it would be impossible not to have the superb figure and [illegible] that are the essentials of beauty.

BALANCED MENU

Breakfast

	Calories
Grapefruit	50
Sugar, 1 rounded tsp.	30
Soft boiled egg, 1	75
Toast, 1 slice	75
Butter, ½ tsp.	25
Coffee, 1 tsp. cream, 1 rounded tsp. sugar	50
	305

Luncheon

Creamed chicken soup	200
Celery
Fresh fruit salad (Fruit Dressing)	150
Salted crackers, 2 double	50
	400

Dinner

Lamb chops, 2, trim away fat	200
Baker potato	100
Butter, 1 pat	50
Fresh spinach	25
Sliced tomatoes	25
Tea, 1 lump sugar	[illegible]
Cookie	[illegible]
	[illegible]
[illegible]	1180

In addition to a sport which you enjoy, you need regular exercises to keep your measurements perfect. Follow the suggestions in the leaflet "General Exercises—to Keep You Trim—and Fit as a Fiddle." If you do not have this leaflet, send for it, enclosing a stamped return envelope.

MARTHA LEE'S
1938 Spring
COOK BOOK
and Homemakers'
GUIDE

FREE new recipes, new menus, household suggestions, modern ideas in kitchen refrigeration and laundry equipment

with the March 20
SUNDAY ADVERTISER
Largest Newspaper Circulation in New England

YOU CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

Turn Nails Into Flawless Gems

HAND-WRITING on the fashion wall decrees nails as languorously long and lovely as those of women who in ancient China cherished them like fabulous jade and ancestors' pottery . . . such mysterious-looking hands have turned even the elfin Ida Lupino into someone newly imbued with symbolic charm . . . and if you ever thought such a facet in your character simply couldn't be brought about in the workaday rush that keeps nails pared down to efficient level, it's because you don't know of a new protective base liquid that will make them thrive as though you didn't use them strenuously as a pianist in a swing band!

New Sixty-Cent Base Liquid Promotes Shining Length

By ARLINE GOULD

SPRING used to bring spinach, now it hand pedals vitamins . . . you used to take it for granted when your fingernails started to strip and break like old tar-paper, now you rush out and buy a bottle of scientifically-concocted nail liquid that makes them look like flawless gems, and grow like leaves of March grass.

If you have it in mind to turn yourself into a veritable spring song of a pastel with lusciously-colored suede gloves and hat, or to wear a tiny bonnet piled high with quaint and pretty flowers or do any of the dozens of enchanting things you can for yourself, you simply must see to it that your nails look as vitally and alluringly alive as the rest of you!

The most recent development in this business of protecting and fostering your nails with special colorless coating stuff is a new sixty-cent number that's just arrived on the market.

All you girls who play the parts of kitchen mechanics and still want to look as though your hands never knew the feel of dishwater will find your answer in always wearing a coating of this milky liquid, not only over the entire nail but under the eave.

With the new-priced product on the market you can afford to keep it on always. Just change to a fresh coat of polish when you want to play the pampered darling in earnest for the benefit of the girl he didn't marry.

* * *

This is truly a treatment preparation for fragile, splitting nails with ingredients designed to bring about a smooth, pliant surface.

Two methods of application will give you the loveliest set of nails you've seen outside of a close-up in your favorite movie house. For the streamlined effect that does such marvelous things for the stubbiest hands—that's the all over coverage of oval-shaped nails, from half moon to tip—apply the milky liquid completely. The secret of attaining perfection is to let each coat dry thoroughly.

While your nails aren't apt to turn into unchippable beauties in one trial, especially if they were in bad shape, about two weeks' use will result in an almost incredible improvement.

* * *

For white-tipped nails, simply avoid the half moon in applying polish on top of the base, then wipe off the tip, and after the second coat of polish has dried thoroughly add to the tip a separate coating of the base liquid.

We will be glad to give you the name of the new sixty-cent nail protective base liquid, which returns brittle nails to a shining, healthy and strong texture, phone Arline Gould, LIBerty 4000, weekdays until five, or write her at the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

A Master of Tempo

By JOSEPHINE CULBERTSON

I strongly recommend that average players devote more attention to their "timing" in the play of the hand.

Let us follow the play of two declarers handling the same cards in a match point duplicate game.

[illegible]
Both sides vulnerable
Match point duplicate

North:
♠ J 9 6 2
♡ J 9 7
◇ Q
♣ A J 9 5 2

West:
♠ A 7 3
♡ [illegible]
◇ J 8 6 4 3
♣ 7

East:
♠ K 8 5 4
♡ 6 4 3
◇ A 7 2
♣ 8 6 3

South:
♠ Q 10
♡ A Q 10
◇ K 10 9 8
♣ K Q 10 4

The bidding.

South	West	North	East
1 N T	Pass	2 N T	Pass
3 N T	Pass	Pass	Pass

West opened his fourth best diamond. East smothered the queen and returned the seven spot. At both tables declarer played the ten on the second trick. West won the jack and continued with a third round of diamonds.

At this point the two declarers went separate ways. One of them, winning with the king, led a low club to dummy's nine and sent the heart jack through, his idea being of course that even two heart tricks would insure the contract since five clubs and two diamonds were in sight.

POOR MATHEMATICS

This declarer's figuring was wrong, however. West won with the heart king and then, since he, too, could count declarer's probable tricks, promptly laid down the spade ace, his one chance being, as he saw it, that he could find East with the spade king. East signaled with the eight, and the two spade tricks taken by the defenders, added to their two diamonds and one heart, resulted in the contract's defeat.

The other declarer took a different and more logical view of the matter. Winning the third diamond with the king, he entered dummy with a club but not to lead a heart—he led a low spade!

Admittedly, if East had made a brilliant play at this point, this declarer would have been no more successful than the other. Had East boldly put up the spade king and [illegible] the defenders would have [illegible] five tricks for themselves.

DECLARER SCORES

But it should be noted first that [illegible] the same declarer would [illegible] which the [illegible].

As it happened, East was not a good enough player to put up the spade king. He ducked and the queen drove out West's ace. West was then helpless. He made as good a return as possible, [illegible] a diamond, but declarer won, and laid down the [illegible] queen, thus [illegible] dummy's jack and [illegible].

Now, when East on winning the spade king returned a heart, declarer [illegible] up with the ace and cashed the rest of the tricks.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

New Spring Fabrics

ARE YOU longing for new clothes? Why not make them? All you need is a good pattern and a good fabric. And here's what Good Housekeeping advises in the line of new spring fabrics.

In silks and rayons both print and plain are good. In plain the smartest are [illegible] heavy failles, Victoria cords, ribbed fabrics and also lovely crepes. Prints have small floral motifs, garlands, etched designs and geometric patterns.

The woolens this spring are rough to the eye but smooth to the touch. For a suit or coat Good Housekeeping suggests you use one of the new spongy nubbed woolens.

Girl's Salary Often Bar to Marriage

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

The Biblical warning that no man can serve two masters applies with much force to modern woman.

I speak especially about those young modern women whom good fortune has blessed with salaries frequently larger than those most men receive.

Alice, who writes me the interesting letter you will shortly read, is one of these lucky girls. Her salary is unusual, and I suspect it is a principal reason for her failure to attract good husband material.

Alice writes:

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

What's wrong with me anyway? I've been going with a man who is a graduate of a university for the past seven months. He's a well-educated and well-liked man, has a good job. But I just don't seem to care for him.

Before going with him, I went around with a wealthy farmer, but I soon got tired of him.

I go out with them a few times and then they begin to bore me. I really enjoy being with men, but soon grow tired of them all.

I am employed and work every day, making more than a good many men. I wish you would tell me what to do. I don't care to stay single all my life.

I am now 27 years old.

ALICE.

DEAR ALICE:

Perhaps the right man is still waiting just around the corner, so don't force yourself into a make-believe love affair just because you don't want to stay single all your life.

Better try to forget you make [illegible]. This may be the reason [illegible] which is a fatal handicap to finding [illegible].

Next time you meet a man who [illegible]

BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

(Beatrice Fairfax broadcasts through WNAC each Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 2:15 p. m.)

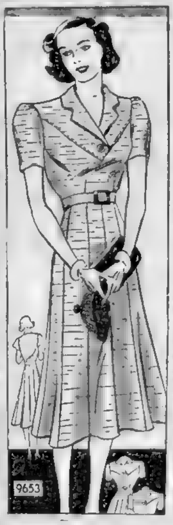
—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Beauty Hints

[illegible] keep the hands out of water [illegible]

When the hands are [illegible] let them [illegible] won't be so noticeable.

Smart Shirt Waist Frock



By MARIAN MARTIN

When planning your wardrobe be sure to include at least one smart, but simple shirtwaist frock in linen or shantung like this one from Pattern 9653.

The pattern provides three different finishes for the neck so make up your dress with the one that's most becoming. For a truly tailored effect, choose the collar and revers combination as featured, but if you want a more casual style either the revers or small collar alone is attractive.

And don't overlook that 12-gored skirt . . . the season's favorite, with plenty of dash and "swing." Complete Marian Martin Diagrammed Sew Chart is included.

Pattern 9653 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 4 yards 36 inch fabric.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address, and style number.

Your [illegible] problems solved! Write [illegible] for new spring [illegible] of patterns! Look it over from cover to cover. See the wide variety of stunning, up-to-date [illegible] designed by Marian Martin! Then settle down and make a wardrobe for yourself and family.

Even a beginner will find it easy to turn out clothes with a true professional look. Be an artist this spring. Order your copy of this helpful new book today. Price of book 15 cents. Price of pattern 15 cents. Price of book and pattern together only 25 cents.

Send your order to Boston Evening American Pattern Department, 232 West 18th street, New York, N. Y.

Mrs. Beeckman on Manners

AT TABLE

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

1. Is it proper for a [illegible] man to [illegible]

2. If there are [illegible]

3. Is it [illegible]

4. [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] should be left on the plate [illegible]

[illegible] Yes.

(Mrs. Beeckman will be glad to answer questions on Good Manners submitted by readers.)

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Fingernail Style

IF YOU want to have your fingernails [illegible] bright red varnishes find a lovely [illegible] or coral. We're tired of [illegible] claws. Men have never liked them. It's time we [illegible] and toned down the color of our veneer.

GREATEST Special WE EVER OFFERED!

BIG 1938 WESTINGHOUSE with the Kitchen-proved MEAT-KEEPER

Biggest improvement in years! Keeps meat fresher for days longer! Conserves [illegible] moisture!

MODELS AS LOW AS 14¢ A DAY Payable Monthly

LOOK AT THESE OTHER
Kitchen-proved Features

The MEAT-KEEPER heads the list! And look what you get besides: (1) Streamline beauty; (2) new Super-capacity Froster; (3) improved Eject-o-Cube Trays; (4) scientific shelf spacing; (5) improved Economizer Mechanism with Built-in Watchman protection. And, to make this 1938 Westinghouse the "savingest" refrigerator you ever saw . . .

BIGGER Kitchen-proved SAVINGS!

Certified averages from hundreds of HOME Proving Kitchens show it SAVES FOOD . . . $9.10 a month on food alone; SAVES TIME . . . shopping trips cut in half; SAVES MONEY . . . 10 hours out of 12 it uses no current at all—Kitchen-proved.

Only Westinghouse has the MEAT-KEEPER

COME IN!
Compare the value!

AT YOUR Edison Shop
AND ELECTRICAL DEALERS

Liberal Terms to Edison Service Customers

NO DOWN PAYMENT
Up to 3 years to pay

☛ Be sure to see the new 1938 WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC RANGES

VAN WYCK MASON'S The CASTLE ISLAND CASE With CANDID CAMERA CLUES by HENRY CLAY GIPSON

CHAPTER 14

The trip back to Plunder Island was a silent one, Creepy standing statue-still at the wheel and not turning his head once. Peter, gorged and still bearing souvenirs of the promised ice cream cone in the guise of tide marks about his mouth, again became absorbed in his British Colonials.

As for Gail, she sat looking absently at the distant ruins on Castle Island but her thoughts it appeared had strayed even further away than the gray old castle.

A [illegible] broke water just ahead of the bow, darted through the air in a graceful parabola and disappeared.

[illegible] Allenby got his Leica ready but the [illegible] refused to [illegible] again and the investigator was forced to satisfy himself with some shots of [illegible] terns which [illegible] snowy white darts came drifting by overhead.

When Creepy presented his [illegible] in answer to a call [illegible] he got what he hoped [illegible] a fine snap of the boat [illegible].

"Don't put the Dart away," she was saying, "because Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] want to go right back [illegible]. Have some porters handy [illegible] a guest arriving on the [illegible] Steam Navigation boat [illegible]"

"Yes, Miss Gail. [illegible]"

Creepy nodded twice, then deftly steered the launch through a maze of [illegible] reefs and into the safety of [illegible] At the end of the [illegible]

Clip the Camera Clues

[illegible]

"Yes, and I had a [illegible] about the town."

"Hi there!" Towne Ward [illegible] from further up the pier. [illegible] you two [illegible] cocktail. Terry's having a [illegible] can. Say, Barney [illegible] Cora Sue's got a [illegible] never seen anything [illegible]

[illegible]

"Look!" Gail cried, holding up the box of cards Allenby had presented. [illegible] Three deep [illegible] Major A[illegible]

"You did [illegible]" Barbara [illegible]

[illegible]

"By the way," Allenby said, watching Grafton far more intently than that individual suspected, "I bumped into the police inspector who was out here this morning."

"Inspector Boyd, you mean?" Ward demanded. "Or was it the uniformed fellow?"

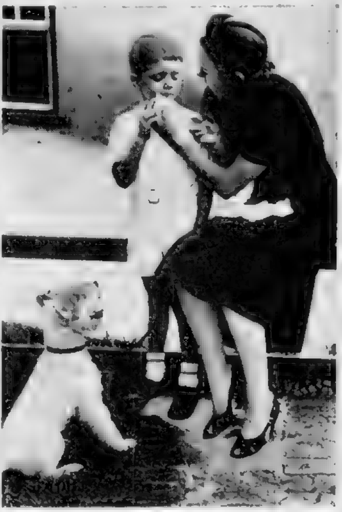
"STILL ACCIDENTAL?"

"Boyd. He said Dr. Gosling's autopsy showed Miss Fortier's death was due to a fracture of the medulla."

"I suppose he still thinks the gal was accidental?" Terry James demanded with an assumption of carelessness which escaped carrying conviction by a wide margin.

"Yes. Inspector Boyd said there was no evidence of any sort to indicate foul play. Apparently she just went for a walk and either lost her way or got frightened by a toad and fell."

Allenby's gray hair glistened [illegible] swinging up to the dock.



"What has that awful Major Allenby been feeding you?" asked BARBARA as she wiped her son PETER'S face . . .

Have YOU the Detective Instinct? Then Clip This Story for—CLUES!

Now the modern camera joins the magnifying glass of Sherlock Holmes as potent instruments of crime detection. Examine carefully all pictures that illustrate "THE CASTLE ISLAND CASE." Some of them give important clues as to its ultimate solution. Clip the pictures from day to day! Check them for detail as you read the story!! By doing so and exercising that detective instinct which is in most of us, you should be able to beat Major Roger Allenby to the discovery of the guilty party or parties. Read the story from day to day and, above all, examine its camera clues most carefully!

[illegible]

"Not [illegible] by reputation. He's accomplished a great deal for a man of his age." Allenby turned to Ward. "Haven't I heard or read this name somewhere within the last year [illegible]"

[illegible]

"Ahm mad!" Cora Sue managed a gorgeous pout. "Nobody brought poor little me any candy. N[illegible] even a couple of peanuts."

"But they did. Look." From a paper bag, kept as a reserve against Peter's appetite, Allenby snatched forth a lovely chocolate mouse with pink sugar eyes.

"PERFECTLY DISGUSTING"

Whereupon Terry struck an attitude while declaiming: "Don't cry little girl, I'll catch the varmint for you!" Grinning, he seized the offering by its string tail. "Open wide," he commanded and as Cora Sue parted lips bright as a guardsman's coat, Allenby snatched out his Leica.

"Wider. Tip your head back [illegible]"

"That's [illegible] Chinese fashion," Ward [illegible] declared. "The [illegible] will now demonstrate the best approved [illegible] way."

He pulled out a penknife, spitted a second mouse on its point and commenced to nibble along the [illegible]

[illegible]

"[illegible] St. George!" Ward [illegible] away, flinging spray [illegible]

"Well, baby's going to have a big [illegible] cocktail. Last one up to the house is a patsy." And with a flash of long [illegible] legs Cora went racing up the pier. Cora Sue, her skirts caught garter high, started in mad pursuit.

* * *

After lunch, while the rest of the household read or indulged in cat naps, Allenby again brought out the mysterious deck of cards and set methodically to work.

At the end of an hour the vacant painted expressions of the face cards still mocked his bafflement, so in exasperated fury he locked them in the bureau drawer.

A careful reconnoitering of the corridor permitted him to slip unobserved into that room in which he now knew Patricia Fortier had been so cruelly murdered.

The dead girl's bags, he noted, had been packed but not closed and lying on the top of the larger one was a picture of Judy. The two sisters certainly did not greatly resemble each other, Allenby decided as he sat down.

The next problem for consideration was from whence had come the dust causing the dirty finger marks on the towel? Common sense indicated it must be some place which would not undergo routine cleaning.

This would be especially so on Plunder Island, where the air was far purer than the dust-laden atmosphere of New York.

SPOTS ON THE SILK

Lips pursed in thought, Allenby lifted the linings of the now cleared desk drawers and though he found some little dust in them it was hardly enough, the same was true of the tops of the valance boards fixed to the room's two windows.

Perspiring gently, and aware of mounting exasperation, he stood in the center of the room, then his eyes struck one of a pair of gay Japanese prints.

Smothering a small grunt of excitement, he hurried over to them, turned one face around, exposed its back and uttered a small oath of disappointment. It was clean and its paper backing untampered with. The same was true of its companion piece.

But pictures, indeed! Turning, he caught up Patricia's picture of Judy. His hopes soared. It's back was clean, but a close inspection revealed that the sliding section to which the prop was affixed was gray with grime apparently transported from America.

Near the top of the slide four fingerprints had made clean spots on the watered silk lining.

Mum! He shook the leather bound portrait close to his ear and felt sure a rustling, faint as the tread of a mouse, had sounded from within. In a trice he was gently slipping the back slide out from the frame, freeing the picture.

Considering the caliber of his possible suspects he had no desire to leave any evidence and therefore was deeply annoyed when Judy's picture slipped out readily enough but not so a new plain [illegible] sheet of note paper.

He shook the frame at first patiently, then with violence, yet achieved nothing. Stubbornly the glass refused to [illegible] out of its fastenings.

Allenby was not thwarted for long, so from the pen tray he selected a [illegible] and on the end of it cut a [illegible] notch.

Then employing the technique of a military censor [illegible] sealed envelopes he slipped the probe down into the [illegible] caught an edge of the single sheet within and wound the letter into a long thin cylinder. This was easily withdrawn.

Pulling out his handkerchief, Roger Allenby removed all finger marks and replaced the portrait and slide. He had just put the frame back in the dead girl's suitcase when quite quietly, the door opened.

CONTINUED TOMORROW

[illegible]

Howard's Eye Is Fixed on Chair Of Governor

"No" Man With Five State Executives Has Single Goal

By ALFRED D. WHELTON

Charles P. Howard, the "No" [illegible] under five governors, wants to be governor of Massachusetts himself.

He revealed his wish to me but hastened to qualify his announcement with the big IF.

In response to Beacon Hill rumblings that have named him as a candidate for most every office from governor down, the former chairman of the state commission on administration and finance said the chief executive's chair was his goal.

Howard is a Republican but three of the governors under whom he served were Democrats, Joseph B. Ely, James M. Curley and the present Governor Hurley. He was appointed by former Governor Alvan T. Fuller and served also under former Governor Frank G. Allen.

BITTER CAMPAIGN

Should he win the Republican nomination and should Governor Hurley be renominated by the Democrats, one of the bitterest campaigns in a decade seems certain.

Howard wasn't exactly removed by Governor Hurley at the first of this year, but his term ran out and the governor ended Howard's 12 years of service by replacing him with Patrick J. Moynihan.

The move proved a blow to the [illegible] chairman who at one time or another had slashed over finances with nearly every state official of any [illegible] stance—and [illegible] of the [illegible]

"NEVER BEEN LICKED"

Of his [illegible] Howard says:

"You may say that I have my eye on the governor's chair. That's certain.

"The thing that is uncertain, however, is the question of my chances to win the nomination.

"If I see my way clear later on I shall certainly make the bid.

"There is another thing you can say. I've never been licked yet."

[illegible]

Today, however, he insisted he would give no thought to the lesser offices.

15 YEARS IN POLITICS

Howard makes his home in Reading. He entered [illegible] 15 years ago as a [illegible] of the constitutional convention from his home town.

Later he was elected to the state senate from which he resigned [illegible] chairman from the [illegible]

[illegible]

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

New Treadway Bill

WASHINGTON, March 15—A bill [illegible]

[illegible]

—STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT—

Last 6 Solutions To Problems

Here are the final six correct solutions, completing the list of [illegible] in the Boston Evening American $20,000 Human Problems Contest.

Names of all persons involved in some news stories on which Human Problems were based are withheld to save living principals from embarrassment.

Problem No. 85 — "Too Many Engagements." Correct conclusion: "B." "The youth demanded proof of the baby's parentage, never married the laborer's daughter." Based on news stories of Pennsylvania's "American Tragedy."

Problem 86 — "Love Me Forever." Correct conclusion "A." "She obtained a divorce and married her employer." Based on news feature, "Victims of Amnesia," in American Weekly.

Problem 87—"The White Feather." Correct conclusion: "A." "He stays home, convinced that the white feather shall be his badge of courage." Based on widely circulated fiction story.

Problem 88—"The Modern Antony and Cleopatra." Correct conclusion: "B." "He soon deserted her and was never heard from again." Based on Beatrice Fairfax story.

Problem 89 — "The Jury Decides." Correct conclusion: "A." "The jury freed her." Based on news stories of New York slaying.

Problem 90 — "Cupid in the Woods." Correct conclusion: "B." "They permitted the marriage, gave the daughter nothing, let them live in the forest in the manner in which he was accustomed." Based on Beatrice Fairfax story.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Pair Face 12 More Days of Suspension

Patrolmen Francis X. Delaney and Henry McShane of the East Boston station today were under suspension for 12 more days after being found guilty of failing to report an important matter to their captain.

A police trial board gave them 140 days suspension, but it was effective as of November 5 last. Both officers were found not guilty of accepting a bribe in connection with their finding a couple "parked" in East Boston. They will return to duty March 26.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

DAMON RUNYON, famed sports reporter and writer, tells you of "The Brighter Side," his daily column, in the Boston American.

Brighton Aviator To Be 'Sky Santa'

LOUIS HOAR

Brighton Youth Who Succeeds "Chute Santa"

Parachute Expert Prepares for His New Job at East Boston Port

In the near future, Louis Hoar, a [illegible] Brighton [illegible] will assume full responsibility for all parachute [illegible] at East Boston airport and today he said a very observant little [illegible] helped him get the job.

Hoar was [illegible] Corporal Harold J. Kane, the parachute flying Santa [illegible] who lost his life [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] On completion of the course he will [illegible] here as head of the U. S. Army's [illegible] parachute department.

Hoar [illegible] gave partial credit [illegible] for his newly acquired assignment.

"My little dog 'Lady' is the mascot of the airport. She watches everything.

"When I fly a plane the wrong way, even look a little bit off in handling a parachute, 'Lady' won't look at me for a couple of days. She's a great little teacher."

[illegible]

A parachute is one of the safest things in modern aviation," he says, and means it.

—STOP SLAUGHTER OF INNOCENTS—

Ohio Educator to Quit

COLUMBUS, O., March 15 — [illegible] George W. Rightmire, for 12 years president of Ohio State University [illegible] board of trustees [illegible] today.

Student's Crash Tip Wins $25 Cash Award

Seaman Takes Photo And Second Prize; Other Winners

By THE NEWS TIP Editor

A girl was instantly killed, another girl and a Harvard senior were seriously injured and four Boston Elevated employes were hurt when a car crashed into an Elevated tower repair truck in Massachusetts avenue, Cambridge.

A Cambridge student, near the scene of the crash, IMMEDIATELY phoned the details of the tragic accident to the Boston Evening American News Tip Editor. He is winner of first prize of $25 in the week's Boston American-Sunday Advertiser news tip [illegible]

[illegible]

JOBBER GETS PRIZE

A Winthrop [illegible] was awarded third prize [illegible]

[illegible]

FIRE RESCUE TOLD

[illegible]

Each week the Boston Evening American [illegible] awards $[illegible] in prize money [illegible]

[illegible] REMEMBER [illegible] BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN NEWS TIP [illegible]

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Second Arrest Due In Death of Bride

PEKIN, Ill., March 15 (INS)—[illegible] James Warren Crabb [illegible] spent a week in jail before he was [illegible] on a charge [illegible] bride of five weeks [illegible] Betty Crabb [illegible] Champaign, Ill. [illegible]

[illegible]

LLOYD'S Andrew J. Lloyd Co. Eyeglasses and Spectacles Cost no more at Lloyd's Budget optional Boston, Cambridge, Salem

"I RAISE TOBACCO"
I'VE BEEN PLANTING TOBACCO FOR 20 YEARS. I KNOW CAMEL USES FINER, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS. THEY BOUGHT THE CHOICE LOTS OF MY LAST CROP_PAID ME MORE FOR MY BEST KINDS OF TOBACCO. I SMOKE CAMELS BECAUSE I KNOW WHAT FINE TOBACCO GOES INTO THEM
CAMEL

HARRY C. KING knows tobacco because he grows it.

TOBACCO GROWERS are in a position to speak with authority about the kinds of tobacco that go into the various makes of popular cigarettes. They actually see, at the auctions, who bids highest to get the choice lots of their own crops—and their neighbors' too. They know what cigarette does get the finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS. They know it's Camel. And they know that when they smoke Camels they're getting something extra.

"WE SMOKE CAMELS BECAUSE WE KNOW TOBACCO" TOBACCO PLANTERS SAY

Added Pleasure Ahead

It's the EXTRA STEP we take

In all your travels, we believe, you cannot find a finer tasting whiskey than this Golden Wedding. It is not merely a single whiskey—it is several fine, carefully chosen types, all merged to create one exquisite whiskey. We take this important extra step to get that palate-pleasing balance people talk about. It's all whiskey, of course.

Golden Wedding

RYE — BLENDED STRAIGHT WHISKIES—90 PROOF COPR. 1938 JOS. S. FINCH & CO. INC. SCHENLEY, PA.

Harvard to Ask Hockey Coach Joe Stubbs to Resign Post

Turn to Page 16, Sports Section

Comics BOSTON AMERICAN Sports
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

GIRL About TOWN

By MARJORIE McBRIDE

Marjorie McBride

If you're a girl with an ambition to become a radio announcer, you are lucky indeed if you are a natural contralto. Such voices register best. Sopranos tend to get squeaky. And don't discard radio announcing as a possible career, if you are looking for one. There are a lot of women making good livings at it in Italy and England.

Not in America, Arthur Edes admits. Not yet. Mr. Edes is with station WEEI, and teaches radio technique and the like to the girls at Emerson College. He estimates only about ten per cent of radio announcers in this country are women, and he knows the reasons. It is not so much a matter of voice as it is of voice control. Women are likely to get too coy . . . too whimsical . . . too indignant . . . too merry or too sad. They emphasize certain words and make them stand out, as if they were talking to a girl friend. The words are not always important in the text.

This Mr. Edes is a born idol smasher. He says most women hereabouts haven't good telephone voices. And for the same reasons. To illustrate, he cites one side of an imaginary conversation between two women. The words in capitals are the words on which she raises her voice and puts on the emphasis:

"My DEAR, did you know that DIVINE Mrs. Worthington was back in town? With a PUPPET show of ALL things. I'm SO impatient to SEE it. Isn't it THRILLING?"

Girls Spread Radio Propaganda in Arabia

This is the way it goes [illegible] men smoking after-dinner cigars. He sugar [illegible] saying if the [illegible] their voices [illegible] CONTROL they can be just as [illegible] microphone per- [illegible] spread [illegible] women have [illegible] the voices of [illegible] as of a [illegible]

* * *

It seems about time this column [illegible] hobbies. [illegible] Attorney Joseph W. Worthen's [illegible] pair of skis and a stretch of snow and he's happy. [illegible] is the weakness of [illegible] Clem Norton. [illegible] Skinner of the Second National Bank is a camera fiend. [illegible] Bridge is what interests Vice President Frank L. Richardson of the New England Trust Company after the bank is closed. [illegible] is the hobby of Edward C. Stone of the Employers' Liability Insurance Corporation. [illegible] raising prize [illegible] is the ambition of Tax Expert Albert C. McMenimen. Earl Hammond of the Abbott Laboratories is another bridge fan.

* * *

Butler Announces Deal Opposition

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's own writings have produced nothing quite so amusing as a paragraph in a story about Mrs. Henry Parish, socialite, in the March issue of Town and Country magazine. She was an early Roosevelt fan, and gave the wedding party at which Franklin and Eleanor were married. But she hasn't liked F. D. R. so much since he got to Washington. So she recently instructed her butler to go to the telephone with a long list of her friends and inform each of them [illegible]

"Mrs. Parish wishes you to know she is no longer in sympathy with the New Deal."

* * *

Vital statistics for Mt. Washington [illegible] show no deaths, [illegible] marriages and one birth. [illegible] welfare cases [illegible] In case you've forgotten, Mt. Washington is the town that always tries to be first in with the local vote in state and national elections. Not that the nation always goes as Mt. Washington does. Particularly in the little matter of debt.

* * *

If you feel like a spring dress splurge, you'll be interested in Hovey's models in the little money shop. One is a cape dress, navy trimmed in copen or dusty pink. Jordan Marsh has a smart two-piece dress of sheer rayon, detachable white collar, pleated bodice and peplum and covered buttons and belt. At Filene's you'll find a classic fashion called Hopsacking. It is strictly tailored of spun rayon with a bit of wool for chilly days. Colors are rose, aqua and beige. These dresses are priced over $6.

THIS Is LIFE

By ROBERT E. ROGERS

Robert E. Rogers

Even if the Motion Picture Academy award for the best picture of the past year did go to "The Life of Emile Zola," they couldn't, I suppose, go on giving the individual prize to Mr. Paul Muni year after year. That is the reason I am more than glad that they gave it to Luise Rainer, who seemed to me in that particular picture to have beaten Mr. Muni hands down at the game of sheer acting. I have always thought so and I still do. Not that I do not admire Muni as a straight and a character actor.

But "The Good Earth" seemed to me essentially Miss Rainer's picture, from the moment when she first appears as the browbeaten and silent servant in the Big House through the hard sequences of the hail storm, the tragedy of the famine and the melodrama of the Canton riots, to her wistful and weary death in the latter scenes. There was a tremendous amount of scope and versatility, of emotional depth and sincerity in her acting.

I remember vividly the time when, quite by accident, I first saw Luise Rainer on the screen, an unheralded little Viennese in a funny and rather subtle part which (it was reported) Myrna Loy had turned down, that of the little nobody in "Escapade."

Her Great Acting In Other Big Plays

I was sitting in the very front row, way to the side, so that all the figures on the screen were oblique and ridiculously thin and tall like figures seen in those funny mirrors at Revere Beach. Even at that Luise Rainer conquered the picture. Do you remember the sequence where she got mildly lit and hiccuped into her drink?

Next, she made you feel in "The Great Ziegfield" that if Anna Held had not been quite so delicate and charming she should have been, and finally "The Good Earth" gave us a great tragic role to remember. I wish that sometime she would play the young Bernhardt and give Paul Muni a run for his money in the French biographical handicap.

I am almost equally satisfied with the award to Spencer Tracy for his work as the fisherman Manuel in "Captains Courageous." Tracy has never been a fancy actor. He is not handsome. He is not at first sight particularly striking. But he breathes an essential reality.

Exceptional Acting As "He-Man Saint"

The first time I remember seeing him he played a priest with a passion for social service and boxing and, somehow, he managed to blend the two naturally and perfectly, a he-man who also was something of a saint. And he did it in the most natural and unpretentious way possible. A Christian Socialist, so to speak, after the Charles Kingsley pattern.

And his portrayal of the simple good hearted fisherman, Manuel, who confidently expected to go to Heaven and meet his father again where the fishing was even better than on the Grand Banks, was another masterpiece in that genre. How he tamed and disciplined young Harvey Cheyne (Freddy Batholemew) the spoiled kid from the preparatory school, and forced the boy against his will to love and honor him, was unforgettable.

Hardest Sort of Acting Done Well

That kind of a character is the the hardest to act, the plain, good man who may not be portrayed with heroics or romantics or in the grand manner, but whose every expression and line must portray a regular fellow so that he carries utter conviction.

That is what Spencer Tracy did in that grand picture, and, again, I am glad to see him get the award.

The rest of the awards hardly matter except to experts, but certainly Thomas Moulton deserved his for the sound effects in that monstrous hurricane, and it was nice to note that Hollywood doesn't give all the credit for Charley McCarthy to Charley himself. Edgar Bergen got some of it—which is as it should be.

Everybody Happy? Last Day Rush at Tax Bureau

Zero Hour Scenes as Hundreds File Returns Just Under Deadline

Might's Well Take it Easy

Well, Here's One to Figure Out

No Bargains? Shopping Was Never Like This

Taxes are taxes, but how do you figure them out? That's what these people want to know as they throng the local Federal Income Tax Bureau on the last day for filing their 1937 reports. Hundreds of belated taxpayers joined in the final stampede to avoid overtime penalties and scores of clerks were kept busy all day long solving the problems of all who asked — and did they ask?

Boston Evening American Photos

Tax Payers! Be Sure and File Returns Today

Zero Hours Find Big Annual Rush at Federal Bureau

Taxing the capacity of the skilled personnel, last minute federal income taxpayers jammed the internal revenue offices today, making it necessary for a total of [illegible] clerks and officers to be pressed into service.

The [illegible] department was assisting in taking care of the [illegible] deal- [illegible] the taxpayers [illegible] and the crowd of tax report filers being estimated as far greater than last year.

The internal revenue office closes at 4:30 p. m. today, and if you have not filed your federal income tax return in the office by then, your only other recourse is by the mails.

A return must bear a postmark before midnight tonight without the danger of a penalty for late filing being imposed.

[illegible]

A [illegible] check of files will [illegible] to discover and proceed against those who try to skip their income taxes.

A greater crowd than ever jammed the federal building today. Some were here to file returns, others sought information on puzzling problems.

[illegible] information was sought on what items might be deducted from taxable earnings — always a stumbling block.

Many discovered they could deduct taxes on gasoline, theater tickets, ball games and other items they had paid unknowingly throughout the year.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Youth Sentenced In Everett Crash

A Charlestown youth was given a [illegible] sentence and fined $[illegible] in Malden court [illegible] Everett in which one woman was [illegible]

He was [illegible] L. Quinn, 24, [illegible] who [illegible]

[illegible] was Mrs. [illegible] of Tappan avenue, [illegible] who received a fractured [illegible] and internal injuries when the automobile swerved out of control on Broadway, Everett, crashed into a telephone pole and then overturned. She was taken to Whidden Memorial Hospital.

Quinn received cuts and bruises, as did Mrs. Frances Greene, 3[illegible], of Agawam avenue, Revere, and Edward J. M[illegible], 2[illegible], of M[illegible] avenue, Charlestown. All were released from Whidden Hospital after treatment.

Taken to court, Quinn was sentenced to three months for driving under the influence of liquor, a similar term for driving so as to endanger and was fined $25 for driving without a license and an additional $1[illegible] for drunkenness.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Admit 56 to U. S. Court Practice

Three women and 53 men lawyers were admitted to federal court practice today at opening of the spring term of district court.

The women are Sylvia F. Richman and Esther Arzman, both of Boston, and Margaret Bowes Kenny of 7 Sagamore street, Dorchester.

Among the men attorneys were Robert T. Fielding, son of former Assistant Attorney General Henry P. Fielding, and Daniel Bloomfield, secretary of the Retail Trade Board.

Clerk James Allen administered the oath and Judge Hugh D. McLellan gave lengthy instructions on federal court practice in bankruptcy and criminal cases.

Frederick W. Browne of Hingham, a Jordan Marsh Company department manager, was named foreman of the new federal grand jury.

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

Malden Husband Reported Missing

Percy Roy Crocker, 45, of Washington street, Malden, optician with a Boston firm for 16 years until he lost his job March 7, has been missing from home since Saturday, his wife Marguerite reported to Boston police today.

Scores Flee Big Chelsea Blaze

A two-alarm fire which drove scores of persons from their homes caused damage estimated at $1[illegible] to a building occupied by the [illegible] on Summer street, Chelsea, today.

The blaze started [illegible] according to police [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] was treated by a nearby physician for a severe [illegible] right arm received when he broke a window to escape from the structure.

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

1200 Employers Face Charges

Failure of 1200 employers to provide the State Unemployment Compensation Commission with the required wage information has prevented [illegible] persons from receiving compensation, it was announced by the commission today.

At the same time it was stated that court action was being taken against these delinquent employers.

"Drastic action is necessary," Laurence P. Harrington, secretary of the commission, declared.

"The legal department of the commission has been deputized to act as an agent of the attorney-general's office in handling the cases."

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Fin. Com. Secretary On 'Mystery' Trip

On a trip about which there appeared to be considerable mystery, Robert E. Cunniff, secretary of the Boston Finance Commission, left Boston yesterday by automobile, the Boston Evening American learned today.

His departure was unannounced and none of his closest associates professed to know today where he was bound.

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

Tobin Shamrocks Sent to Hurley

Governor Hurley today received three pots of Irish shamrocks sent to him by Mayor Maurice J. Tobin.

"It is a real pleasure for me to send you these shamrocks, emblematic of Ireland's patron saint," the mayor wrote in a note sent with the pots.

All the shamrocks are now on the governor's desk for the saint's natal day on the 17th.

Holiday Plans Await O. K.

City employes [illegible] holiday, March 17 [illegible] Evacuation Day.

The [illegible] proved a half holiday Thursday for the big South Boston celebration and only the mayor's signature was needed to make it official.

Meanwhile South Boston was [illegible] and spangled for the parade of 7[illegible] [illegible] who will look on.

Final plans for the night before banquet were completed with the announcement that the chief speaker at exercises at Hotel Brunswick will be James G. Reardon, commissioner of education.

Other invited speakers include Governor Hurley and Lieutenant Governor Kelly. The toastmaster will be John E. Kerrigan, president of the City Council.

Hundreds of school children are expected to take part in historic exercises to be held Thursday at 10 a. m. on Dorchester Heights, where the Rev. Richard Reynolds will be the speaker.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Insurance Group Meets Thursday

More than 500 life insurance underwriters will gather for the 17th annual sales congress at Hotel Statler Thursday under sponsorship of the Boston Life Underwriters Association.

Outstanding life insurance executives from all sections of the East are included in the list of speakers for morning and afternoon business sessions. Fitzhugh Traylor, Boston manager of Equitable Life of New York, will preside.

Princesses' Whims Keep Albania Envoy Puzzled

[illegible]

Leaving the [illegible] three [illegible] charges [illegible] time [illegible] at New York, the [illegible] Advertising Club [illegible] Hotel Statler after he had asked leave [illegible] New York [illegible] principal speaker at the affair.

PLACE IS FILLED

Meanwhile he said his place would be taken temporarily by Assim Jakova, former member of the Albanian Parliament.

Meanwhile Maxhide planned to make a second visit to the dentist and then it was planned to take the three sisters of King Zog for a drive to Marblehead to view the quaint seaside village.

If they make the trip, it will be the first time all three have ventured into the New England weather since Sunday. Maxhide went to the dentist yesterday, but the others preferred the warmth of their Ritz-Carlton suite.

VISIT STYLE SHOW

Before this, however, the eternal feminine had its moments when the Princesses Maxhide, Ruhie and Myzejen attended a fashion show at the hotel and contemplated several chic numbers to add to their already extensive wardrobes of American clothes.

The princesses will continue their visit here through Thursday, when they will visit the flower show at Mechanics Hall. There they will be honored when a flower, of undis[illegible] future.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

$413,000 Starts B. U. Fund Drive

Contributions of nearly $413,000 today gave Boston University a fast start in its campaign for $1,15[illegible] for a new College of Business Administration building, following the drive dinner in the Copley Plaza hotel last night.

More than 2000 cheered as President Daniel L. Marsh announced a gift of $50,000 by John Shepard Jr., $100,000 from the Hayden Foundation, $10,000 from business college faculty members and $[illegible] in miscellaneous donations.

The funds will erect the first building of the new Boston University campus on the Charles river. Alumni of many schools and colleges in the university joined today in the drive.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Stone Hearing March 24

Hearings on ouster proceedings against Judge Arthur P. Stone of the East Cambridge district court were definitely set for March 24 today after the Senate concurred with the House in sending to the joint committee on judiciary Governor Hurley's removal message.

Backs New State College Here

[illegible]

He was speaking in favor of the bill of Representative Charles M[illegible] ler for appointment of a special commission to investigate the advisability of establishing and maintaining such an institution.

John H. Reynolds, representing the State Council of Teachers Union, said that organization had gone on record as opposed to the suggestion of President James B. Conant of Harvard that the number of students in colleges should be reduced.

"Other states have state colleges and they are going fine," said Kenneth I. Taylor, legislative agent for Massachusetts Federation of Labor. "It would enable children of working parents to secure a higher education at a cost they can afford."

Representative Albert Bergeron of Amherst opposed the bill.

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

Wheaton Seeks Art Center Designs

A nation-wide competition among architects to design a $[illegible] art center for Wheaton College, oldest institution of its type in the country, was announced today by college officials.

The winner will be awarded the commission for the project and in addition there will be a $400 award, two of $100 and eight of $50 each for meritorious designs. The competition closes May 2[illegible] and judging will begin June 2. Names of judges have as yet not been announced.

PHONE YOUR NEWS TIPS TO THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN AND SHARE IN $50 CASH AWARDS THAT ARE OFFERED EACH WEEK

Do you want to make some money for being alert? If so, the Boston Evening American and the Sunday Advertiser are presenting the opportunity. Every week a total of $50 in prizes will be given for news tips telephoned in to the News Tip Editor at Liberty 4000. There will be given $25 weekly for the best first exclusive news tip received, $10 for the next best, $5 for the next best and $1 prizes for each of the 10 next most valuable tips.

Best Bets Tonight

5:45 p. m.—WMEX—Uncle Neal touring the comic pages of the Boston Evening American.
7:30 p. m.—WEEI—Second Husband presenting Helen Menken, actress.
8:00 p. m.—WEEI—Big Town with Edward G. Robinson, Claire Trevor and Phil Ohman and his orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—WEEI—Al Jolson's program with Edna May Oliver, comedienne, and Martha Raye, Parkyakarkus and Victor Young's Orchestra.
9:00 p. m.—WEEI—Al Pearce and his Gang with Jane Froman, singing star, Arlene Harris and Tizzie Lish and Carl Hoff's Orchestra.
9:30 p. m.—WEEI—Jack Oakie's College with Ruby Keeler, Milton Berle and Benny Goodman's Swing Band, George Stoll's Orchestra and Stuart Erwin.
9:30 p. m.—WNAC—Fibber McGee program with Clark Dennis, tenor, and Billy Mills and his orchestra.
11:00 p. m.—WMEX—Jimmie McHale's Orchestra.
12:00 p. m.—WBZ—American Legion anniversary with Dick Foran, [illegible] and Rosemary Lane, Dick Powell, [illegible]

Advertisement

NEW TIME FOR FIBBER McGEE!
JOHNSON'S WAX AND GLO-COAT
TUESDAY (TONIGHT) 9:30 P. M.
WNAC

GOLD & SILVER
WANTED
We Buy Old Gold, Jewelry, Watches, Chains, Rings, Medals, Dental Gold, Silver and Platinum
PEASE & CURREN
5 BROMFIELD ST.

for DEAFNESS
ACOUSTICON
146 TREMONT ST., BOSTON
FREE BOOKLET ON REQUEST

Have you
LOST YOUR DOG?
Don't Give Up! !
Let Miss James help you with a lost ad. In addition to running the ad for your lost dog in the American and the Sunday Advertiser she will give you a radio broadcast (without extra charge) over
STATION WCOP
Broadcast daily at 1:15 P. M.
Phone Miss James, LIberty 4

Radioland Reflections

By N. F. T.

Strange quirks of fate are casting shadows over the "Oakie College" airing (WEEI) at 9:30 this evening and next Tuesday night, the two concluding in his series, by the way.

Illness of Martha Raye called for a substitution, which could have been Lyda Roberti, except lovely Lyda was taken by death on Saturday last and since Alice Brady has sustained a broken ankle and cannot be with Oakie next week, Milton Berle gets the pinch hitting summons.

"N. F. T."

Lyda was to have helped Oakie do a burlesque of the A. Jolson broadcast although Martha Raye was originally scheduled and is also a featured performer for Jolson, at least until the severity of her case caused her hospitalization. It can be readily realized how all of these mishaps and the tragedy of Miss Roberti's passing is making the preparation of these two final turns for Oakie and his sponsors.

THIS EAR—THAT AIR

Ye followers of "Fibber McGee" will find his funniest hiding forth for the first time as a Tuesday evening feature (WNAC) when it's 9:30 tonight, switched over from his Monday night place.

• • •

Two schools of thought prevail in radio regarding the question of whether longer or shorter settings will be the future policy in general.

On one side some elaborate plans are being made ready for the airing of some 90 minute extravaganzas with well balanced [illegible] for future booking.

Even so a few of the current offerings that occupy 60 minutes are giving serious consideration to cutting down to half hour doings when certain present contracts expire.

Then too, there are optimistic [illegible] showmen entertaining the idea of two hour [illegible] going the 90 minute man [illegible].

It would be interesting to observe how well two hour shows would fare [illegible] patrons [illegible] the staging of entire evenings of music and drama [illegible] single sponsor.

LEGION LAYOUT

Hollywood, New York, Washington and Chicago will be brought together in a special broadcast (WBZ) this evening to provide a full hour of entertainment and speeches, from midnight to 1:00 a. m.

It's to make merry in celebration of the nineteenth birthday of the American Legion.

Stars of the radio and screen will be heard from Hollywood as the program opens. Among them will be Dick Foran, cowboy star, Priscilla and Rosemary Lane, whose songs are familiar to [illegible] Dick Powell, who [illegible] New York [illegible] Jack Benny, the [illegible] and Mary Livingstone [illegible].

Accompaniment for the performers will be provided by the NBC [illegible].

Daniel J. Doherty, national commander of the Legion, will stress [illegible] for fifteen minutes [illegible] and [illegible] from Chicago studios.

• • •

Jane Froman, singing star of radio, movies and stage will make a guest engagement to the "Watch the Fun Go By" program appearing with "Al Pearce and His Gang" tonight (WEEI) between [illegible] and 9:30 p. m.

LIKED LAST NIGHT

The fine fashion with which the new "Detective Story" half hour swung into the local schedules (WMEX) at a 7:30 to 8 o'clock highlight directed by John (Bud) Reilly.

It was quality drama from start to finish and few network efforts could top it for attention compelling merit.

May the series continue along clicking lines in the weeks to come. Boston needs more well arranged dial things done hereabouts.

Also above par was the premiere of "The H[illegible]" effort unique and interesting (WEEI) as handled by Jack [illegible] and Jay Wesley of the Hub sound sanctum fraternity. This one can hardly fail to stand out provided subsequent shows maintain the slick standard with which the first bid for favor was made through these tickets last evening from 1:30 to 1:45 p. m.

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

500 Will Attend Irish Fete

President Joseph Joyce of the Charitable Irish Society, oldest group of its kind in the country, announced today that nearly 500 persons will attend its 201st anniversary banquet St. Patrick's night at Hotel Copley Plaza.

Assistant United States Attorney General Joseph B. Keenan, native of Pawtucket, R. I., will be the speaker, responding to the toast "The United States of America." Governor Hurley will present the state and Mayor Tobin the city. The other featured speaker will be the Rev. William J. McGarry, president of Boston College.

Edmund Burke will be toastmaster.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Brookline Wife Granted Divorce

Mrs. Jane M. Keefe, 28, of Kent street, Brookline, today was free following her testimony that her husband Waldo L. Keefe of West Roxbury had threatened her with a knife. Judge William M. Prest granted a divorce on grounds of cruelty.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Best Bets Tomorrow

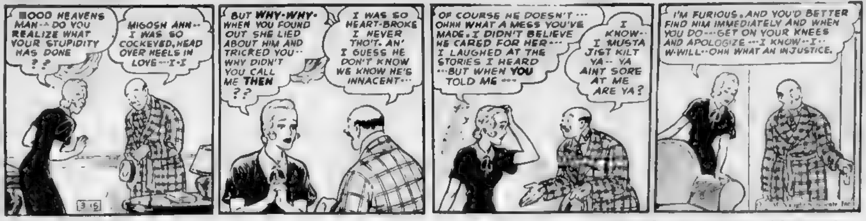
8:00 a. m.—WNAC—George and Juanita with their [illegible] songs.
9:15 p. m.—WMEX—Piano essays [illegible] with Charles F. Hall.
9:30 p. m.—WBZ—Breakfast Club with Don McNeill master of ceremonies.
10:30 p. m.—WEEI—Tony Wons and his [illegible].
11:15 p. m.—WMEX—Cooking school under the direction of Martha Lee, home economist of the Boston Evening American.

TODAY'S RADIO TIMETABLE—TUESDAY, MARCH 15

	590 K—WEEI	990 K—WBZ	1230 K—WNAC	1410 K—WAAB	1500 K—WMEX
12:30	H. Trent Romance	Farm and Home	Singin' Sam	Italian Program	Hits of Day
12:45	Our Gal Sunday	Farm and Home	Dan Harding's Wife	Italian Program	News
1:00	Betty and Bob	Farm and Home	News	Woman's Club News	Musical Mailbox
1:15	All Churches Hymns	Farm and Home	Girl Interne	Melody Treasures	Musical Mailbox
1:30	Grimm's Daughter	Matinee Melodies	Hemingways	The Pianist	Crippled Children
1:45	Valiant Lady	Fashion Chatter	Donald Van Wart	Voice of Experience	Flower Show
2:00	Rhythm Revue	Rakov's Orchestra	Way Down East	George and Juanita	Gems of Melody
2:15	The O'Neills	American Legion	Musical Roundup	Reveries	Gems of Melody
2:30	School of Air	Music Guild	Household Talk	Racing Matinee	Murray Twins
2:45	School of Air	Music Guild	Armchair Quartet	Music for School	Organ Melodies
3:00	News	U. S. Marine Band	Pepper Young Family	N. E. Conservatory	Pioneers of Science
3:15	Dance-Champagne	U. S. Marine Band	Ma Perkins	N. E. Conservatory	Pioneers of Science
3:30	Voters' Program	U. S. Marine Band	Vic and Sade	Racing Matinee	Today's Winners
3:45	Professional Women	U. S. Marine Band	Guiding Light	Good Health	Mae Murray
4:00	Charles Hector Orch	Stock Quotations	Lorenzo Jones	Rhode Islanders	Rhythm and Stuff
4:15	Boston Hour	What's Doing Tonite	Mary Marlin	Rhode Islanders	Manhattan Serenade
4:30	Goldbergs	Club Matinee	Rush Hughes	Racing Matinee	Kay and Buddy
4:45	Tea Party	Club Matinee	Road of Life	Racing Matinee	Sports Review
5:00	Follow the Moon	Dance Interlude	Dick Tracey	Racing Matinee	Sports Review
5:15	M. Southern Life	D. Winslow of Navy	Terry and Pirates	Racing Matinee	Today's Winners
5:30	Stepmother	Singing Lady	Jack Armstrong	Racing Matinee	Today's Winners
5:45	Hilltop House	Tom Mix Shooters	Little Orphan Annie	Baseball School	Comic Page Club
6:00	News	Dance Revue	News	Dinner Concert	News
6:15	Musical Appetizers	Dance Revue	Sports Roundup	Dinner Concert	Italian Review
6:30	News Comments	J. Johnston, Songs	Musical Rendezvous	Dinner Concert	Today's Winners
6:45	Round the Town	Lowell Thomas	Musical Rendezvous	Racing Results	Vin Vincent's Orch.
7:00	Poetic Melodies	Easy Aces	Amos 'n' Andy	News	Jimmie McHale Orch
7:15	Screenscoops	Lost Persons	Vocal Varieties	Charioteers	Five Star Final
7:30	Helen Menken	People in News	By Candlelight	Headlines	Joan Stuart, songs
7:45	Helen Menken	V. Della Chiesa	Garden Club	Jack Fischer Orch.	Ports of Romance
8:00	E. G. Robinson	Those We Love	R. Morgan's Orch.	Lawrence Welk Orch	Wordcaster
8:15	E. G. Robinson	Those We Love	R. Morgan's Orch.	Lawrence Welk Orch	Success Stories
8:30	Al Jolson Show	Edgar A. Guest	Wayne King's Orch.	Yale Music School	Nat Brusiloff Orch.
8:45	Al Jolson Show	Edgar A. Guest	Wayne King's Orch.	Yale Music School	Johannes Steel
9:00	Al Pearce's Gang	H. Heidt's Orch.	"Vox Pop"	Yale Music School	Variety Hour
9:15	Al Pearce's Gang	H. Heidt's Orch.	"Vox Pop"	Johnson Family	Variety Hour
9:30	Jack Oakie College	Bert Lytell Drama	Fibber McGee	Billy Lossez Orch.	Variety Hour
9:45	Jack Oakie College	Bert Lytell Drama	Fibber McGee	Bruins-Montreal	Variety Hour
10:00	Swing School	Jamboree	New Russian Ballet	Bruins-Montreal	S. Winters, Songs
10:15	Swing School	Jamboree	New Russian Ballet	Jack Fischer Orch.	Gypsy Orchestra.
10:30	H. Phillips, Songs	Jamboree	Hollywood Gossip	George Olsen Orch.	Gypsy Orchestra.
10:45	Four Clubmen	Jamboree	How to Win Friends	George Olsen Orch.	News
11:00	News	Radio Roundelay	News	Music Development	Jimmie McHale Orch.
11:15	Abe Lyman's Orch.	As You Desire It	Weather Service	Billy Lossez Orch.	Jimmie McHale Orch.
11:30	Buddy Rogers' Orch.	As You Desire It	Irwin Gilbert Orch.	Jimmy Dorsey Orch.	Road to Fame
11:45	Buddy Rogers' Orch.	As You Desire It	Irwin Gilbert Orch.	Jimmy Dorsey Orch.	Road to Fame
12:00	Red Norvo's Orch.	Legion Anniversary	Woody Herman Orch	News
12:15	Red Norvo's Orch.	Legion Anniversary	Woody Herman Orch	Sammy Kaye's Orch
12:30	Jimmy Joy's Orch.	Legion Anniversary	Mike Riley's Orch.	Isham Jones' Orch.

JOE PALOOKA

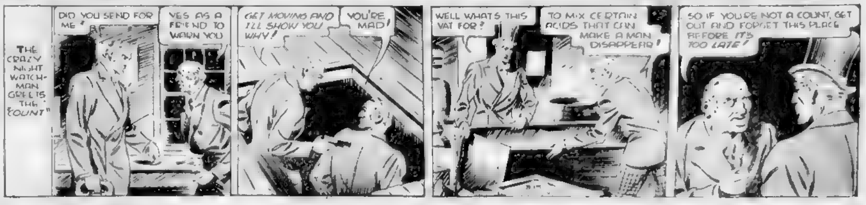
"Ya Ain't Sore?"



GOOD HEAVENS MAN—DO YOU REALIZE WHAT YOUR STUPIDITY HAS DONE ??
MIGOSH ANN—I WAS SO COCKEYED, HEAD OVER HEELS IN LOVE—I-I
BUT WHY-WHY-WHEN YOU FOUND OUT SHE LIED ABOUT HIM AND TRICKED YOU—WHY DIDN'T YOU CALL ME THEN ??
I WAS SO HEART-BROKE I NEVER THO'T. AN' I GUESS HE DON'T KNOW WE KNOW HE'S INNACENT—
OF COURSE HE DOESN'T—OHHH WHAT A MESS YOU'VE MADE. I DIDN'T BELIEVE HE CARED FOR HER—I LAUGHED AT THE STORIES I HEARD—BUT WHEN YOU TOLD ME—
I KNOW—I MUSTA JIST KILT YA—YA AINT SORE AT ME ARE YA?
I'M FURIOUS. AND YOU'D BETTER FIND HIM IMMEDIATELY AND WHEN YOU DO—GET ON YOUR KNEES AND APOLOGIZE—I KNOW—I—W-WILL—OHH WHAT AN INJUSTICE.
3-15

SECRET AGENT X-9

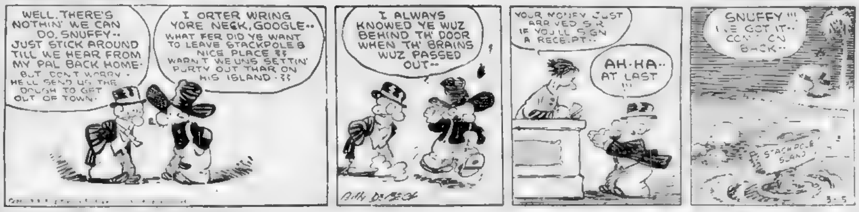
The G-Man's Tour of Inspection



THE CRAZY NIGHT WATCHMAN GREETS THE "COUNT"
DID YOU SEND FOR ME?
YES AS A FRIEND TO WARN YOU
GET MOVING AND I'LL SHOW YOU WHY!
YOU'RE MAD!
WELL WHAT'S THIS VAT FOR?
TO MIX CERTAIN ACIDS THAT CAN MAKE A MAN DISAPPEAR!
SO IF YOU'RE NOT A COUNT, GET OUT AND FORGET THIS PLACE BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE!

BARNEY GOOGLE

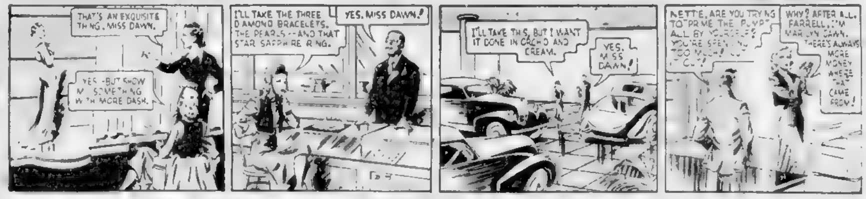
"Remittance Man"



WELL, THERE'S NOTHIN' WE CAN DO, SNUFFY—JUST STICK AROUND TILL WE HEAR FROM MY PAL BACK HOME—BUT DON'T WORRY—HE'LL SEND US THE DOUGH TO GET OUT OF TOWN.
I ORTER WRING YORE NECK, GOOGLE—WHAT FER DID YE WANT TO LEAVE STACKPOLE'S NICE PLACE ?? WARN'T WE UNS SETTIN' PURTY OUT THAR ON HIS ISLAND ??
I ALWAYS KNOWED YE WUZ BEHIND TH' DOOR WHEN TH' BRAINS WUZ PASSED OUT—
YOUR MONEY JUST ARRIVED SIR IF YOU'LL SIGN A RECEIPT—
AH-HA—AT LAST !!!
SNUFFY !!! I'VE GOT IT—COME ON BACK—
STACKPOLE ISLAND
Billy DeBeck
3-5

MANDRAKE, THE MAGICIAN

Buy, Buy Baby!

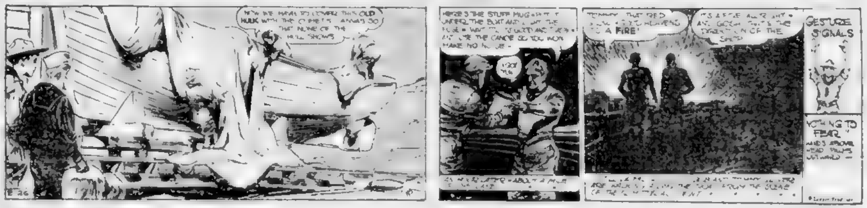


THAT'S AN EXQUISITE THING, MISS DAWN.
YES—BUT SHOW ME SOMETHING WITH MORE DASH.
I'LL TAKE THE THREE DIAMOND BRACELETS, THE PEARLS—AND THAT STAR SAPPHIRE RING.
YES, MISS DAWN!
I'LL TAKE THIS, BUT I WANT IT DONE IN ORCHID AND CREAM.
YES, MISS DAWN!
NETTIE, ARE YOU TRYING TO PRIME THE PUMP ALL BY YOURSELF? YOU'RE SPENDING TOO MUCH! CUT IT OUT!
WHY? AFTER ALL, FARRELL, I'M MARILYN DAWN. THERE'S ALWAYS MORE MONEY WHERE THAT CAME FROM!

ROY POWERS, EAGLE SCOUT

Reviewed and Aproved by the Boy Scouts of America

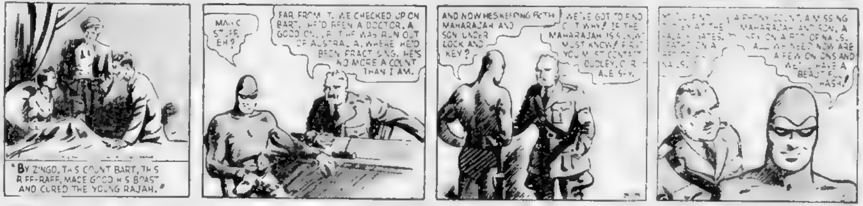
Fire!!



NOW WE HAVE TO COVER THIS OLD HULK WITH THE CAMEL'S [illegible] SO THAT NONE OF THE HULL SHOWS
HERE'S THE STUFF MUG—PUT IT UNDER THE BOAT AND [illegible] THE FUSE [illegible]
[illegible] A FIRE!
IT'S A FIRE ALL RIGHT [illegible] THE DIRECTION OF THE SHIP
GESTURE SIGNALS
NOTHING TO FEAR

THE PHANTOM

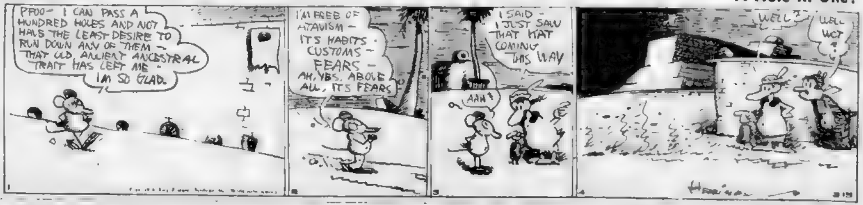
—And It's on the Fire!



"BY ZINGO, THIS COUNT BART, THIS RIFF-RAFF, MADE GOOD HIS BOAST AND CURED THE YOUNG RAJAH."
MAGIC STUFF, EH?
FAR FROM IT. WE CHECKED UP ON BART. HE'D BEEN A DOCTOR, A GOOD ONE, BUT HE WAS RUN OUT OF AUSTRALIA, WHERE HE'D BEEN PRACTISING. HE'S NO MORE A COUNT THAN I AM.
AND NOW HE'S KEEPING BOTH MAHARAJAH AND SON UNDER LOCK AND KEY?
WE'VE GOT TO FIND OUT WHY! IF THE MAHARAJAH IS SANE, HE MUST KNOW! FIRST YOU MUST CONTACT DUDLEY, OUR ACE SPY.
A PHONY COUNT, A MISSING MAHARAJAH AND SON, A [illegible] ON A BED OF NAILS. ALL WE NEED NOW ARE A FEW ONIONS AND WE'LL HAVE A BEAUTIFUL HASH!

KRAZY KAT

A Hole in One!



PFOO—I CAN PASS A HUNDRED HOLES AND NOT HAVE THE LEAST DESIRE TO RUN DOWN ANY OF THEM—THAT OLD, ANCIENT ANCESTRAL TRAIT HAS LEFT ME—I'M SO GLAD.
I'M FREE OF ATAVISM—ITS HABITS—CUSTOMS—FEARS—AH, YES, ABOVE ALL, ITS FEARS
I SAID—I JUST SAW THAT KAT COMING THIS WAY
AAH!
WELL?
WELL WOT ?
Herriman
3-15

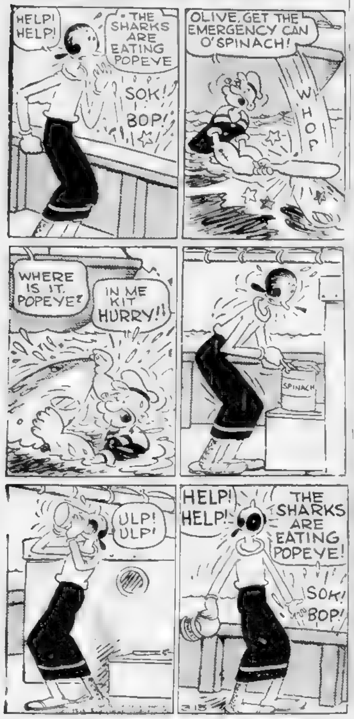
920 K—WORL—325.6 M
10:05—Contract Bridge.
10:15—Hollywood Brevities.
10:25—Weather.
10:30—Stock Quotations.
10:45—Women's Clubs.
11:00—News.
11:05—Uptowners Quartet.
11:15—Two Pianos.
11:30—American Family Robinson.
11:45—Lazy Rhapsodies.
12:00—News.
12:15—Weather.
12:20—Tom Doring's Orchestra.
12:30—Stock Quotations.
12:45—Community Fishing Time.
1:00—News.
1:05—Mayor Kane of Woburn.
1:15—Good Cheer Service.
1:45—Musical Numerology.
2:00—News.
2:15—Music as International Language.
3:00—News.
3:15—Stock Quotations.
3:30—High School Glee Club.
3:45—There Was a Time When.
4:00—Quiz.
4:15—Green Room Echoes.
4:30—Music Clubs.
4:45—Story Tell Lady.
5:00—Weather.
5:05—It Happens Every Day.
5:15—Jimmie Gallagher.
5:30—Twilight Dance Tunes.

1120 K—WCOP—267.7 M
TODAY
12:00—Frolic Makers
12:30—Voice of Community
12:45—News
1:00—Italian Journal
1:15—Boston American Lost and Found Service
1:20—Rhythm and Romance.
1:30—Oddities.
1:45—Music in Sentimental Mood
2:00—Concert Orchestra.
2:15—Collecting Lamps.
2:30—Music of Masters.
3:00—News.
3:15—Consumer Institute.
3:30—Joe Quinn, songs.
3:45—Rambles and Rhythm.
4:00—Four O'Clock Revue
4:30—Echoes of Stage and Screen
5:00—Zeke Manners' Hill Billys.
5:30—What's New.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

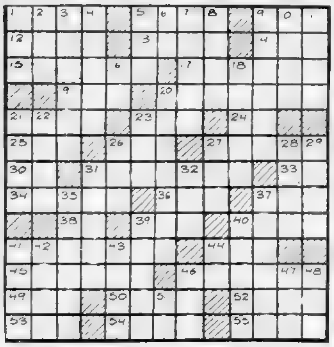
830 K—WHDH—316 M
12:30—Two Pianos
12:45—Noonday revue.
1:00—History on Parade
1:30—Seger Ellis' Orchestra
1:45—Cub Reporter
2:00—Singing Strings
2:15—Don Humbert's Strings
2:30—Silhouettes
2:45—Caesar Fasioli, piano.
3:00—News.
3:15—Avis Chandler, songs.
3:30—Classes for Children.
3:45—Tea Time Concert.
4:00—Hawk
4:15—Fisherman's Broadcast
4:30—Variety Musicale.
5:15—Top Tunes of Day.
5:30—Depot Dialogues.
5:45—Lou Bright's Strings
6:00—News
6:15—[illegible] Orchestra
6:30—Jimmie McHale's Orchestra.
6:45—Gene Nickerson's Orchestra.
7:00—Duane Marshall's Orchestra.
7:15—Mickey Anton's Orchestra.
7:30—International Strings.
7:45—Duane Marshall's Orchestra.

THIMBLE THEATER, Starring POPEYE



HELP! HELP!
THE SHARKS ARE EATING POPEYE
SOK! BOP!
OLIVE, GET THE EMERGENCY CAN O'SPINACH!
WHOP
WHERE IS IT, POPEYE?
IN ME KIT HURRY!!
SPINACH
ULP! ULP!
HELP! HELP!
THE SHARKS ARE EATING POPEYE!
SOK! BOP!
3-15

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE -:- By Eugene Sheffer



HORIZONTAL

1—True statement
5—Subdued
9—Member of an Algonquian tribe
12—Winged
13—Percentage for exchanging currency
14—Feminine name
15—Run off the tracks
17—Loafer
19—Metal
20—Color
21—Solar disk
23—Exclamation of disgust
24—Prefix: two
25—Evergreen tree
26—Weight of India
27—In what German state is the Black Forest?
30—Indefinite article
31—From what sultan of Egypt did Richard the Lion-Hearted attempt to recapture Jerusalem?
33—Greek letter
34—Supply of fresh men
36—Folding bed
37—Seize and hold
38—By 39—Fondle
40—Top of the head
41—What noted baritone sang "Ole Man River" in "Showboat" Paul ——?
44—Deface
45—Wears away
46—What great German chemist discovered magnesium light?
49—Sailor
50—Existed
52—Weight of India
53—Being
54—Stump of a branch
55—Seize suddenly with the teeth

VERTICAL

1—Craze
2—Beverage
3—What Egyptologist discovered the tomb of Tutankhamen?
4—What lawyer-author created the character of Mr. Tutt?
5—Salt
6—King of Bashan
7—What American playwright wrote "The Girl with the Green Eyes"?
8—Divine instruction
9—Belonging to a family of neuropterous insects
10—Feminine name
11—What is the missing part of the name of the famous feminist leader Carrie Chapman ——?
16—At home
18—Who created the dynamic hues used in lighting the Chicago Exposition of 1933?
20—Moslem
21—Distant
22—Prong
23—Babylonian deity
26—Declare
27—Seized with the teeth
28—Departure
29—Baseball team
31—Satisfied
32—Minute point
35—Works hard
37—Clergyman
39—The famous "golden chapel" is attached to the cathedral of what city in Poland?
40—Breathes laboriously
41—Network
42—Seaport of Algeria
43—Binds with stitches
44—Greek letter
46—Ask alms
47—Tone in Guido's scale
48—Short sleep
51—Egyptian sun god

Copyright, 1938, King Features Synd., Inc.

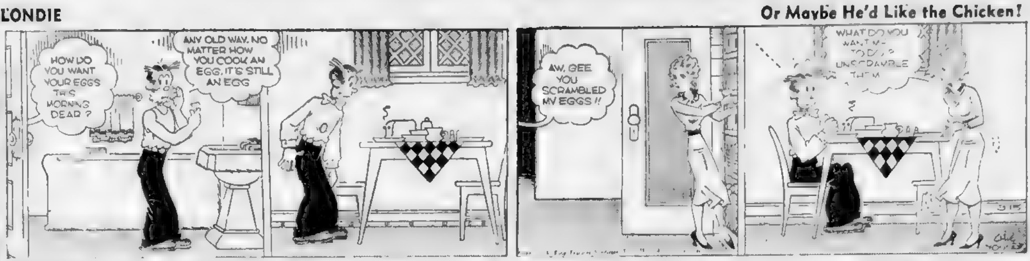
YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS

H	E	R	R	■	T	O	A	D	■	R	A	T
E	L	I	A	■	A	B	L	E	■	E	R	E
R	I	D	G	E	P	O	L	E	■	V	I	A
■	■	■	E	A	S	E	■	D	R	E	A	M
B	L	A	S	T	■	■	A	S	E	A	■	■
E	A	N	■	S	T	E	T	■	A	L	O	P
T	I	T	S	■	A	V	E	■	R	I	V	E
S	N	I	P	■	R	E	N	D	■	N	A	T
■	■	P	O	R	T	■	■	A	N	G	L	E
W	R	O	T	E	■	P	A	L	I	■	■	■
R	O	D	■	G	A	R	D	E	N	I	N	G
A	P	E	■	A	R	A	D	■	E	R	I	A
P	E	S	■	L	A	Y	S	■	S	E	T	S

Read the
Used Car Ads
In Today's American

BLONDIE

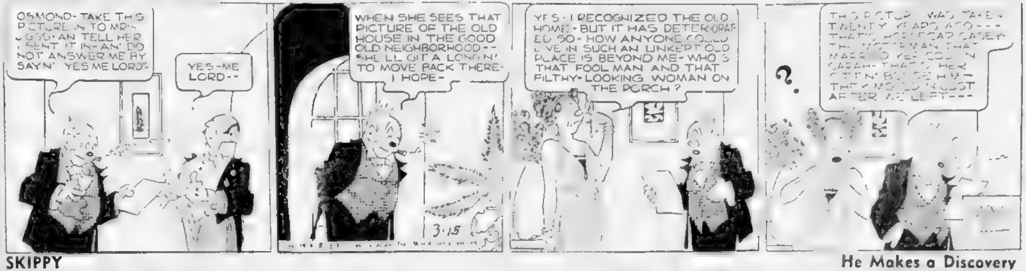
Or Maybe He'd Like the Chicken!



HOW DO YOU WANT YOUR EGGS THIS MORNING DEAR?
ANY OLD WAY, NO MATTER HOW YOU COOK AN EGG, IT'S STILL AN EGG
AW, GEE YOU SCRAMBLED MY EGGS!!
WHAT DO YOU WANT ME TO DO? UNSCRAMBLE THEM
3-15
CHIC YOUNG

BRINGING UP FATHER

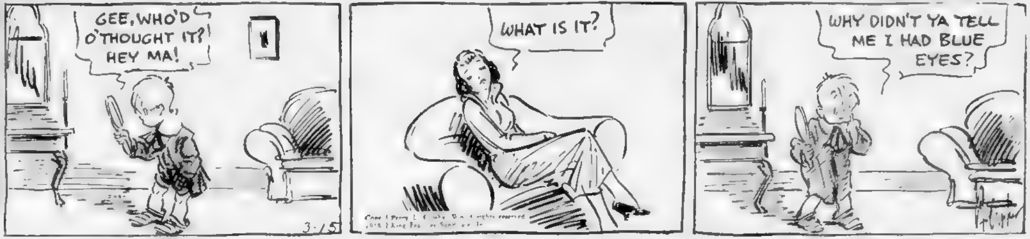
Maggie's Mistake



OSMOND- TAKE THIS PICTURE IN TO MRS. JIGGS- AN' TELL HER I SENT IT IN- AN' DO NOT ANSWER ME BY SAYIN' YES ME LORD!
YES- ME LORD--
WHEN SHE SEES THAT PICTURE OF THE OLD HOUSE IN THE GOOD OLD NEIGHBORHOOD-- SHE'LL GIT A LONGIN' TO MOVE BACK THERE- I HOPE-
3-15
YES- I RECOGNIZED THE OLD HOME- BUT IT HAS DETERIORATED SO- HOW ANYONE COULD LIVE IN SUCH AN UNKEPT OLD PLACE IS BEYOND ME- WHO IS THAT FOOL MAN AND THAT FILTHY-LOOKING WOMAN ON THE PORCH?
?
THIS PICTURE WAS TAKEN TWENTY YEARS AGO--- THAT'S HORSECAR CASEY- THE MOTORMAN THAT MARRIED YER COUSIN SARAH- THAT'S HER SITTIN' BESIDE HIM- THEY MOVED IN JUST AFTER WE LEFT---

SKIPPY

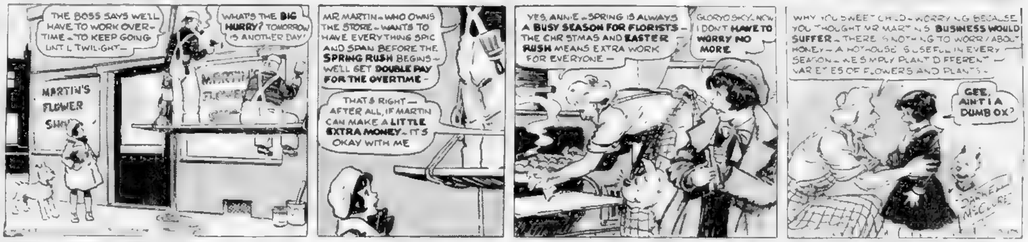
He Makes a Discovery



GEE, WHO'D O'THOUGHT IT? HEY MA!
3-15
WHAT IS IT?
WHY DIDN'T YA TELL ME I HAD BLUE EYES?

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

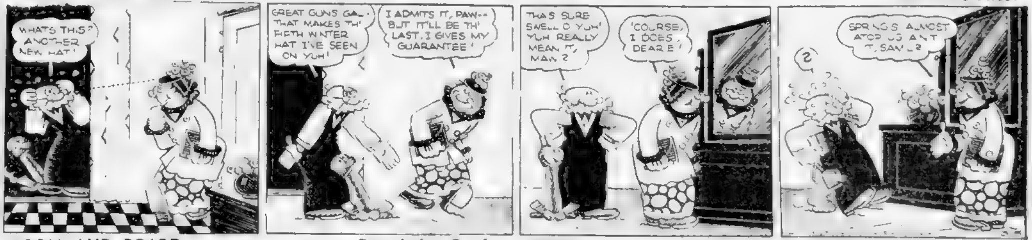
A Worry Goes to Seed



THE BOSS SAYS WE'LL HAVE TO WORK OVER-TIME - TO KEEP GOING UNTIL TWILIGHT -
WHAT'S THE BIG HURRY? TOMORROW IS ANOTHER DAY!
MARTIN'S FLOWER SHOP
MR MARTIN - WHO OWNS THE STORE - WANTS TO HAVE EVERYTHING SPIC AND SPAN BEFORE THE SPRING RUSH BEGINS - WE'LL GET DOUBLE PAY FOR THE OVERTIME -
THAT'S RIGHT - AFTER ALL, IF MARTIN CAN MAKE A LITTLE EXTRA MONEY - IT'S OKAY WITH ME
YES, ANNIE - SPRING IS ALWAYS A BUSY SEASON FOR FLORISTS - THE CHRISTMAS AND EASTER RUSH MEANS EXTRA WORK FOR EVERYONE -
GLORYOSKY - NOW I DON'T HAVE TO WORRY NO MORE
WHY YOU SWEET CHILD - WORRYING BECAUSE YOU THOUGHT MR MARTIN'S BUSINESS WOULD SUFFER - THERE'S NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT HONEY - A HOTHOUSE IS USEFUL IN EVERY SEASON - WE SIMPLY PLANT DIFFERENT VARIETIES OF FLOWERS AND PLANTS -
GEE, AIN'T I A DUMB OX?
DARRELL McCLURE

POLLY AND HER PALS

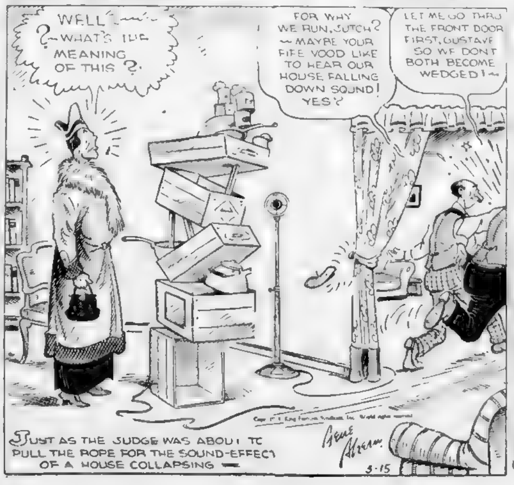
How Time Flies!



WHAT'S THIS? ANOTHER NEW HAT!
GREAT GUNS GAL - THAT MAKES TH' FIFTH WINTER HAT I'VE SEEN ON YUH!
I ADMITS IT, PAW-- BUT IT'LL BE TH' LAST. I GIVES MY GUARANTEE!
THAS SURE SWELL O' YUH! YUH REALLY MEAN IT, MAW?
'COURSE, I DOES, DEARIE!
SPRING'S ALMOST ATOP US AIN'T IT, SAMMIE?
?

ROOM AND BOARD

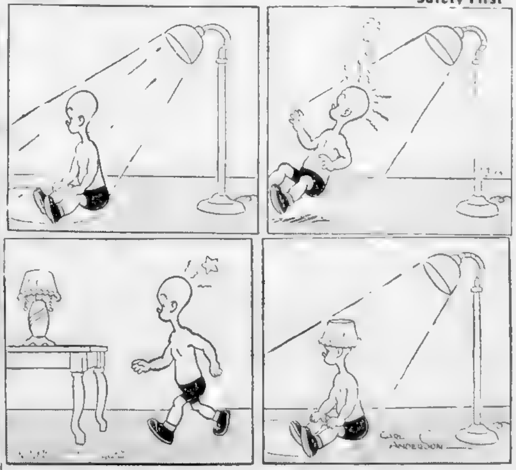
Run, Judge, Run!



WELL! ?- WHAT'S THE MEANING OF THIS ?
FOR WHY WE RUN, JUTCH? - MAYBE YOUR FIFE VOOD LIKE TO HEAR OUR HOUSE FALLING DOWN SOUND! YES?
LET ME GO THRU THE FRONT DOOR FIRST, GUSTAVE SO WE DON'T BOTH BECOME WEDGED! -
JUST AS THE JUDGE WAS ABOUT TO PULL THE ROPE FOR THE SOUND-EFFECT OF A HOUSE COLLAPSING -
GENE AHERN
3-15

HENRY

Safety First



TURNER PROMISES TO WIN 30 GAMES

Eric McNair Likely to Quit Baseball

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER
BOSTON, TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1938

AUSTEN LAKE

Quinn Ends 12-Year Pilgrimage: Satisfied With Bradenton

BRADENTON, FLA., MARCH 15 — EXCEPT FOR WORKING HOURS while the Bees are gathering honey in the renovated cow-pasture which is their training yard, one seldom sees Bob Quinn.

AUSTEN LAKE

The Bees' buzz-saw prexy, a little leaner about the jaws, a little more silvery about the scalp and a little more silent, goes each afternoon to perch under the eaves of the grandstand and dream over the scene with chin cupped in the hollow of his hand. He sometimes appears briefly at the press sessions and listens to Casey Stengel's lectures. But when evening comes he no longer sits on the hotel threshold, surrounded by his athletes and giving papa-talks on baseball.

Quinn's humor seems more brittle than in past years, his mood more disillusioned. He does not move in easy intimacy with his men as in past seasons.

Where he used to live on a level with the rawest recruit, hoist his heels on the railing and reel off his share of reminiscences, he spends longer spells in his room, writing his interminable letters, telephoning long distances or conferring with his coaches.

Southern training has never been a social frolic for Bob. It is a sweaty business which he supervises with an X-ray eye.

I have never known a man so pernickety in matters of baseball detail as Quinn, who loves to putter about the clubhouse, twisting the bath taps and feeling the hot water with his hands, or poking the roof for possible rain leaks, or toeing the infield turf to see whether it is rolled too hard.

Just the other day when Rabbit Warstler fielded a [illegible] ball with [illegible] Quinn was quick to order up the ground crew and give them instructions on [illegible] the infield surface.

Training [illegible] seem better to his liking than at any time during the fourteen years I have travelled south with his clubs. This time he has not had to prod the local boosters to patch loose boards in the grandstand, import loam to fill outfield pits or shore up the batting background.

* * *

Bradenton, Pensacola, Savannah

TIMES HAVE CHANGED in Bradenton since Quinn brought his Red Sox there in 1926 and leased a weedy meadow on the outskirts of the town where a tramp circus shared the grounds. There was a hen house in deep left field where the players dressed. The sun bored down like the business end of a blow torch, and the athletes melted away from themselves at an alarming rate. And the citizens seemed to be of the old Confederate aristocracy who viewed the players as an undesirable conglomeration of damyankees.*

Such an attitude was understandable, because the Red Sox of that period were a woeful set of haystackers and little better than adolescent cuckoos. In fact, it was always surprising to us who wrote the history of those times that Bob restrained himself from performing a mercy murder on some of his thumb-sucking goofs and adenoidy gr[illegible].

So, in 1923 Bob hooked the [illegible] out of Bradenton and moved up to Pensacola, which is in the [illegible] end of the state where it merges with the [illegible] swamps of Alabama and the [illegible] chase razorback hogs and seem to live on wild gooseberries. Not the Pensacola people, of course, but the [illegible].

It was around there that the late Big Ed Morris was being given a fish fry by his local admirers, who in the exhilaration of the moment operated on the guest of honor with knives, so that presently he died.

The chairman of the Pensacola committee was a well meaning but listless gent who couldn't see why the tumble down shack under the stands was not a fit residence for human beings or why the athletes objected to finding harmless critters [illegible] lizards and ground moles in their uniform pants or why the players wanted to bathe every day.

Also there was a small matter of [illegible] and [illegible] swishing in from the Gulf and [illegible] the [illegible] so after a while, Bob hoisted tail out of there [illegible] and moved his club up to Savannah, Ga., for further Spring [illegible].

That was in 1930. And there [illegible] was [illegible] a spineless [illegible] fish which gave the [illegible] and [illegible] for their winter woolens to help get them over the [illegible] and pass [illegible].

The practice field was a suburban wilderness reached by an hour's bus ride and the hotel management was always wrangling with the players over whether they could eat a la carte or table d'hote.

And so, after a couple of years of that Bob found someone reckless enough to want to buy his club. That was where Tom Yawkey came in and where Bob went away to Brooklyn to wet-nurse another bankrupt property.

* * *

Henhouse Now Model Clubhouse

WHEN HE INHERITED THE ORPHANED BRAVES, three years ago, and turned them into the Bees, he made his first trip to St. Pete, a spot which had always been considered the prize location in this big geographical cow's udder. He was so used to screaming by this time that he gave a few practice hollers which scared the jiblets out of the town officials and brought half the population scampering with rakes and shovels. He went to the biggest politicians in the burg, stabbed them with his ice-pick finger and let off some calliope yells fit to frizz their hair. And even so, he didn't get what he wanted, so this spring he hauled his boys back to Bradenton and closed the circle of twelve years' wandering.

Oddly, there isn't much to yell about here, unless it's the way the sun still bores down like the business end of a blow torch. The ball field is fenced in, the tramp circus has gone, the hen house in left field is a model clubhouse and the grass is as lush and green as it appears on the postcards which the town drug stores sell to the tourists.

Even the citizens have ceased to be old Confederate aristocracy and are inviting the boys thither and yon. But that may be because the Bees of today are adult types unlike the thumb-sucking goofs and adenoidy gr[illegible] of the old Red Sox days. And that, too may explain why Quinn no longer sits the evening away with his players.

This gang doesn't need a male chaperone, and even if they did they are too tired out from Stengel's hard-labor program for any evening mischief.

Austen Lake writes regularly for the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

'Sox Have Made Him Final Bid' Says Yawkey

And 'Booby' Is Just Stubborn Enough To Stay Home

By BILL GRIMES

SARASOTA, Fla., March 15 — Owner Tom Yawkey drove down here from his island off the South Carolina coast and came up with the first information released since we left home concerning Eric McNair, the lone Red Sox holdout.

"We've been fair with McNair," declared the youthful Sox boss. "We've offered him a good proposition.

"I haven't contacted Eric personally. Eddie Collins has done all the business with him."

"When was the last time Collins was in touch with him?" Yawkey was asked.

"Oh, I should say about eight days ago. Collins then gave him our final proposition. We've been all over the situation and know just how far we can go in this case."

"Has Collins raised the ante since McNair returned his contract?" added the writer.

"Yes, he did, but McNair did not reply. As much as we would like to have him come to terms, the next move is up to him," Yawkey answered.

"Has McNair told Collins how much he will sign for?" Yawkey was asked.

"Yes, he has, and I'll tell you there is a great deal of difference between what he wants and what the Red Sox are willing to pay him."

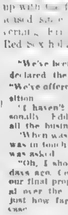
[illegible]

Eric McNair and the Red Sox [illegible] 'booby,' from what I know of [illegible] a type who may decide [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] Yawkey [illegible] owner who [illegible] in his opinion, is unfair to him.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Stubbs on Spot; Owen May Get Ice Post

[illegible] Harvard varsity [illegible] asked [illegible]



Joe Stubbs

[illegible] it was learned from [illegible] The [illegible] charged that the hockey team lacked [illegible] and the [illegible] had forgotten [illegible] undergraduates.

[illegible] George Owen [illegible] Harvard [illegible] coach at Tech.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Boxing Results

CHICAGO, Ill. — Billy Marquardt, 13[illegible], Winnipeg, Man., scored technical knockout over Joey Alcanter, 13[illegible], Kansas City, in seventh round of scheduled ten.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Clarence Basel, 1[illegible], Central City, Ky., stopped Charlie Roth, [illegible], Cincinnati, in first round of scheduled ten. Roth's jaw broken.

NEW YORK — Mike Belloise, 1[illegible], New York, defeated Julio Gonzalez, 1[illegible], Puerto Rico, eight rounds.

HOLYOKE — Mickey Makar, 14[illegible], Jersey City, shaded Mike Kid Frattini, 14[illegible], Italy, ten rounds.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — Joey Archibald, 12[illegible], Pawtucket, outpointed Sammy [illegible], 1[illegible], New York, ten rounds.

NEWARK, N. J. — Roe Lemoine, 14[illegible], New Bedford, shaded Foster Hardy, 14[illegible], Newark Negro, eight rounds.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Ted Garcia, 1[illegible], Denver, stopped Dave Berry, 128, Tuscola (9, 10).

GALVESTON, Tex. — Frankie Graham, 138, Tulsa, Okla., knocked out Joey Zodda, 1[illegible], New York (4).

WASHINGTON — Saverio Turiello, 1[illegible], New York, outpointed Andre Jessurun, 1[illegible], New York (10).

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Tony Bruno, Milwaukee, stopped George Black, Milwaukee, (2); weights unavailable.

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT.

PROFESSOR ROBERT E. ROGERS, the scholar's viewpoint expressed every day (except Saturdays) in his column, "This Is The Life," in the Boston Evening American.

'Morning Glories' to Chase American-Advertiser Prizes

'We'll Clean Up in Open Division,' Says Chief

The "Morning Glories of Charlestown," Dan Donovan's famous all-star aggregation, have entered the third annual Boston Evening American Sunday Advertiser grand candlepin championships which get under way a week from Saturday.

In the open division the Morning Glories are [illegible] to make all the other cash prize seekers sit up and take notice.

"We'll beat the daylights out of any team in the open running," says the inimitable Dan.

Captain Dan [illegible] Paul Poehler, former world [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] close next [illegible] with the [illegible] of these [illegible] female bowlers of New England [illegible]

Our old friend Nat Bilazzo of Webster is coming [illegible] with a [illegible] of the [illegible] both men and women.

[illegible] have [illegible] to keep a whole [illegible] all day and night in [illegible] both the [illegible] and other divisions.

[illegible] Charles [illegible] graduate of [illegible] College [illegible] the Boston College Graduate School will compete in the college division.

[illegible] Harvard College student [illegible] for the college champ [illegible] Jack Jannings, D 37 [illegible]

[illegible] is one of the many [illegible] who will be seeking the [illegible] Swiss [illegible] watch, a 17-jewel masterpiece which the new champion will be [illegible] with the compliments of [illegible] Watch Company of [illegible]

[illegible] of [illegible] formidable amateur team entry [illegible] Doonan and Tom O'C[illegible] of Medford [illegible] street, Boston, Joe Tierney [illegible] and [illegible] will bowl singles and [illegible]

Among the [illegible] the [illegible] Tom Ash [illegible] Hogan, Joe [illegible]

William C. Havner [illegible] Thomas W[illegible] J. C[illegible] Western Watch [illegible]

Continued on Page 18, Col. 2

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Ticky Ford Wins Arena 135's

Eleven knockouts featured the [illegible] for the New England amateur boxing championships under auspices of the Irish American A. C. at the Arena before 2[illegible] fans.

[illegible] Gauthier of Northbridge and Joseph Mahoney of Somerville thrilled the spectators with a slugging match in the 1[illegible] pound class, with the Northbridge lad being crowned victor in three rounds.

Alfred Priest of Cambridge after being knocked down four times by the hard-hitting Richard Ford of Lawrence arose to slug toe-to-toe with his opponent before dropping a three-round decision. Final bouts [illegible]

[illegible] Frank Tonz, Brighton [illegible] William Baker, Dorchester [illegible]

[illegible] James Esposito [illegible]

[illegible] Class: Richard Ford, Lawrence, beat Alfred Priest, Cambridge [illegible]

[illegible] Class: Jack Tono, Boston, knocked out Joseph Thea, Taunton, [illegible] round.

[illegible] Pound Class: Raymond McPeek, Roxbury, won decision over William Co[illegible], Roxbury, three rounds.

[illegible] Pound Class: [illegible] Gauthier, Northbridge, beat Joseph Mahoney, Somerville, three rounds.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

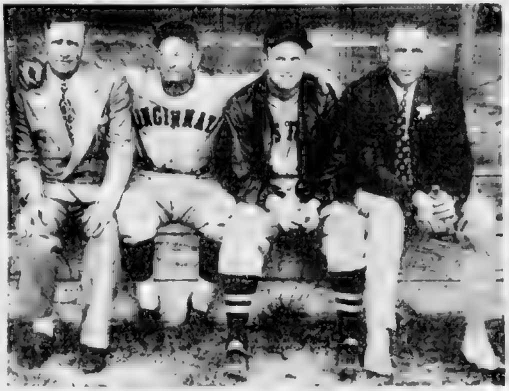
$75,000

Santa Anita Gold Helps Red Cross

LOS ANGELES, March 15—The Red Cross benefited to the extent of some $75,000 as about 25,000 persons turned out for a flood-relief racing program at Santa Anita track.

The regular winter season closed Saturday.

Catching Up With The Gang



STENGEL McKECHNIE CRONIN KELLEY

GREETINGS, SALUTATIONS, and how's everything in Boston? Look at this set-up, photographed at the Red Sox training camp at Sarasota, Fla., just before the Sox played the Reds. In the group are Casey Stengel, B's pilot; Bill McKechnie, old B's pilot; Joe Cronin, Sox manager, and George Kelley, new Casey's aid.

HOME ON THE DIAMOND—Jimmy Foxx of the Red Sox scoring on his record home run, which he hit in the game with the Cincinnati Reds, Sunday.

JORDAN McKECHNIE COOKE GOWDY

A LITTLE TOUCH of Boston in the 1938 Cincinnati Reds. Here we have Bill Jordan, Bill McKechnie and Hank Gowdy, former B's attaches, and Dusty Cooke, ex-Red Sox outfielder.

Phillies Send Vets Against Indians

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 15—Jimmy Wilson led his [illegible] Phillies here today for their exhibition joust with the Cleveland Indians.

Wilson said he would shoot three veteran pitchers—Claude Passeau, Al Smith and Bill Halahan—at Oscar Vitt's crowd in the hope of breaking into the win column.

Joe Louis Starts Training for Thomas

CHICAGO, March 15 (INS) Only seven pounds over his fighting weight, Joe Louis moved into Trafton's gymnasium today to polish up his form for a 15-round bout with battered Harry Thomas at the Stadium on April 7. Louis said he weighed 209 pounds.

O'Connell Post Run Carded April 16

The 19th Annual Open Handicap Ten Mile Road Race of the Michael J. O'Connell Post No. 76, American Legion, will be conducted on Saturday afternoon, April 16.

Entries close Wednesday, April 13 with Harry Lincoln Clark, chairman, 14 Walk Hill street, Forest Hills.

Ace All Smiles As Bees Rout Cardinals

Johnson Gets Four, DiMag, Lopez Homer

By JOE CASHMAN

TAMPA, Fla., March 15—"Retain those batting eyes, and I'll win 30 games this season," smilin' Jim Turner promised his Bees mates as he led them into his first and their second Grapefruit League effort against Bill McKechnie's Cincinnati Reds at Plant field, here today.

[illegible] under Manager Casey Stengel, [illegible] the [illegible] Cardinals, 7 to 5.

And he was making no idle boast, [illegible] of the Boston Bees on that [illegible]

[illegible] frequently [illegible] the Alston [illegible] the Gas House gang.

ELBIE GETS TWO

Fifteen [illegible]

[illegible] Saturday [illegible]

[illegible] Cardinals [illegible] early to [illegible]

[illegible]

TURNER FACES REDS

[illegible] to retire six [illegible] a row.

And with [illegible] batting to [illegible]

[illegible] Frank Gabler [illegible] the fifth or sixth [illegible]

[illegible] McKechnie [illegible] of the season. That's why Turner was saved for this game.

	R	H	E
Boston (N) 1 0 3 0 1 1 0 0 1—7	15	1
St. Louis (N) 1 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—[illegible]	6	1

Batteries: Shoffner, Erickson, Hutchinson and Mueller, Lopez; Warneke, Kn[illegible], M[illegible], Harrell and Owen.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Moses Threatens To Quit Baseball

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 15 [illegible] home [illegible] because Manager [illegible] Mack wouldn't raise [illegible] said he [illegible] to Houston [illegible] he will stay out [illegible]

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Sports Mirror

By The Associated Press

TODAY A YEAR AGO—Ernie Nevers resigned as head football coach at Lafayette to become backfield coach under Irl Tubbs at Iowa.

THREE YEARS AGO — Primo Carnera, 268, stopped Ray Impelittiere, 258, in ninth round before 18,094 at Madison Square Garden.

FIVE YEARS AGO — Keith Brown set world indoor pole vault record of 14 feet ¾ inches. Glenn Cunningham won Columbian Mile.

Bruins Aid Tiny Thompson In Quest for Vezina Trophy

Plan to Go All Out Against Maroon Six Tonight

By MURRAY KRAMER

With the championship all sewed up [illegible]

[illegible]

—LIFT OFFENSIVE TAXES—

BRUINS		MAROONS
Getliffe, lw		rw, Marker
Cowley, c		c, Gracie
Sands, rw		lw, Cain
Portland, ld		rd, Wentworth
Shore, rd		ld, Evans
Thompson, g		g, Beverdige

Bruins alternates — Clapper, Hollett, Dumart, Schmidt, Bauer, Goldsworthy, Weiland, Pettinger, Jackson.

Maroons alternates—Shields, Croghan, Robinson, Runge, Northcott, Ward, Binito, Robinson, Shannon.

National League

AMERICAN DIVISION

	W	L	T	Pts	Goals For	Goals Ag
BOSTON	29	11	6	64	132	84
Rangers	26	14	5	57	140	88
Chicago	14	23	9	37	93	131
Detroit	11	23	11	33	91	120
CANADIAN DIVISION
Toronto	22	4	9	53	134	116
Americans	17	16	11	45	96	95
Canadiens	16	17	12	44	113	122
Maroons	12	29	5	29	94	139

Glenn Advise Stricken Mate

Buoyant Letter Sent Star

RICHMOND, Va., March 15 (AP).—Glenn Cunningham, the famous miler, slowed his winged feet a [illegible] injured University of [illegible] student that "the great- [illegible]

[illegible]

"Dear Brother Ernest—I have learned that you were in an auto accident and seriously injured. I sincerely hope that you are well on your way to recovery by now. Sometimes it's a tough battle, but the greater the handicaps one has to overcome the more life means and the better one is able to understand it.

"While a youngster of eight, I was in an accident in which I was seriously burned. I was given up as a helpless cripple, supposedly never to walk again. I only hope that you will fight your way back as I did. Right now, I'm in the best physical condition of my life."

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Hearing Today On R. I. Racing, Betting

PROVIDENCE, March 15. Opponents of [illegible] betting, are [illegible] referendum on the question of [illegible] organized betting in Rhode Island.

The referendum [illegible] was sent to the Senate last November [illegible] Democrat of East Providence.

Two weeks [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] of East Providence, is the leader of the opposition to legalized gambling.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

OTHER SPORTS ON PAGE 18

Colorado Gains Basket Final With Temple

NEW YORK, March 15 [illegible]

[illegible]

With only a minute to play, N. Y. U. held a one point advantage. Then "Whizzer" White, Colorado's All America [illegible]

[illegible]

Bernie Carnevale matched the field goal for N. Y. U., but Don Hendricks sank the last of his six goals with only seconds remaining [illegible] five victory.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Today in Sports

POCKET BILLIARDS

New England championship tournament at Olympic Billiard Academy, 3:00 p. m. and 8: p. m.

BOXING

Traffic Club of New England amateur tournament at Copley Plaza Hotel 8:00 p. m.

HOCKEY

Boston Bruins vs. Montreal Maroons at Boston Garden, 8:30 p. m.

Nassau Gridders Report to Wieman

PRINCETON, N. J., March 15. [illegible] candidates [illegible] Coach Tad Wieman's first grid [illegible] at Princeton [illegible] six weeks spring [illegible]

INTRODUCING

Rookies With 1938 Dodgers

"JULIUS" CISAR, feather-footed young Chicagoan. Stole 63 bags for Clinton, Iowa, which was 20 more than any other Three-I League pillow-pilferer, then joined Brooklyn and filched three in September. "Jule" is of Bohemian ancestry. Started pro career with the Leaksville Bi-Staters in July, 1935. Switched to Allentown during '36. Brought a .377 Bi-State batting average along and got his big thrill, hitting a 9th-inning triple with the bases full in his Nypa debut.

"SCHOOLBOY" COHEN, a reverse version of the famous Johnny Cooney success story, which was "Former major league southpaw returns as outfielder." Six years ago, young Alto Cohen was a Brooklyn outfield flash. This year, he's a southpaw pitcher just out of a 15-victory year on the mound for Toledo. It's the same fellow, in person, product of Irvington, N. J., South Side High, farmed out by Brooklyn to Hartford in 1931 and 1932. After two outfield years with Toledo, he switched to pitching with great success, winning 14 games in '36 for tailend club. Hooked up with Bill McGee in duel and allowed Columbus two hits, both by Enos Slaughter, now Cardinal recruit.

PETE COSCARART, younger brother of fellow formerly with Boston. Still another brother, Steve, also prominent in the Coast League baseball picture. The Coscararts of Escondido, Cal., are tall, rangy Basque stock with highly developed infielding proclivities. Pete celebrated the news of his big league purchase by getting married last October 20 at San Diego to Junie Johnson, of Annapolis, Md. Sponsored by his oldest brother, Steve, Pete started pro ball with Portland in 1934 and was a Beaver from then on, barring a 1935 paramount trip to St. Joseph.

GEORGE FALLON, Brooklyn boy who started making good for the home town forces in the season's final week, figuring in four games at second sack. Erasmus grad, vintage of '35, who promptly went abroad to Allentown. Farmed to Akron starting '36, he proved too fast for the visiting pitchers, returning to Allentown with a 363 batting average for 15 games. Elmira last summer prepped him for his big league shot.

BERT HAAS, already introduced and tumultuously acclaimed by Flatbush fandom as the sparkling high light of Burleigh's Ebbets Field fall training camp. Broke into 16 September games, 3 as first baseman, 4 as outfielder and the rest as pinch hitter, amassing a portly .400 National League batting average to show the folks back home in Naperville, Ill. How's this for a debut! Sent to bat as pinch hitter 4 straight days, 4 straight hits, first a single, then 3 rousing doubles! Plus a fielding average of 1.000 for the 7 games in which he wore a glove! Nothing fluky about the figures, either, for in his first pro year, 1936, he hit .361 in 115 games for Beatrice, Nebraska State League, and last year a tidy .328 for Clinton.

"BUCK MARROW, 6 feet 4, who broke in with a boom in Cincinnati last September 14, tangling the Reds with a 6-hit performance in which he served 4 double play pitches at crucial stages. Large, red-headed one from Louisville.

Started pro career in 1930 and had service with Detroit in 1932, getting into 18 games for 2 wins and 5 defeats. Originally a Beta at Davidson College, he drew a bachelor of science degree and in the off-season now holds his own as an expert peanut buyer, one of the keenest competitive businesses of his native state, North Carolina.

ART PARKS, spry outfielder who snared a .313 National League batting average in 7 September games at Camp Ebbets last fall. Came down from Nypa League playoffs as heroic hitter of homer with bases full, but in first big league time at bat he fanned as a Polo Grounds pinch hitter. Installed in regular lineup, he did much better, his big day, October 2, two singles and a double. Started in 1934 with Oklahoma City, next year, Jackson, Miss., then Allentown in 1936, where he hit .322 in 112 games, next Elmira, and now Brooklyn.

FOREST PRESNELL, hero of Milwaukee fans last summer. They gave him a "Night" August 10, including an automobile. He gave them a fine view of his 15th victory of the year, beating the Columbus Red Birds neatly. Started his pro career in 1930 with Topeka and reached the Association in 1932 via Wichita Falls and Longview.

"ROSEY" ROSEN, Louisville southpaw centerfielder and lead-off man the last five seasons, who spent a busy September with Brooklyn, 22 games for a National League batting average of .312. Louisville's "Rosen Day" August 29 was a good send-off for Rosey, which he appreciated to the extent of driving home six runs, each of his three hits coming with the bases filled. Started pro career with Binghamton in 1932, moved to Louisville next spring for five-year term.

Tomorrow — Introducing the new Washington Senators.

Swing in Swimming

Florence Schumann, member of the water ballet, floats gracefully through space as she tunes up for the International water carnival which will start at the Boston Arena Thursday.

Follies Diving Stars at Harvard

Marshall Wayne Thrills the Fans; Girls Use University Pool

Polishing and perfecting diving feats never before witnessed in Boston, Marshall Wayne, Sam Howard, Walter Cleaver, Frank Snary and Larry Griswold, springboard artists featuring the International Water Follies which opens a four-day stay at Boston Arena Thursday evening, are [illegible] holding spectators spellbound at Harvard University's fine [illegible] pool.

Wayne [illegible] is a world and Olympic highboard champion. The [illegible] champion [illegible] the Follies [illegible] the dives [illegible] his great [illegible]

Howard [illegible] the most sensational acrobatic diver living. He comes to Boston fresh from triumphs as star performer in Billy Rose's [illegible]

FOUR DIVES IN ONE

[illegible] a series of [illegible]

First is a backward somersault, then a forward somersault, a full twist, and finally another backward somersault, all completed before he hits the water from a [illegible]

Cleaver is a former national champion who has been headlining Jones Beach Park shows for years. While he is called "Walter," his name is actually "Water," fitting enough for his professional but a name which came about through carelessness on the part of the clerk who recorded his birth certificate. He carries a copy of his certificate with him to prove his name.

"Believe It or Not" Ripley recently featured Cleaver's name and his signature which he writes in the form of a diver straightening out to enter the water.

Larry Griswold and Frank Snary are rated "Tops" among water comedians and burlesquers. The former sells himself with his sensational comedy acrobatics.

Snary is a real comedian who held down feature roles in the famous Streets of Paris show at the Chicago World's Fair.

GIRLS AT U. C.

While the male stars finish off their preparations at Harvard, the beautiful feminine contingent do likewise at the University Club.

There Madeline Karson, world professional woman diving champion, Senorita DeLas Casas of Peru, South America's diving champion; Lis Landstrom, former national champion; Helen Howard of Houston, Texas, a daring beauty and picture of grace, and little Norma Dean, eight-year-old girl wonder of the springboards, are perfecting a series of performances which for accuracy and form and talent have never been surpassed.

Bowling Dinner And Roll-Off April 4

Secretary O. C. M[illegible] [illegible] dinner [illegible] April [illegible]

This is the stand[illegible] of the season in bowling [illegible] bringing together the leading business men of Greater Boston interested in the sport.

Taking part in the roll-off will be members of the following clubs: Winthrop Yacht, [illegible] Boston City, Cottage Park Yacht, University, Aleppo, Pentucket and Oxford.

• • •

In the special match between the Postoffice All Stars and Quincy All Stars, Gedens [illegible] with three strings of 152, 133 and 114, a total of 399. Postoffice won the opening string and pinfall of 1630 to Quincy's 1571 and taking the second and third strings.

• • •

All of the foremost pocket billiard players of New England are entered in the championship tournament now in progress at the Olympia billiard parlor, 630 Washington street.

• • •

CLAYTON WRIGHT, Barre, Vt.—Ball leaving the alley is dead under rule 13 of N. E. B. A. Pins 7 and 8 do not count, the ball having rebounded back from sidekick.

• • •

AMERICAN-RECORD LEAGUE
Terminal Bowling Alleys

Chiefs, 1037				Gothics, 1014
Dinsmore	81	76	91	Dittmar	77	82	88
Scully	78	91	83	Austin	83	86	91
Newton	76	109	89	M'L'ghlin	80	73	97
J Martell	82	96	86	Desmond	83	96	79
Totals	317	371	349	Totals	341	331	343
Rebels, 1098				Cadmus, 1058
Manchester	81	88	97	Gillooly	85	81	85
Pett	105	93	99	McEnaney	83	75	75
Thomas	83	87	88	Graham	88	92	76
M M'L'n	86	92	90	Hickson	100	92	94
Totals	355	368	375	Totals	356	365	330
Agates 1110				Minions, 1071
Manson	87	102	92	Carr	83	83	88
McDowell	88	83	105	Bransfield	93	83	84
O'D'nell	103	86	86	Walsh	83	88	87
Allen	96	96	91	Keefe	105	93	106
Totals	374	362	374	Totals	363	356	[illegible]

Sharkey Scoffs at Maloney, Then Goes 10 Rds. in Gym

All Browns in Line

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 15. Last of the St. Louis Brown holdouts, Outfielder Sammy West and Utility Infielder Roy Hughes had signed their 1938 contracts today.

Experts Perk Up As Fox Flattens 200-Pounder

Shucco's Next Foe To Be Featured In New York

[illegible] Fox, of Spokane [illegible]

[illegible]

WANTS LEWIS

[illegible]

[illegible] No. 1 challenger for Lewis' crown in both New York and Missouri by the respective commissions.

Since the start of the year Fox [illegible]

SHUCCO IN GYM

[illegible]

Shucco [illegible] he has sufficient time to be at his peak for the Fox [illegible]

[illegible]

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

'Just Overweight,' He Says—But Boxing Critics Wonder

By SAM COHEN

"Why, it's ridiculous," said Jack Sharkey in one breath in reply to a challenge issued by his old arch rival Jim Maloney.

And with the next breath Sharkey went through ten rounds of sparring at Jerry Rocks' gym [illegible] street [illegible]

[illegible]

McCOY AVAILABLE

"Maloney has been out of the ring for five years," said Sharkey. "He couldn't get into shape and get a boxing license.

"If he wants to fight, there are plenty of heavyweights around here—Al McCoy, Tony Shucco, Roy Kelley. Or he might try Tiger Jack Fox.

"I could have kept on boxing two years ago when I made my comeback, but I have children to consider and I'm not going to finish on my heels.

"Maloney needs money. That's why he's popping off. When he says he knocked me out at Braves Field, it is a lot of baloney. Why, Maloney fouled me to save himself from being knocked out.

"The only reason he didn't foul me in New York was because I knocked him out before he got the chance."

Yet a few minutes [illegible]

WEIGHS 218 POUNDS

[illegible] ring American vester[illegible]

"Why, I'm a little heavy, that's all," he replied. "I weigh 218 pounds and I never let myself get too far overweight. That's four pounds more than I ever weighed.

[illegible] key has worked o[illegible] Joe Louis.

Can it be the w[illegible]

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

Farr Plans Trip Home to Rebuild Ring Prestige

NEW YORK, March 15 (INS). [illegible] the American pugilistic scene and [illegible]

[illegible] Doyle of Ireland, who sings and fights tenor, then Walter Neusel of Germany, internationally famous [illegible]

[illegible]

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

Dizzy Dean Ordered to Bed

Cardinal Ace Has Bad Cold

ST. PETERSBURGH, Fla., March [illegible]

[illegible] serious but has ordered him to remain in bed several days.

Dean pitched three innings of Sunday's exhibition game between the Cardinals and New York Yankees, allowing only one hit, and [illegible] his ailment.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

DAMON RUNYON, famed sports reporter and writer, tells you of "The Brighter Side," his daily column, in the Boston American.

Dobie Begins Grid Classes

Two Lectures Weekly Until Spring Drills

[illegible]

[illegible] this year's eleven.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Fighter Dies of Hurts

PHILADELPHIA, March [illegible] Herman "Hank" Gow[illegible] [illegible] was [illegible] day, Page 22.

Mat Results

NEW YORK—Dean Detton, [illegible] Salt Lake City, won over Chief Thunderbird, 225, Victoria, B. C., by [illegible] the ring [illegible] Murphy, 19, Medford, Mass., and [illegible] [illegible] draw.

TAP'S TIPS

WHY DID YOU GET A JOB HANDICAPPING THE HORSES?
BECAUSE I COULDN'T MAKE MUCH MONEY BETTING ON 'EM!
360
BEST BET—KNOWING—5
BEST LONGSHOT—DON MANUEL
DAILY DOUBLE—RIFFLER—PUMPGUN

School Hurler 235 Pounds

Coach Jim "Barney" Curtin, acting for the first time in the head mentor role, has had his Somerville high school battery candidates working out in the gymnasium for more than a week.

Thirty-five boys, headed by the 235 pound twirler, Ray Balcom, reported to the former Boston College ace.

In the short training period, Curtin already has uncovered a right-hander, Joe Rossetti, just up from the junior high school, who has all the earmarks of a comer.

• • •

Keith Academy has issued its call for spring football practice. Coach John "Sonny" Griffin expects to get in a lot of preliminary practice for the next four weeks in preparation for the 1938 season.

• • •

Malden and Lawrence high schools will enter into a two-year agreement in outdoor track. The home and home series will open this year when the Golden Tornado club travels to the Merrimac Valley some time early in May.

• • •

Coach Fred Murray has the makings of another championship baseball team at Roslindale high school. From the group that finished with the highest won and lost percentage in the Hub ranks last year, seven boys, rated first stringers last season, will be back. Eddie Canty, ace pitcher, and B[illegible] Daly, leading hitter on the Little Green, were lost by graduation.

• • •

Tech tournament officials overlooked Jim Scondras of Lowell in making their selections for the "All" team. Scondras, although playing in only one game, turned in one of the most outstanding exhibitions of the carnival.

• • •

Marion high school's championship basketball team continues to work out under Coach Bill Driscoll. The Roxbury quintet will travel to DeLaSalle Academy at Newport, R. I., for the Eastern Catholic tourney next week.

• • •

Art McManus of Somerville conducts his first spring football session this afternoon at Dilboy field. Although not too successful in his debut, McManus expects to field a much stronger team next fall.

• • •

[illegible] Peter [illegible] and [illegible]

• • •

[illegible] team invades P[illegible] night for the New England championships. The Red Devils drew Pawtucket high, champions of Rhode Island, for their opponent in the first round.

In Florida With MR. BOSTON

Eau Galli, Fla., Hunter's Paradise

Live to Be 110 On Indian River

By JACK CONWAY

MIAMI, Fla., March 15.

Mr. Fred Lane,
Sports Department,
Boston Evening American,
Dear Fred:

Don't tell me you ever heard of Eau Galli, Fla., as I never knew there was such a town until I pulled up in front of the Oleanders Hotel as I motored to Miami. The place is 181 miles from here, and as it was getting dark I decided to remain there for the night.

Mr. Boston

As the only hunter and fisherman in the sports department with a batting average of .400, I knew you would be interested in Eau Galli. Eau Galli (meaning rough water in case you have not studied your French recently) is situated on the Indian River with a causeway of a mile and a half running out to the Atlantic Ocean.

The hotel clerk told me that medical experts representing the government found after a survey that the Indian River section is the healthiest spot in the United States.

If a native breaks a few of the training rules, he may die at the age of 90. Otherwise he will live to be 110.

I do not know just what advantage it would be to live to be 110. The round numbers remind me too much of my golf score.

Apart from fishing and hunting, the best fruit in Florida comes from the Indian River section. I must confess I am a better expert at passing on the qualities of oranges and grapefruit than I am in discussing the technical matters concerning fishing and hunting.

I would mention that some of the finest looking dolls in the East visit Eau Galli to paint pictures of rare birds, tropical life and native scenes only I know you are not interested in such things.

If you are a lazy fisherman, you can push your fishing pole out of your window at the Oleanders Hotel and drop it into the Indian River. The fresh water fish include large black face bass and pickerel.

There are numerous bridges from which you can fish, while boats and guides may be hired at reasonable charges. When I go fishing, I like to have a guide so that he can row the boat, bait the hook, and tell the fish when to bite.

It is remarkable the control some guides have over fish in their local waters. I have often thought the guides cut the fish in on their fees.

Salt water fishing offers many thrills. You can get a short distance from shore blues, channel bass, crevalle, pompano, sea trout, snapper, grouper and triple tails.

Then if you wish to go out and do some deep sea fishing you can knock over a 70 pound sail fish or a 300 pound man eating shark. Personally, I like to see my man eating sharks mounted in somebody's well heated home.

* * *

Indian River Paradise for Hunters

I TALKED with one of the guides and I was almost sold on going on a hunting trip. The place is filled with game. [illegible]

Indian River [illegible] paradise [illegible]

[illegible]

It is slightly disagreeable when one has to eat as [illegible] as turkey meat. But then I suppose you could get somebody to remove the gun shots.

I got up early in the morning. The windows of my room faced on Indian River and overlooked the [illegible]. The hotel clerk suggested breakfast on the patio.

The patio was spotted here and there [illegible] who were [illegible] painting. I wasn't [illegible] grapefruit [illegible]

One of the [illegible] had a [illegible] as a model. [illegible] and seemed quite pleased with herself as she occasionally looked at what was intended to be her likeness.

* * *

Tropical Birds Do Their Own Fishing

AS I ATE breakfast I managed to take an occasional glance at the various artists and I found my presence [illegible] my digestion [illegible]

Mrs. Boston kept asking me if I saw how the tropical birds were dipping their [illegible] into the water and coming up with fish. I mentioned I had and that I would see somebody [illegible] get me a trout.

If I had wanted to go hunting at that moment I could have got [illegible] tropical birds. The idea of killing anything was far removed from my mind at that time.

There is something to having breakfast on a patio under [illegible]

I decided to remain at [illegible] for two weeks and [illegible] about Miami [illegible] read a Miami morning newspaper.

I had forgotten there were such things as newspapers under the tropical enchantment, but accepted the newspaper.

I was soon reading the race entries.

I told Mrs. Boston we were leaving for Miami at once.

"I thought you wanted to remain at this place indefinitely," said Mrs. Boston.

"It is wonderful," I replied, "but I have just picked a couple of horses which are sure to win."

So we [illegible] paradise of Florida. I'd return there some day if I ever decide I would like to live to be 110 years of age and shoot a wild turkey.

As ever yours,
MR. BOSTON

Advertisement

MEN! TRY SANDEX

If your [illegible] is temporarily low [illegible] drug store [illegible]

Terms of Truce Outlined by 'Rock'

Given Columbus Day Week, Will Suspend Race War

By JACK CONWAY

HAVANA, Cuba, March 15.—Lou Smith, general manager of Rockingham Park, says he will end the New England racing war if Narragansett Park surrenders to Rockingham the six days of Columbus Day week.

Smith, who was awarded [illegible] racing days by the New Hampshire commission, would be satisfied to cut his racing down to 48 days if Narragansett will make this concession.

On the other hand should Narragansett Park refuse, Smith declared:

"It will be a fight to a finish. Rockingham will positively run for more than 80 days despite its conflicts with Narragansett."

[illegible]

[illegible] as the pioneer of [illegible] New England he [illegible] is entitled to a racing program with one holiday date.

"When Narragansett was trying to get recognized," he added, "I told James Dooley I would not announce my dates until the Rhode Island situation was cleared up.

"I kept faith with Narragansett Park, and I expected Dooley to be fair with Rockingham. I do not want a racing war in New England if it can be avoided.

"The sport has taken enough hard knocks during the past years. Owners of race tracks should try to adjust date disputes."

STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

Today's Race Scratches

AT OAKLAWN PARK
1—St. Mica.
2—Dead Ready.
3—Mart, World Beater, Heel In.
5—The Tribesman, Janeen, Count Dean, Morra Pal, Oxford Lad.
6—Eruption.
7—Our Justice.
8—Hurry Hawk, Baby Boy, Sleepy Joe.
Weather cloudy; track sloppy.

AT FAIR GROUNDS
2—Sun Henry.
3—Black Coat.
4—Palm Island.
5—Taximan, Baldy, Grey Broom, Old Dominion.
7—Mamiss, Oh Dolly.
8—Declared off.
9—Declared off.
10—Declared off.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

AT TROPICAL PARK
1—Dark Sweet, Whinchat, Dogrose, American Byrd, Hasty Ruth, Pit Terrier.
2—Puddles, Mister Jacko, Town Car, Twilight Tryst, Taxi, Pine Frills.
3—Speedy Skippy, Destined, Bernardine W., Atonement 2nd, Die Hard, Amhurst.
4—Legion, Pundit.
8—Wulfstan, Count Rae.
Weather clear, track fast.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Charlie Root Holds Rookies in Check

AVALON, Cal., March 15.—Chicago Cubs' rookies were [illegible] by [illegible] Root and [illegible] in a practice game here and were defeated 2 to [illegible]

The veteran Root, 39 years old, allowed only one hit, a single by Jim Asbell, in the first three innings.

At Havana's Finale

COL. BATISTA PRESIDENT BRU LOU SMITH

Colonel Fulgencio Batista, chief of the Cuban National army, and President Frederico Laredo Bru of Cuba, with Lou Smith at the final day of racing at Oriental Park in Havana. Both the Cuban President and Batista extended congratulations to Smith at the conclusion of the return of American horse racing to Cuba.

Training Camp Gossip

By Associated Press

AVALON, Cal., March 15—Manager Charley Grimm of the Chicago Cubs is elated over the training camp showing of Pitcher Curt Davis, one of the Cubs' disappointments last season. Davis cut loose against the hitters yesterday with mid-season speed.

PASADENA, Cal.—One of those training camp shifts, used to bring holdouts into line, is contemplated by Manager Jimmy Dykes of the Chicago White Sox. Dykes says he may try to make a first baseman out of Outfielder Rip Radcliff. You guessed it! Zeke Bonura, the regular first sacker, is a holdout, the only one since Pitcher Merritt (Sugar) Cain signed yesterday.

TAMPA, Fla.—Manager Bill McKechnie of the Cincinnati Reds doesn't think the "de-rabbited" ball is going to make much difference to National Leaguers this season. He points to 33 basehits in the Reds-Yankees game yesterday as proof.

NEW ORLEANS—Bob Feller, Cleveland's wonder boy, will make his first appearance in action Thursday against the New Orleans Pelicans, preparatory to a starting berth when the Indians meet the New York Giants here Sunday.

ORLANDO, Fla.—Manager Bucky Harris of the Washington Senators is willing to risk his reputation on the prediction that one or both of his rookie pitchers, Joe Krakauskas and Ken Chase, "will be a sensation this year."

LAKELAND, Fla.—A three-cornered fight, with a kibitzer who might also get into the scrap, got under way around the Detroit Tigers' third base job today. Rivals were Tony Piet, veteran infielder obtained from the White Sox; Don Ross, up for his third trial, and rookie Mark Christman. Billy Rogell, veteran shortstop, also has an idea he can play the hot corner.

Baton Rouge, La.—Bill Terry has written his regular second baseman Burgess Whitehead to report to the New York Giants whenever he feels like it. Whitehead is eager to join the team and Terry said "if it would make him feel any better to get around with us, he can come on whenever he wishes." Whitehead is recovering from an appendectomy.

CLEARWATER, Fla.—Dolph Camilli, the first baseman the Brooklyn Dodgers recently acquired from the Phillies, has wired Larry MacPhail, general manager of the club, for transportation to camp from his home in California. Camilli asks about $17,500 against a bid of $15,000 and will be fined $50 a day for every day he misses unless he reports "pretty soon," says MacPhail.

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Jimmy Wilson would like nothing better [illegible] Phillies over Cleveland today. "I'd rather beat the Indians in one game than lick the Giants five times," he said and explained: "They're an American League club, you know."

LAFAYETTE, La.—Seeking remedy for some of his Philadelphia Athletics' defensive ills, Connie Mack today shifted Bob Johnson to centerfield and Paul Easterling to left.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—John Chambers and Morton Cooper, up from the Columbus American Association Club, and Clem Dreisewerd, from Richmond, of the Piedmont League, are the starting pitchers for the St. Louis Cardinals in today's game with the House of David.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—[illegible] Browns' belated opening batting session today. It was postponed [illegible]

Revised Line, Jockeys at Tropical

FIRST RACE

Prospectus, 116, Eccard	15-1
Maelong, 113, Wimmer	20-1
Our Chickie, 116, Simmons	15-1
Spanish Dot, 116, Cooper	6-1
Friendly Paul, 116, Seabo	2½-1
Rippler, 116, Longden	4-1
Blue Fang, 116, Schmidl	20-1
Sis Ormont, 113, Dabson	20-1
Spanish Bunt, 115, Anderson	8-1
J. Ware, 116, McCombs	15-1
Catechism, 113, Arcaro	8-1
Beau Do, 116, Ryan	5-1

SECOND RACE

Cave Hill, 116, Mat	10-1
Country Lass, 108, [illegible]	15-1
Brogan, 114, Mundi	10-1
xLignum Vitae, 111, Maloney	20-1
Seyralphsant, 111, McCombs	20-1
Blue Flame, 116, Scheih	5-1
Head Mistress, 106, LeBlanc	20-1
Maetake, 109, Simmons	8-1
xSwift Spot, 101, Wilmer	20-1
xJane K, 101, Keppler	4-1
Don Cossack, 113, Wright	2-1
Pumpgun, 111, Lynch	4-1

THIRD RACE

Don Manuel, 116, Roberts	10-1
xBurning Billows, 105, Grant	20-1
Flag Song, 106, Schmidl	20-1
xShow Bid, 109, Dupps	8-1
Melody Maid, 111, Anderson	4-1
Toothpick, 106, Barba	20-1
Don Romiro, 113, Wright	6-1
xTwo Tricks, 103, Clutter	4-1
Osirando, 116, Young	3-1
Flosilda, 111, Longden	8-1
Stingy, 113, Simmons	12-1
Speed Queen, 108, McCombs	15-1

FOURTH RACE

Lost Battalion, 114, Simmons	12-1
Bay Bubble, 111, Ryan	3-1
Saunderstown, 114, Eccard	4-1
Judge Leer, 116, Anderson	5-1
Jadva, 109, Schmidl	20-1
Laidfield, 116, Malley	4-1
Jildae Rose, 111, Young	8-1
Free Ride, 100, Keppler	15-1
Maebob, 114, McCombs	8-1

FIFTH RACE

Knowing, 114, Young	8-5
xMosawtre, 111, Dupps	2-1
Forest Play, 110, Simmons	4-1
Long Face, 108, J. Renick	15-1
Exhibitor, 113, Longden	4-1
Kearsarge, 110, Jaekle	10-1

SIXTH RACE

High Pool, 114, Simmons	10-1
Chispa, 100, Keppler	20-1
Say When, 114, Young	3-1
Magicienne, 100, McCombs	5-1
Whooper, 116, Wright	8-1
Teddy Beau, 114, Cooper	6-1
Narise, 111, Lynch	12-1
Wise King, 116, McTague	6-1
Bain Marie, 109, Seabo	8-1
Wowo, 109, Merritt	15-1
Grey Fluff, 109, Anderson	8-1

SEVENTH RACE

xContinuity, 106, Dupps	8-1
Velvetier, 116, Longden	12-1
xSun Antioch, 111, Keppler	3-1
Bunamuck, 108, Simmons	12-1
Red Brook, 114, Compton	20-1
Four Spot, 116, McCombs	6-1
Bomber, 111, Wright	3-1
Lady Tichner, 106, Scheih	5-1

EIGHTH RACE

xMiss Pecan, 104, Dupps	20-1
Bahamas, 116, Simmons	12-1
Long Bit, 106, McCombs	6-1
High Image, 113, Longden	8-1
Sun Crax, 109, Ryan	4-1
Zaca, 111, Barba	10-1
Easiest Way, 116, Roberts	2½-1
Wee Emma, 106, Young	12-1
Time To Go, 113, Wright	8-1
xPay Wrack, 106, Clutter	15-1
Sun Way, 116, Eccard	8-1

xApprentice allowance claimed. Listed

Program Selections At Tropical Park

1—Friendly Paul, Catechism, Spanish Dot.
2—Maetake, Blue Flame, Pumpgun.
3—Osirando, Don Romiro, Melody Maid.
4—Bay Bubble, Saunderstown, Judge Leer.
5—Knowing, Mosawtre, Forest Play.
6—Bain Marie, Whooper, Say When.
7—Sun Antioch, Lady Tichner, Bomber.
8—Long Bit, Easiest Way, High Image.

Allen Forgotten Man in Indian Training Camp

NEW ORLEANS, March 15 (AP)—Everybody in the hotel lobby turns to gaze when the Feller family—Bob clinging to the hand of his little sister, and proudly followed by Ma and Pa Feller and the family preacher, Charley Fix—goes out through the doors looking for an orange juice stand.

Everybody knows Bob is the most sensational young pitcher in a coon's age and they discuss his [illegible]

Leaning against a pillar [illegible] watching the Feller family [illegible] pitcher. Nobody gapes at him. [illegible] Allen of Lenoir, N. C., who happens to be only the greatest pitcher in baseball on his record for the last six years.

15 STRAIGHT

Feller still has his to do. Allen has done his. He won 15 straight [illegible] last year before he was [illegible]

[illegible] average of .727. Lefty Grove .655 and Dizzy Dean .650.

Allen has been with [illegible] championship [illegible] of 1932 [illegible] show. Hubbell and Gomez [illegible] been with three winners [illegible] that time. Dean [illegible]

To make his superiority more emphatic, Johnny has led both leagues in strikeouts, with an average of 5.85 per game and dished out more low-hit games than any rival. He has pitched 18 games of four hits or less. All this is a matter of record.

"I never could get a no hitter," said Johnny, "but I had a one-hitter and a couple of twos. Somebody always gets a knock off me early in the game."

FASTER THAN EVER

Johnny doesn't [illegible] be faster than ever.

"Maybe I'd better not say so though," he reflected, "or I might not be able to get anybody out."

How about those Yanks? [illegible] he have any trouble getting them and had he discovered Joe DiMaggio's weakness?

"I beat 'em the only two times I faced 'em last year," said Johnny. "Sure, Dimaggio can be pitched to, but I don't think I'd better tell how."

Was there any one player he had [illegible] batter he never seemed able to get out?

"Sure," Johnny grinned. "There's two or three of 'em, but I wouldn't give 'em the satisfaction of knowing it. Might give 'em ideas."

ALLEN HARD LOSER

Allen is a hard fighter and a tough loser. He is no pal of the umpires. A bad decision gets him hotter than a pair of loaded dice and his temper has cost him a number of games. It's his one principal weakness, that and an occasional stretch of wildness.

Did he think the Indians had a chance of winning the flag this year?

"Sure. If we get our defense tightened up a little we've got a good chance," said Allen. "I know we've got the pitching. Feller ought to be hard to beat, and Mel Harder too."

[illegible]

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Operation on Joe Walsh's Knee Success

Joe Walsh, promising young rookie of the Boston Bees, was [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] 1938 season [illegible] local club.

Tropical Park Race Results

First—Our Chuckie, 116 (Simmons), 11.30, 5.70, 4.90; Spanish Dot 116 (Cooper), 9.20, 5.60; Rippler, 116 (Longden), 5.80. Off 2:20½. Also ran—Prospectus, Maelong, Friendly Paul, Blue Fang, Sis Ormont, Spanish Bunt, J. Ware, Catechism, Beau Do.

Morning Glories In Bowling Tests

Continued from Page 16

town, James Gallagher, Watertown, and William Hayner, Medford.

Helen C. Finnie of Greenfield sends along a [illegible] women's [illegible]

[illegible]

Included are the 11 beautiful Gruen wrist watches, 21 sets of [illegible] bowling balls and carrying bags [illegible] pairs of men's custom made shoes and [illegible] pairs of boys' famous [illegible] donated by [illegible] Company of 18 School street, Boston [illegible] coffee percolators from Haymarket Hardware Company of Boston, more than 250 grand medals of gold and silver; and any number of wonderful trophies including the [illegible]

ENTRY BLANK

EVENING AMERICAN SUNDAY ADVERTISER BOSTON MASS.

THIRD ANNUAL

Bowling Tournament

To be held at Huntington Club, 255 Huntington Avenue, Boston
(next door to Symphony Hall)

GRAND CANDLEPIN

Saturday, March 26th, through Saturday, April 9th

Handsome Gruen Wrist Watches

To All Amateur Winners (except teams)
Sanctioned by New England Bowling Association

AMATEUR DIVISION
☐ Men's Singles
☐ Men's Doubles
☐ Men's Teams
☐ Boys' Singles
☐ Women's Singles
☐ Women's Doubles
☐ Women's Teams
☐ Girls' Singles
☐ Mixed Doubles
☐ College Boys' Singles

OPEN DIVISION
(Apr. 8 & 9 only)
☐ Men's Singles
☐ Men's Doubles
☐ Men's Teams
☐ Women's Singles
☐ Women's Doubles
☐ Women's Teams
☐ Mixed Doubles

(Indicate with cross (x) the events entered)

NAME ____________________
ADDRESS ____________________
CITY OR TOWN ____________ STATE ____________
DATE PREFERRED ____________ HOUR ________
(Print Name and Address—Do Not Write)

Send Entries to Jack Stafford, Huntington Club, 255 Huntington Ave., Boston

Tourney open to all New England bowlers. But contestants eligible to bowl only ONCE in each event and in only ONE division.

Alley owners, proprietors, employees and all "open" bowlers may enter "open" division ONLY.

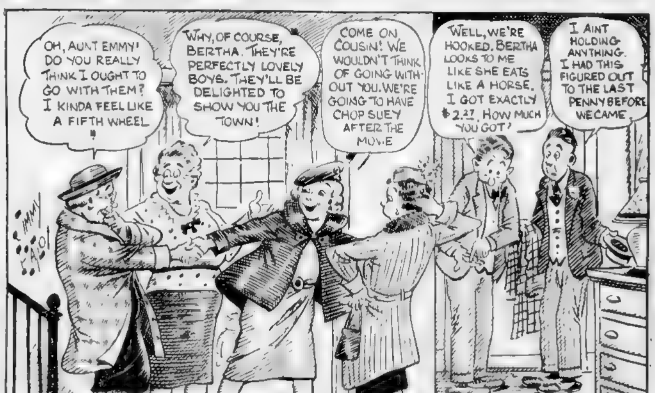
AMATEUR DIVISION—Each event three strings—high total three-string pinfall to count. Entry fee of 75 cents includes bowling costs. High school boys and girls 45 cents.

OPEN DIVISION—Men's and Women's singles to be five-strings elimination; doubles and mixed doubles five-strings; team competition three strings. Men's Singles $5.00 entry fee; all others $2.00 (plus bowling). (All open fees returned in cash prizes.)

PLEASE FILE EARLY

ENTRY FEE MUST ACCOMPANY ENTRY BLANK

They'll Do It Every Time -:- By JIMMY HALTO



OH, AUNT EMMY! DO YOU REALLY THINK I OUGHT TO GO WITH THEM? I KINDA FEEL LIKE A FIFTH WHEEL
WHY, OF COURSE, BERTHA. THEY'RE PERFECTLY LOVELY BOYS. THEY'LL BE DELIGHTED TO SHOW YOU THE TOWN!
COME ON COUSIN! WE WOULDN'T THINK OF GOING WITHOUT YOU. WE'RE GOING TO HAVE CHOP SUEY AFTER THE MOVIE
WELL, WE'RE HOOKED. BERTHA LOOKS TO ME LIKE SHE EATS LIKE A HORSE. I GOT EXACTLY $2.27. HOW MUCH YOU GOT?
I AINT HOLDING ANYTHING. I HAD THIS FIGURED OUT TO THE LAST PENNY BEFORE WE CAME.
JIMMY HALO
JUST WHEN THE BANK-ROLL IS FLATTER THAN A MEXICAN TORTILLA. THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME
THANX TO RAYMOND BRANZELL.

BUSINESS BOSTON AMERICAN FINANCE
NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER
BOSTON, TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1938

Germany Adds to Reserves

Gold Fund Still Inadequate for War Time Purposes

By HUGH E. BRADSHAW

One result of Germany's bloodless conquest of Austria interesting the financial world is the fate of the National Bank of Austria. It holds considerably more gold and foreign exchange than the German Central Bank and could contribute an important addition to the conquerors' depleted reserves.

Most observers of international affairs are agreed that Hitler's coup means absorption of the Austrian bank and the bringing under Reichbank control some $79,000,000 in gold or its equivalent. Viewed from the perspective of wartime econom, this sum when taken together with German holdings of $31,000,000 is not significant. For commercial purposes a total fund of $110,000,000 is important and should help to strengthen the Reich's world trade position. But the inadequacy of gold and foreign exchange for war can not be too strongly emphasized as one factor arguing in favor of peace.

* * *

When the huge gold and exchange funds of England and France—totaling billions of dollars—are considered the risks of aggression to Germany are apparent. In fact the small countries of Belgium, Holland and Switzerland control larger resources and that is probably the reason a flight from these usual stable currencies is taking place. It is easy to understand the fears of those controlling capital in these countries as to whether or not Hitler will single them out as next in a program of bulwarking national capital. To complete the figures on the most important munitions of war it can be said that if the prospective allies of Germany, Italy and Japan pooled their funds they would still be insufficient and probably fall short of the $500,000,000 mark.

* * *

USED CAR SALES UP

Preliminary figures for Boston dealers indicate that sales of used cars were not only well above those for the country as a whole but recorded a new all time high for any single week. President Fred A. Ordway of the Boston Automobile Dealers' Association states that a check of key points in the metropolitan area makes it appear certain that National Used Car Exchange Week resulted in a reduction of 25 per cent in stocks. This compares with a preliminary estimate of 10 per cent for the country as a whole.

* * *

Mr. Ordway also says that dealers will adhere to the plan of extending the used car drive until Saturday at bargain prices, but that higher prices are certain later on. Further success of automobile dealers is noted in his comment that some brand new leftover 1937 models were disposed of during used car week. Thus does New England's major city respond to a national call to clear the way for better business—and receives in return the news of unfavorable trade agreements.

* * *

MARKET CROSSROADS

The stock market is at the crossroads and must soon make up its mind as to the route it will take. Saved from a probable further fall by buying on war news it can not hesitate much or long if new buying is to be attracted. Business consideration as always will soon take over control and the all-important factor of buying by industrialists and trade leaders will tell the true story. If such interests see nothing in the picture to warrant accumulation then bulls have only the war scares and shorts on which to predicate their hopes for higher prices.

* * *

Sweeping revision of federal taxes is a factor that can not be overlooked at this time but it seems to us that it pertains more to the future than the present. Once enacted into law business and finance will start laying their plans for later in the year but right now it is hard to see how such action could stimulate our economy in nearby months.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Allis-Chalmers Net Equals $4.42

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP)—Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company, for the year 1937, reported net income of $7,841,167 after taxes and charges, equal to $4.42 a common share, against $4,014,113 or $2.27 a common share in 1936.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Boston Stocks

	High	Low	Last	Chge.
Allen & Fisher	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	— ⅛
Am Pneu pf	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	— ¼
Bird & Son	12⅞	12⅞	12⅞
BostonEdison	121	120¾	121	+1
Boston Elev	52	52	52	+1⅛
Bost Her-Trav	17⅜	17	17	—1⅛
Boston & Me	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	—1⅛
B&M 1st D st	3½	3½	3½	—1
Copper Range	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
*E G & F 6 pf	26⅜	26⅜	26⅜	— ⅜
East Mass 1st	19	19	19	+3
East SS	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	+ ¼
East SS cv pf	20	20	20	—10
Maine Central	6	6	6	—2
N E T & T	90⅜	90	90⅜	+ ⅛
North Butte	52c	51c	51c
Old Colony RR	4	4	4
*Reece B H M	18	18	18
Torrington	22½	22½	22½	+ ½
United Shoe M	68½	68¼	68½	— ⅛

*Ex-dividend.

TODAY'S NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE QUOTATIONS

	Div.	High	Low	Close	Chg.
Abbott Lab	1.60a	44	44	44	0
Acme Steel	2.	38	[illegible]	38	-2½
Adams Exp	.60g	9¼	8⅝	9¼	+ ⅝
Adams Mil	2.a	20⅛	20	20	- ⅛
Address	1.40	21	20½	20½	0
Adv Rumely		2	2	2	+ ⅛
Air Reduction	1.a	55¾	54	55½	+2
Airways El		1	1	1	0
Alaska Ju	.60b	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝
Alleg Corp		1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Alleg C pf		14	14	14	0
Alleg 30 pf		12½	11⅞	12¼	+ ¼
Alleg 40 pf		13⅛	13⅛	13⅛	0
Allegh'y pr pf		13¼	13⅛	13⅛	0
Alleg Steel		16⅝	16⅛	16⅝	+ ⅝
Allen Indus		7½	7½	7½	0
Allied Chem	6.	165	165	165	+3
Allied Kidd C	1.	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	0
Allied Mills	2.a	12	12	12	+ ⅜
Allied Strs		7¼	6⅝	7¼	+ ⅜
Allied Strs pf	5.	48¾	48¼	48¼	0
Allis Chal	.38e	48⅝	46¾	48⅝	+2¼
AlphaPCem	1.	13	12⅝	12⅝	+ ⅛
AmalLeather		2⅛	2	2	0
Amal Lea pf		14¾	14⅜	14¾	+ ⅜
Amerada	2.	67¾	65	67¾	+2⅞
AmAgChem	1.25e	62	62	62	0
Am Bank N	.25e	13¾	13½	13¾	+ ⅜
Am Br Sh	3.40e	34¾	34	34¾	+ ⅜
Am Can	4	87½	87½	87½	+2
Am Can pf	7	163¾	163¾	163¾	0
AmCar&F cv	.25e	22⅛	21½	21⅝
AmCar&F pf	4.c	41	41	41	+2
Am Chain	.25e	14⅛	14	14⅜	+1⅜
Am Chain pf	5.	89½	89½	89½	0
Am Chicle	4.a	104½	104½	104½	+ ½
AmColortype		6¼	4¼	7⅛	0
AmCom'lAlc	.50e	11	11	11	0
Am Cry Sug	.75e	12	12	12	+ ½
Am En Tile		3⅜	3½	3½	+ ⅛
Am Europe S		5	5	5	0
Am&For nb		3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	+ ½
A&FP6% pf		18⅛	18⅛	18⅛	+ ⅛
A&FP7%pf		22½	22½	22½	+2½
Am&FP 2pf		9⅝	9¼	9⅝	+ ⅝
Am Haw SS	1.	10¼	10¼	10¼	+ ¼
AmHide&L		3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	+ ⅛
Am Hide L pf	3.	20	20	20	0
Am Home Pro	2.40	35⅝	35½	35½
Am Ice		2	2	2	0
Am Ice pf	.50e	17⅞	17⅞	17⅞	+ ⅞
Am Inter		6½	6⅛	6½	+ ⅜
Am Locomot		19⅝	19	19⅝	+ ⅝
Am Loco pf	7.	60	59¾	60
Am M&F	.20e	13⅛	13⅛	13⅛	+ ⅛
AmM&Met		4	3¾	3¾	0
Am Metal	3.e	33¼	32¼	33½	+2
Am Metal pf	6.	105¼	105¼	105¼	0
Am Pow&L		5¼	4⅞	5	+ ⅜
AmP&L6pf	1.20v	29⅞	27¼	29⅞	+2⅛
AmP&L7pf	.93v	25⅝	24	25⅝	+1⅝
Am Rad SS	.60	12⅜	12	12⅜	+ ⅜
Am R Mill		19⅝	18½	19⅝	+1¼
AmR Mill pf	4.50	70	69¼	69¼	+ ⅛
Am Safety R	2.	18¼	18¼	18¼	- ½
Am Seating	1.25	10½	10½	10½
Am Smelting	1.25e	49⅝	46¾	49⅝	+2⅝
Am Smelt pf	7.	123½	123½	123½	0
Am Snuff	3.a	51	51	51	- ¼
Am Stl Fdy	.25e	27	25⅝	26⅝	+1
Am Stores		8¼	8¼	8¼	+ ¼
Am Sugar	2.	28½	28½	28½	0
Am Sug pf	7.	117	116½	119½	- ⅛
Am Suma	1.	17	16⅛	16⅞	0
AmTel&Tel	9.	131⅝	130	131⅞	+ ⅞
Am Tob	5.	67	66½	67	+1½
Am Tob B	5.	69¼	67½	69¼	+2⅝
Am Tob pf	6.	138	138	138
Am Type		5⅝	5⅝	5⅝	+ ⅝
AmWatWk		9⅝	8⅞	9¼	+ ⅛
Am Wat pf	6.	79¼	79	79	0
Am Woolen		4⅜	4⅜	4⅜	+ ⅛
Am Wool pf		33⅞	33½	33⅞	+1⅝
Am Zinc		7⅛	6⅞	7⅛	+ ½
AmZinc pr pf	2.50g	30	30	30	0
Anaconda	.25e	33⅜	32⅛	33¼	+1⅝
An W&Cable		37	36¾	37
Anchor Hock	.15e	19½	16½	16½	- ¼
Ande Cop	.50g	14⅝	14⅝	14⅝	0
APW Paper		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	0
Arch Dan	.50e	27	27	27	0
Armour Ill		5⅜	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
Am Ill pf	7.	95	92	92	-1
Armour p pf	7.	39⅞	39⅜	39⅜	0
Arm Ill pr pf		63	63	63	0
Arm Cork	.25e	31⅞	31	31⅞	+1⅜
Arnold Cons	.38e	7⅛	7	7⅛	+ ⅛
Artloom		3⅞	3⅞	3⅞	0
AssoDryGds		6	6⅜	6	- ⅛
Asso DG 1pf	6.	69	69	69	0
Asso DG 2pf	1.75v	68¼	68¼	68¼	0
Assoc Invest	3.e	31	[illegible]	31	- ½
Atchison	2.g	34⅝	32⅞	34⅝	+1
Atchison p	5.	57	56¼	57
Atl Coast	1.50g	21	21	21	0
Atl G&W Ind		5⅜	5⅜	5⅜	0
Atl G&WI pf		10	10	10	0
Atl Refin	1.	22⅝	22½	22⅝	+ ⅛
Atl Refin'g pf	4.	107	107	107	0
Atlas Corp	.80	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	⅛
Atlas Crp pf	3.	40	40	40	0
Atl Pow	.50e	43¾	43¾	43¾	0
Atlas Tack	.50g	6	6	6	0
Auburn Auto		4	4	4
Austin Nich		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	0
Aviat'n Corp		3½	3½	3½
Bald'n ctf w		9½	8⅝	9½	+ ⅝
B & Ohio		7⅜	7	7⅜	+ ¼
Balt & O pf		8⅝	8	8⅝	+ ⅝
Bang & Ar	2.50	30¼	30¼	30¼	0
Berber Co	1.g	17½	16⅜	17½	+1
Barker Bros	.75g	7⅜	7⅜	7⅛	+ ⅜
Barnsdal	1.	15	14½	14⅞	- ⅛
Bayuk Cig	.19e	11½	11½	11½	0
Beatrice Cr	1.a	17	16⅞	17	0
Beat Cr pf	5.	92½	92½	92½	0
Beech Nut	4.a	103	103	103	0
Belding Hem	.25e	7⅝	7½	7½	0
Bel N pf	3.27g	82	82	82	0
Bendix		12	12	12	+ ¼
Benef'l Loan	.45e	18	18	18
Best & Co	2.50a	36	34	34	0
Beth Steel		58⅝	56	58⅝	+2
Beth Stl 5pf	1.	15⅛	14⅞	15⅛	+ ½
Beth Stl 7pf	7.	90½	90	90½	+ ½
Bigelow San		21¼	21¼	21¼	0
Black-Decker		14½	14	14½	+1½
Blaw Knox	1.20g	15	14½	15	+ ½
Boeing Airc	.40e	29⅞	28⅞	29⅝	+1⅛
Bohn Alum	4.e	25½	25⅛	25⅞	0
Bond Stores	.20e	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜	0
Borden	1.60	17⅞	17⅝	17⅞	+ ⅜
Borg Warn		25	23½	25	+1½
Boston&Me		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
Bow Bell Bea	.50e	18	18	18	0
Bridg Brass		8½	8⅛	8½	+ ½
Briggs Mfg	4.e	23	22	22⅞	+1
Brigg&Strat	.75e	29¼	29¼	29¼	+2¼
Bristol My	2.40	31⅜	31½	31⅜	+ ¼
Bklyn Q Tr		1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
Bklyn M T		9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	+ ¼
B-M Tran pf	6.	27⅝	27⅝	27⅝	- ¼
BklynQT pf		6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	0
BklynUnGas		15½	15½	15½	0
Brown Shoe	3.	38	38	38	0
Bruns Balk	1.e	8	8	8	+ ¼
Bucyrus Erie	.75g	8¼	7⅞	8	- ½
Budd Mfg		5⅛	5⅛	5⅜	+ ¼
Budd Wheel	.20e	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
Bullard Co	.25e	17⅜	17¼	17⅜	0
Bulova Wtch	4	29	27½	29	+1¼
Burlington M	1.	7⅞	7⅜	7¼	+ ⅜
Burroughs	.20e	18	17½	18	+ ½
BushCTerm'l		2¼	2¼	2¼
Bush Ter db	a	7½	7½	7½	0
Butler Bros	.60	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜	+ ⅛
ButlerBr cv p	1.50	20½	20½	20½	+ ½
Butte Copper	.10g	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	+ ⅛
Byers A M		9⅛	9⅜	9⅛	+ ⅛
Byron J	.50e	17⅞	17¼	17⅞	0
Cal Pack	1.50e	19⅝	19⅝	19⅝	- ¼
Cal Pack pf	2.50	48	48	48	0
Callah'nZinc		1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
Cal & Hec	1.10g	8⅝	8½	8⅝	+ ⅜
Cam WFC	1.	13⅜	13⅜	13⅜	+ ⅜
Canada Dry		18⅜	18	18⅞	+ ⅛
Canadian Pac		6⅛	6⅛	6¼	+ ⅛
Cannon Mills	1.e	33	33	33	0
Capital Adm	.50g	6¼	6¼	6¼	0
Carpenter Stl	.10e	16	16	16	+ ¼
Carr & Gen	.35g	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	0
Case J I	6.g	87	84	87	+5
Caterp Tract	.50e	44⅛	43	44⅛	+2⅛
Caterp Tr pf	6.	103	103	103	+ ⅝
Celanese C		15½	14½	15½	+ ⅜
Celanese 7pf	7.	94	94	94	0
Celotex	1.20g	19¼	19¼	19¼	0
Cen Agur	1.50	26⅝	26⅝	26⅝	0

	Div.	High	Low	Close	Chg.
Cent Founder		3½	3⅜	3½	+ ⅛
Cen RR NJ		9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	0
Cent Vtn Sug	[illegible]	6	6	6	0
Century Rib	.10e	4	4	4	0
Cerro	1.a	41½	39	41½	+1⅝
Certain-Teed		7	6⅞	7	+ ¼
Champ Pap	.25e	27	27	27	+1⅛
Checker Cab		9½	9½	9½	0
Ches & Ohio	1.50e	33½	32½	33½	+1⅛
Ches&Ohio pf	4.	87	87	87	0
Chesap-Corp	3.	44	41¾	44	+4
Chi&E Ill	a	1	1	1	0
Chi&E Ill pf		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	0
Chi & N W		1⅛	1	1	- ⅛
Chi N W pf		3	3	3	0
Ch Grt West		¾	¾	¾	0
ChiGWest pf		3½	3½	3½	0
Chi Ml Or	.25e	11⅞	11⅞	11⅞	0
C M St P & O		⅝	⅝	⅝	0
CMStP&P pf		1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Chi Pn'matic		10⅝	9⅝	10⅝	+ ⅝
CPneu cv pf	3.	28	27¾	28	+ ⅛
C R I & P	a	1	⅞	⅞	+ ⅛
CRI&P 6pf	a	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	- ⅛
CRI&P 7pf	a	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞	0
Chic Yel Cab	1.25e	10	10	10	0
Chickasha	.50e	14⅝	14¼	14⅝	+ ⅛
Childs Co		5¼	5⅛	5¼	+ ⅛
Chrysler		54⅛	51⅞	54	+2¼
CityIce&Fuel	2.	12⅜	12⅜	12⅜	+ ¼
City Strs nw		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	0
Clark Equip		18⅜	18⅜	18⅜	0
Clev G & B	2.80	22	22	22	+1⅛
Climax Moly	.30e	38⅝	38	38⅝	+1⅞
Cluett Peab'y	1	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛
Coca Cola	.50e	120½	119½	120¼	+3
Cocoa Cola A	3.	59	59	59	0
Colgate		9⅝	9	9	+ ⅛
Colgate pf	6.	13¼	13¼	13¼	- ⅜
Collins & A	.50e	23½	23	23½	+1¼
Col Fuel & I	1.	14⅞	14⅛	14⅞	+ ⅜
ColBrd Sys A	.40e	17	16⅝	17	+ ¼
ColBrd Sys B	.40e	16½	16⅜	16½
Col Gas	.45e	7½	7⅛	7⅜	+ ⅛
Col GE pfA	6.	70¼	70¼	70¼	0
Col Pictures	1.	12½	12½	12½	0
Col Pic cv pf	2.75	34	34	34	0
Col Carb	4.	68½	68	68½	+1½
Com Cred	4.	35¼	33⅞	35¼	+1⅜
Com Cred pf	4.25	95	94½	95	0
Com Inv Trus	4.	39¼	38⅜	39¼	+ ⅝
C I T pf	4.25	99	99	99	0
Com Solv	.60	8	7⅝	8	+ ½
Comw'th&So		1½	1⅜	1⅜
Com&So pf	1.50v	35⅝	34	35⅝	+1¼
Conde Nast		6	6	6	0
Congoleum	.25e	21	20	21	+ ½
Cong's Cg	1.g	7½	7½	7½	0
Cons Aircraft	.50g	16⅝	15¼	16⅝	+1⅝
Consol Cigar	.75e	7¼	7	7¼	+ ¼
Con Edison	.50e	21¼	20½	21¼	+ ⅜
Con Edis pf	5.	92	91	92	+ ⅝
Cons Film		1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	+ ⅛
Cons Film pf	.50g	5½	5½	5½	+ ⅝
Cons Laund		4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	- ⅛
Consol Oil	.80	9¼	9⅛	9¼	+ ¼
Cons Oil pf	5.	101⅛	101⅛	101⅛	0
CRR Cuba pf		4½	4½	4½	+ ¼
Con Textile		⅞	⅞	⅞
Cons Coal		3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	0
Cons Coal pf		13	13	13	0
Consu Po pf	4.50	84½	84½	84½	0
Container	1.20	14	13⅞	14	+ ½
Cont Bak A		13⅛	13⅜	13⅛	+ ⅛
Cont Bak B		1⅞	1⅞	1⅞	⅛
Cont B pf A	8.	80	80	[illegible]	-2½
Cont Can	.50e	42	41½	42	+ ½
Cont Can pf	4.50	[illegible]	109½	109½	+ ½
Cont Dia Fib		7¼	7¼	7¼	- ⅛
Cont Ins	1.60a	29⅜	29⅛	29½	+ ½
Cont Motors		1¼	1⅛	1¼
Cont Oil	.25e	29⅛	28⅛	29⅛	+1⅛
Cont Steel	1.75g	13¼	13¼	13¼	- ⅛
Corn Product	3	64⅞	63⅝	64
Coty Inc	.10g	3⅛	3⅜	3⅜	⅛
Crane Co	1.g	28½	27	28½	+1
Crane pf a	5.	90	90	90	+1
Cream Wheat	1.e	24¼	24¼	24¼	0
Crosley R		7⅝	7⅝	7⅝	0
CrownCk&S	.50e	34	33	34	+1⅜
Crown Ck ww	2.25	34½	34½	34	0
Cro Ck pf xw	2.25	30⅞	30⅞	30⅞	0
Crown Zeller	.50e	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	+ ⅝
Crown Zel pf	5.	69	69	69	0
Crucible Stl		35⅛	33⅛	34⅝	+1⅛
CrucibleStl pf	1.75v	85	85	85	0
Cuba Co		⅝	½	½	0
Cuban Am S		4½	4⅜	4⅜	+ ⅛
Cudahy		14½	14	14½	-1
Curtis Pub		6⅛	6	6⅛	+ ⅛
Curtis P pf	2.v	48⅛	47	48⅛	+1⅛
Curt Wright		4½	4¼	4½	+ ⅜
Curtis W A	.50g	17	16½	16⅝	- ⅜
Cutler Hmr a		19⅝	19⅝	19⅝	+ ⅜
Davega	.75	6	5⅜	5⅜	0
Dav Strs pf	1.25	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛
Deere & Co		23⅞	22⅝	23⅝	-1½
Deere pf	1.40	22⅝	22½	22⅝	+ ½
Deisel W G	.20e	13	12½	12½	0
Del&Hudson		14¼	13⅜	14¼	+ ⅛
Del L West		6⅞	6½	6½	+ ¼
Den&RioG pf		2	1⅜	1⅜	- ⅛
Detroit Ed	2.e	91⅞	91⅝	91⅞	+ ⅝
Diam M	.50e	24⅞	24⅞	24⅞	+ ⅛
Dia M pf	1.50	36	35½	36	0
Dia T Motor	1.	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
Distill Seagr	.50e	13⅝	13½	13⅝	+ ¼
Dist Seag's p	5.	74½	74½	74½	0
Dixie Vor	1.50	15½	15½	15½	0
Duehler Die	2.g	19	19	19
Dome Mines	2.e	53⅛	52⅝	53⅛	+ ⅛
Domin Strs		6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	+ ⅜
Douglas Air		41¼	40¼	41¼	+1¼
Dow Chem	.75e	103	100½	103	+1½
Dresser A	1.50g	19⅝	19¼	19⅝	0
Dresser B		10	10	10
Dul SS&Atl		⅝	⅝	⅝	0
Dul SSA pf		⅝	¼	¼	0
Dunhill Inter		2½	2½	2½	0
Duplan Slk	1.	10	10	10	0
duPont	.50e	120½	116⅝	120½	+4½
duPont db	6.	136	135½	136	0
duPont pf	4.50	114	113	113½	0
East R Mills		5⅜	5⅜	5⅜	0
Eastman	3.50e	154½	153¼	154½	+2½
Eaton Mfg	.25e	16½	16½	16½	+ ⅜
Ei'ton Selld		3¼	3¼	3¼	+ ⅛
El Mus Ind	.19g	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	0
El Auto L	.25e	19	17⅞	18⅞	+ ⅜
Electric Boat	.60g	8⅜	8½	8⅜	+ ¼
Electric P&L		10⅛	9¼	10	+ ⅜
Elec & L 6pf		31¼	30½	31⅜	+1¼
Elec P&L 7pf		38½	35	38½	+4
El Stor Bat	2.	29¼	29¼	29¼	0
ElkHornCoal		⅝	⅝	⅝	0
ElkHornC pf		1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	0
El Paso Gas	2.	22	20⅝	22	+1½
Endicott J	3.	37¼	37¼	37¼	0
EngineersPS		4⅛	3⅞	4⅛	+ ⅛
Eng PubS5pf	5.	45⅜	45⅜	45⅜	+1⅜
Eng PS5½pf	5.50	46	46	46	0
Eng PS 6pf	6.	52	52	52	0
Equip Off Bld		2	2	2
Erie R R		3⅛	3	3
Erie 1st pf		4½	4⅜	4⅜	0
Erie 2nd pf		3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	0
Eureka Vac		3⅛	3⅜	3⅜
Evans Prod		8¼	8¼	8¼	+ ⅝
Exchge Buf		1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
Fairbks M	1.	31	30	31	+1
Fair Mor pf	6.	151	150	150	0
Fajardo S	1.e	31⅛	31	31	0
FedLt&Trac	1.g	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	0
Fed Min&Sm	5.g	75	75	75	+10
Fed Min'g pf	7.	96½	96½	96½	0
Fed Mot		3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Fed ScrwWk		3¼	3¼	3¼	0
Fed Wt Serv		1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	+ ¼
Fed Dept S	.25e	15¼	15¼	15¼	0
FedDepS pf	4.25	70⅛	70⅛	70⅛	+2⅛
Fidel Ph	1.60a	30½	30½	30½	+ ⅝
Fire T&R	.75e	20⅜	19⅞	20½	+ ⅞
Firestone pf	6.	87	87	87	0
Fst Nat Strs	1.25e	29	29	29	-1
Flintkote	1.e	16⅞	16½	16⅞	+ ⅜
Florence S	.50e	26	26	26	0
Flo'heim	.25e	16⅜	16⅜	16⅜	0
Follansbee		2	2	2	0
Food Mc	.25e	25¾	25⅜	25⅜	- ⅛
Foster Wheel		18⅞	17⅞	18⅞	+ ½
Francisco Sug		3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	0
Freeport Sul	2.	27⅛	26¼	27⅛	+1⅛
Gabriel		2	2	2
Gair Robert		3⅜	3½	3½	0
Gair Robt pf		13	13	13	0
Gar Wood	.25g	6⅛	5⅞	6⅛	+ ¼
GenAm Invest		6	5⅞	5⅞	+ ⅜

	Div.	High	Low	Close	Chg.
Gen A Inv pf	6.	95	95	95	0
Gen Am Trn	3.50e	40	39	40	+1⅝
Gen Bak	.60e	8⅛	8	8⅛	- ⅛
Gen Bronze		4⅛	4	4	+ ¼
Gen Cable		9½	9	9½	+ ¼
Gen Cable A		18½	18½	18½	+ ½
Gen Cable pf	7.g	59	59	59	0
Gen Cigar	.25e	26½	26½	26½	0
Gen Elec	.30e	40	38⅞	39⅝	+1⅛
Gen Foods	2	28¼	27⅜	28¼	+ ⅛
Gen Gas A		1	1	1	+ ⅛
Gen Mills	3	54½	54½	54½	+ ⅝
Gen Motor	.25e	36	34¼	36	+1⅝
Gen Mot pf	5	115	115	115
Gen Out Ads		4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	0
Gen Out AdA	1.25g	30¼	30	30	0
Gen Print Ink	.10e	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
Gen Pub Serv		1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
Gen Ry Sig	.25e	21½	21	21
GenReal&Ut		1½	1¼	1¼	- ¼
GenRealty pf		18⅜	18⅜	18⅜	+ ⅜
Gen Refrn	2.e	23⅜	23	23⅜	+1⅛
Gen Theater	1.25e	11	10½	11	+ ½
Gen Time Ins	.15e	16½	16½	16½	0
Gen Tr&Rub	.50e	12	12	12	0
Gillette S R	.25e	9⅜	9⅛	9⅜	- ¼
Gill R cv pf	5	59¼	59¼	59¼	0
Gimbel Bros		7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	- ⅛
Gimbel Br pf	6	53¼	53¼	53¼	0
Glidden		21	20	19⅝	- ¼
Glidden pf	2.25	38	38	38
Gobel Adolf		2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Gobel Br	.20	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Goodrich		17⅛	16½	17⅝	+1
Goodrich pf	5	50½	48⅛	50½	+3½
Goodyear T	.25e	22⅝	21⅞	22⅛	+1¼
Goodyear&pf	5.	85	84⅛	85	+1
Gotham Silk		3⅜	3⅜	3⅜
GrahamPaige		1⅛	1	1
Granby M et		4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
Grand Union		1½	1½	1½
Grand Un pf	.25	12⅜	12⅜	12⅜	0
Gran Cit Stl	.13e	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛	+ ⅛
Grant W T	1.20e	23½	23⅛	23½	+ ½
Grant WT pf	1.	22	22	22
Grt Nor Ore	.75e	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝	0
Gt North pf	2.a	20⅝	19⅞	20⅝	+ ⅝
Grt W Sug	2.40e	27⅞	27⅞	27⅞	0
Green H L	1.60e	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝	+ ⅛
Greyhound	.80e	11¼	10¼	11¼	+ ⅞
Greyhound pf	.55	8⅞	8	8⅛	+ ⅞
Guan Sug		21	21	21	0
Gulf Mo&No		5⅝	5⅝	5⅝	0
Gulf M&N pf	2.50g	19	19	19	0
Hack Wat	1.50g	27	27	27	-1
Hall Print		6¼	6¼	6¼
Hamilton Wt	.25e	17½	17¼	17⅜	0
Hat Walk	.25e	20⅜	20¼	20⅜	+ ½
Hat Corp Am	.20e	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜	0
Hayes Body		2	1⅞	1⅞	- ⅛
Haz A G	5.	92½	92½	92½	-1½
Hecker Pr	.90	6⅝	6½	6⅝	+ ⅜
Helme G W	5.a	94	94	94	0
Hercules Mo		12⅜	12⅜	12⅜	0
Hercules Pw	.40e	54	53	54	+2½
Hershey Choc	3	42⅛	42⅛	42⅛	0
Hershey C pf	4.a	85½	85½	85½	-2½
Hinde Dauche	2.	19	19	19	0
Holland Fur	1.e	24	22⅞	24	+2
Hollander A		8	8	8
Holly Sug	2.25e	18	18	18	0
HomestakeM	4.50	56½	56	56½	- ½
Houd Her A	2.50	21½	21½	21½	0
Hou Her B	1.50	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	+ ⅛
House F A	4.	51	51	51	0
House F pf	5.	88½	88½	[illegible]	0
Houston Oil		7⅜	7½	7⅞	+ ¼
How Sound	3.a	47½	45½	47½	+2
Hudson&Man		2	2	2	0
Hud&Man pf		5	5	5	0
Hudson Mtr	.25	7⅞	7⅛	7⅞	+ ⅜
Hupp Motor		1⅛	1	1⅛	+ ⅛
Ill Cent		10¼	9½	10¼	+ ⅛
Ill Cen pf		16	16	16	0
Indian Refin	.15g	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	0
Ind Rayon	.25e	18⅞	18½	18⅞	+ ⅛
Ingers Rand	1.50e	72	70	70	0
Inland Steel	4	71½	69	71	+3
Inspiration C		13⅛	12⅞	13⅛	+ ⅜
Insur M	.20	4	4	4
InterboroRT		5	5	5
Interchem	2.	20	19½	19½	- ½
Intercon Rub		3⅛	3½	3⅛	+ ⅜
InterlakeIron	.65e	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛	+ ⅜
Int Agric Cp		2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	+ ⅛
IntAgr pr pf	3.g	23	23	23	+ ½
Int Bus Mch	6.a	147	147	147	+2
Int Har	2.50	66	62⅝	65⅝	+3½
Int Harv pf	7	141	141	141	0
IntHydro ElA		5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ½
Int Mer Mar		3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	0
Int Mining	.15e	9⅜	9¼	9⅜	+ ¼
Int Nickel	.50e	50⅛	48⅝	50⅛	+1⅝
Int Nickel pf	7.	135	135	135	0
IntPap&P a		7⅝	7⅝	7⅝	+ ⅝
IntP&P pf a		32⅛	30⅝	32	+1⅛
Int Salt	1.50a	21	21	21	0
Inter Shoe	2	32½	32½	32½	0
Inter Silver		18⅛	17¼	17¼	0
Int T&T dom		7⅞	7⅛	7⅞	+ ⅜
InterT&T for		7⅞	7⅛	7⅞	+ ⅜
Inters DStrs	2.75e	9⅝	9½	9⅝	+ ¼
Intertype	.80e	11	11	11	0
Isl Crk Coal	2.	21	21	21
Jewel Tea	4.a	52½	52½	52½
J Manville		75⅜	73⅜	75½	+2½
Kalmzoo S	.25e	16½	16½	16½
Kan City So		8	8	8	+ ⅛
Kan C pf	1.50g	18⅜	18⅜	18⅜	+ ½
Kaufm D S	.40e	15¼	15¼	15¼	- ⅛
Kayser J	.25e	12⅛	12⅛	12⅛	0
Kelsey-Hay A		8	8	8	+ ¼
KelseyHay B		4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	0
Kenn'cott	.25e	38¼	37	38	+1
Keyst S W		8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	+ ⅜
Kimby Cl'k	1.a	22½	22¼	22½	+ ⅜
Kinney Co		1⅞	1⅞	1⅞	0
Kresge SS	.30e	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	+ ⅜
KresgeDStr		5⅜	5⅜	5⅜	0
Kress(n)	1.60	25	25	25
Kroger Groc	1.60	14½	14½	14½	- ⅛
Lambert	.75e	11	11	11	- ⅛
Lane Bryant	.50g	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜	0
Lee Rub	.25e	13½	13	13½	+1¼
LehPCement	.25e	16	16	16	0
LehighValC		⅝	⅝	⅝
Leh Val C pf		3¼	3	3	0
Leh Val RR		5¼	5⅛	5¼	+ ⅛
Lehman	1.	25¼	24	25¼	+1¼
Lehn Fink	.30e	9	9	9	+ ⅛
Lerner S	2	25½	25¼	25¼	+ ¼
L O F Glass	.75e	33¼	32	33	+1
Lib McN Lib	1.40g	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜	0
Life Savers	1.60	26½	26½	26½	0
Ligg My	4.a	86	86	86
Ligg My B	4.a	90	89½	90	+1
Ligg My pf	7.	165	165	165	+1
Lily Tu Cup	1.50	17½	17½	17½	+ ½
Lima Loco	2.50e	29	27¼	29	+3⅜
Link Belt	2.	41	41	41	+1
Liq Carb	.60e	16⅛	16⅛	16⅛	- ⅛
Loew's	.75e	47⅛	45⅝	47¼	+2¼
Loft Inc		1¼	1¼	1¼	+ ⅛
Lone S Cem	3.	35⅝	34	35⅝	+2⅛
LongBellLA		3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	0
Loose-Wiles	.30e	70⅛	17⅜	71⅝	0
Lorillard	1.20	16¼	16	16	- ⅛
Lou Nash	2.50e	45⅛	45⅜	45⅜	+ ¼
Lou Gas A	1.50	15½	15½	15½	+ ½
Ludlum Stl	.25e	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	+ ⅜
Mack Truck	1.	20½	20½	20½	+ ½
Macy & Co	2.	30	30	30	+ ⅜
Mad Sq Gar	.20e	12	12	12	+ ⅜
Magma Cop'r	.35e	26⅜	26	26⅜	0
Mandel Bros	.75e	7	7	7	0
Manh & gld		6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	0
Manh Shirt	1.	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛	0
Marac'boOil		1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	- ⅛
Marine Mid	.40	6¼	6¼	6¼
Marlin Rk	4.75g	28	28	28	0
Marshall Fld		8	8	8
Martin G L		18½	17½	18½	+1
Martin Parry		3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	+ ⅛
Masonite	1.	32⅜	32⅜	32⅜	+1½
Math Alk	1.50	27½	26	26	0
May D S	3.a	38	38	38	+1
Maytag O	.50.g	4⅛	4⅜	4⅞
May pf ww	3	20	20	20	-1½
McCall Corp	1.50	11⅞	11⅞	11⅞	- ⅛
McCrory	.50g	8	8	8
McCrory pf	6.	74	74	74	0
McGraw E	1.	15	14⅜	14⅜	+ ⅜
McGraw Hill	.15e	8⅛	8⅜	8⅜	0
McIn P Mine	2.	39½	39	39	- ⅜
McKee T P		19⅜	18⅜	19⅜	+1¼
McKeon & R	.4	7⅛	6⅞	7⅛	+ ⅛

	Div.	High	Low	Close	Chg.
McKeon R pf	3	33	32⅝	33	+ ⅛
McLellan S	.40e	7	6⅝	7	+ ⅜
Mead Co		11½	11½	11½	0
Mead Co pfB	5.50	52	52	52	0
Mel Shoe	1.e	43⅜	43¼	43¼	+ ⅜
Mengel Co		4¼	4¼	4¼	+ ⅜
Mesta M	2.e	38¼	38	38¼	0
Miami Cop	.15g	9⅜	9¼	9⅜	+ ⅜
Mid Cont Prl	1.50e	19	18¼	19	+1½
Mid Stl Prd	.50e	26	26	26	+1½
Minn H R C	3.	65⅞	64	66⅞	+2⅞
MinnMolPwr		6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	+ ⅛
MinnM Pw pf	6.50g	49	48⅞	48⅞	0
MSP & SSM		⅛	⅛	⅛	0
MSP SSM pf		⅞	⅞	⅞	0
Mission Corp	1.25g	14	14	14	+ ⅛
MrKan & T		2⅜	2½	2⅜	+ ⅛
Mo K T pf A		8⅛	7⅜	8⅛	+ ⅜
Missouri Pac		1⅜	1¼	1¼
Mo Pac pf		2	1⅞	1⅞	- ⅜
Mohawk Co	.25e	15	15	15	+ ⅛
Monsan	2.	86	83⅞	85½	+1½
Monsan pf	4.50	112½	112½	112½	0
Mont Ward	1.a	35⅞	34⅜	35⅞	+1½
Morrell Co		26	26	26	0
Mother Lode	.45e	½	⅜	⅜	- ⅛
Motor Pr		16¼	16	16¼	+ ⅜
Motor Wheel	.21e	11⅜	11¼	11⅜	+ ⅛
Mueller Bros	1.a	16⅛	15⅝	16⅛	+1
Mullins B		5⅝	5⅝	5⅝	+ ⅛
Mun'we'r	.25e	13½	12⅜	13½	0
Murphy G C	4.	45¼	45¼	45¼
Murray Corp	.25e	6	5⅜	6	+ ⅝
Myers Bros	.75e	43	43	43	0
Nash Kel	.13e	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
Nat Acme	1.g	12⅛	12	12⅛	+ ⅛
Nat Avia		8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	+ ⅛
Nat Bis't	.40e	20	19⅝	20	0
Nat Bis pf	7.	153	153	153	0
Nat B I	1.44	14	14	14	0
Nat B & S	.25e	41	41	41	+1½
Nat Cash RA	.25e	16	15⅜	16	+ ½
Nat Dairy	1.20	13⅝	13½	13⅝
Natl Dept Str		5½	5½	5½
Nat D Str pf		4⅜	4⅜	4⅜
Nat Distill	2.a	[illegible]	21¼	22¼	+ ⅜
NatEnn&St	3.g	16	16	16	0
Nat Gypsum		7¼	7	7¼	+ ⅜
Nat Lead	.50	22	21	22	+1
Nat L'd pf A	7.	158	158	158	0
Nat M Stl C		20	20	20	+1½
Nat Pow & L	.90	6⅛	6⅜	6⅛	+ ⅛
NatlRyM 1pf		½	⅜	½	0
Nat Sup 6pf	6.	27½	26⅞	27½	+1
Nat Sup 5½pf		79⅛	79⅛	79⅛	0
NatRyM 2pf		⅛	⅛	⅛	0
Nat Steel	2.50e	55⅜	54⅜	55⅜	+1⅛
Nat Supply		21½	20⅜	21½	+ ⅜
Nat Sup 2pf	2.	27	26⅞	27	+ ½
Nat Tea		4	3⅜	4	+ ½
Natomas	.80	9	9	9	- ¼
Neisner	2	20	20	20	0
Neisner pf	4.75	69	69	69	0
Newberry	2.40	36	39	36	0
Newport Ind	2.	16⅞	16¼	16⅞	+ ⅞
NY AirBrak	.25e	31	31	31
NY Central		16¼	15⅜	16	+ ⅛
NY C & S L		14½	14	14½	+ ⅞
NY C&StLP		22¼	21½	21⅝	+ ⅜
NY Omnibus	4.90	23½	23½	23½	+ ½
NY Investo		⅝	⅝	⅝
NY NH &H		2	2	2	0
NY NH&H pf		4⅛	4⅜	4⅛	0
NY Ont&Wt		1⅛	1	1	0
NY Shipbldg		7½	7½	7½
Norfolk & W	10.a	170	168	168	-2
Norfolk Sou		⅝	⅝	⅝	0
NorthAmAv	.12½e	8⅛	7⅞	8⅛	+ ½
North Amer	.30e	18⅜	17⅜	18⅜	+ ¼
North Am pf	3.	50	50	50
NorAm&E pf	6.	94	95	94	+1
Northern Pac		10⅝	10¼	10½	+ ⅛
Norwalk Tire		2¼	2⅛	2¼	+ ⅜
Ohio Oil	1.	13	12½	13	+ ½
Oliver Farms		31	29	31	+2
Omnibus Cp	1.60g	10⅝	10⅛	10⅝	+ ½
Oppen Collins	.50g	6¼	6	6	0
Otis Elevn	.15e	19⅝	19¼	19⅝	+ ⅜
Otis Steel		9⅜	9⅜	9⅜	+ ½
Otis Stl pf	5.50	46	46	46	0
Out'd M	.30	14	14	14	0
Owen Ill G	.25e	52	50½	51¼	+1½
Pac Am Fish	1.20	9⅜	9	9	0
Pan F Cp C	.30e	12	12	12	0
Pac Pac&El	2.	26	25¾	26
Pac Lighting	3.	36	35⅜	36
Pac Mills		13½	13½	13½	+ ⅜
Pac West Oil	.75g	12	12	12	+ ¼
Packard Mot	.25g	4⅜	4¼	4⅛
Pan-Am Pet	1.g	1⅜	1⅛	1⅛	0
Panhan P&R		1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	0
Paraffine Co	.25e	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	0
Param Pict		9⅜	8⅞	9⅜	+ ⅜
Param Pic pf	6	85	85	85	0
Para Pic 2pf	.60	9½	9⅛	9⅛
Park U C M	.15g	2½	2⅜	2⅜
Parke Davis	.90e	36½	36½	36½	+ ¼
Parker Ru-Prf	.50	18	18	18	0
Parmelee Tra		1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	0
Pathe Film		5⅜	5⅛	5⅜	+ ⅜
Patino Mines	2.g	11⅛	10⅜	11⅛	+ ⅜
Peerless Corp	.30e	5⅛	4⅜	4⅞	0
Penick Ford	.50e	44½	44½	44½	0
Penney	1.e	70	68	70	3½
PennC&C		2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
PennDixCem		4	3⅜	4	+ ⅛
PennDixC pf		19	19	19	0
Penn G Sand	1.e	14½	14½	14½	+ ½
Penn R R	1.25g	19⅝	19¼	19¼	+ ¼
People D	1.a	31	30	30	0
Peoples Gas	2.g	29	28¼	29	+1½
Peoria & East		4¼	3¼	3¼	0
Pere Marq		10	10	10	0
Pet Milk	1.	15	15	15	0
Petro Corp	1.27	11	10⅞	11	+ ½
Pfeiffer Br	.25e	6¼	6¼	6¼	+ ⅛
Phel Dodge	.10e	25⅝	24⅜	25½	+1⅜
Phil Co	3	36½	36½	36½	+1⅜
Phil Co pf	6.	64	62½	62½	0
Phila RC&I		½	½	½
Phil Morris	5.25e	88⅜	87½	88⅜	+ ½
Phillips Jones		5⅜	5½	5⅜	0
Phillips P	2.	37⅜	36⅜	37½	+1⅛
Phoenix Hos		2	1⅞	1⅞	0
Pierce Oil pf		6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	0
Pillsbury Fl	1.60	23	23	23	0
Pitts Coal		6	6	6	0
Pitts Coal pf		27	26	27	-3
Pitt CokeA Ir		6	5⅜	6	- ½
Pitts Scr&B	.66g	7⅛	7⅛	7¼	+ ⅛
Pitts Steel		11⅛	11½	11⅛	+ ⅛
Pitts T Coal		⅞	⅞	⅞	0
Pitt Unit Co		1	1½	1½	- ⅛
Pittston Co		½	½	½
Plym Oil	1.40	19¼	18⅞	19¼	+ ⅜
Pond Creek	2.g	10⅜	10½	10½	0
Poor & Co B		9¼	8⅞	8⅞	0
PortoRTob A		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	0
PortoRTob B		⅞	⅞	⅞	0
Postal T&C pf		3	3⅛	2⅞	- ⅛
Press Stl Car	.25e	8⅛	8	8⅛	+ ⅛
PressSCr 1pf	.25	8¼	8	8¼	+ ⅛
PressSCr 2pf	2.50	23⅛	23⅛	23⅛	0
Proc&Gam	2.	49	48½	49	+ ½
Pub Ser NJ	2.60	30½	29⅜	30½	+1
Pub Sv NJ pf	7	117½	117½	117½	0
Pub Sv NJ pf	6.	105	105	105
Pub Sv NJ pf	6.	93	93	93	0
PubSG&E pf	5	113	113	113	0
Pullman	1.50e	29⅜	28⅜	29⅜	+ ⅝
Pure Oil	.25g	12	11⅜	11⅜	+ ⅜
Pure Oil 6pf	6.	85	85	85	0
Purity Bak	.15e	8½	8½	8½
Quaker S Oil	1.	14½	14¼	14¼	0
Radio Corp	.20g	6⅝	6⅛	6⅝	+ ¼
Radio cv pf	3.50	48½	48	48½	+1⅛
Radio 1pf	5.	48½	48	48½	0
Radio Keith		3⅜	3¼	3⅜	+ ⅛
Raybestos	.38e	19⅝	19⅜	19⅝	0
Rayonier		13⅜	13⅜	13⅜	0
Rayonier pf	2.	24⅛	24⅛	24⅛	+ ⅜
Reading	2.	17½	17½	17½	0
Reading 1pf	2.	25	25	25	0
Reading 2pf	2.	24	24	24	0
Real S Hos		3½	3½	3½	0
Reis & Co		1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	- ⅛
Reis&Co pf		9	9	9	0
Reliable Strs	1.e	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜	- ⅜
Reliance Mfg	.60	10¼	10¼	10¼	-1
Rem.Rand	.50e	13½	13¼	13½	+ ¼
Rem R pf ww	4.50	67¼	66½	66½	0
Reo Motor		2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Repub Steel		17½	16⅞	17⅜	+ ⅜

	Div.	High	Low	Close	Chg.
Rep Steel pf	6.	54½	54½	54½	0
Rep Steel A	5.	58⅞	58⅞	58⅞	0
RevereC&B		13½	12⅜	13½	+1
Rev C&B A		24	24	24	0
Reynolds Met	.15e	16¼	16	16
Reynolds Sp	5.50	86	86	86	0
Reynolds Spr		6⅜	6⅜	6⅜
ReyldsTob B	1.20e	38⅞	38⅛	38⅞	+ ½
Rhine WElec		7¼	7¼	7¼	0
Richfield Oil	.25g	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	+ ⅛
Ritter Den	1.	10	10	10	+ ⅛
Ross Ant		17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	0
Ruberoid		18¼	17¼	18¼	+ ⅞
Rutland pf		22	22	22	0
Safeway Strs	.25e	18	18	18	+ ⅜
St Jos Lead	.25e	37⅞	35⅜	37⅞	+2⅜
St L S Fr		1⅛	1	1⅛	0
St L S Fr pf		2	2	2
Savage Arms		14¼	14¼	14¼	0
Schenley	3.	[illegible]	21⅜	21⅜	+ ⅜
Schenley pf	5.50	81	81	81	0
Schulte Strs		½	½	½
Schulte S pf		5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	0
Seaboard AL		⅝	⅝	⅝
SeabdAL pf		2	2	2	0
Seaboard O	1.	24½	23½	24½	+1½
Seagrave	.15g	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜	0
Sears Roeb	3.a	60½	58⅜	60⅜	+2⅛
Servel	1.	14¼	13⅜	14¼	+ ⅜
Sharon Steel	1.20	15	15	15	0
SharonStl pf	5.	55⅜	55⅜	55⅜	0
Sharp&Dom		4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
Sharp&D pf	3.50	45	45	45	0
Shattuck	.10e	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜	+ ½
Shell Un Oil	1.g	13⅛	13⅛	13⅛	- ¼
Shell Oil pf	5.50	99⅜	99⅜	99⅜	0
Silver King	.35e	7½	7¼	7½	+ ⅛
Simmons	2.25e	19	18	19	+1½
Simms Pet		2⅛	2⅜	2⅛	0
Simonds S&S	.20e	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	0
Skelly Oil	1.50g	26½	25⅝	26½	+1¼
Skelly Oil pf	6.	91	89	89	0
Smith A O		17¼	17¼	17¼	+ ⅜
Smith C Type	.25e	14	14	14	0
Snider Pack	.75e	11½	11½	11½	+ ⅜
Socony Vac	.50	14⅜	14	14⅜	+ ⅜
Solvay A pf	5.50	113	113	113	0
So Am Gold	.20g	2¼	2⅛	2¼	+ ⅛
So Por R S	2.	23⅜	23⅜	23⅜	+ ⅛
So Cal Ed	1.50a	21¼	21⅛	21¼	- ⅛
Southern Pac		16⅜	15⅜	16¼	+ ⅛
Southern Ry		10¼	10	10¼	+ ½
Sou Rwy pf		16⅛	15⅜	16⅛	+ ⅜
SRM&O ct	4.	28	28	28	0
Spalding		3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	- ⅜
Sparks With		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
Spear & Co	.50g	7½	7	7	0
Spen Kellog	1.60	24	24	24	0
Sperry	1.20g	20	19⅝	19⅝	+ ⅛
Spicer Mfg	1.20g	12	12	12	0
Spiegel	1.	10⅛	9⅝	10⅛	+ ⅜
Square D B	.15e	19½	18	19½	+2⅛
Stand Br	.60	7⅛	7⅜	7⅜	- ⅛
Stand Br pf	4.50	96½	95	95	0
Stan Com sub		2⅜	2½	2⅜
Stand Gas		3⅜	3½	3⅜	+ ¼
StandGas4pf		8½	7⅜	8½	⅜
StandGas6pf		19	18	18
StandGas7pf		21⅛	21	21	+ ⅜
Stand Invest		1	1	1	0
Stand Oil Cal	1.a	31⅛	30½	31⅛	+ ⅜
Std Oil Ind	1.	31⅛	30⅜	31⅛	+ ⅜
Std Oil Kan	5.g	35	34⅜	35	+ ½
Std Oil NJ	1.a	51½	49⅜	51⅛	+2
Starrett	3.50g	26½	23½	23½	-1½
Sterling Pd	3.80	58¼	58⅛	58¼
Stewart W	.50a	9	8⅞	9	+ ¼
Stokely		7⅜	7⅛	7⅜	0
Stone&Web		8½	7⅜	8½	+ ⅛
Studebaker		5¼	5⅛	5¼	+ ⅛
Sun Oil	1.a	52	52	52	0
Sunshine M	.60e	13½	13¼	13½	- ⅛
Superheater	.38e	25½	25	25½	+1⅛
Superior Oil		2⅜	2⅛	2⅜	+ ⅛
Superior Stl		13⅜	13⅜	13⅜	0
Suth'd Pa	1.60e	23	23	23
Sweets of Am		8½	8½	8½	0
Swift & Co	1.20	16½	16⅛	16½	+ ⅛
Swift Int	2.	23½	23¼	23½	0
Sym Go'ld ww	.25e	7⅝	7⅜	7⅝	+ ⅛
SymGould xw	.25e	6	6	6
Talcott J	.60	7	7	7
Telautogr'ph	.60	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜	0
Tenn Corp	.35g	6½	6⅛	6½	+ ½
Texas & Pac		20	18	18	0
Texas Corp	2.a	42	40¼	42	+1⅝
Tex G Prod	.10e	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	+ ⅛
Tex Gulf Su	.10e	32⅛	31⅜	32⅛	+1⅛
TexPacC&O	.40	8⅜	8⅜	8⅜	+ ⅜
Tex Pac Lt	.20e	9⅛	9	9⅛	+ ⅛
Thatcher M	.25e	23½	23½	23½	0
Thatch cv pf	3.60	58½	58½	58½	0
The Fair		3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	0
Thermoid		3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	●
Thermoid pf	3.	35	35	35	0
Third Avenue		1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	0
Thompson Co		5	5	5	0
Thomp Pd		11	11	10⅞	0
Thomp Star		2⅛	2¼	2⅛	- ¼
Thomp St pf		10⅛	10¼	10¼	0
Tide & Oil	1.	14	13⅞	13⅞	- ⅜
Tide A O pf	4.50	80⅜	80⅜	80⅜	0
Timken Det	1.50e	11⅛	11⅛	[illegible]	- ⅛
Tim R B	.25e	42⅛	41⅞	42⅛	+ ⅛
Transam	.75	10⅜	10	10⅛	+ ⅛
Trans W Air		6	6	6	+ ⅛
Transue W	.60e	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	0
Tri Cont	.20e	3⅛	3⅜	3⅜	+ ⅛
Tri Cont pf	6.	82⅛	82⅛	82⅛	0
Truax T Coal	.80	5	5	5	0
Truscon Stl		8⅛	8⅛	8⅜	0
T Cen Fox	.50e	22⅛	21⅞	22⅛	+ ⅛
T C Fox pf	1.50	28½	28½	28½	+ ⅜
Twin City RT		4	4	4	0
Ulen & Co		1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	0
Under E F	1.e	52½	52½	52½	0
Un B & P	.13e	10	010	10	+ ⅛
Un Carb	1.60e	76⅛	74½	75⅜	+1⅝
Un Oil of Cal	1.20	20½	20¼	20½	+ ⅜
Union Pac	3.a	72	71⅛	71⅜	- ½
Union Pac pf	4	76½	76½	76½	0
Union Tank	1.60	22	22	22	0
United Air L		7⅜	7½	7⅜	+ ⅜
Utd Aircraft	1.g	25⅛	24⅜	25⅛	+1⅛
Unit A Bosh		10¼	10¼	10¼	0
Unit Bis	.40e	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	0
Unit Carb	4	47	47	47	0
Unit Carr	.30e	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	0
Unit Corp	.20a	2⅛	2⅜	2⅛	+ ⅛
Unit Corp pf	3.	28⅛	27⅞	28⅛	+ ⅜
United Drug	.50a	6⅛	6	6⅛	0
United Dyw		7⅛	7¼	7⅛	+ ⅛
Unit El Coal		4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
United E&F	.60e	30⅜	30⅛	30⅜	0
United Fruit	3.a	61	60⅝	61	+ ⅜
Unl G&Imp	1.	10	10	10	+ ⅛
Utd&Imp pf	5.	100	100	100	0
Unit Pap Brd	.30g	4½	4¼	4¼	0
US&For Sec		6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	0
US&ForS pf	6.	74	74	74	0
US Distrib		1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	0
US Freight		9⅛	9⅛	9⅛	+ ⅛
US Gyps	2.a	64⅛	62⅛	64⅛	+2⅛
US Hoffman		7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	+1⅛
US Hoff pf	2.75	33⅛	33⅛	33⅛	0
US Ind Alc		18	18	18	+ ½
U S Leather		5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
US Leather A		8⅛	8	8	+ ⅛
US Leather pf	1.75v	65	65	65	0
US Pipe & F	2.	28⅜	27⅛	28⅜	+1⅛
US Realty		4⅜	4⅜	4⅜	0
US Rubber		33⅛	31⅝	33⅛	+2⅛
US Rubber pf		80⅛	72⅛	80⅛	+8⅜
U S Smelt	1.e	70	68	70	+2
US Smelt pf	3.50	70½	67	67	0
US Steel		54⅜	52¼	54⅜	+1⅜
US Steel pf	7.	103⅛	103⅛	103½	0
Utd Stockyds	.50	4½	4½	4½	0
Unit Strs A		1⅛	1⅜	1⅛	0
Unit Strs pf	6.g	40	40	40	0
United Tob		32⅛	32⅛	32⅛	+ ⅛
[illegible]	1.	11	11	11	0
Unit Leaf	3.a	57⅜	57⅜	57⅜	0
Util Pr&L A		1	⅞	⅞	0
Vadsco Sales		⅝	⅝	⅝	●
V Raalte	.50e	19½	19½	19½	0
Vanadium	1.e	17⅜	17	17⅜	+1⅛
Vick	2.e	37	37	37	-1
Va Car Chem		4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
Va Car C pf	1.50a	26	25½	26	+1
Va Rys pf	6.	120	120	120	0
Wabash	a	1⅜	1⅛	1⅛	- ⅛
Wabash A		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	0
Waldorf	1.e	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	0

Recovery Trends Dominate Market

Strength Was Confined To Specialties

NEW YORK, March 15—Quiet recovery trends predominated in today's stock market, although actual strength was confined principally to a handful of specialties.

Light profit selling pushed the list back slightly in early dealings, but this was absorbed without any noticeable unsettlement. Gains running to a point or so were widely distributed near the fourth hour. Volume, while relatively small, was somewhat larger than yesterday.

The European picture held most attention in boardrooms, but business news came in for a little more attention as indications of at least seasonal betterment were detected.

Secondary rail bonds extended Monday's advance, but mixed tendencies appeared in other departments. Foreign loans again pointed lower. Grains rallied while other commodities were uneven. The flight of European funds into dollars continued and foreign currencies generally were lower. Overseas securities markets dipped.

Forward leanings were exhibited by shares of U. S. Rubber common and preferred, Goodyear, Goodrich, Anaconda, Kennecott, American Smelting, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Crucible, Chrysler General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, United Aircraft, Westinghouse, du Pont, Standard Oil of N. J. Texas Corp., Sears Roebuck, J. I. Case, International Harvester, Deere, General Electric and General Foods.

Individual issues were buoyed by pleasing 1937 earnings statements. Among these were Allis Chalmers, International Nickel, National Cash Register, Columbian Carbon and General Transportation.

On the other hand Western Union gave ground as the company's report for January disclosed a fall of 14.7 per cent in gross from the first 1937 month.

Aiding coppers was a boost in the scrap metal price and heavier demand from abroad. The export rate was lifted slightly. Russian purchases were thought to have been a factor.

Rubber company shares were said to have reflected speculative and investment accumulation, although February consumption of this staple registered a sizable decline from January and was less than half the total in the previous February.

Such selling presure as existed on account of income tax payments ended today.

Wall Street watched closely tax revision developments in the Senate and hopes were still high that the measure would be tailored along the lines desired by the financial district.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Harriman Appointed

WASHINGTON, March 15 (INS)—Federal Reserve System governors today announced the appointment of Henry I. Harriman of Boston, as a Class "C" director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston to serve the unexpired portion of term ending December 31, 1940.

	Div.	High	Low	Close	Chg.
Walgreen	2.	19⅛	18⅝	19⅛	+ ⅝
Walgreen pf	4.50	80	79¾	80	0
Walker GW	4	39	39	39	- ½
WalkerGWpf	1.	19	19	19	- ⅛
Walworth Co	1.e	7⅜	7⅜	7⅜	+ ¼
Ward Bak A		12½	12½	12½	+ ⅛
Ward Bak B		2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	- ⅛
Ward Bak pf	4.25e	37⅛	37⅛	37⅛	0
Warner Pict		5⅜	5⅛	5⅜	+ ¼
Warren Bros	a	3⅛	3	3⅛	+ ⅛
War'n B cv pfs		11½	11	11½	0
Warr P&F	2.	23	22⅛	23	+1
Wash Motor	1.	14½	14½	14½	+ ⅝
Wayne Pump	2.	25½	25⅛	25½	+1⅛
Webster-Eisen		2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	0
Wesson Oil	.65e	33	33	33	0
Wesson O pf	4.	75	74	75	0
West Auto S	1.60	16⅝	16½	16⅝	- ⅛
W Maryland		3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	0
West M 1pf		6⅛	6	6	0
West Pacific		1	1	1	0
West Pac pf		2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	+ ⅛
West Union		24	23	24	- ⅛
Westhse AB	1.	23⅛	22⅜	23	+ ⅛
Westhse Elec	1.e	93½	91	93½	+2⅜
Westvaco	1	13½	13½	13½	0
Westvaco pf	1.50	26¼	26	26	0
Wheeling Stl		21⅜	21	21⅜	+1
Wheel'g St pf	6.	90	88½	88½	0
White Dental	1.20	14	14	14	0
White Motor		9⅜	9¼	9⅜	+ ½
White Rock	1.40	9⅜	9⅜	9⅜	0
WhiteSMach		1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
White S M pf		14½	14½	14½
Wilcox O&G		2½	2⅜	2⅜	0
Willys Overl'd		2½	2⅜	2½	+ ⅛
WillysO'r'd p	.60	5⅛	5¼	5⅛	+ ⅛
Wilson		4¼	4⅛	4¼	+ ⅛
Wilson Co 6pf	6.	45¼	45¼	45¼	-1⅝
Wood'd Iron		15⅜	15	15⅜	+1⅛
Woolworth	2.40	42½	41⅜	42½	+ ⅜
Worth Pump		18⅜	17⅜	18½	+1⅛
WorthPumpB		32⅜	32½	32⅜	+2⅜
Worth cv pf	4.50	41¼	40½	41¼	+3¼
Wrigley	3.e	69	69	69	+ ½
Yale-Towne	.60e	26½	26½	26½
Yellow Truck		14⅛	13¼	14⅛	+ ⅝
Young S W		15⅛	15⅛	15⅛	0
Young S&T		37½	36⅜	37½	+1⅜
YngS&T pf	5.50	73	71⅝	71⅝	0
Young Stl Dr	.75e	16⅛	16	16⅛	0
Zenith Radio		14⅜	14⅜	14⅜	+ ⅝
Zonite Prod		4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
Call Money		1	1	1

Last Sale on Tape at 3:05

Today's Sales 650,000

Rates of dividends in the foregoing table are annual disbursements based on the last quarterly or semi-annual declaration. Unless otherwise noted, special or extra dividends are not included.

Black circle at end of line indicates the stock not traded in today. xdEx dividend. xrEx-rights. aAlso extra or extras. b1-10 share of $2 preference stock. d1-20 share of $3 preference stock. eDeclared or paid so far this year. fPayable in stock. gPaid last year. hCash or stock. kAccumulated dividend paid or declared this year.

O'Mahoney Bill Denounced by Industrialists

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—A representative of Illinois industry denounced the Borah-O'Mahoney industrial licensing bill today as being a "remedy worse than the disease."

John Harrington, counsel for the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, made the assertion at Senate judiciary sub-committee hearings on the bill.

FRIGHTENED BY BILL

The witness said Illinois industry was "frightened by the bill," not because it was directed at monopoly or specified trade practices, but "because of the bureaucratic regulation of all business which it imposes."

He added that "even if political influence could be eradicated, our objections would remain."

Under the bill, Harrington declared, "the regulation of the production and distribution of commodities is placed in the hands of a government agency to bring about redistribution of economic wealth and power."

The bill would require most corporations engaged in interstate business and some others to obtain a federal license, revocable for certain trade practice violations.

MISCONCEIVED PURPOSE

Senator O'Mahoney (D.) of Wyoming, co-author of the legislation, told Harrington he had "misconceived the entire tenor and purpose of this bill."

The intent of the legislation, O'Mahoney said, was that Congress, not a bureau, should fix conditions of doing business.

"You're seeing spooks where they don't exist" said O'Mahoney.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Chicago Curb Shuts Doors

Dissolves After 10 Years of Business

CHICAGO, March 15 (INS)—Created in 1928 during the stock boom, the Chicago Curb Exchange today shut its doors because of lack of business.

The exchange's 77 members voted to dissolve their market as both membership and trade constantly declined. Yesterday as traders marked time awaiting the end only 2570 shares changed hands. On the busiest day in the market's history—September 23, 1929—traders were almost swamped with transactions of 175,800 shares.

During the period of heavy trading, the value of memberships climbed to $19,500. The last sale was made at $350.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Endicott Awarded Army Contract

The Endicott Johnson Company of Endicott, N. Y., today was awarded a contract for 14,592 pairs of leather-laced boots for the United States army, costing approximately $55,000. Prices ranged from $3.765 to $4.41 a pair.

The Tyer Rubber Company of Andover, Mass., received a contract for 1600 pairs of rubber boots, costing approximately $5264.

The contracts were given the lowest bidders.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Industrial Rayon Omits Common

Directors of Industrial Rayon Corp. omitted the common dividend due at this time. They approved, effective March 15, a reduction of all salaries on a graduated scale from 5 per cent to 20 per cent. No reduction in wages is contemplated at this time.

Last year the company paid three dividends of 50 cents each and on January 3 this year a dividend of 25 cents.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Buick Production Rate Increased

NEW YORK, March 15 (INS)—Production rate of the Buick division of General Motors Corp. has been increased to four days a week. March production schedules call for over 16,000 cars against 11,800 last month.

The increased schedules will affect 12,300 employes heretofore on a 24-hour week.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Marlin-Rockwell

Marlin-Rockwell Corp. declared a dividend of 50 cents on the common, payable April 1 to stock of record March 24.

Boston Elevated Railway Company

The ANNUAL MEETING of the Company will be held in the Auditorium, No. 250 Stuart Street, Boston, on April 1, 1938, at twelve o'clock noon. Its stock transfer books will be closed from the close of business, Saturday, March 19, 1938, until the opening of business, Tuesday, April 5, 1938.

Charles B. Glasson
Clerk, Boston Elevated Railway Company

Trade Outlook Due to Show Upswing

Stimulus in Building Projects Expected Soon, Says Haney

By LEWIS HANEY

(Professor of Economics, New York University)

Special to the Boston American

NEW YORK, March 15—In general, it seems to me that we are very near to the time when it can be said that the bad news is out. More than that, it is probable that the best news is not yet recognized by most of us.

Accordingly, while conditions are much depressed at present, and the outlook for spring business is subnormal, we may hope that the worst is being seen. It is possible that we are touching bottom.

Certainly it would be hard to find a week when so much "bad news" came out as was the case last week. Even the statistics contained some disturbing items, such as the decline in machine tool orders. One is tempted to say something about the darkest hour coming before the dawn. It is more to the point, however, to note that sentiment is always bluest at the bottom.

This does not mean that we have hit bottom; but sentiment is blue enough to indicate that bottom is near.

• • •

Steel production shows signs of stabilization. Actually, some gains have appeared; but these are a part of the usual seasonal expectation, and therefore do not mean much. The demand remains low and the steel scrap market weak.

In this connection, the automobile industry remains disappointing, the increased output last week probably being no more than seasonal. Some success was met in moving used cars, but when it comes to selling new ones there can now be little good news before new models are shown.

The textile industries continue in the valley, though bottom is not far away. Last week demand declined as prices slipped. Unfinished cotton cloth sales lagged behind production, and the wool business flattened out.

• • •

On the other hand, the lumber manufacturing industry shows some continuous gain. In this case, unfilled orders have increased, as production has held below sales. This seems to have something to do with improvement in building prospects.

In fact, building permits gained last week in some sections. The most notable point, however, is the interest being shown in speculative building under the new liberal instalment plan of the FHA. Inquiries are reported to be numerous, and it is stated that mortgage money will be available. I am inclined to think that there is a real chance that by spring some stimulus will be given to large speculative housing projects.

Meanwhile, trade is extremely spotty, and on the whole depressed. Wholesale trade is a little better since it already begins to feel the delayed Easter business. Retail trade, aside from "sales" at cut prices, is backward.

Commodity prices averaged about unchanged, but a majority of items declined last week, notably zinc, tin, lard, and cotton.

• • •

Before long, however, the good news will be recognized as outweighing the statistics, which tell of water over the dam. This news is the complete defeat of the New Deal, as dramatized by the depression. There is no more abundant life than there was in 1933.

To cap the climax, there is the mess in TVA and the Guffey Coal Administration. The coal control has fizzled. If Congress investigates the TVA, as it should, we will learn the folly of turning our business affairs over to men like Senator Norris and other well-meaning politicians.

The Democratic party is, of course, split wide open. The move to form a labor party now seems to be limited by the split in organized labor, and the growing unpopularity of Communism. Congress has shown real independence in rejecting the New Deal tax measures, and we need fear no "government reorganization" or "wages and hours bill" that the present Senate will pass.

We are at last on the way—this time to a real boom.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

N. Y. Bank Stocks

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP)—(Investment Bankers Conf., Inc.).

Bank & Trust Div.	Bid	Asked
Bk of Am NTC (SF) (2.40)	42	44
Bk of Man (1⅕)	22½	24
Bankers Tr (2)	47½	49½
Bklyn Tr (4)	78	83
Cen Han Bk&Tr (4)	93	98
Chase Nat (1.40)	30	32
Chem Bk&Tr (1.80)	42½	44½
Commercial (8)	147	153
Cont Bk & Tr (.80)	12¼	13¾
Corn Ex Bk & Tr (3)	49	50
Empire Tr (1)	21½	22½
First Natl (100)	1720	1760
Guaranty Tr (12)	238	243
Irving Tr (.60)	12	13
Manufacturers Tr (2)	38	40
Manufac Tr pf (2)	49	51
National City (1)	24½	25½
N Y Trust (5)	92½	95½
Public (1½)	28½	29½
Title G&T	5⅝	6⅝

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

GOVERNMENTS

	High	Low	Last
Treasury 3⅜s 41	107.19	107.19	107.19
Treas 3⅜s 47-43	108.25	108.25	108.25
Treas 3⅜s 45-43	108.10	108.10	108.10
Treas 3¼s 46-44	108.8	108.8	108.8
Treas 4s 54-44	113.5	113.5	113.5
Treas 2¾s 47-45	104.21	104.20	104.21
Treas 2¾s 45	103.23	103.23	103.23
Treas 3s 48-46	106.1	106	106.1
Treas 3⅛s 49-46	106.28	106.24	106.28
Treas 4¼s 52-47	117.18	117.18	117.18
Treas 2⅞s 51-48	102.21	102.20	102.21
Treas 2¾s 53-49	100.9	100.9	100.9
Treas 2¾s 54-51	101.22	101.21	101.22
Treas 3s 55-51	104.21	104.20	104.20
Treas 2⅞s 60-55	102.19	102.13	102.18
Treas 2¾s 59-56	101.16	101.15	101.16
Fed Fm Mtg 3s 49-44	104.4	104.4	104.4
Home O Ln 2¾s 49-39	102.5	102.5	102.5
Home O L 2⅞s 44-42	102.4	102.4	102.4

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Dow-Jones Averages

Time	Industrials	Railroads	Utilities
11:00	125.32+1.58	26.52+.17	18.70+.02
12:00	125.57+1.59	26.30—.05	18.63—.05
1:00	125.79+2.11	26.35	18.63—.05
2:00	126.05+2.26	26.38+.03	18.84+.18

Pioneer Spirit in Texas Refreshing

Rukeyser Addresses Democratic Women's Club in Dallas

By MERRYLE STANLEY RUKEYSER

International News Service Financial Writer

DALLAS, Tex., March 15—It is refreshing at this time of temporary economic slump to sense the endurance of the American pioneer spirit here in Texas, one of the outstanding states from the standpoint of long-term growth.

In such a setting at luncheon today under the auspices of the Democratic Women's Club, this writer set forth the thesis that the American economic free enterprise system can still promote cultural and economic progress.

CORRECTIVE REACTION

Lest people be engulfed by the prevailing hysterical pessimism, it is important to remember that such corrective reactions as the one through which we are passing entail taking one step backward before taking two steps forward.

What is commonly described as a slump, a depression, or a recession is in reality an unbalancing of the internal economy, which blockades the efforts of producing groups to give employment to one another through freely interchanging the products of their hours of labor.

In spite of all the irrelevant comment of Marxians and other economic medicine men, we shall again go upward and onward in the United States as quickly as we restore our producing groups to balanced economic relationships with one another.

The price structure is temporarily in disequilibrium, with protected domestic prices out of line with international raw material prices. Either we shall restore balance deliberately through a processing tax or its equivalent which will bolster up shrinking farm purchasing power, or we shall take the longer and harder route of getting an equilibrium by permitting industrial wages and prices to sink gradually to the lower level of farm income.

My own forecast is that we are likely to take the former course, because it will be the least painful. It will establish a balance and with in consonance with the existing capitalization of business and with the prevailing tax structure. To stabilize on a substantially lower level would necessitate putting the thrifty people of the country through the financial wringer again.

Even in the unbalanced current situation, the true picture is distorted by propagandists. Dissenters from the American plan exaggerate the distress, speaking of the number of unemployed, without completing the national bookkeeping entry and making it clear that there are still nearly one and one-third persons employed on the average for every family in the country.

False comparisons are made with earlier depressions by persons who forget that an hour of labor at this time will buy vastly more goods than in earlier historic periods.

STATISTICIAN'S VIEW

A capable economic statistician, in dealing with this subject recently wrote me:

"There is no doubt that in this last depression there was much less starvation and rioting than in three previous depressions. I think that the figures of bank failures following 1837 were worse than in this depression.

"I have recently prepared some material showing that the divergence between the movement of sensitive and insensitive prices was at least as great following 1837 and 1873 as in this depression. The down trend certainly lasted longer on three previous occasions than this time, although it must be admitted that the up trend has been much slower this time. Perhaps that is because of government attempts to hasten it.

"It has been said that the frontier was settled by men who were unable to pay their notes at the banks and there is a good deal of truth in that. Nowadays they go on relief instead, but the living standards of those who are now on relief are higher than those of the majority of fully employed persons in this country in the 19th century."

New York Curb

	High	Low	2:00	Chg.
AE S/P MFR (⅛g)	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Agfa Ansco (⅛g)	30	30	30	+ ½
Ainsworth	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
Air Inv war	⅛	⅛	⅛	—1-16
Alum Co Am	78	77½	78	+2½
Alum Ltd	88	87½	88	+4
Am Airlines	11	11	11
Am Box Bd (.50g)	8½	8½	8½	— ½
Am Capital A	2	2	2	—1
Am Centrifugal	2⅝	2⅛	2⅝	+ ⅛
A CP&LAww(2½h)	22	22	22	— ⅛
Am Cyan B (.60)	23⅛	23	23⅛	+ ⅛
Am & F gn P war	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Am G&E (1.40)	24⅛	24⅛	24⅛	— ⅛
Am G&E pf (6)	110⅛	110⅛	110⅛	+ ⅛
Am Gen $2 pf (2)	24½	24½	24½	— ½
Am Inv Ill (1.60)	21⅛	21⅛	21⅛	+2⅛
Am Laun Mach (.80)	16½	16½	16½	+ ½
Am L&T (.30e)	12	12	12
Am Maracaibo	13-16	13-16	13-16	—1-16
Am Republics (.40g)	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	+ ⅛
Am Sup Power	⅛	⅛	⅛
Am Sup P pf	13	13	13	+ ½
Ang Wupp (.10e)	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	— ⅛
Apex Elec (.60g)	13	13	13	— ⅛
Arctur Rad Tube	5-16	5-16	5-16	—1-16
Ark Nat Gas A	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	+ ⅛
Ashland Oil & R (.40)	4	4	4
Asso G & El A	1	1	1
Asso G & El wt	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	+ ⅛
Atlas Corp war	15-16	15-16	15-16
Austin Silver M	⅛	⅛	⅛	—1-16
Babcock & Wil	85	79½	85	+4½
Baldwin Loco pf	15⅛	14⅛	15⅛	+1⅛
Baldwin Loco war	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	+ ⅛
Bardst'n Dis (.075g)	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Barium Sta Stl	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Bath Iron Wks 8pc	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
Bell Airc	13⅛	13⅛	13⅛	+ ⅛
Bellanca Airc (⅛g)	4	4	4
Bens & Hed pf (2½g)	19⅛	19⅛	19⅛	— ⅛
Ben & Hedges	6	6	6
Bliss (E W)	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
Bliss & Laugh (2a)	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛	+ ⅛
Blue Rid cv pf (3h)	36	36	36
Bowm Bilt H 2 pf	2	2	2
Breeze Corp (½g)	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	— ⅛
Brewster Aero (.05g)	4	4	4
Bridgpt Mach	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	+ ⅛
Brown Co pf	21⅛	21⅛	21⅛	—1⅛
Brown F&W (.60)	8	8	8
Brown Rubber (.60a)	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	+ ⅛
Bunk Hill & S	14	13⅛	14	+ ⅛
CARIB SYN (⅛g)	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Carrier Corp	28⅛	28⅛	28⅛	+1⅛
Casco Prod (1½e)	9⅛	9⅛	9⅛
Catalin Am	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	+ ⅛
Celluloid 1pf (7g)	64	64	64	+1
Cen & Sw Ut	⅛	⅛	⅛	— ⅛
Cen & Sw Ut	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
CenNY Pow pf (8)	84⅛	84⅛	84⅛	+1⅛
Cen St El	⅛	⅛	⅛
Chief Cons	⅛	⅛	⅛	— ⅛
Childs pf	32⅛	32⅛	32⅛	+ ⅛
Cities Service	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
City Auto Stpg	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
Claudde Neon Lts	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Colon Develop	3	3	3	+ ⅛
Colts Pat F (½e)	59	59	59	+1
Colum O&G (.40g)	4	3⅛	3⅛	— ⅛
Comwlth & Co war	⅛	⅛	⅛
Somm PW&LT 1 pf	22⅛	22⅛	22⅛	+1⅛
Comm Wat Svc	⅛	⅛	⅛	—1-16
Cons Biscuit (.10e)	4⅛	4	4⅛	+ ⅛
Cons Copp'min (⅛e)	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
Cons G&E B (3.60)	63⅛	63⅛	63⅛	+1⅛
Cons Mng & S (1a)	57⅛	57	57⅛	+1⅛
Cons Stl Corp	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
Cont G&E pr pf (7)	74	74	74	+2⅛
Cont Roll & Stl	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	+ ⅛
Cooper-Bess	7⅛	7	7⅛	+ ⅛
Creole Pet (⅛a)	24⅛	23⅛	24⅛	+1⅛
Crocker Wh (.10g)	6	6	6
Cust Mex	1-16	1-16	1-16
Dejay Strs (.40)	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	—1⅛
Derby Oil	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Domin St & Coal	13⅛	13⅛	13⅛	— ⅛
Draper Corp	58	58	58
Eagle Pich L	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛	+ ⅛
East G&F 6pc pf	27	27	27	27
East Wash MB	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
El Bond & Sh	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	+ ⅛
El Bond & Sh pf (6)	53	52	53	+1
El Bo&Sh $5 pf (5)	47½	47½	47½	+1½
El Pow As (.37g)	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
El Pow As A (.37g)	3	2⅛	3	+ ⅛
El P&L 2pf A	28½	28½	28½	+2½
Equity Corp	⅛	⅛	⅛	—1-16
Eureka Pipe	26	26	26	—4
Ex-Cell-o Corp	12⅛	12	12⅛	+ ⅛
Fairchild Av	3	3	3	+ ⅛
Falstaff Brew (1⅛g)	7½	7½	7½
Fansteel	5	5	5	+ ⅛
Ford M Ltd (.213g)	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
Glen Alden (⅛g)	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
Grand Nat Films	⅛	⅛	⅛
Gt All & Pac nv (1e)	47	46⅞	47	+ ⅛
Gulf Oil (⅛e)	39	39	39	+1⅛
Hearn Dept Strs	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
Hecla Min (10e)	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
Helden Chem (.17a)	35	35	35
Holling Gold (.65a)	13	13	13
Hud Bay M&S (1⅛g)	28	26½	28	+1⅛
Humble Oil (⅛e)	68	67½	67½	+ ½
Hygrade Fd	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Hygrade Sylv (1⅛e)	24	24	24	+2
ILL IOWA POW	3½	3½	3½	+ ⅛
Ill Iowa Pw div ct	5⅛	5	5⅛	+ ⅛
Ill Iowa Pow pf	17	16⅛	17	+ ⅛
Imp Oil Ltd (⅛t)	18⅛	18⅛	18⅛	— ⅛
Imp Tb Can (.32e)	14	14	14
Ind Svc $6 pf	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛
Ind Svc $7 pf	16	16	16	+ ½
Internat Pet (1½a)	35⅛	35⅛	35⅛	— ⅛
Inter Util pf	8½	8½	8½
Invest Roy	7-16	7-16	7-16
Iron Fire vtc (1.20d)	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛
Ital Superpow A	⅛	⅛	⅛

	High	Low	2:00	Chg.
Jacobs Co (2g)	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	— ⅛
Jer CP&L 5½pf(5½)	81	81	81	—1
Jones & Lau Stl	30⅛	28	30⅛	— ⅛
Kansas G&E pf (7)	107	107	107	+ ⅛
Kingston Prod	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	— ⅛
Kirby Pet	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	— ⅛
Lake Shore M (4a)	51⅛	50⅛	51⅛
Lefc Real pf	13	13	13	+ ⅛
Lehigh C&N (.30)	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	— ⅛
Lion Oil	21⅛	21⅛	21⅛	+ ⅛
Lit Bros	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	— ⅛
Lockheed Airc	8⅛	8	8⅛	+ ⅛
Lone Star Gas	8	8	8
Long Is L pf B(3)	32	32	32	+1⅛
Lucky Tiger	⅛	⅛	⅛
Majestic Rad & T	1	1	1
Marion St Shov	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	— ⅛
Massey Harris	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛
Memph N G (.60g)	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
Michigan G & O	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Monogram Pict	2	2	2	— ⅛
Mt City Cop (⅛g)	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	+ ⅛
Nat Container (1)	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	+ ⅛
Nat P&L pf (6)	51	51	51	+2
Nat Tunnel & Mines	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Nelson (H)	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
New Cal Ed pf	48⅛	48⅛	48⅛	— ⅛
NJ Zinc	62⅛	62⅛	62⅛	— ⅛
Newmount Min	62	57⅛	61⅛	+3⅛
NY Transit	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	— ⅛
Niag Hud Pow (.40g)	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	— ⅛
Niles-Bem-P	32⅛	32⅛	32⅛	— ⅛
Nor Am Lt & Pow	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
Nor Am Ut Sec	⅛	⅛	⅛
Nor St P A	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛	+ ⅛
No'west Eng (1⅛g)	11	10⅛	11	+ ⅛
OHIO OIL pf	107⅛	107⅛	107⅛	+ ⅛
Okla Nat Gas	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛
Okla Nat Gas pf	28	27⅛	28	+2⅛
PAC TIN spl	31	30	31	+3
Pan-Am Air (1⅛e)	15	15	15
Pantepec Oil	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	+ ⅛
Pennroad (⅛g)	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Pa Wat & P (2½e)	66	66	66	+1⅛
Pharis T & R	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
Pioneer Gold (.40)	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Pitney-Bowes (.10e)	6	6	6
Pitts & L E (6½g)	54	53⅛	54	+1
Pitts Pl Gl (⅛e)	77½	76	77½	+1½
Potrero Sugar	⅛	⅛	⅛	+ ⅛
Premier Gold	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Pressed Met	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛	— ⅛
Rwy Ltg Sec (⅛g)	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	— ⅛
Reliance E&E (⅛e)	10	10	10	— ⅛
Reynolds Inv	⅛	⅛	⅛
Rice StixD Gds(⅛g)	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛
Roosevelt Fd	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
RUSTLESS I & R	8	8	8	+ ⅛
SAF CAR H&L(10g)	76	76	76	—3½
St Regis Pap	3	3	3
Scovill Mfg (⅛e)	22½	22½	22½	+ ⅛
Segal Lock	1	1	1
Seiberling Rub	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Sel In pr pf (5½)xd	57⅛	57⅛	57⅛	+ ⅛
Seversky Airc	2	1⅛	2	+ ⅛
Sherwin-Wms (4)	87½	87⅛	87½	+ ⅛
Simmons Har & P	2	2	2
Sonotone (⅛g)	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
Sou Union Gas	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Stand Inv pf (1.50)	10⅛	10⅛	10⅛	+1⅛
St Oil Ky (1)	17	17	17	+ ⅛
St P&L	1⅛	1	1⅛	+ ⅛
Stand Prod	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	+ ⅛
Stand-Stl Lead	⅛	⅛	⅛	—1-16
Starrett Corp vtc	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
Starl Alum Pr (1.20g)	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
Sullivan Mach	10	10	10
Sunray Oil (⅛g)	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Taylor (K) Dist	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
Technicolor (⅛g)	19⅛	19⅛	19⅛	+ ⅛
Tech-Hugh G	5	5	5
Texon Oil	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	— ⅛
Transwest Oil	6	5⅛	6	+ ⅛
Tubize Chat	8	8	8
Tubize Chat a	29	29	29	—1
United Airc war	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	+1
Unit Cig-Wh Strs	9-16	½	½	—1-16
United Gas	4⅛	3⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
United Gas war	⅛	⅛	⅛	— ⅛
Utted Lt & Pw A	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	+ ⅛
Unit Lt & Pw cv pf	23	21⅛	23	+2
Unit Shipyds A	6⅛	6⅛	6⅛	+ ⅛
Unit Shipyds B	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
Unit Sh M pf (1½)	40	40	40	+ ⅛
U S Foil B (.56g)	5½	5½	5½	— ⅛
U S Stores	⅛	⅛	⅛
Un Wall Pap (.15g)	2	2	2
Utah Idaho S (.17g)	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	— ⅛
Util Pow&Lt	⅛	⅛	⅛
Util & Ind pf	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
Util Equit pf	40	38	40	+2
Valspar Corp	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛
Venezuel Pet	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
Wagner Bak (1.60)	8	8	8	—1
Walker Min (.05g)	2	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
Wil-Low Caf pf	1	⅛	⅛
Wright-Harg (.40a)	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	— ⅛

xdEx dividend. xrEx-rights. aAlso extra or extras. eDeclared or paid so far this year. fPayable in stock. gPaid last year. hCash or stock. kAccumulated dividend paid or declared this year. urUnder rule. wwWith warrants. xwWithout warrants. warWarrants.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Bank Statement

Boston balance	$14,000,000
Boston clearance	32,000,000

Crying Towels Abounding in Wall St.

Nothing But Bad News Recounted, Says Forbes

By B. C. FORBES

Crying towels are the only thing in demand in Wall Street. The whole atmosphere is deep indigo.

Everybody nervously points out that stocks are dangerously near their lowest level of the bear market, that railway bonds are worth less than at any time in five years. And the doleful warning is added that, if improvement does not quickly set in, there is no telling how far down the stock market may plunge.

Nothing but bad news is recounted. The Whitney scandal, Hitler's defiant absorption of Austria, the chaotic conditions in France, the plight of Britain, the Russian turmoil, the apprehension over Czechoslovakia, the violent fluctuations in foreign exchanges—all these are mournfully related and commented on.

President Roosevelt, the visitor to Wall Street is told, has not softened his attitude towards business one iota; the railway rate increase is quite inadequate to bolster up various roads tottering on the brink of bankruptcy; no adequate tax revision is within sight; the whole utility outlook is still enveloped in dark clouds; federal debts keep on soaring.

COMMODITIES WOBBLY

The depression—not recession—it is pointed out, has not begun to lift. Most commodities are wobbly. Investors are frightened. New capital-raising is practically impossible. Relief rolls continue to expand and expand. Business failures are increasing.

Labor troubles are pictured as looming. Railway unions are certain to fight proposed wage reductions. Automobile companies, if they seek to readjust wage scales, will encounter bitter opposition, with possible disruptive consequences.

First-quarter corporation reports, 'tis emphasized, will make painful reading. Dividend reductions and omissions thus far are but a mild foretaste of what Wall Street is certain will come next quarter. The effect upon securities is limned in very darkest colors.

Throw into the foregoing mixture war in Europe—and see what a kettle of fish awaits frying!

The other day Bernard M. Baruch, notably successful stock speculator, reiterated Wall Street's familiar adage, "The crowd is always wrong."

That "the crowd" in the financial world is unqualifiedly bearish at this moment cannot be disputed.

In this there may be hope.

I have had the temerity to buy both bonds selling at very heavy discounts and some stocks, and am preparing to acquire a few more if quotations sink lower.

CHANGE IN SENTIMENT

The change in public sentiment and the change in the attitude of Congress towards New Deal proposals calculated to aggravate depression and unemployment make me hopeful that America is not going to the bow-wows, that real recovery will by and by reappear.

Here is the prescription propounded by Dr. Louis E. Bisch, eminent psychiatrist and counselor to various corporations:

"Stop passing the buck.

"Conquer your inferiority.

"Rout fear.

"Declare a moratorium on conferences.

"Listen to new ideas.

"Delegate authority.

"Stop imitating.

"Don't talk so much, but do something.

"Remember, a leader always is in front!"

The call today is for constructive leaders.

(Copyright, 1938, by B. C. Forbes)

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Inactive Issues

	High	Low	Last	Chg
AM BK N pf (3)	54	54	54	+ ½
Am News	28	25⅝	28
Am Ship Bldg	28½	28	28½	+1½
BUSH T BLD pf ct	14½	14½	14½	— ½
Byers pf (2¼k)	30½	30½	30	+ ½
CITY INVEST (1e)	85½	85½	85½
CCC&St L pf (5)	111½	111½	111½	— ½
Col & Sou	8½	8	8½	+ ½
Col & Sou 1st pf	9	9		— ½
Corn Exchange (3)	49½	49½	49½	— ½
DEVOE & RAC A	31	31	31	+ ½
Duq Lgt 1st pf (5)	115½	114	115½	—1½
ENDI-JOHN pf (5)	105	105	105	+2
FAIRBANKS CO	1½	1	1½	+ ½
Food Mach pf (1½)	95	95	95
GEN ST CAST pf	23½	23	23½	+1½
HERCUC P pf (6)	130	130	130
INTERCH CP pf (8)	84	84	84	—1
Int Ry C Am	3½	3½	3½	— ½
JOHN-MAN pf (7)	125½	125½	125½
Jones & L Stl pf	81½	81½	81½	— ½
KINN pr pf (1½g)	14½	14½	14½
LACLEDE GAS pf	21	19½	21	+1½
MARKET ST RC	½	½	½	+ ½
Mark St Ry pr pf	12½	12½	12½
Mark St Ry 2 pf	1½	1½	1½
Morris&Essex (3½)	34	34	34	+1½
Murphy pf (5)	102½	102½	102½
NA DAI P pf B (7)	107½	107	107	— ½
Nat Lead pf B (6)	133	133	133	+1
N Y Dock pf	9½	9	9½	+ ½
PAC COAST	4½	4½	4½	+ ½
Pac T & T	110	110	110
Phoenix H pf (3½)	35	34½	35	+2
Procter & G pf (5)	120	119½	120	+1½
REV C&B pf (7)	81	81	81
SCOTT PAPER	38½	38½	38½
Sloss-S St&I (1½g)	64	61	64	+3
Spiegel pf (4½)	58	58	58	+1
Sun Oil pf (6)	124	124	124
US GYPSUM pf (7)	165	165	165	—3
US Tob pf new	41½	41½	41½
VAN RAAL 1 pf (7)	99	99	99
Va E&P $6 pf (6)	109½	109½	109½	+ ½
Vulcan Detin (8g)	53	53	53
W PEN E 7pc pf (7)	94½	94½	94½	+ ½
W Pen P 6pc pf (6)	115	115	115

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Boston Bank Stocks

	Annual div.	Mar. 15 Bid	Asked	Prev. closing bid
Bos S Dep & Tr*	$a16	290	..	290
First National	2	38⅜	40⅜	38⅜
Merchants	12	380	..	380
National Rockland	2	59	..	59
National Shawmut	1	21¼	23¼	21¼
New Eng Trust*	a30	400	..	400
Pilgrim Trust	8	165	..	165
Second National	4	135	..	135
State Street Tr*	8	262	..	262
U S Trust	.50	11½	..	11½
U S Trust pfd	.80	15	..	15
Webster & Atlas	2	35	39	35
First Bost Corp	b.50	14¼	15½	14¼

aIncluding extra. *Stock to be sold must first be offered to directors of bank. bPaid in 1937.

Nominate Gay, Simmons as Governors

Suggested by 400 Members at First Meeting

NEW YORK, March 16 (INS)—In the face of frank opposition, Charles R. Gay, president, and E. H. Simmons, former president, were named in the list of 113 suggestions for the new governing committee of the N. Y. Stock Exchange published today by the nominating committee after its first meeting.

They were among the score or more of present governors suggested by the more than 400 members and partners who attended the meeting. Open opposition was expressed by many members there against the inclusion of any of the present governors in the new regime which has the job of selecting a paid president and putting into effect the new constitution.

The case of Richard Whitney was cited by attending members as reason for excluding any of the "old guard" from the new administration. This case was also recognized as the reason for the extraordinary attendance at the meeting with the nominating committee, whose sessions in other years had been attending by from 10 to 25 members.

Sixty-four names were suggested for the 15 governors who under the new constitution shall be New York members of the exchange. Thirty-one for governors who shall be non-member partners in New York, and 18 for governors who shall be members or partners of the exchange whose business is out-of-town.

-STIMULATE PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT-

Greif Bros.

Greif Bros. Cooperage Corp. declared a dividend of 40 cents on Class A payable April 1 to stock of record March 22.

THE BRIGHTER SIDE

By DAMON RUNYON

Copyright, 1938, by King Features Syndicate, Inc. International Copyright and All Other Rights Reserved

Damon Runyon

NEW YORK, March 14—"The Eye" is the terror of gentlemen of larcenous inclination around most of the race tracks of the land. "The Eye" is always peering at them with baleful gleam on the courses of New York state, of Florida, of Maryland, and of New England and California.

This peering of "The Eye" has been known to unsettle some ordinarily quite steady nerves. It is recorded that gentlemen who have never been known to flick a tendon under the most trying circumstances have broken track records on suddenly discovering "The Eye" upon them.

"The Eye" is the Pinkerton man. The term is both plural and singular with the lads around the race tracks. Individually or collectively, the Pinkertons are invariably referred to by the lads as "The Eye." It is a nickname that goes back many years. It used to be a sort of a trademark of the organization.

Officially, "The Eye" is the Pinkerton National Detective Agency, Inc., and it is going into its 88th year, which makes it the oldest private detective agency in the United States, if not in the world.

FINE MOVIE MATERIAL

We have often wondered why "The Eye" has not been cinemortalized by Mr. De Mille, or Mr. Lloyd, or one of those other movie directors who fancy the historic and the picturesque. Back down the years "The Eye" was mixed up in some mighty thrilling incidents of American history, including wars.

We have a vague recollection of some mighty lurid dime novels about the old time Pinkertons. They were something like the G-men of today. They were always hounding safe crackers, and counterfeiters, and other uncouth characters.

They were the foremost thief catchers of their time, and were nearly always called in on big criminal cases.

As the police facilities of states and cities improved, "The Eye" necessarily began restricting the scope of its operations, and today it is probably not as big, and certainly not as prominent as it used to be, yet its work around the racetracks today is of an importance that is little understood and appreciated.

PROTECTS RACE FANS

In theory, and to a great extent in fact, "The Eye" is the protector from racing Scallawaggery of millions of racing followers.

It is the function of "The Eye" to keep undesirables away from the racetracks, and to watch the stables, and to investigate dopings, spongings, jockey and trainer manipulations, if any, and all other racing hocus pocus.

It was "The Eye" that was responsible for exposing the "ringer ring" when a certain Mr. Barry was running horses that were not the steeds they were supposed to be a few years ago, to the great detriment of racing integrity.

"The Eye" is employed by the City of Miami Beach to augment the policing of that town during the winter season. Some of the members of "The Eye" are sworn in as regular policemen and have full powers of arrest, though in general "The Eye" does not seek this power outside the race tracks.

It co-operates with all local authorities. Some of the race track men are uniformed as special policemen, but the more effective work of "The Eye" is performed by a crew of thoroughly experienced men under the leadership of a short, blocky built, pleasant looking chap named Eddie Grogan.

He is in command of all the race track operations of "The Eye," with an extremely able assistant named George Kallman. Grogan has been with "The Eye" 35 years.

It is Grogan's men who cause the larcenizts to leap the fences. They are always on the move through the racing crowds, or posted where they can watch humanity in gobs.

They are quietly dressed men, inconspicuous in appearance and manner, and they all have a wide acquaintance with faces. They are apt to know exactly who every man is that shows up on a race track with any regularity, and what he does.

They watch for "whiz mobs," or pickpockets, and endeavor to keep the gentle art of touting down to a minimum, though it must be said for "The Eye" that they accept human nature for what it is, and always will be, around the race track, and are rather tolerant toward the lads who are doing the best they can, if they do not get too forward about it.

"The Eye" has its own record of criminals and undesirables, said to be as extensive as that of any police department in the country. Grogan always has his men stationed at the gates, and that is where they blue pencil the not-wanted without any fuss about the matter.

DECLINES DIVORCE JOBS

Besides race tracks, "The Eye" protects banks and private business concerns, and conducts some lines of investigations. It does not accept divorce or scandal cases.

"The Eye" was organized in 1850 by Allan Pinkerton, whose sons, the redoubtable Bill and Robert, afterwords headed the agency. Robert Pinkrton had a son named Allan, who succeeded to the business when his father and Bill died, and this Allen had a son, Robert A., who is now the president of "The Eye," with David A. Thornhill, an old timer, as his assistant.

Robert A. Pinkerton is in his early thirties, and is said to be bringing back to "The Eye" much of its old time prestige. It is probably one of the few organizations left in this country that runs in its leadership across four generations.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Peoples Drug Earnings Down

NEW YORK, March 15 (AP)—Peoples Drug Stores, Inc., for the year 1937, today reported net income of $1,059,602 after taxes and charges, equal to $4.07 a common share, against $1,328,675 or $5.04 a common share in 1936.

The FIRST NATIONAL BANK of BOSTON

1784 ★ 1938

A CONDENSED STATEMENT of CONDITION

Covering all Offices and Foreign Branches

as of March 7, 1938

RESOURCES

Cash and Due from Banks	$233,065,780.00
United States Government Securities	150,726,220.79
State and Municipal Securities	19,060,115.36
Collateral Demand Loans to Banks and Brokers	15,299,583.57
Loans, Discounts and Investments	274,019,966.79
Customers' Liability Account of Acceptances	9,110,951.65
Banking Houses	13,260,967.11
Accrued Interest Receivable and Other Assets	3,607,362.23
Total	$718,150,947.50

LIABILITIES

Deposits		$613,871,278.17
Liability as Acceptor or Endorser on Bills of Exchange		11,970,700.29
Items in Transit with Foreign Branches		111,178.82
Reserves, including Interest, Taxes, Dividend, Unearned Discount and Contingencies		12,687,884.23
Capital	$27,812,500.00
Surplus and Profits	51,697,405.99	79,509,905.99
Total		$718,150,947.50

The figures of Old Colony Trust Company, which is beneficially owned by the stockholders of The First National Bank of Boston, are not included in the above statement.

Member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

The Rise and Fall Of Government By Violence

Men of Modest Means Victims, Too, In Seattle's Racket War

This is the fourth in the series of articles, "The Rise and Fall of Government by Violence."

By GEORGE W. LYNN

SEATTLE, March 15—Those American cities which have been so fortunate as to escape racketeering and the terrorism of goon squads may be inclined to believe that the man of modest means is relatively free from harm under such conditions.

He is—if he takes orders, and obeys them when he gets them.

A bitter and vicious milk war had been in progress here. In its broad aspects it was a three-cornered fight between producers, distributors and labor.

It was a fight which long ago could have been settled without coercion, tragedy or terrorism if this city had been free of gangsters.

It was, however, a fight that had been going on for many years.

Depression was descending on the nation, conditions were becoming more adverse in the lives of millions—and among those millions was a modest, law-abiding citizen by the name of F. W. Hardow, residing near Seattle.

He was a good American, a hard worker, and he had struggled to stay off relief by getting a few cows, milking them and delivering the product himself.

Hardow had been doing this but a few weeks when it was suggested that he join "an organization."

DEATH IS FACED

He did not do so—and that's where he came near being blown into eternity.

One morning as he stepped into his truck to make his deliveries he found the lighted fuse of a bomb just beneath the steering wheel. He jerked it from the truck, threw it into the road—and ran for cover.

Hardow escaped injury—but the bomb blew a great hole into the pavement and wrecked windows in several nearby houses.

These terrified neighbors were not in the dairy business, they had harmed no one, and most of them were in no position to pay for the damage that was caused their homes by the bomb of some racketeer out "to get" an enemy in a milk war.

And poor Frank Hardow didn't know what to think about it.

His total output of milk per day was only eight cases—or about 96 quarts—from which he was grossing less than $9.

Between keeping up a truck, feeding his cows and supporting his family he was little better off than if he had been on relief—but in recognition of his courage in trying to stay off the back of the taxpayers, the racketeers wanted to murder him, and kill his little business.

That is one reason, among hundreds of others, that thousands of honest and earnest citizens in this great Northwest have declared war to the end against all racketeers.

Where there are goon squads and hoodlums roving a city to wreak revenge on innocent citizens, always there will arise—as there did in Seattle—a by-product of that lawlessness; a situation in which others commit crimes in the hope that their crimes will be blamed upon racketeers.

AMBUSH VICTIM

D. J. Barker, a dairyman living near Snohomish, was a victim of this condition.

Driving a load of milk to the city one morning he was ambushed and fired upon.

The bullet cut through his coat, glanced off a metallic billfold, and whizzed on through the cab—a lucky break for him.

Investigation determined that the man who fired the shot was an ex-convict, recently discharged from the ranch by Barker, and was seeking this method of getting revenge in the belief that the crime would be charged to the work of the goon squads.

During the same era of bombings, acid throwings and brutal beatings in Seattle's long reign of gangsterism, terror bandits also were waylaying women and robbing them, and waylaying men, taking them "for a ride" and stealing their cars.

The goon squads were inflicting plenty of terror of their own, but the by-product of their violence was making itself felt in many ways.

Seattle would not stand for that today. It would not have stood for it then had not a spirit of lawlessness been fanned within this city for years, and if violence had not replaced the law and order of peaceful government.

GET NO PROTECTION

During these same years the milk war was spreading to other sections of the northwest—into Tacoma, into Portland and smaller cities.

Both producers and distributors were appealing to the law for protection—and getting no protection.

Trucks of milk were being dumped into rivers at a time in America's history when there were breadlines everywhere and millions of destitute children were crying for food.

Goon squads and bombers were wrecking dairies, beating up drivers and intimidating housewives.

These goons were not satisfied to bomb the Frank Hardows, who took in only nine dollars on their loads of milk.

They were moving in on the cradle nurseries to decree whose dairy milk should be fed the babies of Seattle, and other cities of Washington and Oregon.

All of this was being done in the name of protection to farmer, protection to distributor, protection to labor, and protection to consumer.

It was a strange city, bizarre and difficult to explain to Americans elsewhere who have not lived within a reign of terror.

On one page of Seattle's history is to be found the announcement by Mayor John F. Dore—recently repudiated by a city weary of terrorism—that racketeering in the milk war must be stopped. Seemingly the mayor was moved to this public ultimatum by the bombing of one of the larger and more important dairies of Seattle.

In the same announcement he took occasion to pay tribute to Seattle's police force, which hadn't then and never did catch the bombers, or stop bombings.

Orator Contest Victors Named

Joseph F. Lyons son of Mrs. Delia T. Lyons of Cliffmont street, Roslindale, was awarded the gold medal as winner of the annual junior public speaking contest held in the auditorium of Boston College high school, it was announced today.

He spoke on "America's Duty to Resist," by Patrick Henry. Edward V. Cronin received honorable mention.

Other contestants included Robert J. Burrell, Francis J. McCarthy, John J. McAuliffe and Leo C. Donovan.

The judges were the Rev. Frederick W. Blatchford, S. J., Rev. Robert B. Sheridan, S. J., and Mr. Cornelius F. Shea, S. J.

—LIFT OPPRESSIVE TAXES—

Coast Ship Loading Halted in Labor Row

LOS ANGELES, March 15 (INS)—Loading and unloading of ships in the Los Angeles harbor area was at a standstill today as a result of a deadlocked labor dispute.

Twenty vessels were idle and 2600 harbor workers temporarily jobless as the Waterfront Employers' Association refused to put longshoremen crews to work. Labor leaders sent a telegram to Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins charging they were "locked out" and announcing meetings to prepare for "an indefinite fight."

Need Money?

Loans: $100 to $1000 or more

Don't Gamble . . .

You and your family run big risks if you allow personal or property insurance to lapse. Even though your budget is temporarily out of balance, you should think seriously before you give up insurance protection. . . . Thousands of responsible people in Boston and nearby communities have borrowed under the Shawmut Monthly Payment Plan to meet emergency needs. This low-cost personal loan plan itself carries life insurance protection and permits systematic repayment over an extended period. You need not be a depositor to use this service. Inquire at our main office or at any of the sixteen Shawmut branches.

Call or write for our new folder describing this Plan

THE NATIONAL Shawmut Bank
40 WATER STREET • BOSTON

our broadcast by the Philadelphia Orchestra over Station WBZ every Monday evening — from 9 to 10 o'clock

In Times Like These
Do you hesitate to get a loan? Just come in and tell us how you will pay us back in small, regular instalments - the rest is simple at Personal Finance Co.
Loans up to $300—ALL PLANS
No Endorsers or Co-Makers Required
PERSONAL FINANCE CO.
BOSTON — Little Building, HUB. 1733
BOSTON — 75 Tremont St., LAF. 5336
BROOKLINE—2d fl., 289 Harvard St.
CAMBRIDGE—519 Massachusetts Ave.
CHELSEA — 419-431 Broadway
DORCHESTER—2d fl., 761 Dudley St.
EVERETT — Room 1, 433 Broadway
MALDEN —2d fl., 401 Main Street
MEDFORD — 2d fl., 10 High Street
NEWTON—2d fl., 313 Washington St.
QUINCY — 2d fl., Granite Tr. Bldg.
ROSLINDALE—2d fl., Bond Mkt. Bldg.
SOMERVILLE — 2d fl., 130 Dover St.
WALTHAM — 2d fl., O'Donnell Bldg.
License 57, 22, 160, 71, 195, 66, 197, 107, 199, 201, 136, 204, 33, 135 respectively.

LOANS
Without Endorsers
NO WAGE ASSIGNMENTS
If you can make regular monthly payments, Household Finance invites you to apply for a loan of $20 to $300 on furniture, car or plain note. No inquiries of friends or relatives.
"Doctor of Family Finances"
HOUSEHOLD FINANCE CORPORATION Est. 1878
NEW MALDEN OFFICE: 351 Main St., 2nd Fl.
License No. 6 Phone: MALden 7844
TWO BOSTON OFFICES:
400 Studio Bldg., 4th Fl., 110 Tremont St.
License No. 293 Phone: LIBerty 5274
804 Blake Bldg., 8th Fl., 59 Temple Place, Corner Washington
License No. 307 Phone: HUBbard 4142
CAMBRIDGE OFFICE: 5th Floor, Central Sq. Bldg.
678 Massachusetts Ave. License No. 64
Phone: TROwbridge 5322
Hear EDGAR A. GUEST Tuesday Evenings WBZ-WBZA

AUTO WHILE IN YOUR POSSESSION LOANS
NEW LOW RATES
AUTO OWNERS FINANCE CO., INC.
20 COLUMBUS AVE. LIB. 9236
MOTOR MART BLDG. LICENSE 214

Loans On Your Own Signature!
IDEAL FINANCING ASSOCIATION, Inc.
333 WASHINGTON ST.-CAP. 6960-LICENSE 83

LOANS AUTO-TRUCK HOUSEHOLD
1 Hour Service—No Red Tape
AMERICAN FINANCE CORP. License 23
Room 327, Park Square Bldg., HUB. 1313

HEIRS May borrow over $300 on their interests in legacies or trust funds. METROPOLITAN FINANCE CORP., 27 State; Laf. 4858-4889.

WORKINGMEN'S LOAN ASS'N
178 Tremont St., Boston. State No. 2

PERSONAL LOANS NATIONAL LOAN SOCIETY
1469 HANCOCK ST., QUINCY. License 58

BOSTON MORRIS PLAN CO.
209 Washington St., Boston. License 82.

At Your Service
Let the Pilgrim Help You with your financial problems. Loans to suit your needs made within one day. Loans up to and including $300 under State Supervision. Call, phone or write.
$50. to $2000
PILGRIM PLAN
24 SCHOOL ST. CAPITOL 7243
RM. 505 5th FLOOR LICENSE 63

LOANS AUTO TRUCKS While You Wait No Red Tape Lowest Interest Rates
FIDELITY LOAN & FINANCE CORP.
153 Huntington Ave., Next to Mechanics Bldg.
KENMORE 2730 LICENSE NO. 69

Announcements

1 Legal

Roadside Development and Landscaping. Federal Aid Project Nos. 17, 272-A, and 272-B. Town of Lynnfield and City of Peabody. Commonwealth of Massachusetts Department of Public Works.—Notice to Contractors.—Sealed proposals for furnishing and planting about 1441 trees, 8033 shrubs and about 795 vines along Newburyport Turnpike and the Northern Circumferential Highway in the Town of Lynnfield and City of Peabody will be received by the State Department of Public Works at its office, 100 Nashua Street, Boston, Mass., until 12 o'clock noon of Tuesday, March 29, 1938, and at that place and time will be publicly opened and read. Charge for specifications is $5.00 which amount is returnable only to bidders. Proposal guaranty shall consist of a certified check for $350.00 payable to the order of the Department of Public Works or other security satisfactory to the Department. A bid bond will not be accepted. Minimum wages have been established for the project and in no case shall they be less than $0.70 and $0.66 2-3 per hour respectively for intermediate and unskilled labor. Complete information may be obtained from the office of the Department. The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals. By: WILLIAM F. CALLAHAN, Commissioner of Public Works, Boston, Mass. March 15, 1938.

Roadside Development and Landscaping. Federal Aid Project No. 9. Town of Saugus. Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Department of Public Works.—Notice to Contractors.—Sealed proposals for furnishing and planting about 374 trees, 30,909 shrubs, 2580 vines and about 305 herbaceous perennials along Newburyport Turnpike in the Town of Saugus will be received by the State Department of Public Works at its office, 100 Nashua Street, Boston, Mass., until 12 o'clock noon of Tuesday, March 29, 1938, and at that place and time will be publicly opened and read. Charge for specifications is $5.00 which amount is returnable only to bidders. Proposal guaranty shall consist of a certified check for $350.00 payable to the order of the Department of Public Works or other security satisfactory to the Department. A bid bond will not be accepted. Minimum wages have been established for the project and in no case shall they be less than $0.70 and $0.60 per hour respectively for intermediate and unskilled labor. Complete information may be obtained from the office of the Department. The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals. By: WILLIAM F. CALLAHAN, Commissioner of Public Works, Boston, Mass., March 15, 1938.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
"New England's Greatest Evening Newspaper"

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Boston, Mass., under the Act of March 3, 1879, also at the Postoffice Department, Canada.

Published daily except Sunday and holidays, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass., by the NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY. Telephone Liberty 4000.

Subscriptions by mail postpaid, one month, 75c; three months, $1.75; six months, $3.50; one year, $7.00. Boston Postal District $1.00 month. Domestic rates include postage in the United States, Porto Rico, Philippines, Cuba, Hawaii, Alaska, Mexico, Canal Zone, Canada. Mail subscriptions payable strictly in advance. Rates to foreign countries $2.00 per month.

The Boston Evening American assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements, but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs. Advertisers will please notify the management immediately of any error which may occur.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper, and also the local news published therein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein reserved by the Boston Evening American.

Announcements

4 Auctions

CHARLES F. HALE & SON, INC. Auctioneers & Appraisers, 219-223 Columbus Ave., Boston.

15 Lost and Found

Found Setter, Spitz, Collie, Irish terrier and Chow. Call Miss James, LIBerty 4000.

English setter lost—Auburndale, white fem., black ears, "Lady." Rew. W. Newton 2890.

Wire fox terrier lost, white-black markings, brown face, "Mike." Rew. Gra. 2845-M.

SMOOTH fox terrier lost, black-white male, brown face, child's pet. Rew. Arl. 1000-4992.

POCKETBOOK lost Sat., First National Bank, Filenes. Keep money, return lic. 94 E. Newton St., City.

DIAMOND stone lost Mon., Mar. 7, bet. Harvard, Wash., Glenway Sts. and Blue Hill Ave., Dor. Sent. value. Rew. Col. 3893 eves.

WRIST WATCH lost March 7, man's Duber-Hampden. Rew. Kir. 2300 weekdays.

BOSTON terrier lost, Watertown, dark brindle fem., 1 yr. Rew. Mid. 4170-M.

Your Lost Ad Broadcast
Lost and Found Ads Published in the American-Advertiser Are Broadcast Daily at 1:15 P. M. over Radio Station WCOP (1120K-267M) at no additional cost. For information Phone Miss James, LIBerty 4000.

Deaths

MONUMENTS OF QUALITY WRITE FOR DESIGNS & PRICES Theo. J. Craig 14 FEDERAL AVE. QUINCY MASS.—GRAN. 1783-1697-R

9 Funeral Directors

J. S. Waterman & Sons Funeral Directors
497 Commonwealth Ave., Boston

Graham Funeral Service
1770 Wash. St. Boston Hig. 3268
Special Funeral from $125
NON SECTARIAN
Anywhere in New England

18 Special Notices

ANGELO MOROTTA—Barber shop, clean, san. equip.; trained barbers. 341 Hanover St.

29 Medical

FREE, X-RAY
Examination and consultation and trial treatment absolutely free to all who call before March 20th, 1938. The X-ray and mercury quartz light treatment are accomplishing wonders in diseases of every description. No matter what your disease, Daniel J. Walsh, M. D., 18 Boylston St., Boston, Mass., fulfills the above offer. Office hours Tuesdays and Fridays 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. Other days 10 A. M. to 8 P. M. Closed Sundays and Holidays.

BLOOD DISEASES—ACNE • TREATED BY THE LATEST METHOD • VACCINES USED WHEN NECESSARY • CONSULTATION FREE. HOURS 9 to 8
R. W. POWER, M.D. 32 BOYLSTON ST. HAN. 5836

23 Dancing Instruction

LEARN TO DANCE "THE SHAG"
15 PRIVATE LESSONS $5
UPTOWN SCHOOL MODERN DANCING
330 Mass. Ave. at Hunt. TEL. COM. 0520
Boston's Foremost Reliable Dancing School, Newest Dance Steps. Beginners a Specialty! Private Lessons—10 A.M. to 12 P.M.

"My REPUTATION is Your PROTECTION"
BALLROOM Guaranteed in 4 LESSONS TAP Also Taught
PROF. RITTER 177 Tremont St. DEVonshire 7330

3 PRIVATE LESSONS. Miss Shirley Hayes. $1 330 Mass. Ave. at Hunt. Ave. Com. 0520. Beginners Guaranteed. Newest steps. Expert Instruction.

L. and L. Studios 132 Boylston St. Han. 5854 BALLROOM-CLASSES-TAP

TAP STANLEY BROWN, FORMERLY "COTTON CLUB" N. Y. 295 Hunt. Ave. COM. 8435

Wm. H. O'Brien 240 Hunt. Ave. CIR. 6526. 18 Priv., $5; 12 Classes, $5

24 Where to Dine

WILLOW CAFE—Delicious dinners, wine, beer and liquors. 699 Broadway, Som. 0519.

10 Monuments

WRITE for catalog of monuments. Memorial Granite Co., 159 Hancock St., Quincy.

36 Detective Agencies

MORGAN DETECTIVE AGENCY. Over 40 years' experience. HAN. 3718, evenings MYS. 2499. 120 Boylston St.

Read the
RENTAL ADS

The Bargain Market

127 Clothing—Furs

SMOKE and WATER SALE OVERCOATS SUITS 1 AND 2 PANT $5 $7 $11 PANTS TO MATCH YOUR COAT 98c, $1.69, $2.49
UNITED CLOTHIERS, 103 Washington St.

140 Coal—Coke—Wood—Oil

COK-OLGA $10.50 per ton Delivered QUALITY AT LOW PRICE. CAP. 8028. Coke Distributors, Ltd., 114 State St.

A. RICCIARDONE & SONS
Hard Coal $11, Lumpy Soft $8
New Eng. Coke. MALDEN 5101-M

125 Jewelry and Diamonds

HIGHEST PRICES Paid for DIAMONDS, GOLD, SILVER, WATCHES, ETC. WM. A. THOMPSON CO., 125 Tremont St. Lib. 9472

126A Wall Paper

SELECT the paper, we will hang it. Average room (10 rolls, 18 yds. border) comp. $4.25. Timothy Smith Dept. Store, Wall Paper Dept., Dudley St. Sta. of Elevated.

129 Furniture

Banquet Tables for sale. Jackson Folding Chairs. 27 Haymarket Sq. Cap. 3632.

Wanted chairs to recane; rush bottom; expert work; call-deliver. Hyde Park 0305-M

135 Radios—Equipment

Repossessed auto radios, Motorola, Philco, others, $8. Bell, 714 Mass. Ave., Camb.

139 Oil Burners

RANGE burner assemblies, $4.50; heaters, $8.95. Cohen Sales, 14 Portland. Laf. 3675.

136 Typewriters

RENT THE NEW NOISELESS MONARCH 8
3 MONTHS $5
Initial rental applied on purchase. Bal. $3 mo.
AMERICAN WRITING MACHINE CO.
91 Federal St. Est. 1880 LIBerty 6195

3 months $5—good typewriters, all makes; priv. of buying. Back Bay Typewriter Ex., 334 Boylston St. Com. 8390.

141 Building Material

Oak Flooring, full thickness, Per ft. 4½ cts. up
THINNER FLOORING AT LOWER PRICES
FRIEND LUMBER CO.
29 Gibson St., Medford. Tel. MYS. 5650

JOHNSON'S GLOCOAT 79c QT. Grossman, 130 Granite St., Quincy.

146 Horses—Livestock

WORK horses, 1200 to 1500 lbs., good condition; trial allowed. Seen any weekday or Sunday. F. F. GORMAN, 80 Locust St., Woburn, Mass.

134 Musical Instruments

PIANO BARGAIN—Good used upright, suitable for beginner, $30. Terms. BLAKE PIANO CO., 873 Washington St.

130 Refrigerators

G. E. Flat top models, used little. $40 26 Church, Camb. Kir. 7450.

CASH for refrig. Elec. refrig. sold, $30 up. Refrig. Exchg., 615 Albany St. Ken. 5077.

Real Estate

80 Houses for Sale

CHARLESTOWN SINGLE $2200
77 Russell St. Reconditioned 7 room half of duplex, hot water heat, 3159 ft. land. $200 down. Monthly payments $24.53 including interest, principal, taxes, water and insurance. Call Melrose 2272. Eves. Reading 1653-M.

BANK PROPERTIES All Types & Prices Attractive Terms
Robert Gray, Bank Agent. Tro. 8547. Eve. Bel. 2109.

Bolton, Mass.
NEW CAPE COD house for sale. 6 rooms, bath. Route 85. Bargain. Babcock Bros., Bolton, Mass. Tel. 16-3.

Brookline
Boston Small Homes Trust for Better Built Homes. Lon. 2416.

Houses $4000 to $5000

Dorchester
$5000 sacrifice, single, well built, 8 pleasant rooms, new plumbing throughout, oil burner, 2 fireplaces, large closet space, 2-car garage; convenient location. Gen. 4494.

80 Houses for Sale

Houses $5000 to $7000

New Hampshire
WHITE MTS.—10-rm. house, swimming. Terms. Wallace, 235 High St., Waltham.

Squantum
BUNGALOW 4 rooms, renovated, furnace, near beach, $1900. 31 Mayflower Rd. Owner. Granite 2683-W.

Watertown
WELL BUILT 2-family, 6-6, all impts., excl. loc., river view; reas. Mid. 4862-W.

82 Farms and Land for Sale

BIG FARM CATALOG JUST OUT!
2860 Bargains. Free, write today. STROUT AGY., 810-FH Old South Bldg.

Reading
FRUIT farm, hens, 15 acres, 7-rm. house, mod.; 600 fruit trees, apples, etc. Reading 1378-M.

86 Real Estate Mortgages

NEED Mortgage Money? If so, see Merchants Co-op. Bank, 24 School St., Boston.

SEND for list of Real Estate, Workingmens Co-operative Bank, 73 Cornhill.

Rentals

90 Offices and Stores

STORE good for grocery or delicatessen, ready April 1. 75 Day St. Jam. Plain 3216-W.

94 Unfurnished Apartments

TODAY'S APT. SPECIAL!
BACK BAY—3 Rooms—Free Refrig. $35 Apply 78 Westland Ave. KEN. 8335.

BOSTON MANAGEMENT CORP.

Back Bay
Ambassador Hall Apts.
Furnished-Unfurnished, 1-2 rms.
14 Ivy St., Boston. KENmore 1833

Brighton
$25 5 rms., bath, steam heat, good condition. Mr. Winn, 345 Market St. or KENmore 1421.

Cambridge
HEATED modern furn., unfurn., 1 to 4 rooms, $45 to $95. Tro. 1902 days.

Nr. Harvard, 2 rms., kitchenette, recept., tile bath, shower. Cross ventilation, $50. Kirk. 8861.

5 ROOMS—White sink, ivory finish, stm. ht., inlaid linoleum, 1st fl., $40. Kir. 7797.

Dorchester
HEATED 3-rm. apts. $40-$45. Apply Janitor. Col. 7434 or Jos. G. Mazur, Alg. 3174.

Jamaica Plain
$32 Living room, kitchen, dinette, 2 chambers, bath. HUB. 0126—END. 7345.

Roxbury
2-FAMILY, first fl., 6 sunny rms., newly renov., $27. Adults. 34 Woodbine St. Hig. 2022.

MODERN, steam heated 5 rms.; A-1 condition, $33. Janitor, 15 Kearsarge Ave. High. 5329.

DORCHESTER—Mod. 5-6 rooms, newly renovated, $30 TO $35, parking. Hig. 0408.

Watertown
REDUCED to $35, because of transportation cost to Watertown Sq. or Waltham Sq., 6-rm. upper, gar., steam heater. Hub. 0126.

APARTMENT HOUSE OWNERS ASSOCIATION
To those seeking apartments we recommend a visit to the properties listed below. These buildings are conducted with a view to "complete tenant satisfaction" and competent management.

BACK BAY
Newly renovated 1-2 rm., kitchenette, heated suites, $27.50-$37.50, 82 Peterboro St.

1-2-3 rm. suites. Newly renovated, $22.50-$38. References. Supt., 40 Symphony Rd.

NEAR ST. MARYS ST.—Beacon subway, heated 2-3-4 rms., $35-$40. Owner, 38 Ivy.

BRIGHTON
Three rms., bath, porch, electric kitchen range, refrig.; shower. $45. Cap. 0617.

FENWAY
2 Rms., all elec., $57.50-$62.50. Rear Jack Gardner's Palace, 11 Tetlow St. Lon. 9035.

Fenway Gardens, 2 rms., large kitchen, 133 Peterboro St. Free refrig.; parking. $38.50-$47.50.

95 Furnished Apartments

South Boston
NICELY furn. 3 rms.; radio, gas, elec. included. $6.50-$7. Sou. Boston 9782.

Medford
FURNISHED, heated 4 rms., bath; reas. Also 2 rms. kitchenette apt. Som. 5582.

96 Houses for Rent

$35 8-room duplex. Newly renovated. Hardwood floors, steam heat. MYStic 0680.

103 Rooms Without Board

HOTEL ESSEX Opposite South Station 400 Rooms
$7 UP WEEKLY $1.50 DAILY

Arlington
NR. CENTRE—Large room, 3 windows, fireplace, priv. home. Reas. Arl. 1816-W.

ROOM overlooking Mystic Lake; near bus. Business man pref. Garage. Arl. 5579-W.

Allston
SUNNY, pleasant front room, in heated apt., $6 wk. Sta. 8714.

Back Bay
ALL NEWLY FURNISHED
160 Bay State Rd., near Kenmore Sq. Single and double rooms. Large room with adjoining glassed sunroom; suitable for artist. COM. 8300.

NEWLY furn. homelike rm.; pri. family. 10 min. Park St. Reas. Lon. 8625.

68 WESTLAND AVE., sunny room, twin beds, also single rm. Reas. Com. 9479.

Brookline
SEE TO APPRECIATE
Attractive rms., refined home, reas. 1013 Beacon St., at subway. Asp. 8643.

BROOKLINE HILLS—2 min. to station, large front room; private home. Bea. 1042.

Somerville
WINTER HILL Sect., lge. rm., business couple or 2 girls. Refs. $5. 51 Edgar Ave., Suite 2.

93 Moving—Trucking—Storage

5 ROOMS MOVED $10
PIANOS $4, inc. Vans. CHA. 1858
Bonded Storage. 1st Mo. Free

5 ROOMS moved $10. Also storage. Pianos $4. Goods insured in transit. Cha. 9874.

100 Housekeeping Rooms

Beachmont
846 WINTHROP AVE.—2 rooms, pri. bath, completely furn., $7 wk. Rev. 2654-M.

Boston
41 Rutland Sq., large front rm., light hskpg., gas, elect., refrig. furn. $4.50 wk.

Cambridge
NEAR Harvard Sq., single and double rooms, corner house; electric plates; business people. $4 up. 11 Forest St. TRO. 6025.

Dorchester
Redecorated 2 large rms., gas, elec., pri. home. See to appreciate. Gar. 1872.

South Boston
2 HEATED light housekeeping rooms, well furnished. Also single room. Sou. 1915.

104 Children to Board

WANTED—Baby to board, $4 week. Tel. Randolph 0891-W.

REAL good home, children 5 yrs. up; nice yd., exc. care., reas. Som. 1273.

105 Homes for Invalids

Idylewilde Nursing Home. Excellent care, reasonable rates. 392 Pleasant St., Norwood. Call Mrs. Rowell, Nor. 1673

Business Opportunities

DORCHESTER—Est. beauty shop; ideal loca.; reas.; illness causes sale. Gen. 9035.

BEACH location with season liquor license; oppor. for right party. Stad. 5445.

SACRIFICE variety store; good location; low rent. Write Box B-21, Boston American.

ROOMING HOUSES—$75-$150-$350; furn. houses to let, etc. Apply 817A Tremont.

COAL and wood business, now in operation. Write Boston American, Box J-167.

Automobiles

200 Automobiles For Sale

STORAGE SALE

'33 Ford Sedan	$185
'33 Plymouth Sedan	95
'31 Ford Town Sedan	45
'32 Chevrolet Sedan	88
'32 Rockne Sedan	75
'31 Buick Sedan	85
'31 Ford De Luxe Roadster	65

Garage, 976 Mass. Ave., Camb. TRO. 8914.

Repossessed Chevrolet
'36 Master De Luxe Trunk Sedan, fully equipped with radio and heater, etc., perfect in every detail. Must sell for balance due. Garage, 280 Washington St., Brighton. ALG. 7780.

REPOSSESSED PONTIACS
'33 Pontiac Coach — '35 Pontiac Sedan, '34 Pontiac Sedan, Radio, Heater, '36 Pontiac De Luxe, Trunk, 2-Dr. Sedan. $10 Down—Balance 12 months.
FINANCE CO. WAREHOUSE
15 Cambria St., Boston. Kenmore 5090

500 Gal. Oil Tank Truck
Rebuilt 6 cyl. Ford motor that runs like new. Excellent body. It's a positive sacrifice at only.... $125 See it today. Dunham Chevrolet, Newton North 5620.

'36 Ford ½-T. Panel $350
You can't tell it from brand new; the best buy in a light delivery truck in Boston. See it today. Dunham Chev., 431 Wash. Newton North 5620.

Porter Sq. Chev. '36 Chev. 4-Dr. Trunk Sedan. DX. Guaranteed for only $450.
2055 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. KIR. 4400

'31 Ford De Luxe Rdstr. $115
Wayland Motors Waltham 2966 Wayland 194

NEED 100 CARS and TRUCKS
JUST STARTING IN BUSINESS. HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID. PROSPECT 6366. OPEN EVENINGS.

$9.54 per month buys an excellent car. Let me help you. I resell Brookline Fine Family Cars. TOM MAHONEY BEAcon 5200

LOOK '37 PLYMOUTH 4-Dr. Tr. No money down; orig. paint, new tires, 90-day guarantee.
COMmonwealth 1150. HOMESTEAD
1311 BOYLSTON ST.

AUTO REPAIRS TIME PAYMENTS!
No Down Payment, Easy Terms
STRATTON MOTORS, INC.
1117 COMMONWEALTH AVE. STA. [illegible]

$5 Includes '38 Plates and Insurance and HOLOWAY'S 90-day Guar.

	Price	Pay't
'32 Olds. Sedan. Jumbo tires	$150—	$9.41
'34 Ford Fordor De Luxe Sedan	225—	14.65

Princeton Motors, N. Artery at B'way. SOM. 8787.

'34 Studebaker 4-Wheel Sedan $185 Call Mr. Abbott, Lon. 1727.

'31 FORD FORDOR SEDAN $65 MALDEN 3229

'34 Terraplane Tudor, perf., economical. 2083 Mass. Ave. Eli. 9800. $195

'35 CHEVROLET 2-DOOR SED. $75
DOWN, CAR IN STORAGE ALL WINTER, BARGAIN. MYEROW BROS. CO., 15 BERKELEY ST. HAN. 7365.

W Hupmobile 4-door '31 Sedan; fine running motor; extra good; nice and clean; $10 down. Many others. $40 Main St. Dodge Distributors. LITTLE MOTORS, Inc., Waltham 4135. $127

'37 Chevrolet Master Town Sed. Roxbury Motors, Gar. 8367. $495

'31 DODGE 4-dr. Sedan, heater, $75. Harold L. O'Neill, 264 Col. Rd., Dor. Hig. 2200.

'32 Lincoln Twin 6, 7-pass. Limousine. Perfect. Zandilon, 879 Bluehill Ave., Dor. Gen. 9167.

'29 Chev. 2-Dr. Sed. Heater. Registered. N. S. Davis, Concord 733-R. $25

'36 Pontiac 2-Dr. Tr. Sedan $525 Easy terms. Mr. Robey, STAdium 0884.

'31 FORD coach, $49; '34 Dodge sedan, perfect, $275. Malden 5903.

'37 PONTIAC Sedan, 2-dr., clean, $645. Small payments. Longwood 5382.

Big Used Car Drive Continued. Russell Burnett, Inc., Somerville. Som. 7800.

'36 FORD de luxe Tudor, $345. Terms to suit you. Aspinwall 4512.

'36 Chevrolet Coach, good cond. Malden-Dodge. Malden 3100. $295

'32 Nash 4-door sedan. Bargain $150. 343 Broadway Somerville. Som. 6767.

'37 De Soto 4-Dr. Tour. Sed., htr., radio, gas saving transmission. Grimes, 897 Main St. Melrose 1428. $800

'34 Plymouth 4-Dr. Sedan. Grimes, 897 Main St. Melrose 1428 $250

'36 Chevrolet Trunk Sedan, radio and htr., $345. Mr. Manning, Som. 8787.

FORD TUDOR SEDAN, 1935, heater, like new throughout, $225; terms. Eliot 7846.

'35 Chevrolet Coach, heater Grimes, 897 Main St. Melrose 1428 $450

'34 Ford Tudor; $15.05 mon.; $10 down. Mr. Renwag. KEN. 3606.

'31 Chevrolet Coupe Rumble Seat. MAL. 5903 $59

'35 Ford Beach Wagon, extra clean. Liberal trade. Endicott 6629 eves.

46 Cars $45 to $295; terms. Cadillac 808 Comm. Ave. BEAcon 5808.

'37 Ford De Luxe Coupe. $70 De Luxe Radio, like new. TRO. 6047. $575

'32 Chevrolet ½-T. Panel Truck. Mechanically O. K. Ask for Max. SOMerset 8874. $100

'33 Dodge 4-dr. Sedan, $325. For terms details. STAdium 2500.

46 TRUCKS—ALL MAKES—$65-$1365 Int'l. Harvester Co., 61 N. Beacon St. STA. 1802.

200 Automobiles for Sale

REPOSSESSED CARS!
MUST BE SOLD FOR UNPAID BALANCE DUE
'37 PACKARD 120 Trunk Sedan
'37 DODGE Trunk 4-Dr. Sedan
'37 DODGE Trunk Tudor Sedan
'37 PLYMOUTH Coach
'37 FORD Trunk Sedan "85"
'37 FORD Tudor Sedan
'36 CHRYSLER Trunk Sedan
'36 DODGE Beach Wagon
'36 FORD Fordor Trunk Sedan
'36 CHEVROLET Conv. Coupe
'38 PLYMOUTH Coupe
Some of the above Cars have run less than 6000 miles and are equipped with factory Radios and Heaters.
Fidelity Finance Corporation
133 Hunt. Ave., Rm. 2, Boston
Next to Mechanics Bldg. KENmore 2730.

NO FINANCE INTEREST CARRYING CHARGE
NO RED TAPE—DELAY—TIME LIMIT
BRILLIANT, 192 Broadway, Somerville. Som. 2440

Porter Sq. Chev. '35 Olds. Trunk Sedan De Luxe Job. Built-in Radio, $465.
2055 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. KIR. 4400

OK '36 Chevrolet Master De Luxe 4-Door Sedan; knee action, thoroughly reconditioned, excellent tires, carries our usual 4-day Cash Back Written Warranty; $469. HUB CHEV., 277 Mass. Ave., Camb. Tro. 6400

'31 Willys Knight Sedan, excellent. Garage will sell for repair bill. Geneva 8612.

Porter Sq. Chev. '35 Chev. Master Sport Sedan. $95 down or your car in trade.
2055 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. KIR. 4400

'36 OLDS 6 4-DR. TRUNK SEDAN $495 Noyes Buick, 859 Comm. Ave. STA. 2606.

'36 LINCOLN Zephyr, $685; terms. C. Hayward. STAdium 3400.

'36 La Salle 4-Dr. Trunk Sedan $675 Just like new. Must be sold. Fenway Storage Warehouse, 15 Cambria, Ken. 5090.

Late '37 Ford Station Wagon $595 Rad., spotlight, other extras, 14,000 miles, perfect. "R. & G." car. John W. Lux, 19 Upham St., Melrose 6150.

'35 Ford Sedan, cannot be told from new. Unusual buy. $295 2083 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. Eli. 9800.

'37 Willys 4-Dr. Sedan $80
Down. Low Mileage. New Car Guarantee. Bargain. Myerow Bros. Co., 15 Berkeley St. HAN. 7365.

'31 CORD SEDAN, $60
Needs Minor Repairs, 15 Berkeley St. Han 7365.

'30 International 1-Ton Pickup $45 Seen at Garage. Geneva 8612.

'34 Ford Sedan Delivery $185 Reardon & Woodward 1890 Columbus Ave., Rox. Hig. 1833.

'32 FORD TUDOR, A-1. $115 Hoover Motors. Hub. 7100.

1933 Terraplane Sedan $145
Very good mechanically, orig. throughout. 293 Prospect St., Cambridge.

'34 Chevrolet Coach, like new, reconditioned; terms to suit. $225 2083 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. Eli. 9800.

1930 Ford Tudor, $10 down. $45. 2355 Mass. Ave., Camb. KIR. 5040.

200A Auto Trailers

Trailers Palace Travel Coaches—Covered Wagons. Baumgardner. Lexington 1227.

202 Automobiles Wanted

CASH FOR YOUR CAR
1-Hour Service. HARVEY. EVErett 2090.

CAR WANTED FOR CASH
976 Mass. Ave., Cambridge; Tro. 8914.

CARS WANTED for Cash. LOUIS ANNACONE, INC.
IDEAL GARAGE, 181 BRIGHTON AVE. STA. 7816.

WANTED—Good used cars from private owners; also Model A Fords from anyone. We pay cash. Beacon Motors. Mid. 1965.

Highest Instant Cash for Used Cars. Rear 281 Mystic Ave., Somerville. Pro. 2830.

WANTED—Good Chev. or Plymouth, '33 or later. Cash. Somerset 2318-W.

Cash for your car. Drive in or call 1190 Comm. Ave. Lon. 8507.

209 Automobile Insurance

3 PAYMENT PLANS, LOWEST RATES. IMMEDIATE SERVICE FOR 1938 PLATES. 8 BROAD ST. CAP. 5677.

LOWEST RATES—IMMEDIATE SERVICE FOR 1938 PLATES. 55 KILBY ST., BOSTON.

$10 Down Plate Service. Call Han. 1666. 40 Broad St. Rm. 817.

Low down pay't. Instant Plate Service 27 State, Rm. 46. CAP. 9194.

$7 Down 6 mo. to pay. 89 Broad St. Room 515. HUB. 7469.

TIME Payments, 24-hr. Phone Ken. 4266 or days, Rm. 404, 108 Mass. Ave., Boston.

SMALL down payment. 67 Warren St., Rox. Dudley St. Sta. Open eves. Gar. 8342.

210 Automobile Schools

$10 16 private lessons. Est. 1925. Modern Auto School, 731A Tremont. Ken. 3825.

8 LESSONS $5—LICENSE COURSE $10. Cleveland Circle Auto School. Long. 6890.

LENTEN SUGGESTIONS

Boston
FRUIT, veg., groceries, meat and liquors. S. CARELLO, 72 Shawmut Ave. Han. 0783.

PICKLED Meats, Corned Beef, Rolled Beef. Superior Prov. Co., 18 Blkst. Laf. 8346

Garden Fish Mkt., 266 Friend St. Cap. 9039. Fish Variety. Orders taken.

HOWARD S. ROLLINS & SON, 2 Faneuil Hall Mkt. Cap. 0334. Wholesalers in lamb.

Dorchester
SAUCES for Lenten Foods; spaghetti, ravioli, etc. Naples Food Products Co. Mid. 8470. Manhattan Market, Camb.; Uphams Cor. Market, Col. Rd., Dor.

High Grade Meats & Poultry. Free del. B. Savrsky, 916 Morton. Bla. 0811

Chelsea
SANTAGATE'S FRUIT MARKET—Eat The Best! Williams-B'way. Chel. 3593-W.

Medford
WINCHESTER MARKET—45 Winchester St. Lenten food specials. Mys. 1724.

Melrose
ROBERT'S OPEN AIR MKT.—442 Main St. Special Corned Brisket, 19c. lb.

Newton Center
BEACON MKT.—753 Beacon St. Meats, fruits, vegs.; 2-hr. del. service. C. N. 5350.

Revere
BEACH MARKET, 302 Shirley Ave.—Fresh fish, meats, vegetables, fruits.

Roslindale
Young's Market, Groc., Prov., Sea Food and Delicatessen, 298 Kittredge St. Par. 1570.

Somerville
PINI Food Stores, 285A Broadway. Italian and American groceries. Som. 2010-W.

South Boston
Meats & Groceries Wm. Levine, 139 D St. SOU 5491.

Watertown
MID. 4348 Meat, Fish, Fruit, Veg., Groceries. Summer St. Market, 154 Summer.

Employment

60 Help Wanted—Female

COOKS
PASTRY AND MEAT cooks; kitchen supervisor; salad girls.
VAUGHN'S, 38 PROVINCE ST.

LADIES wanted for sales department of national company. Excellent chance for advancement. See MISS GRIFFIN, Room 2, 78 Summer St.

HAIRDRESSER or experienced all-around operator. Must do marcelling. Ocean 0955-M.

60A Help Wanted—Domestic

MOTHER'S HELPER Good home, $4. Hig. 9774.

GIRL to help with housework. Private room and bath. Dr. Gurbitz, Asp. 7573.

MOTHER'S HELPER—Live in; fond of children. Mrs. Gold, 148 Nichols St., Everett.

MOTHER'S HELPER—Must know something about babies. $6. GAR. 1438.

MOTHER'S HELPER—Live in, small family; no laundry, no cooking. Lon. 2933.

MOTHER'S HELPER wanted. No cooking; own room; one child. Longwood 6344.

62 Help Wanted—Male and Female

AMATEURS wanted, every Saturday, 1st prize $3, 2d $2, 3d $1. Charlie Palmer, Paradise Cafe, 63 Green St. Laf. 9282.

WANTED—Orchestras, musicians, steady and general. Exp. only. J-194, Sunday Advertiser.

61 Help Wanted—Male

CANVASSERS
Wanted at once, experienced canvassers for subscription campaign, transportation paid, good commission. Apply Mr. Foynes, 5th floor, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston.

LAUNDRY AGENTS
QUALITY work, good service, good terms. Rox., Dor., Mat. Write Box A 182 Amer. or call Sun. and eves. BRE. 6481.

COOKS AND SODA MEN
Experienced order cooks; age 25-35. Soda-men, age 21-30, tea-room experience. VAUGHNS', 38 Province St.

68 Instruction

DIESEL, machine shop practice, welding. M. D. I., 88 St. Stephen St., Bos. Com. 4210.

It's not only safer but more economical to drive a better Used Car.

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

TUESDAY,
MARCH 15, 1938

✚ And He lifted up His eyes on His disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.—St. Luke VI., 20. ✚

The text for today is suggested by the Rev. Dr. Phillips Endecott Osgood, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Boston. The next text will be suggested by the Rt. Rev. Samuel G. Babcock of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts.

The Editor Says:

"It may well be said that labor in America is at the present moment engaged in a war with labor of certain other countries."—Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor.

MR. WOLL has written for the Hearst newspapers that the daily dumping of foreign-made goods on our shores is WAR.

It is worse than military war, he says, because:

"It is a war for JOBS, for BREAD AND BUTTER, for FAMILY LIFE."

What ELSE can it be called?

Our people are wearing foreign shoes, eating foreign food, using foreign products.

What is to become of American shoes, food and products, and of THE PEOPLE WHO PRODUCE AND MAKE THEM?

Of course that is war.

When you take a man's JOB away from him, you have taken everything PRECIOUS from him.

You have destroyed his HOME.

You have denied his children happiness, education and opportunity.

What more and WORSE could war do?

IF FOREIGN NATIONS were dumping bombs and shells upon our country, razing our factories, blowing up our homes, the American Government would use every device at its command to REPEL THE INVASION.

Why, then, does not the American Government repel the sinister invasion that is as surely taking JOBS AND HOMES away from our people?

Why does the Government BARGAIN with foreign countries to flood our markets with products that are as DESTRUCTIVE OF AMERICAN LIFE AND PROPERTY as bombs and shells?

Why has Mr. Hull made bargains with SEVENTEEN COUNTRIES to keep their factories open and their workers employed, while American factories are closed and American workers JOBLESS?

Why is Mr. Hull even now negotiating ANOTHER DESTRUCTIVE BARGAIN with Great Britain, which will mean FEWER JOBS and LESS PRODUCTION in every field of American industrial, agricultural and wage-earning endeavor?

CERTAINLY OUR GOVERNMENT ought to be on the side of OUR people.

And certainly the senseless trade treaties which barter away the jobs and wages of our people put our Government in the preposterous light of giving aid and comfort to a REAL AND POTENT ENEMY.

It would be MURDEROUS, TRAITOROUS for our Government to abet a military enemy.

How much less is the offense of a government that cuts JOB SECURITY from under our people?

LET'S BAN OPPRESSION

"Boston and Somerville have the worst records in collecting automobile excise taxes among 19 cities and towns examined by the Municipal Research Bureau."—News Item.

The failure of Boston and other cities to collect more than three million dollars in excise taxes ought not to be the excuse for new oppression on the part of various constables and deputies.

There should be neither a repetition nor an extension of the deplorable situation which in the past permitted some men to charge as much as fifteen dollars for the collection of a three-dollar bill.

Nor should there be an epidemic of arrests of persons who are financially unable to discharge their small obligations.

It is a simple matter for the Legislature to revise the laws so that the automobile registrations of delinquent excise tax payers may be cancelled at the expiration of a reasonable period of time.

Other States have adopted that system and found it successful. Massachusetts could and should.

There is no reason why tax collecting should be a profitable business for a handful of constables and deputies.

A DEPLORABLE DELAY

"The School Committee, having elected Arthur L. Gould as superintendent of schools, voted to delay the selection of an assistant superintendent."—Boston Evening American news item on February 25, 1937.

A year has elapsed and the School Committee is STILL DELAYING. No assistant has been chosen.

A report now comes that John C. Brodhead, one of the five members of the Board of Superintendents, will retire. That will leave only four to carry on this important work.

The Committee might well abandon its policy of laxity, get busy and elect a new assistant superintendent. Further delay is not only useless BUT WASTEFUL.

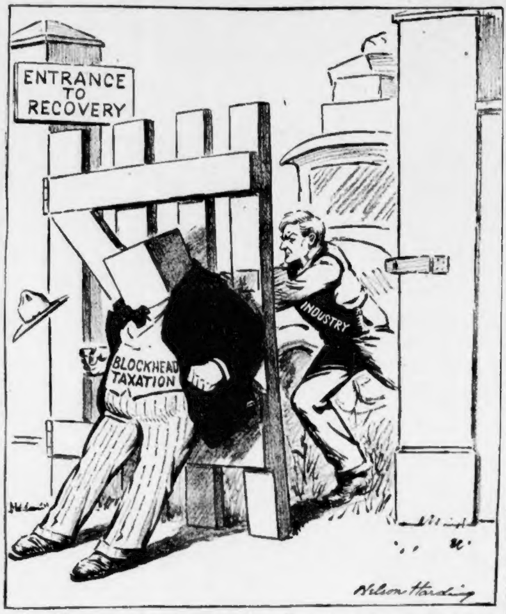
The more than 125,000 boys and girls attending our schools are entitled to PROPERLY SUPERINTENDED education. And they should get it.

Economy is always desirable. But economy should never be so ridiculous that it means pinching pennies and squandering dollars.

A good assistant superintendent of schools will be able to save the City of Boston many times the amount that will be paid him in salary.

Blocked

By Nelson Harding



The House of Representatives acted rightly in striking the "penalty tax" on undistributed profits out of the pending tax bill.

The good work should be completed by repealing every vestige of both the surplus tax and the capital gains tax.

The Voice of New York

By Louis Sobol

A GROUP of us, sitting at the Stork Club the other night, were discussing prophetic utterances by people who have since passed on. One of us recalled that in Will Rogers' book, "Ether and Me," published in April, 1929, the comedian-philosopher, having emerged from an operation, heard his wife saying:

"There, dear, now everything is fine."

To which Rogers replied:

"What's fine? I don't see anything fine. Didn't the airship just burn up—and with me right in it?"

Will Durant edited a book comprising a symposium by prominent personalities on the subject, "Why Go On Living?" Publisher of the book was Ray Long, who shortly after committed suicide. In the last two pictures in which the late Robert Ames appeared, the sequence in one had him entering a graveyard—and in the other ("Tomorrow and Tomorrow") Ruth Chatterton asked:

"What would you do if I left you?"

Ames responded:

"I'd die."

In Tyrone Power, Sr.'s last radio appearance, doing a scene from "The Ten Commandments," the veteran actor whispered into the microphone:

"I have not long to live."

Short Jabs: Sir Cedric Hardwicke, in mellow moments, addresses his wife as "Pixie" ... Mary Pickford is a roast-beef hash addict ... Jane Cowl wears the town's largest hats ... Evelyn Laye is a pajama-lounger ... Playwrights John Monks, Jr., and Fred Finklehoffe (they wrote "Brother Rat") have a house in Connecticut with 11 bedrooms—they've slept in all but two of them ... On rare occasions, Beth Leary wears jewels which were once the property of Lillian Russell ... J. B. Priestly insists he can turn out a good play in ten days ... Noel Coward says any play which requires more than six weeks of writing labor should be discarded—it will lack fire.

No weighing-down gloom can compare with that which descends upon my puniness every time I sit at the Casa Manana and watch the Stuart Morgan group. Three broad-shouldered, lithe-limbed stalwarts toss a handsome, frail lovely around like a tennis ball, if you can conceive a tennis ball with nice legs and arms.

Brieflets: Ace mystery-story concoction is Ellery Queen ... Ellery Queen is really two persons — Frederic Dennay and Manfred B. Lee ... Frederic Dennay and Manfred B. Lee, when they are not Ellery Queen, are Barnaby Ross, also mystery-story author ... Manhattan's best dressed night spot operator is Joe Moss of the International Casino ... Scudder Middleton, associate editor of Stage magazine, is a poet of note ... Irving Berlin, who has composed close to 300 original tunes, is a one-finger piano player during the throes of composition ... Pictures of every President of the United States since George Washington decorate the walls of the Tavern.

True Story: A titled Russian lady was employed until recently at the swank hat salon known as Klembrooke's. She was doing a bit of all right selling to debs and society matrons. And then she quit cold after completing a sale to a haughty matron who seemed to take pleasure in taking her time trying on dozens of hats before making a choice. The titled saleslady explained her resignation. "Fancy—that woman was once my servant!"

Ending the Recession

(Reprinted from the Paul Block newspapers.)

"No, I don't want any today." Six potent words, those ... multiply them sufficiently and they can exert an effect on the greatest business in the world. By buying or refusing to buy, the customer holds in his hands the fate of business, large and small.

Those six words have been heard more frequently of late. They stand today in the path of a rich and mighty people, who can and will move forward to prosperity when those words are no longer heard. Meanwhile, they have helped to create what are called "bad times," "a recession."

Are we so much worse off today than we were a year ago that the confidence which was so prevalent then must yield to fear now?

We do not believe so. And there is a sound reason for our belief.

The National Industrial Conference Board estimates that there were 42,998,000 persons employed in January. This is a decline of less than three and one-half per cent since January, 1937.

Nearly 43 million Americans are working, a tremendous number of employed. These people have work, they have pay envelopes, they have purchasing power.

Why, then, do they not exert this purchasing power which would bring about a more normal business situation? It is because they are afraid; they fear that, in the face of the recession, their pay envelopes may be reduced.

Feeling the pinch of this freezing-up of vast purchasing power, the man with something to sell comes to believe that it has ceased to exist. In his concern at declining business, he forgets that it does still exist. That it is only being held in check by the uncertainty of its possessors.

The manufacturer's problem and the merchant's problem thus is reduced to the question of how to tap this great reserve; how to put this force to work.

Many elements responsible for the uncertainty which holds up purchasing power today are beyond the control of the manufacturer and the merchant. But one mighty weapon he still holds. It is his ability to attract this purchasing power out of its shell. It is the force which advertising exerts on the potential consumer.

THE REPETITION OF A POWERFUL ADVERTISING MESSAGE CAN CONQUER UNCERTAINTY. It can be the dynamite which will blow up the log-jam of recession and release pent-up forces sufficient to sweep America to a measure of prosperity.

Potent as those six words, "No, I don't want any today," can always be, they can be stripped of their effectiveness. It is only necessary to create the desire to buy.

The power to buy exists. Advertising can create the will to buy. The means lie ready at hand. It only remains for those who have something for sale to take advantage of them, to put them into effect.

Yes, it will take courage, for those words "No, I don't want any today," may still be buzzing in your ear. But it can be done, and the trade from 43 million wage earners is worth fighting for.

PAUL BLOCK,
Publisher.

Human Side of the News

By Edwin C. Hill

RECONDITIONED cars glut the market, complicate production and finance in the industry, and cause a lag in the automotive progress. The same thing may happen in the human economy, or biology, rather, if that 172-year-old East Indian Yogi is successful in applying to others the rejuvenation processes which he says account for his own great age.

The Yogi is Tapsi Bishan Das Udasi. He is having a trial work-out on the 77-year-old Pandit Mohan Malaviya, political associate of Mahatma Gandhi. If he rejuvenates the Pandit, he will go to work on the Mahatma.

If the treatment is successful, it might give the Mahatma another hundred years or so to pry India loose from England. Rich Indians have volunteered to pay for rejuvenating the Mahatma, the cost of which might run anywhere from $2000 to $17,000.

Reading of the crew that searched with Ponce de Leon for the fountain of youth, one thinks it is just as well that they didn't find it. We could use the character and courage of Washington, or the humanism and spiritual insight of Lincoln, or the brilliant creative imagination of Jefferson. What we most greatly need these days in life is quality, rather than quantity.

The Yogi works with herbs. Could there be herbs that would contribute quality rather than quantity? That would seem to be more important than added years. The world rejoiced when Ghengis Khan died, and was saddened when young Shelley was drowned.

No swing music for the St. Patrick's Day parade up Fifth avenue. It is announced that the bands will play only sound Irish and American music, and that "no ragtime will be allowed." Swing seems to be making us a bit jittery, here and there, as did jazz 20 years ago.

In 1916, a famous Cleveland pastor said in his sermon:

"This infamous jungle music marks a return to savagery. It undermines decency and morals and is ruinously perversive of a sound culture. We should rally our lawmakers to defend us against it, as we expect them to defend us against the free distribution of a murderous drug."

At last accounts, there were courses on jazz in the musical curricula of 11 big eastern colleges. And nobody wants to lock up Paul Whiteman. Time, too, is a swingmaster, and we frequently find ourselves just where we were, after a long or short cycle.

I like that story of the educated cat which is attending the University of Rochester. He has learned a lot of geometry by associating symbols with food. He knows a triangle on a box means food. In other words, he's a star pupil when there's something in the kitty for the kitty.

On the opposite page is an unrelated story from Atlantic City, in which Harry E. Stone, prominent educator, says students taught to appreciate the higher things of life "find themselves in later years selling candy or plumbing supplies, or working for an itinerant photographer."

Possibly, two-legged undergraduates should, like the wise old Tom at Rochester, find symbols associated with food, and thereby become better students. They might eventually attain Tom's magnificent survival intelligence.

Did you ever notice how your house cat will always beat your dog to any little divider around the house—a morsel of food or a soft spot on the couch?

The class will now take up the planetary issue between survival intelligence and cultural intelligence.

The Political Parade

By George Rothwell Brown

WASHINGTON, March 15.

SECRETARY MORGENTHAU'S hint of increased income taxes, to make up the $41,000,000 annually he says will be lost as a result of the House knocking his hate clause out of the tax bill, is a barefaced fraud on the American people as they try—without a helping hand in Washington—to struggle out of today's panic.

The pending Executive Reorganization Bill in the Senate offers to the Administration a means for saving every year many times $41,000,000.

The Reorganization Bill in its present shape isn't going to save the harassed taxpayers of this country a thin dime.

It is not designed to save a nickel. Economy, the sole excuse for reorganization, does not enter into the politicians' calculations.

But Senator Byrd, of Virginia, whose committee had made a scientific study of possible retrenchments in the cost of Federal government, until that committee was given a lethal dose, and put to sleep, while a new political committee was created, has a plan in sound shape that would result in annual economies of $400,000,000.

One of the most amazing derelictions of Congress for the past five years has been its stubborn refusal to consider national problems as a whole.

Its system has been to pass one law at a time, with no regard to how it would fit into the general pattern.

The result is overwhelming confusion in the whole Federal setup, with a dozen conflicting policies pulling at cross-purposes.

There is still time for the Senate to reorganize the government for the benefit of the taxpayers, instead of for the benefit of the bureaucrats.

The debacle of the House leadership on the tax program has stimulated Senate demand for some real economies.

The two most tragic figures in the House of Representatives today are Speaker Bankhead and Leader Sam Rayburn.

When the extra session convened in mid-November—at a moment when the whole stricken nation looked to Congress for aid—a magnificent opportunity for service through courageous leadership was offered to them.

It is clear now, from the vigor with which the House repudiated the imbecility of the Ways and Means Committee, that Congress would have responded to real leadership.

For the fiasco on the tax legislation these two gentlemen have nobody to blame but themselves.

And make no mistake—that fiasco is one of the worst in the recent history of Congress.

If this repudiation had come to Oscar W. Underwood, on his Tariff Bill of 1913, that Alabama statesman would have resigned.

That is what the Democratic Ways and Means Committee should do.

It is vitally essential that the American people should deal with the mossbacks and timid politicians of this committee—there are a couple of exceptions—in no uncertain manner at the primaries.

Taxation from now on is going to be of paramount importance to this country.

The whole tariff structure is falling into calamitous ruin. It will have to be rebuilt before any real and permanent prosperity can return.

The present Ways and Means Committee is full of incompetents. It should get out, or be retired.

March of Events

By Benjamin DeCasseres

ALEXANDER KERENSKY, former prime minister of Russia right after the revolution of February, 1917, is now in the country lecturing on democracy.

Here is a man who, if he had defeated the Bolshevists when he marched on Petrograd after Lenin and his terrorists took hold, would have changed the whole course of world-history. For at the bottom of all our ills is the threat of Asiatic-Russian Communism.

It is the father of Fascism, current wars, starvation, terrorist activities and huge tax-consuming armaments.

Kerensky belonged to the group of toil party in Russia before the revolution, and during the revolution was something of a Socialistic Democrat.

The defeat of Kerensky's army by the Leninists is not listed anywhere as one of the "decisive battles of the world," but it was that, and maybe much more.

The downfall of Kerensky and the rise of Lenin and Trotsky were the turning points—BACKWARDS—of the modern age.

Some of our readers of "March of Events" have long and acute historical memories.

From "A. F." of Detroit this comes to me:

"If Hitler is not doing in Austria and is preparing to do in Czechoslovakia just what Theodore Roosevelt did down at Panama, I'll eat my shirt! Wasn't it Teddy who invented the modern method of taking over a country?"

Here are the facts:

The United States by treaty with the Republic of Colombia in 1846 secured transportation rights across the Isthmus of Panama.

In 1901 the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty gave the United States the right to build a canal and control it alone.

The Colombian Congress would not ratify the Hay-Herran Treaty of 1903 for the construction of a canal.

Then, suddenly, Panama declared its independence of Colombia. U. S. Marines prevented Colombia troops from suppressing the rebellion.

Meanwhile Washington had recognized the "Republic of Panama," which received $10,000,000 for ceding the canal zone to us.

In 1923 we paid Colombia $25,000,000 as "compensation" — some say "conscience balm."

Ethically, of course, the whole business looks "shady"—but that's the way things are done in this world, Anthony Edens to the contrary notwithstanding.

However, Mr. A. F. had better not "eat his shirt." If he pays taxes, Uncle Sam will do the eating.